§ 501.4 Action upon appeal. (a) Such Board shall dispose of all applications for review (1) by denying the application for insufficiency or incompleteness in failing to state a proper ground for review; (2) by decision upon the merits of the case; (3) by remanding the case to the Director of the Bureau of Employees' Compensation for completion of such action as the Board shall direct, as specified in paragraph (b) of this section; or (4) by permitting withdrawal of the application.

(b) The review by the Board of a case upon its merits shall be had upon the record made before such Director. If the Board should determine (1) that such record is incomplete, (2) that material facts have not been developed, (3) that mistake of fact may have occurred, (4) that further medical or other examination is necessary, (5) or that further inquiry should be made in respect to any undeveloped question of fact or law, the Board shall remand the case to such Director with a specific statement of the appearing deficiency for such further findings of fact and action as the case may require.

(c) The decision of the Board shall be contained in an order disposing of the application on one of the grounds specified in paragraph (a) of this section. In all cases in which the decision is upon the merits of the case, such order shall be supported and accompanied by a written opinion setting forth the reasons for the action taken. A copy of the order and opinion shall be sent to all parties in interest.

§ 501.5 Finality of decision; reconsideration. (a) The decision of the Board, if reconsideration by the Board is not granted, shall, subject to statutory right of review under the United States Employees' Compensation Act, be final upon the expiration of 30 days from the date of the filing of the order specified in § 501.4 (c), unless the Board shall in its order fix a different period of time.

(b) A petition for reconsideration timely filed may be granted in the discretion of the Board. Rehearing upon proper notice, if applied for, shall be granted in respect to any reconsideration of a decision by the Board.

§ 501.6 General provisions. (a) The Employees' Compensation Appeals Board shall sit in Washington, District of Columbia, but the Board is authorized to perform its work at any place deemed necessary.

(b) The Board shall maintain a docket of its cases, which docket shall be open to public inspection. The case record filed by the Director with the Board may be inspected by any party in interest, except that in any request for inspection the Board shall be the judge of the reasonableness thereof and may in its discretion permit inspection of such record or part thereof which in its opinion will not result in damage or harm to the appellant or to any person, or which will not be inimical to the interest of the United States. The Board shall publish its orders and opinions in such form as to be readily available for inspection, and shall allow public inspection thereof at the permanent location of the Board.

(c) The Chairman as administrative officer of the Board shall administer the affairs of the Board, and the Board shall be responsible to the Commissioner for Special Services of the Federal Security Agency for the proper discharge of its functions, duties, and powers.

(d) The decision of not less than two members of the Board, if in agreement, shall constitute the decision of the Board.

(e) Any notice or order required under these regulations to be given or served, may be served personally upon the person to whom directed, or sent to such person by registered mail.

§ 501.7 Representatives of parties in interest; fees. (a) An appellant and the Director of the Bureau of Employees' Compensation may be represented before the Board by any duly authorized person, including any accredited representative of an employee organization, and any attorney in good standing, admitted to the Bar of any State, Territory or other political jurisdiction. For good cause shown, the Board may, after opportunity to be heard and subject to the approval of the Administrator, bar any such representative from further appearance before the Board in the same or other proceeding.

(b) No claim for legal or other service rendered in respect to a proceeding before the Board to or on account of any person, shall be valid unless approved by the Board or by a member thereof. No contract for a stipulated fee or for a fee upon a contingent basis shall be recognized by the Board, and no fee for service shall be approved except upon an application to the Board supported by a sufficient statement of the extent and character of the necessary work done before the Board on behalf of the interested party. Except where the Board has been advised that such representation will be rendered gratuitously, the fee approved by the Board, or by a member thereof, shall be reasonably commensurate with the actual necessary work performed by such representative, taking into account the capacity in which the representative has appeared, the amount of the compensation involved, and the circumstances of the appellant.

Chapter VI—Solid Fuels Administration for War

DIRECTION TO SHIPPERS OF BITUMINOUS COAL TO TIDEWATER

Pursuant to the provisions of SFAW Regulation No. 1, as amended (8 F. R. 5832, 8 F. R. 16320, 10 F. R. 1724, 10 F. R. 13261), the following notice of direction is hereby issued:

1. Whenever any shipper is prohibited, by reason of an embargo on shipments to tidewater ports, from shipping to those ports, he shall forthwith rearrange his shipping schedule so as to—

(a) Upon receipt of orders from his all-rail retail dealer customers, supply such dealers, on a pro rata basis, with a tonnage of prepared sizes not less than the tonnage of such sizes he would have shipped to tidewater were he permitted to so ship. This tonnage shall be in addition to the monthly or bi-monthly tonnages he is required by Revised Regulation No. 32 to ship to such dealers during the period of the embargo against him, and

(b) Upon receipt of orders from his all-rail industrial and utility customers, supply such industrial and utility customers, on a pro rata basis, with a tonnage of industrial sizes not less than the tonnage of such sizes he would have shipped to tidewater were he permitted to so ship. This tonnage shall be in addition to all other tonnages he would be authorized to ship to such industrial and utility consumers under Revised Regulation No. 32 during the period of the embargo against him.

2. In making the shipments provided for in 1 (a) and 1 (b) above, preference in shipments shall be afforded to those retail dealers most deficient in shipments to date, and to those industrial and utility consumers having the lowest number of days' supply.

3. During the period of the embargo against him, the shipper shall restore the tonnages to the all-rail customer from whom any such tonnages were diverted by uncompleted specific SFAW directions to tidewater receivers. However, if any such tidewater receiver requests the continuance of shipments of the directed tonage by all-rail, such direction shall be completed all-rail. Upon the lifting of the embargo or upon the issuance of an Interstate Commerce Commission permit to ship to tidewater, shipments shall be resumed immediately in accordance with the terms of the previously issued specific direction.

4. Nothing herein shall be construed as modifying requirements as to lake shipments or as increasing the total tonnage which a retail dealer is permitted to receive during the year, or as modifying the shipper's obligation to industrial accounts, or utilities, except that adherence to the stock pile limitations is temporarily suspended during the period of the embargo where necessary to ship in accordance with this direction.

Words used in this notice of direction shall have the same meaning as they had in Regulation No. 27 (10 F. R. 2909).

This notice of direction shall take effect immediately and shall continue in force during such periods as shipments to tidewater are prohibited by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

2. However, for classes 9 to 13, inclusive, a special power of attorney naming a bank as attorney in fact, limited to a period not to exceed twelve months and reciting that it is not given to carry into effect an assignment of the right to receive the payment, either to the attorney in fact or to any other person, may also be used. Forms of powers of attorney are reproduced at the end of this part and are made a part hereof, together with identification of and descriptive information as to the classes of checks which may be negotiated under the various powers. Substantial compliance with these forms is sufficient. Powers of attorney are revoked by the death of the grantor and may also be revoked by notice from the grantor to the parties concerned. Notice of revocation to the Treasury will not ordinarily serve to revoke the power.

§ 360.6 Incompetent payees. Where the payee of a check of the classes listed in paragraph (b) of § 360.4 and others not covered in paragraph (a) of § 360.4 has been declared incompetent, the check should not be indorsed by a guardian or other fiduciary but, instead, should be returned to the drawer, or to the administrative office which authorized the issuance of the check, with information as to the incompetency of the payee and submission of documentary evidence showing the appointment of the guardian, in order that the particular check, and others to be issued subsequently, may be drawn in favor of the guardian. If a guardian has not been and will not be appointed the full circumstances should be stated.

Checks of the classes listed in paragraph (a) of § 360.4 indorsed by a guardian or other fiduciary and presented for payment by a bank will be paid by the Treasurer without the submission to the Treasurer of documentary proof of the authority of the guardian or other fiduciary. If a guardian has not been and will not be appointed, the check should be forwarded for advice to the Treasurer of the United States, Accounting Division, Washington 25, D. C.

§ 360.7 Minor payees. (a) Where the payee of a check is a minor, his indorsement is acceptable provided the minor is of sufficient age and competency to understand the act of indorsing and giving receipt.

(b) Otherwise, the check should be indorsed by a duly authorized legal representative of the payee's estate or if none has been appointed the check should be returned to the drawer with a view to issuance of a check in the name of the person qualified to act for the minor.

(c) However, checks in payment of interest on or principal of public debt obligations or obligations guaranteed by the United States may be indorsed by either parent with whom the minor resides or, if the minor does not reside with either parent, by the person who furnishes his chief support. In the cases covered by the preceding sentence a statement should be obtained from the parent or other person indorsing in behalf of the minor, giving the minor's age and setting out the fact that the payee either resides with the parent or receives his chief support from the person indorsing in his behalf and that the proceeds of the check will be used for the benefit of the minor, which statement should accompany the check.

§ 360.8 Change of address. Every person receiving checks periodically should see that the appropriate administrative office is informed of his correct address, as failure so to notify the administrative office may result in delivery of a check to a wrong address. If doubt exists as to the office to be notified, the change of address should be sent to the drawer of the checks, with information as to the purpose for which the checks are issued. The request for change of address should always describe the character of the checks received, give the name and former address of the payee, the new address, and the payee's identification number, if one has been assigned. The request should be signed by the payee of the checks.

§ 360.9 Limitation of time for payment. (a) After the expiration of one year following the close of the fiscal year (ending June 30) in which they are drawn, checks drawn on the Treasurer of the United States (including checks payable through designated Federal Reserve Banks) are not payable by him but should be transmitted to the Secretary of the Treasury, Division of Disbursement, for payment from the "Outstanding Liabilities" appropriation, accompanied by a request for payment over the signature and address of the owner of such checks.

(b) The one-year restriction does not apply to checks issued on account of public debt obligations and checks issued on account of transactions regarding the administration of banking and currency laws.

§ 360.10 General provisions. The provisions of Part 201 of this chapter are hereby superseded. Further regulations concerning the payment of checks by the Treasurer are contained in Part 202 of this chapter, § 202.25 of which prescribes the procedure for handling of checks by Federal Reserve Banks. The Secretary of the Treasury may waive, withdraw, or amend at any time or from time to time any or all of the provisions of this part.

[SEAL] JOHN D. SNYDER,
Secretary of the Treasury.

Form P. D. 1036—A power of attorney on this form may be used for checks in payment of interest on or principal of securities registered on the books of the Treasury Department. (Form 6569 may also be used for this purpose.)

Chapter XVIII—Office of War Mobilization and Reconversion, Office of Economic Stabilization

MAINTENANCE OF NATURAL RUBBER SALES PRICE

The Reconstruction Finance Corporation, acting through the Office of Rubber Reserve, has recently procured a quantity of natural rubber at an increased cost. At the present time the Reconstruction Finance Corporation has a substantial inventory of natural rubber purchased at the previously prevailing lower price. In addition, pursuant to section 6 (a) (1) of the Price Control Extension Act of 1946, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation is authorized to subsidize purchases of natural rubber produced in Latin America and Africa and substantial deliveries under contracts already made are expected from this source. The present inventory plus deliveries expected under Congressionally approved subsidy arrangements are sufficient to satisfy all anticipated sales to domestic consumers for the balance of 1946. For these reasons the increased cost of procurement of natural rubber referred to above need not be reflected in the sales price to domestic consumers until after existing inventory and further deliveries under subsidized contracts have been disposed of, a point which will not be reached before January 1, 1947.

Accordingly, pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended, and by Executive Order 9250 of October 3, 1942 (7 F.R. 7871), Executive Order 9328 of April 8, 1943 (8 F. R. 4681), Executive Order 9599 of August 18, 1945 (10 F. R. 10155), Executive Order 9651 of October 30, 1945 (10 F. R. 13487), Executive Order 9697 of February 14, 1946 (11 F. R. 1691), Executive Order 9699 of February 21, 1946 (11 F. R. 1929), and Executive Order 9762 of July 25, 1946 (11 F. R. 8073), I hereby authorize and direct the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to maintain the sales price for natural rubber at 22.5 cents per pound until January 1, 1947.

Issued and effective this 5th day of September 1946.

JOHN R. STEELMAN,
Director of War Mobilization and Reconversion Director, Office of Economic Stabilization.

[Reg. 7, Amdt. 4]

PART 7007—STRIPPER WELL COMPENSATORY ADJUSTMENTS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Section 7007.1 Definitions as amended, is hereby further amended by adding the following new paragraphs (i) and (j):

(i) "Posted purchase price" means, with respect to crude produced from a designated area, the price per barrel (exclusive of premium) which the Applicant has paid or offered to pay at the receiving tank for crude produced from such designated area.

(j) "Premium rate" means, with respect to crude produced from a designated area, the excess of the amount appearing opposite such designated area listed in Schedule A over the larger of the following:

(1) Twenty-five (25) cents; or

(2) The amount by which the applicant's highest posted purchase price, in effect on or after August 20, 1946, for crude produced from such designated area exceeds the basic maximum price; except that, for the period August 1 through 19, 1946, only, the amount of this subparagraph shall be the amount by which the applicant's posted purchase price, in effect on the date of purchase, for crude produced from such designated area exceeds the basic maximum price therefor.

Section 7007.5, Amount of claims, as amended, is hereby further amended by changing paragraphs (a) and (b) to read as follows:

(a) A claim with respect to the purchase of crude produced from any designated area shall be in an amount equal to the number of barrels of such crude purchased and paid for multiplied by the excess, if any, by which the amount per barrel paid for such crude exceeds the larger of the following:

(1) The basic maximum price therefor plus twenty-five (25) cents, or

(2) The applicant's highest posted purchase price, in effect on or after August 20, 1946, for such crude; except that, for the period August 1 through 19, 1946, only, the amount of this subparagraph shall be the applicant's posted purchase price in effect on the date of purchase;

Provided, however, That such claim shall in no event be greater than an amount equal to the number of barrels of such crude purchased and paid for, multiplied by the applicant's premium rate for such crude. Crude for which an applicant is prohibited from paying the purchase price in whole or in part because of inability on the part of applicant to determine the legal owner or owners, or by reason of other legal prohibitions, shall be deemed to have been paid for when there has been recorded in applicant's books a suspense or other account reflecting a liability on the part of applicant for such purchase price which applicant will ultimately pay to the party or parties legally entitled thereto.

(b) A claim with respect to crude produced in any designated area and not sold, but refined or consumed by the applicant, shall be in an amount equal to the number of barrels of such crude run by the applicant from the receiving tank, multiplied by the applicant's premium rate for crude produced from such designated area. The number of barrels shall be calculated after such corrections for temperature, basic sediment, water, etc., as are customary in arriving at volumes of crude purchased in the designated area.

This Amendment No. 4 shall be effective as of August 1, 1946.

Issued this 29th day of August 1946.

ARTICLE VII—GENERAL PROVISIONS

14. Invoices to purchasers for resale.
15. Relation between this order and other orders and regulations.
16. Delegation of authority.

ARTICLE I—INTRODUCTORY PROVISIONS

SECTION 1. Purposes of this order. As a result of material shortages and direct cost increases during the war period, low and medium priced furniture has disappeared from the market to a substantial degree; and production of furniture has been concentrated on the higher priced brackets of individual manufacturers' price lines. The purpose of Executive Orders Nos. 9250, 9328, 9599, and 9651 encompass the maintenance of stability both in prices and in price lines. The Price Administrator is satisfied that the price increases on sales of each manufacturers' low and medium priced furniture items permitted by this order will generally remove price impediments to the production of such articles. As a consequence, no increase in the cost of living will occur since production in lower-priced lines will enable consumers to buy less expensive furniture, (even though at prices higher for comparable articles in some cases than they paid in March 1942), instead of being limited as at present, to offerings in the higher-priced lines only. At the same time, manufacturers whose production by price lines has become distorted during the war, will be enabled to resume production in a normal balance of price lines.

SEC. 2 What this order covers. (a) This order covers articles of wood household furniture, including upholstered furniture, and any other article listed in Appendix A, or belonging in catgories listed in Appendix B or C, with the exception of any article whose maximum price was established under Order No. 4332 or Revised Order No. 4332, under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 and certain articles listed in paragraph (b) of this section. As used in this order the term "household furniture" means furniture which is primarily designed for and used in homes. Articles of this type are covered even though they are sold for use in places other than household, such as hotels, clubs, institutions, and ships. "Household furniture" includes:

Dining room furniture.
Bedroom furniture (including wood and fabric folding cots).
Cedar chests.
Kitchen furniture.
Porch and outdoor furniture.
Juvenile furniture (including cribs, high chairs, bassinettes, bathinettes, play pens, porch and stair gates, and infants' toilet seats).
Dining room, dinette, breakfast room, and kitchen chair frames.
Bedroom chair and bench frames.
Frames for upholstered furniture.
Unfinished furniture which is ultimately sold to the consumer in that form.
Assembled wood household furniture parts.

(b) This order does not cover the following articles unless they are specifically listed in Appendix A, B, or C:

(1) Articles of bedding (such as springs and mattresses).

(2) Dual-purpose sleeping equipment (such as studio couches, sofa beds, davenport beds, and chair beds).

(3) Articles which are made in part of wood but which are made predominantly out of metal, glass, paper, plastics, paper fibres, rattan, peel, reed, or other fibres.

(4) Sand boxes and other articles for infants' amusement.

(5) Housewares (such as step-ladders, stool-ladders, ironing boards, towel stands or bars, clothes driers, hat and shoe racks, medicine and toilet cabinets).

(6) Miscellaneous furnishings (such as costumers, screens, and venetian blinds).

(7) Furniture and equipment for offices, stores, restaurants, commercial and industrial uses.

(8) Public seating furniture (such as opera, theatre, or auditorium seats, bus seats, passenger cars, and pedestal chairs).

The word "you" as used in this order means a manufacturer who makes a sale or delivery of an article covered by this order to a purchaser for resale, to another manufacturer, or to an ultimate consumer other than a household consumer. No adjustment of maximum prices on sales by a manufacturer to household consumers is authorized.

[Above paragraph amended by Am. 2, 11 F.R. 5036, effective 5–13–46 and Am. 3, effective 9–11–46]

SEC. 3. What this order does. This order provides two methods by which you may adjust your maximum prices for sales of most of the articles covered by this order. The first applies only to "essential low-end" articles and is set forth in section 4. The second applies to certain categories of all articles covered by this order, and is set forth in section 5 (for all-wood furniture) and section 6 (for upholstered furniture). Under this method you first divide each of your categories of articles (listed in Appendix B and C) into three price brackets, called "low bracket," "medium bracket," and "high bracket." A different percentage amount of adjustment is provided for each bracket. In addition, the maximum prices for articles covered by this order which are not eligible for adjustment under sections 4, 5, or 6, may be adjusted by the same amount as was originally provided in Order No. 1052 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

This order replaces Order No. 1052 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, which is being revoked simultaneously with the issuance of this order.

ARTICLE II—"ESSENTIAL LOW-END" ADJUSTMENTS

SEC. 4. Adjustments for manufacturers of certain "essential low-end" articles. (a) Appendix A to this order contains a list of furniture articles together with a dollar-and-cents "cut-off point" for each type of article. All articles having properly established maximum prices (exclusive of all adjustment charges) which are below the appropriate cut-off point are called "essential low-end" articles in this order. The dollar-and-cent cut-off points listed in Appendix A are for sales to that class of retailer to whom you customarily sell at the highest price. To find the appropriate cut-off points for sales to each other class of purchaser you shall apply to the listed cut-off points your customary discounts and differentials on sales to that class of purchaser. If you cannot find your appropriate cut-off point in this way because you do not sell to retailers, your cut-off point on sales to the class of wholesalers to whom you customarily sell at the highest price is 13% less than the cut-off point listed in Appendix A. If you do not have customary or established uniform differentials but, nevertheless, during March 1942 delivered or offered for delivery articles listed in Appendix A to both retailers and wholesalers, your cut-off point to the class of wholesalers to whom you customarily sell at the highest price is 13 per cent less than the cut-off point listed in Appendix A. If you customarily sell your articles to other manufacturers, and do not have any customary or established uniform differentials to use in finding the appropriate cut-off point for sales to other manufacturers, your cut-off point to that class of purchasers is 13% less than the cut-off point listed in Appendix A.

[2] Opinions are also issued simultaneously with amendments. Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[Paragraph (a) amended by Am. 1, 11 F.R. 1324, effective 1-31-46 and Am. 2, 11 F.R. 5036, effective 5-13-46]

(b) You may increase your maximum price (exclusive of all adjustment charges) for an essential low-end article by 25% of that maximum price, or the amount necessary to bring that maximum price up to the appropriate cut-off point, whichever is lower. No maximum price adjusted under this section may exceed the appropriate cut-off point as found under paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) In the case of bedroom furniture (suites) and dining-room furniture (suites), the amount of adjustment applicable to individual pieces in a suite or matching grouping depends on whether the grouping has more than one model of any type of major piece, and, if so, on the prices of those major pieces. Wherever this paragraph (c) refers to "combination of three types of major pieces," such a combination of dining-room pieces must include the following types of major pieces; a table, a set of six chairs, and one of the following: buffet (at least 60" in length) or china cabinet. Such a combination of bedroom furniture must include the following types of major pieces: a bed and two of the following: dresser vanity, chest, robe. The amounts of adjustment are determined as follows:

(1) If the particular suite or grouping has only one model of each type of major piece, then the maximum price (exclusive of all adjustment charges) of every piece in the grouping (whether or not it is a major piece) may be adjusted by the percentage amount applicable to the lowest-priced "combination of any three types of major pieces."

(2) If the particular suite or grouping has more than one model of any type of major piece, but all possible "combinations of any three types of major pieces" in the grouping have combined maximum prices (exclusive of all adjustment charges) which are so far below the appropriate cut-off point that they may be increased by 25 per cent then the maximum price of every article in the grouping (whether or not it is a major piece) may be increased by that 25 per cent.

(3) If the particular suite or grouping has more than one model of any type of major piece and the provisions of subparagraph (2) are not applicable, you find your adjusted maximum prices for all articles in the grouping by taking the following steps:

Step 1: Find the combined maximum price (exclusive of all adjustment charges) of the lowest-priced "combination of three types of major pieces" in the grouping.

Step 2: Find the percentage amount of adjustment applicable to that lowest-priced combination. This will be 25 per cent or the percentage amount necessary to bring that combined maximum price up to the appropriate cut-off point, whichever is lower.

Step 3: Your adjusted maximum price for the lowest-priced model of each type of major piece and for each piece in the grouping which is not a major piece is its properly established maximum price (exclusive of all adjustment charges) increased by the percentage amount found in Step 2.

Your adjusted maximum price for any higher-priced model of each type of major piece is found by adding to its properly established maximum price (exclusive of all adjustment charges), the dollar-and-cent amount by which you increased the properly established maximum price of the lowest-priced model of the same type.

[Paragraph (c) added and former (c) redesignated as (d) by Am. 1, 11 F.R. 1324, effective 1-31-46]

(d) You may adjust your maximum price for an essential low-end article under section 5 or 6, instead of under this section, if the amount of the adjustment permitted under section 5 or 6 results in an adjusted maximum price higher than the appropriate cut-off point.

ARTICLE III—"PRICE BRACKET" ADJUSTMENTS

SEC. 5. "Price-bracket" adjustments for manufacturers of all-wood furniture. This section provides a method by which manufacturers of "all-wood furniture" articles may adjust their maximum prices for all articles belonging in the categories listed in Appendix B. If some of the articles which you manufacture are also essential low-end articles (as defined in section 4) you may adjust your maximum prices for those articles under section 4 instead of under this section. For the purposes of this order, "all-wood furniture" means articles of wood household furniture made predominantly of wood as well as wood and fabric folding furniture, including also those partially upholstered articles of wood household furniture to which is applied not more than one-half yard of 54 inch upholstery fabric or its equivalent.

[Undesignated paragraph deleted by Am. 3, effective 9-11-46]

(a) How you proceed with regard to a category which was in your line during March 1942. (1) For each category listed in Appendix B in which you delivered or offered for delivery articles during March 1942, you divide your price line into three brackets in the following manner:

Step 1. List each article (including "essential low-end" articles) which you delivered or offered for delivery during March 1942, whether or not it has been exempted from price control, and opposite it list your "highest price charged during March 1942" (as defined in § 1499.163 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188) to the class of purchaser to which you customarily sold articles in that category in largest dollar volume. The price which you list for an article of all-wood household furniture having no upholstery shall be for the article in your lowest priced finish. The price which you list for an article of all-wood household furniture which is partially upholstered shall be for the article in your lowest priced finish and covered with your "base grade" fabric. Your "base grade" fabric is the lowest cost fabric in which you offered the article in March 1942. (If you did not furnish cover fabrics, your "base grade" is muslin or the customer's own material whichever price is lower). List the articles in order from the lowest priced to the highest priced article. If more than one article in the category has the same price, list that price only once.

If you had some articles in that category during March 1942 which you delivered or offered for delivery only to classes of purchasers other than your largest volume class of purchaser, and if you cannot determine the "highest price charged during March 1942" for those articles to your largest volume class of purchaser because you do not have customary or established differentials between those classes of purchasers, list for those articles the highest price charged during March 1942 to any other class of purchaser except ultimate household consumers.

Step 2. Count the number of price listings and divide that total by three, carrying the result to one decimal place and rounding it to the nearest whole number. This whole number represents the number of price listings which fall into each of the "low" and "medium" brackets of your March 1942 line.

Step 3. Your "low bracket" consists of those price listings at the beginning of your list not exceeding the number of price listings obtained through the calculation described in Step 2. The last listed price appearing in your "low bracket" is your "low-bracket cut-off point." Your "medium bracket" consists of an equal number of price listings immediately following the low bracket cut-off point. The last listed price in the medium bracket is your "medium bracket cut-off point." Your "high bracket" consists of all the articles in the list immediately following the medium bracket cut-off point.

In each case this cut-off point is the cut-off point applicable on sales to your largest volume class of purchaser. The cut-off point applicable on sales to each other class of purchaser is found by applying to that cut-off point your customary or established differentials on sales to each other class of purchaser. If you do not have such differentials, but nevertheless, during March 1942, delivered or offered for delivery articles in that category to other classes of purchasers, the cut-off point applicable on sales to your largest volume class of purchaser is also applicable on sales to all other classes of purchasers.

[Subparagraph (1) amended by Am. 3, effective 9-11-46]

(2) Any article in a particular category having a properly established maximum price (exclusive of all adjustment charges at or below your low bracket cut-off point shall be considered a low bracket article. Any article in a particular category having a maximum price (exclusive of all adjustment charges) above your low bracket cut-off point, but not above your medium bracket cut-off point shall be considered a medium bracket article. All other articles in a particular category are your high bracket articles. This applies to all articles on which you have properly established maximum prices even though those articles were not in your line during March 1942. The percentage amount of adjustment applicable to articles in each bracket is set forth below in paragraph (c) of this section.

(3) If you have only two listings in a particular category, you will have only two brackets—a medium bracket and a high bracket. Your medium bracket cut-off point for sales of articles in that category to your largest volume class of purchaser is the lower of the two prices listed Any article in the category for which you have a maximum price (exclusive of all adjustment charges) at or below that cut-off point shall be considered a medium bracket article. Any article in that category for which you have a maximum price (exclusive of all adjustment charges) higher than that cut-off point shall be considered a high bracket article.

If you have only one listing in a particular category, any article having a maximum price to your largest volume class of purchaser (exclusive of all adjustment charges) at or above that price shall be considered a high bracket article; and any article having a maximum price to your largest volume class of purchaser (exclusive of all adjustment charges) lower than that price shall be considered a medium bracket article.

EXAMPLE OF HOW A MANUFACTURER FINDS HIS PRICE BRACKETS FOR ALL-WOOD FURNITURE

If a manufacturer delivered or offered for delivery the following wood beds during March 1942 to retailers (which was his largest volume class of purchaser) he determines his price brackets and cut-off points for that category as follows:

CATEGORY 1, WOOD BEDS

Item No.:	Highest price charged to retailers during March 1942
Low bracket:
234	15.50
Medium bracket:
237	16.75
238	17.50
High bracket:

The total number of items in this listing is seven. Seven divided by three equals 2.3 which is rounded to 2. Therefore, the first two items listed represent the manufacturer's "low bracket"; the next two items are his "medium bracket"; and the last three items are his "high bracket." His low bracket cut-off point on sales to retailers is $15.50; his medium bracket cut-off point on sales to retailers is $17.50. If this manufacturer customarily gave all wholesalers a discount of 20% off his price to retailers, he finds the appropriate cut-off point for each bracket on sales to wholesalers by deducting that discount from his cut-off point on sales to retailers.

Any wood bed for which this manufacturer has a maximum price to retailers of $15.50 or less is a "low bracket" article, and he may increase its maximum price by 18% as provided in paragraph (c) of this section. Any wood bed for which he has a maximum price to retailers above $15.50 but not above $17.50 is a "medium bracket" article and he may increase its maximum price by 11½% as provided in paragraph (c) of this section. Any wood bed for which he has a maximum price to retailers above $17.50 is a "high bracket" article and he may add to his maximum price the same 5% which was originally authorized by Order No. 1052 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, as provided in paragraph (c) of this section. In each case the maximum price to be increased by the stated percentage is the maximum price exclusive of all adjustment charges.

(b) How you proceed with regard to a category which you introduced after March 1942 and before December 28, 1945. For each category listed in Appendix B in which you did not deliver or offer for delivery articles during March 1942 but in which you had maximum prices established before December 28, 1945, you proceed as follows:

(1) Your cut-off point for that category is the lowest maximum price (exclusive of all adjustment charges) for any article in that category established before December 28, 1945.

(2) Any article in the particular category having a maximum price (exclusive of all adjustment charges) lower than that cut-off point is a "medium bracket" article.

(3) Any article in the particular category having a maximum price (exclusive of all adjustment charges) at or above that cut-off point is a "high bracket" article.

The result of the foregoing provisions is that every article in a category under this section 5(b) whose maximum price was properly established prior to December 28, 1945, (the issuance date of this order) is a high bracket article. You will have a medium bracket article in those categories only when you establish a maximum price for an article belonging in one of those categories which is lower than any maximum price established before December 28, 1945 for an article in the particular category.

[Paragraph (b) amended and (c) added by Am. 3, effective 9-11-46]

(c) How you proceed with regard to a category which was not in your line before December 28, 1945. Every article in a category listed in Appendix B which (category) was not in your line before December 28, 1945 is a high bracket article.

(d) How to find the adjusted maximum prices for certain sets of suites. You will use the rule in this paragraph to find your adjusted maximum price for a set or suite only if your maximum price for the particular set or suite is different from the total of the maximum prices of the individual pieces in the set or suite. To find your adjusted maximum price for such a set or suite, you use the following steps:

Step 1. Find the adjusted maximum prices under paragraph (c) above for the individual pieces in the set or suite, and the total of those prices.

Step 2. Find the total of the properly established maximum prices, exclusive of all permitted increases, for the individual pieces in the set or suite.

Step 3. Find the percentage amount by which the total obtained in Step 1 exceeds the total obtained in Step 2. The resulting figure is the per entage amount of adjustment which you may apply to your properly established maximum price (exclusive of all permitted increases) for the set or suite.

[Paragraph (d) added by Am. 2, 11 F.R. 5036, effective 5-13-46]

(e) The amount of the adjustment permitted by paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section may be revised by an order under this paragraph (e) in the case of a particular manufacturer when it appears that his maximum prices as otherwise adjusted under those paragraphs are not in line with the general level of adjusted maximum prices adjusted under this order for other manufacturers of comparable articles. Such a revision will establish adjusted maximum prices or a method of determining adjusted maximum prices which are in line with that general level.

[Paragraph (e) added by Am. 3, effective 9-11-46]

(f) Percentage amount of adjustment in each bracket. You may increase your maximum price (exclusive of any adjustment charges) for sales to all classes of purchasers other than household consumers of an article of all-wood furniture belonging in a category listed in Appendix B by the appropriate one of the following percentages:

	Percent
Low bracket articles	18
Medium bracket articles	11½
High bracket articles	5

For this purpose "maximum price" means the maximum price properly determined under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 after all trade, quantity, and other discounts (except cash discounts) have been deducted. If you have a customary or established dollar-and-cent differential for the same article in different finishes (not species of wood) hardwares, sizes or packing, or in the case of chairs in different types of seats (for example, all wood seats, slip seats, etc.) or in the case of partially upholstered furniture in different grades of cover fabric, the maximum price to which you apply the percentage permitted by this paragraph is your maximum price for the article in its lowest priced condition. Your customary or established differentials may then be added to the maximum price so adjusted. However, if you continue to adjust all of your maximum prices by no more than the 5 percent previously authorized by Order No. 1052 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, you may continue to compute your adjusted maximum prices in the manner provided by that order prior to its revocation, without regard to any contrary provisions contained in this section.

In figuring the amount by which you may increase your maximum price, fractions may be rounded to the nearest cent.

[Paragraph (f), formerly (c), amended by Am. 2, 11 F. R. 5036, effective 5–13–46; redesignated and amended by Am. 3, effective 9–11–46]

SEC. 6. "Price-bracket" adjustments for manufacturers of upholstered furniture. This section provides a method by which manufacturers of "upholstered furniture" may adjust their maximum prices for all articles belonging in the categories listed in Appendix C. If some of the articles which you manufacture are also essential low-end articles (as defined in section 4) you may adjust your maximum prices for those articles under section 4 instead of this section. For the purposes of this order, "upholstered furniture" means articles of household furniture which consist of a frame made predominantly of wood, filling material (with or without steel spring construction, and a fabric covering or more than one-half yard of 54-inch upholstery fabric or its equivalent.

The method provided by this section requires that you divide each of your categories of articles listed in Appendix C into three price brackets. That division is based on two separate computations—one involving your maximum prices for the articles in base grade and the other involving your customary grades of upholstery fabric.

(a) How you proceed with regard to a category which was in your line during March 1942—(1) Computations involving maximum prices in base grade. For each category listed in Appendix C which you delivered or offered for delivery during March 1942, you divide your price line into three brackets in the following way:

Step 1. List each article (including "essential low-end" articles) which you delivered or offered for delivery during March 1942 whether or not it has been exempted from price control, and opposite it list your "highest price charged during March 1942" (as defined in § 1499.163 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188) to the class of purchaser to which you customarily sold articles in that category in the largest dollar volume. The price which you list shall be for the article covered with your "base grade" fabric exclusive of all tailoring extras (such as special types of edging, etc.) and in your lowest priced upholstery construction. Your "base grade" fabric is the lowest cost fabric in which you offered the article in March 1942. (If you did not furnish cover fabrics, your "base grade" is muslin or the customer's own material, whichever price is lower.) List the articles in order from the lowest priced to the highest priced article. If more than one article in the category has the same price, list that price only once.

If you had some articles in that category during March 1942 which you delivered or offered for delivery only to classes of purchasers other than your largest volume class of purchaser, and if you cannot determine the "highest price charged during March 1942" for those articles to your largest volume class of purchaser because you do not have customary or established differentials between those classes of purchasers, list for those articles the highest price charged during March 1942 to any other class of purchaser except ultimate consumers.

Step 2. Count the number of price listings, and divide that total by three, carrying the result to the one decimal place and rounding it to the nearest whole number. Your "base grade low-bracket" consists of those price listings at the beginning of your list not exceeding the number of articles obtained through this calculation. Your "base grade medium bracket" consists of an equal number of price listings immediately following the low bracket cut-off point.

[Subparagraph (1) amended by Am. 3, effective 9–11–46]

(2) Computation involving your customary grades of upholstery fabric. If during March 1942 you delivered or offered for delivery articles in a category covered with various grades of upholstery fabric, you find your "category fabric" for that category in the following way:

Step 1. List each grade of fabric in which you offered these articles during March 1942 from the lowest cost grade to the "highest cost grade". For this purpose, your "highest cost grade" is the highest cost grade of fabric which you actually applied on articles of that category which you delivered during the period from March 1, 1942, to July 31, 1942.

Step 2. Count the number of fabric grades listed and divide that total by three, carrying the result to one decimal place and rounding it to the nearest whole number. Count down on your fabric grade list that number of grades. Your "category fabric grade" is that last counted fabric grade or that grade of fabric in your line representing a cost bracket which includes $1.00 per yard of 54" fabric, whichever is higher.

[Step 2 amended by Am. 2, 11 F.R. 5036, effective 5–13–46]

(3) How to find your "low bracket" and your "medium bracket" cut-off points. (i) If, during March 1942, you delivered or offered for delivery in a category articles covered with various grades of upholstery fabric your cut-off points are the following:

Your "low bracket cut-off point" for the category is the "highest price charged during March 1942" (as defined in Section 1499.163 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188) for the highest priced article in your "base grade low bracket" when covered with your "category fabric grade".

Your "medium bracket cut-off point" for the category is the "highest price charged during March 1942" (as defined in Section 1499.163 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188) for the highest priced article in your "base grade medium bracket" when covered with your "category fabric grade".

(ii) If, during March 1942, you delivered or offered for delivery in a category only articles covered with your "base grade" fabric (which may be muslin or your customer's own material) your cut-off points are the following:

Your "low bracket cut-off point" for the category is the last listed price in your "base grade low bracket".

Your "medium bracket cut-off point" for the category is the last listed price in your "base grade medium bracket".

(iii) In each case this cut-off point is the cut-off point applicable on sales to your largest volume class of purchaser. The cut-off point applicable on sales to each other class of purchaser is found by applying to that cut-off point your customary or established differentials on sales to each other class of purchaser. If you do not have such differentials, but nevertheless, during March 1942 delivered or offered for delivery articles in that category to other classes of purchasers, the cut-off point applicable on sales to your largest volume class of purchaser is also applicable on sales to all other classes of purchasers.

(4) Any article in a particular category having a properly established maximum price (exclusive of all adjustment charges) at or below your low bracket cut-off point shall be considered a low bracket article. Any article in a particular category having a maximum price (exclusive of all adjustment charges) above your low bracket cut-off point but not above your medium bracket cut-off point shall be considered a medium bracket article. All other articles in the particular category are your high bracket articles. This applies to all articles on which you have properly established maximum prices even though those articles were not in your line during March 1942. The percentage amount of adjustment applicable to articles in each bracket is set forth below in paragraph (c) of this section.

(5) If you have only two base grade listings in a particular category, you will have only two brackets—a medium bracket and a high bracket. If, during March 1942, you delivered or offered for delivery in the category articles covered with various grades of upholstery fabric your "medium bracket cut-off point" is the "highest price charged during March 1942" for the lower-priced of the two articles when covered with your "category fabric grade." If, during March 1942, you delivered or offered for delivery in the category only articles covered with your "base grade" fabric your "medium bracket cut-off point" is the lower of the two prices listed. Any article in that category for which you have a maximum price (exclusive of all adjustment charges) at or below that cut-off point shall be considered a medium bracket article. Any article in that category for which you have a maximum price (exclusive of all adjustment charges) above that cut-off point shall be considered a high bracket article.

If you have only one base grade listing in a particular category, and during March 1942 you delivered or offered for delivery in that category articles covered with various grades of upholstery fabric, any article having a maximum price to your largest volume class of purchaser (exclusive of all adjustment charges) at or above the "highest price charged during March 1942" for that article when covered with your "category fabric grade" shall be considered a high bracket article; and any article having a maximum price to that class of purchaser (exclusive of all adjustment charges) lower than that price shall be considered a medium bracket article.

If you have only one base grade listing in a particular category, and during March 1942 you delivered or offered for delivery in that category only articles covered with your "base grade" fabric, any article having a maximum price to your largest volume class of purchaser (exclusive of all adjustment charges) at or above the listed price shall be considered a high bracket article; and any article having a maximum price to that class of purchaser (exclusive of all adjustment charges) lower than the listed price shall be considered a medium bracket article.

EXAMPLE OF HOW A MANUFACTURER FINDS HIS PRICE BRACKETS FOR UPHOLSTERED FURNITURE

If a manufacturer delivered or offered for delivery the following occasional chairs in the following fabric grades during March 1942 to retailers (which was his largest volume class of purchaser), he determines his price brackets and cut-off points for that category as follows:

CATEGORY 65, OCCASIONAL CHAIRS

Item	Base grade
110	$9.00	$11.25	$13.50	$15.75	$18.00

LISTING OF FABRICS

Grade:	Cost per yard
A (base grade)—up to	$0.50
B—$0.50 and up to	.75
C—$0.75 and up to	1.00
D—$1.00 and up to	1.25
E—$1.25 and up to	1.50
F—$1.50 and up to	1.75
G—$1.75 and up to	2.00
H—$2.00 and up to	2.25
I—$2.25 and up to	[1] 2.50

[1] Highest cost fabric grade actually applied to occasional chairs delivered during the period from March 1, 1942 to July 31, 1942.

There are eight articles listed in base grade (grade A). Eight divided by 3 equals 2.7 which is rounded to 3. Therefore, the first three items listed represent his "base grade low bracket," the next three are his "base garde medium bracket." The highest priced article in his "base grade low bracket" is Item 112 at $11.25; the highest priced article in his "base grade medium bracket" is Item 115 at $14.25.

The total number of fabric grades in this listing is nine; nine divided by three equals three; therefore, the manufacturer's "cataegory fabric grade" is the third grade listed or Grade C.

The manufacturer's low bracket cut-off point is the highest price he charged in March 1942 for Item 112 when covered with Grade C fabric; that is, $15.75. The manufacturer's medium bracket cut-off point is the highest price he charged in March 1942 for Item 115 in Grade C fabric; that is, $18.75. Any occasional chair for which this manufacturer has a maximum price to retailers of $15.75 or less is a "low bracket" article and he may increase its maximum price to retailers by 12 per cent as provided in paragraph (c) of this section. Any occasional chair for which he has a maximum price to retailers above $15.75, but not above $18.75, is a "medium bracket" article and he my increase its maximum price by 9 per cent as provided in paragraph (c) of this section. Any occasional chair for which he has an approved maximum price to retailers above $18.75 is a "high bracket" article and he may add to its maximum price the same 5 per cent which was originally authorized by Order No. 1052 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 as provided in paragraph (c) of this section.

(b) How you proceed with regard to a category which you introduced after March 1942 and before December 28, 1945. For each category listed in Appendix C in which you did not deliver or offer for delivery articles during March 1942, but in which you had maximum prices established before December 28, 1945, you proceed as follows:

(1) Your cut-off point for that category is the lowest maximum price (exclusive of all adjustment charges) established before December 28, 1945 for any article in that category in the lowest priced cover fabric in which you actually delivered the article. (If you do not furnish cover fabrics, your lowest priced cover fabric for this purpose is muslin or customer's own material, whichever price is lower).

(2) Any article in the particular category having a maximum price (exclusive of all adjustment charges) lower than that cut-off point is a medium bracket article.

(3) Any article in the particular category having a maximum price (exclusive of all adjustment charges) at or above that cut-off point is a high bracket article.

The result of the foregoing provisions is that every article in a category under this section 6 (b) whose maximum price was properly established prior to December 28, 1945 (the issuance date of this order) is a high bracket article. You will have a medium bracket article in those categories only when you establish a maximum price for an article belonging in one of those categories which is lower than any maximum price established before December 28, 1945 for an article in the particular category.

[Paragraph (b) amended and (c) added by Am. 3, effective 9–11–46]

(c) How you proceed with respect to a category which was not in your line before December 28, 1945. Every article in a category listed in Appendix C which (category) was not in your line before December 28, 1945 is a high bracket article.

(d) How to find the adjusted maximum prices for certain sets or suites. You will use the rule in this paragraph to find your adjusted maximum price for a set or suite only if your maximum price for the particular set or suite is different from the total of the maximum prices of the individual pieces in the set or suite. To find your adjusted maximum price for such a set or suite, you use the following steps:

Step 1. Find the adjusted maximum prices under paragraph (c) above for the individual pieces in the set or suite, and the total of those prices.

Step 2. Find the total of the properly established maximum prices, exclusive of all permitted increases, for the individual pieces in the set or suite.

Step 3. Find the percentage amount by which the total obtained in Step 1 exceeds the total obtained in Step 2. The resulting figure is the percentage amount of adjustment which you may apply to your properly established maximum price (exclusive of all permitted increases) for the set or suite.

[Paragraph (d) added by Am. 2, 11 F. R. 5036, effective 5–13–46]

(e) The amount of the adjustment permitted by paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section may be revised by an order under this paragraph (e) in the case of a particular manufacturer when it appears that his maximum prices as otherwise adjusted under those paragraphs are not in line with the general level of adjusted maximum prices adjusted under this order for other manufacturers of comparable articles. Such a revision will establish adjusted maximum prices or a method of determining adjusted maximum prices which are in line with that general level.

[Paragraph (e) added by Am. 3, effective 9–11–46]

(f) Percentage amount of adjustment in each bracket. You may increase your maximum price (exclusive of any adjustment charges) for sales to all classes of purchases other than household consumers of an article of upholstered furniture belonging in a category listed in Appendix C by the appropriate one of the following percentages:

	Percent
Low bracket articles	12
Medium bracket articles	9
High bracket articles	5

For this purpose "maximum price" means the maximum price properly determined under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 after all trade, quantity, and other discounts (except cash discounts) have been deducted. In figuring the amount by which you may increase your maximum price, fractions may be rounded to the nearest cent.

[Paragraph (f), formerly (c), amended by Am. 2, 11 F. R. 5036, effective 5–13–46; redesignated and amended by Am. 3, effective 9–11–46]

ARTICLE IV—OTHER ADJUSTMENTS

SEC. 7. Articles not eligible for adjustment under sections 4, 5, or 6. This section authorizes the adjustment of maximum prices for sales to all classes of purchasers other than ultimate consumers of articles covered by this order when those articles are not eligible for any adjustment under sections 4, 5, or 6 of this order. You may increase your maximum prices (exclusive of all adjustment charges) for sales of those articles by the same 5% which was originally authorized by Order No. 1052 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

ARTICLE V—MANUFACTURERS' MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

SEC. 8. "Unadjusted maximum price." In order to provide your purchasers for resale with the basis for determining their maximum prices under the applicable regulations, you must state an "unadjusted maximum price" on your invoice. This section explains how you compute that "unadjusted maximum price."

You find your "unadjusted maximum price" for any article covered by this order which you sell at a maximum price adjusted under this order or any other adjustment provision as follows:

(a) If your selling price for the article is not more than 12% above its properly established maximum price to a particular class of purchaser (exclusive of all adjustment charges), your unadjusted maximum price to that class of purchaser is that properly established maximum price (exclusive of all adjustment charges).

(b) If your selling price for the article is more than 12 per cent above its properly established maximum price to a particular class of purchaser (exclusive of all adjustment charges) you find your unadjusted maximum price to that class of purchaser as follows:

Step 1: Determine the percentage amount by which your actual selling price exceeds your properly established maximum price (exclusive of all adjustment charges).

Step 2: Deduct 12 percentage points from the percentage found in Step 1.

EXAMPLE OF HOW A MANUFACTURER FINDS HIS "UNADJUSTED MAXIMUM PRICE" WHEN HIS SELLING PRICE IS MORE THAN 12% ABOVE HIS MAXIMUM PRICE

A manufacturer has a properly established maximum price (exclusive of all adjustment charges) of $40.00 for a bedroom suite, and he adjusts that maximum price under section 4 of this order. Under that section he may increase his maximum price by 25%; however, his actual selling price on a particular sale is only $48.00. The steps by which he finds his "unadjusted maximum price" are as follows:

Step 1: His selling price is $8.00 above his previous maximum price. This he finds to be 20% above that maximum price.

Step 2: He deducts 12 percentage points from 20%, and the result is 8%.

Step 3: He adds 8% to his previous maximum price of $40.00. The "unadjusted maximum price" which he shows on his invoice for that sale is therefore $43.20.

(c) If your new maximum price for a particular article was properly established under section 5 of Supplementary Order No. 118, you first find a price exclusive of all adjustments by the following steps:

Step 1: Find the increase factor permitted under section 4 of Supplementary Order No. 118 on your most comparable 1941 article (which you used in calculating your maximum price under section 5 of that order), by dividing the new maximum price of that comparable article by its maximum price in effect before Supplementary Order No. 118 was issued.

Step 2: Divide your new maximum price for the article priced under section 5 of Supplementary Order No. 118, by that increase factor.

The result is the figure you use as the properly established maximum price (exclusive of all adjustment charges) in calculating your "unadjusted maximum price" under paragraph (a) or (b) of this section, whichever is applicable.

(d) Regardless of any contrary provisions contained in this section, if your selling price for the article is below the "unadjusted maximum price", otherwise computed under this section, the "unadjusted maximum price" which must appear on your invoice for that article is the same as your selling price.

[Paragraph (d) added by Am. 1, 11 F. R. 1324, effective 1-31-46]

SEC. 9. Manufacturers' reports. (a) If you adjust the maximum prices of all your articles covered by this order by no more than the 5 per cent previously authorized by Order No. 1052 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 you need not file any reports for those articles if you notify the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., that you are not adjusting your maximum prices by more than five per cent and with respect to the particular article you had filed the report required by Order No. 1052 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 before its revocation. However, if you did not file a report under Order No. 1052 for the particular article, you must report items (1), (2), and (7) below, even though you do not adjust any of your maximum prices by more than 5 per cent. In any case, if you adjust any of your maximum prices by more than 5 per cent, you must comply with the reporting requirements set forth below in this section.

[Paragraph (a) added by Am. 1, 11 F. R. 1324, effective 1-31-46 and amended by Am. 2, 11 F. R. 5036, effective 5-13-46]

(b) Except as provided above in this section, on and after February 20, 1946 before delivering or offering for delivery any article listed in Appendix A or belonging in a category listed in Appendix B or C at a maximum price adjusted under this order or under any other adjustment provision, you must file in duplicate and thereafter keep up to date a signed report with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., stating forth the following:

[Above paragraph amended by Am 3, effective 9-11-46]

(1) The date of the report.

(2) Your name and address.

(3) A copy of the price list, if any, which you issued to the trade and which was effective during March 1942, and a statement of the class or classes of purchasers to which the prices shown thereon were applicable.

(4) A list of the highest prices you charged during March 1942 to each class of purchaser for each item which you delivered or offered for delivery during March 1942. This may be taken from your base period statement, if it was properly prepared in accordance with Section 11 of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(5) A statement of the class of purchaser customarily accounting for your largest dollar volume of sales for each category listed in Appendix B or C in which you offer articles at maximum prices adjusted under this order.

(6) A copy of your computations showing the manner in which you determined your low-bracket and medium-bracket cut-off points for each of your categories as listed in Appendix B or C.

(7) A list of each article the maximum price of which you are adjusting pursuant to this order, listing:

(i) Your properly established maximum price (exclusive of all adjustment charges) to each class of purchaser to whom you customarily make sales. If your new maximum prices were established under section 5 of Supplementary Order No. 118, report the prices exclusive of all adjustment charges computed under section 8 (c) of this order.

(ii) Your adjusted maximum price to each class of purchaser to whom you customarily make sales, stating the adjustment provision under which that adjusted maximum price was determined.

(iii) The pricing provision under which your maximum price (exclusive of all adjustment charges) was established, as well as the specific section number, the date of approval if any, and the order number if any.

[Paragraph (b), formerly (a), redesignated and amended by Am. 1, 11 F. R. 1324, effective 1-31-46]

(c) If you are adjusting all of your maximum prices under section 4 of this order or if you elect to adjust your maximum price in accordance with an individual adjustment granted you by the Office of Price Administration, you need report only on items 1, 2, and 7 above.

[Paragraph (c) added by Am. 1]

(d) With respect to all articles not specifically listed in your first report, before first offering any such article for sale, you must file a signed report with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., stating for each such article, the information required by subparagraph (7) above.

[Paragraph (d), formerly (b), redesignated by Am. 1]

(e) If you fail to file the information required by this section with respect to any particular article, your maximum price for any sale of that article is your properly established maximum price for the article, exclusive of all adjustment charges or permitted increases.

[Paragraph (e) added by Am. 1]

(f) You must keep available for inspection by the Office of Price Administration a copy of each report filed under paragraph (b) or (d) of this section for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

[Paragraph (f), formerly (c), redesignated by Am. 1]

(g) In addition and in accordance with Section 1499.159d of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 you must file with the appropriate District office of the Office of Price Administration within 10 days after being first issued to the trade three copies of every notification you issue to the trade in connection with this Order.

[Paragraph (g) added by Am. 3, effective 9-11-46]

ARTICLE VI—WHOLESALERS' AND RETAILERS' MAXIMUM PRICES

SEC. 10. Maximum prices of wholesalers whose sales are covered by Maximum Price Regulation No. 590.—(a) Modification of Maximum Price Regulation No. 590. This section modifies the pricing provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 590 with respect to articles covered by this order. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions in Maximum Price Regulation No. 590 apply to the terms used in this section.

(b) Adjusted maximum price. A wholesaler's adjusted maximum price for sales covered by Maximum Price Regulation No. 590 to each class of purchaser of an article covered by this order is the maximum price determined under Maximum Price Regulation No. 590 by using as "net cost" for the article the total of:

(1) the "net cost" of the article based on his supplier's unadjusted maximum price as it appears on his purchase invoice, and

(2) 80 per cent of the dollar-and-cent difference between his supplier's unadjusted maximum price and the wholesaler's actual invoice cost. A wholesaler may make sales covered by Maximum Price Regulation No. 590 at prices at or below his adjusted maximum price computed in this way. For the purposes of this subparagraph (2), "supplier's unadjusted maximum price" and "wholesaler's actual invoice cost" refer to those amounts as they appear on his supplier's invoice after all discounts except cash discounts.

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Am. 1, 11 F. R. 1324, effective 1-31-46]

(c) Unadjusted maximum price. A wholesaler's "unadjusted maximum price" for sales covered by Maximum Price Regulation No. 590 which must appear on every invoice which he furnishes to a purchaser for resale is the price determined under Maximum Price Regulation No. 590 by using a "net cost" for the article based on his supplier's unadjusted maximum price as it appears on his purchase invoice. However, if the wholesaler's selling price for the article is below the "unadjusted maximum price" computed in this way, the "unadjusted maximum price" which must appear on the wholesaler's invoice for that article is the same as the wholesaler's selling price.

If, in accordance with section 4 or 7 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 590 a wholesaler elects to sell an article at his "highest price charged during March 1942", instead of at the price found by applying his "category markup" to his "net cost", the "unadjusted maximum price" which must appear on the wholesaler's invoice for that article is the same as his selling price.

If, in accordance with section 3a of Maximum Price Regulation No. 590 a wholesaler adopts as his own the manufacturer's ceiling prices to a particular class of purchaser, the "unadjusted maximum price" which must appear on his invoice for the article is the same as the manufacturer's "unadjusted maximum price" for sales of that article to the same class of purchaser.

[Paragraph (c) amended by Am. 1, 11 F. R. 1324, effective 1-31-46 and Am. 2, 11 F. R. 5036, effective 5-13-46.]

(d) Single category markup to be used. A wholesaler who has divided a category into subcategories based on differences in cost as permitted by section 27 (b) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 590 may find in some cases that the same article belongs in two different subcategories as a result of the two different "net costs" computed under paragraph (b) and (c) of this section. In such cases, the "category markup" which he shall use in determining both his adjusted maximum price under paragraph (b) above and his unadjusted maximum price under paragraph (c) above is the category markup applicable when the "net cost" is computed on the basis of his supplier's "unadjusted maximum price" in accordance with paragraph (c).

[Paragraph (d) added and former (d) redesignated as (e) by Am. 1]

(e) Ceiling price statement. Before delivering any article the sale of which is covered by Maximum Price Regulation No. 590, at a maximum price adjusted under this order, the wholesaler must comply with the requirements of section 16 of Maximum Price Regulation 590 with regard to filing ceiling price statements.

SEC. 11. Maximum prices of wholesalers whose sales are covered by the General Maximum Price Regulation; and of persons who resell commercial and institutional articles directly to the user. A wholesaler who determines his maximum prices under the General Maximum Price Regulation, and any person who resells commercial or institutional furniture covered by this order directly to the user, finds his adjusted and unadjusted maximum price as follows:

(a) Adjusted maximum prices. (1) A seller who delivered or offered for delivery during March 1942 an article which meets the definition of "most comparable commodity" contained in § 1499.3 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, except that it need not be currently offered for sale, shall find his adjusted maximum price according to the method and procedure set forth in that section by adding the same markup which he had on that comparable article to the total of:

(i) His supplier's unadjusted maximum price, as it appears on his purchase invoice, and

(ii) 80 percent of the dollar-and-cent difference between his supplier's unadjusted maximum price and the wholesaler's actual invoice cost.

A seller may make sales covered by the General Maximum Price Regulation, at prices at or below his adjusted maximum price computed in this way.

The determination of a maximum resale price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration. However, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for on OPA Form 620–759, with regard to how he determines his maximum resale price. These records shall be kept available for inspection by the Office of Price Administration, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

(2) If a seller cannot determine his adjusted maximum price under (1), he shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of his adjusted maximum price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. The application shall, in addition to the information specifically required by that section, also give the following information:

(i) His supplier's unadjusted maximum price as it appears on his purchase invoice.

(ii) His actual invoice cost.

An adjusted maximum price established in this way will be in line with adjusted maximum prices established generally under this order for resellers of the same class.

(b) Unadjusted maximum prices. (1) A seller who delivered or offered for delivery during March 1942 an article which meets the definition of "most comparable commodity" contained in § 1499.3 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, except that it need not be currently offered for sale, shall find his "unadjusted maximum price" according to the method and procedure set forth in that section by adding the same markup which he had on that comparable article to his supplier's unadjusted maximum price as it appears on his purchase invoice.

(2) If a seller cannot determine his unadjusted maximum price under (1), he shall, at the time he applies for an adjusted maximum price to the Office of Price Administration under paragraph (a) (2) of this section also apply for the establishment of an unadjusted maximum price. Unless such an unadjusted maximum price is established, he may not make sales of the article even though his adjusted maximum price is properly established.

SEC. 12. Maximum prices of retailers whose sales are covered by Maximum Price Regulation No. 580. This section modifies the pricing provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 580 with respect to articles covered by this Order. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions in Maximum Price Regulation No. 580 apply to the terms used in this section.

If the retailer determines his maximum price in accordance with Maximum Price Regulation No. 580, his maximum price shall be the price which he computes in accordance with that regulation by using a "net cost" based upon his supplier's unadjusted maximum price, as it appears on his purchase invoice.

[Secs. 11 and 12 amended by Am. 2, 11 F.R. 5036, effective 5–13–46]

SEC. 13. Maximum prices of retailers whose sales are covered by the General Maximum Price Regulation. If the retailer determines his maximum prices under the General Maximum Price Regulation, his maximum price for sales of an article covered by this order shall be computed as follows:

(1) A retailer who delivered or offered for delivery during March 1942 an article which meets the definition of "most comparable commodity" contained in § 1499.3 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, except that it need not be currently offered for sale, shall determine his maximum resale price by adding to his supplier's unadjusted maximum price (as it appears on his purchase invoice) the same markup which he had on that comparable article, according to the method and procedure set forth in that section.

The determination of a maximum resale price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration. However, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for on OPA Form 620–759, with regard to how he determines his maximum resale price. These records shall be kept available for inspection by the Office of Price Administration, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

(2) If a retailer cannot determine his maximum resale price under (1), he shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of his maximum resale price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. The retailer's application shall, in addition to the information specifically required by that section, also give the following information:

(i) His supplier's unadjusted maximum price.

(ii) His actual invoice cost.

A retailer's maximum price established in this way will be in line with retailer's maximum prices established generally under this order.

ARTICLE VII—GENERAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 14. Invoices to purchasers for resale. Any person making a sale of an article covered by this order to a purchaser for resale at a maximum price adjusted under this order, or under any other adjustment provision, must furnish such purchaser for resale with an invoice as follows:

(a) A manufacturer who adjusts the maximum prices of all of his articles covered by this order by no more than the 5 percent previously authorized by Order No. 1052 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 may continue to furnish invoices in the form required by Order No. 1052 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 before its revocation, except that this invoice must contain the notice set forth in paragraph (b) (8) of this section, instead of the notice formerly required by Order 1052 and must also meet the identification requirements of paragraph (b) (3) of this section. Where the manufacturer furnishes such an invoice, the manufacturer's "unadjusted maximum price" which wholesalers and retailers use as a basis for determining their resale prices under sections 10, 11, 12 or 13 is the price appearing on the invoice before the addition of the adjustment charges.

[Paragraph (a) amended by Am. 2, 11 F. R. 5036, effective 5–13–46 and Am. 3, effective 9–11–46]

(b) Except in the case of those manufacturers referred to in paragraph (a) above, every seller (except a retailer making a "cross-stream sale" covered by section 9 (b) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 580) must furnish an invoice containing the following:

(1) His name and address and the date of the invoice.

(2) The purchaser's name and address.

(3) The model designation of the article and such other description as may be necessary to identify the article on his pricing records. In the case of upholstered furniture when sold by the manufacturer, the manufacturer shall show on the invoice an identification of the cover fabric, including his cover grade designation and a pattern number or name on the basis of which he can, from his records, identify his supplier and his supplier's pattern number or name for that fabric.

[Subparagraph (3) amended by Am. 2]

(4) His "unadjusted maximum price." (As defined in section 8 or 10, whichever is applicable.)

(5) The actual selling price of the article.

(6) The nature and extent of any additional charges.

(7) Terms of sale.

(8) The following notice:

NOTICE OF CEILING PRICES

If you resell the articles for which unadjusted maximum prices are shown on this invoice you must find your resale ceiling prices under sections 10 through 13 of Order No. 4800 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188. Those sections replace Maximum Price Regulations Nos. 580 and 590 with respect to those articles.

In addition, if the sale is covered by Maximum Price Regulation No. 590, the following notice must also be given:

All prices on this invoice of articles covered by MPR 590 are at or below our ceiling prices to you for the quantities, terms and conditions of this sale, as shown on our ceiling price statement filed with the _____ Name of City regional office of the OPA, pursuant to section 16 of MPR 590.

If a seller who must furnish the invoice described in this paragraph fails to state separately both the "unadjusted maximum price" and the selling price, or fails to identify the "unadjusted maximum price," his maximum price for that sale is his properly established maximum price exclusive of all adjustment charges or permitted increases.

(c) A retailer making a cross-stream sale to another retailer must furnish the purchaser with the proper invoice required by section 9 (b) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 580. If the cross-stream sale is made in accordance with section 9 (b) (1) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 58[illegible] the seller must also state on his sales invoice his supplier's unadjusted maximum price for each article covered by this order which appears on the invoice.

(d) Every seller must keep available for inspection by the Office of Price Administration a copy of each such invoice for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

(e) The provisions of this section supersede all provisions with respect to the furnishing of invoices contained in any order issued by the Office of Price Administration applicable only to the products of an individual manufacturer covered by this order.

[Sec. 14 amended by Am. 1, 11 F.R. 1324, effective 1–13–46 and as otherwise noted]

SEC. 15. Relation between this order and other orders and regulations—(a) Maximum Price Regulation Nos. 188, 580, and 590. The provisions of this order supersede the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation Nos. 188, 580, and 590 only to the extent that they are inconsistent with the provisions of those regulations.

(b) Supplementary Order Nos. 118, 119, and 133. If you are eligible for an adjustment under Supplementary Order Nos. 118, 119, or 133, you may nevertheless adjust your maximum prices under this order instead of under those provisions.

(c) Orders issued to individual manufacturers under other adjustment provisions. If an individual adjustment is granted to you authorizing you to adjust your maximum prices, the relation between such permission and this order depends upon the nature of that individual adjustment.

(1) If you are authorized to increase the maximum prices of all articles which you produce, you may adjust your maximum prices under that authorization instead of under this order. (An example of this kind of authorization is an order issued under Supplementary Order No. 119.)

(2) If you are authorized to increase the maximum prices of only certain specified articles which you produce or only those articles which were in your line on a certain date, you may, instead of adjusting your maximum prices under this order, adjust the maximum prices of the articles covered by such an authorization under its provisions. If you do this you must treat all other articles covered by this order which you produce as high bracket articles subject only to the 5 percent increase provided in section 5 or 6. Regardless of any contrary provision contained in this section, if you are authorized to increase the maximum price of any of your articles under Supplementary Order No. 148 or section (h) of Order 1052 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, you may adjust the maximum prices of such articles under that order and the maximum prices of all other eligible articles in your line under the applicable provisions of this order.

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Am. 8, effective 9–11–46]

(3) If you decide to adjust your maximum prices under the provisions of an individual authorization which permitted you to include the 5% adjustment authorized by Order No. 1052 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 before this order was issued, you may continue to include that amount of adjustment.

In all cases, however, you must furnish the invoice required by section 14 of this order. The provisions of that section supersede any contrary provisions contained in any individual order issued to you.

SEC. 16. Delegation of authority. Any Regional Administrator, or any District Director authorized by the appropriate Regional Administrator, may issue orders under section 5 (b) and section 6 (b) in accordance with the terms of those sections.

Order No. 331 under Revised Supplementary Order 119. Docket No. 6123-SO 119-176. Westinghouse Electric Corporation, Mansfield, Ohio.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register and pursuant to section 13 of Revised Supplementary Order No. 119, it is ordered:

(a) Maximum prices for Westinghouse Electric Corporation, Mansfield, Ohio. (1) The above manufacturer shall determine his maximum prices for his line of Westinghouse Electric Water Heaters and repair parts by increasing by 12 percent his prices on these items in effect on October 1, 1941 to each class of purchaser.

(2) Since the provisions of this order are not intended to reduce properly established maximum prices, the manufacturer may continue to use as his maximum prices to each class of purchaser his properly established prices in effect under Maximum Price Regulation No. 591 in the event that such prices exceed the prices in effect to each class of purchaser on October 1, 1941 plus the increase provided for in (1) above.

(3) The maximum prices set forth above shall be subject to discounts and allowances including transportation allowances and price differentials which are at least as favorable as those the manufacturer extended or rendered or would have extended or rendered to each class of purchaser on commodities in the same general category during March 1942.

(b) Resellers maximum prices. All resellers of the commodities covered by this order (but not manufacturers who purchase such items for use in the manufacture of other products) may add to their presently established maximum prices the actual percentage increase in cost resulting from the increase granted the manufacturer by this order.

(c) Notification to all purchasers. The manufacturer shall send the following notice to every purchaser of the commodities covered by this order at or before the time of the first invoice after the adjustment granted by this order is put into effect:

Order No. 331 under Revised Supplementary Order No. 119 authorizes a 12 percent increase in October 1, 1941 net prices for sales of Westinghouse Electric Water Heaters manufactured by this company. Resellers (but not manufacturers who purchase such items for use in the manufacture of other products) may add to their existing maximum prices the percentage increase in cost resulting from the increase granted by Order No. 331.

(d) All requests for relief not granted herein are denied.

(e) This order may be amended or revoked by the Price Administrator at any time.

This order shall become effective September 6, 1946.

[Rev. SO 119, Order No. 335]

NATIONAL WOOD PRODUCTS CO.

ADJUSTMENT OF CEILING PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to sections 15 and 16 of Revised Supplementary Order No. 119, it is ordered:

(a) Manufacturer's ceiling prices. National Wood Products Co., 1630 South Eleventh Street, Milwaukee 5, Wisconsin, may compute its adjusted ceiling prices for all articles of card tables and tilt-top tables which it manufactures, as follows:

(1) For an article in its line during October 1941, the adjusted ceiling price is the highest price charged during that month to each class of purchaser increased by 27 percent.

(2) For an article not in its line during October 1941, but which has a properly established ceiling price, the adjusted ceiling price is the article's properly established ceiling price for the particular sale (exclusive of all permitted increases or adjustment charges) increased by the percentage determined in accordance with "Note 3" in section 8 of Revised Supplementary Order No. 119.

(3) The manufacturer's adjusted ceiling price fixed in accordance with this order is his new ceiling price if it is higher than his previously established ceiling price including all incraeses and adjustments otherwise authorized for him individually or for his industry.

(b) Reseller's ceiling prices. Resellers of an article which the manufacturer has sold at an adjusted ceiling price determined under this order shall determine their maximum prices as follows:

(1) A retailer who must determine his ceiling price under Maximum Price Regulation No. 580, and a wholesaler who must determine his ceiling prices under Maximum Price Regulation No. 590, shall compute their ceiling prices in the manner provided by those regulations. However, if the supplier's invoice states both an "unadjusted maximum price" and a ceiling price, the reseller shall compute his ceiling prices under those regulations as they have been modified by Order No. 4800 under § 1499.159b of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

(2) A reseller who determines his maximum resale price under the General Maximum Price Regulation, and whose supplier's invoice states both an "unadjusted maximum price" and a selling price, shall compute his ceiling prices under that regulation as modified by Order No. 4800 under § 1499.159b of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

If his supplier's invoice does not state an "unadjusted maximum price", the reseller shall calculate his ceiling price by adding to his invoice cost the same percentage mark-up which he has on the "most comparable article" for which he has a properly established ceiling price. For this purpose, the "most comparable article" is the one which meets all of the following tests:

(i) It belongs to the narrowest trade category which includes the article being priced.

(ii) Both it and the article being priced were purchased from the same class of supplier.

(iii) Both it and the article being priced belong to a class of articles to which, according to customary trade practices, an approximately uniform percentage mark-up is applied.

(iv) Its net replacement cost is nearest to the net cost of the article being priced.

The determination of a ceiling price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration; however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for by OPA Form 620-759 with regard to how he determined his ceiling price, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

If the maximum resale price cannot be determined under the above method, the reseller shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of a ceiling price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Ceiling prices established under that section will reflect the supplier's prices as adjusted in accordance with this order.

(3) The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 153 shall not apply to the determination of ceiling prices for resales of articles covered by this order.

(c) Terms of sale. Ceiling prices adjusted by this order are subject to each seller's terms, discounts, and allowances on sales to each class of purchaser in effect during March 1942, or thereafter, properly established under OPA regulations.

(d) Notification. At the time of, or prior to the first invoice to a purchaser for resale on and after the effective date of this order, showing prices adjusted in accordance with this order, the seller shall notify the purchaser in writing of the method established in paragraph (b) of this order for determining adjusted maximum prices for resale of the articles. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) All requests for adjustment of maximum prices not specifically granted by this order are hereby denied.

(f) Order No. G-3 under Supplementary Order No. 119 is hereby revoked.

(g) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

This order shall become effective September 5, 1946.

Issued this 5th day of September 1946.

Administrator.

(a) This order establishes maximum prices for sales and deliveries of certain wood chairs manufactured by Troutman Chair Company, Troutman, North Carolina.

(1) For all sales and deliveries of the following articles by the manufacturer to the class of purchaser specified below, the adjusted maximum prices are as follows:

Article	Model No.	Adjusted maximum price to retailers [1]
Chair	14	Per dozen $16.85

[1] That class of retailers to which the manufacturer customarily made sales in largest volume.

(2) For sales and deliveries by the manufacturer to all other classes of purchasers the maximum prices are the adjusted maximum prices set forth in paragraph (a) (1), adjusted to reflect the manufacturer's customary differentials for sales to those other classes of purchasers.

(b) Resellers of articles which the manufacturer has sold at an adjusted ceiling price determined under this order shall determine their maximum prices as follows:

(1) A retailer who must determine his ceiling price under Maximum Price Regulation No. 580 and a wholesaler who must determine his ceiling prices under Maximum Price Regulation No. 590 shall compute their ceiling prices in the manner provided by those regulations. However, if the supplier's invoice states both an "unadjusted maximum price" and a ceiling price, the reseller shall compute his ceiling prices under those regulations as they have been modified by Order No. 4800 under § 1499.159b of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

(2) A reseller who determines his maximum resale price under the General Maximum Price Regulation, and whose supplier's invoice states both an "unadjusted maximum price" and a ceiling price, shall compute his ceiling prices under that regulation as modified by Order No. 4800 under § 1499.159b of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

If his supplier's invoice does not state an "unadjusted maximum price," the reseller shall calculate his ceiling price by adding to his invoice cost the same percentage mark-up which he had on the "most comparable article" for which he has a properly established ceiling price. For this purpose, the "most comparable article" is the one which meets all of the following tests:

(i) It belongs to the narrowest trade category which includes the article being priced.

(ii) Both it and the article being priced were purchased from the same class of supplier.

(iii) Both it and the article being priced belong to a class of article to which, according to customary trade practices, an approximately uniform percentage markup is applied.

(iv) Its net replacement cost is nearest to the net cost of the article being priced.

The determination of a ceiling price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration; however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for by OPA Form 620-759 with regard to how he determined his ceiling price, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

If the maximum resale price cannot be determined under the above method, the reseller shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of a ceiling price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Ceiling prices established under that section will reflect the supplier's prices as adjusted in accordance with this order.

(3) The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 153 shall not apply to the determination of ceiling prices for resales of articles covered by this order.

(c) Terms of sale. Ceiling prices adjusted by this order are subject to each seller's terms, discounts, and allowances on sales to each class of purchaser in effect during March 1942, or thereafter, properly established under OPA regulations.

(d) Notification. At the time of, or prior to the first invoice to a purchaser for resale on and after the effective date of this order, showing prices adjusted in accordance with this order, the seller shall notify the purchaser in writing of the method established in paragraph (b) of this order for determining adjusted maximum prices for resale of the articles. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) The manufacturer shall comply with the invoicing and reporting provisions of Order No. 4800 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188.

(f) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(g) This order shall become effective on the 5th day of September 1946.

Issued this 5th day of September 1946.

Regional and District Office Orders.

[Birmingham Order G-2 Under Gen. Order 50]

MALT AND CEREAL BEVERAGES IN ALABAMA, EXCEPT JEFFERSON COUNTY

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, and under the authority vested in the District Director of the Birmingham District Office of Region IV, of the Office of Price Administration by General Order No. 50, issued by the Administrator of the Office of Price Administration, and Region IV Revised Delegation Order No. 17, issued May 5, 1944, it is hereby ordered:

SECTION 1. Purpose of order. This Order G-2 under Revised General Order No. 50 is issued for the purpose of establishing maximum prices for malt and cereal beverages including those commonly known as ale, beer, and near-beer either in containers or on draught when sold or offered for sale at retail by any eating or drinking establishment in all counties except Jefferson County.

SEC. 2. Relationship between this and previous orders. This Order G-2 under Revised General Order No. 50 supersedes 2d Revised Order No. G-1 and all amendments thereto affecting the following counties: Baldwin, Barbour, Bullock, Covington, Dallas, Escambia, Greene, Henry, Houston, Lee, Lowndes, Mobile, Montgomery, Perry, Pike and Russell. This Order G-2 under Revised General Order No. 50 does not replace Revised Order G-1 under General Order No. 50, or any amendments thereto, issued by the Birmingham District Office and affecting Jefferson County.

SEC. 3. Geographical applicability. The provisions of this order extend to all eating and drinking places or establishments located in the State of Alabama, with the exception of Jefferson County.

SEC. 4. Ceiling prices. (a) On and after July 29, 1944, if you operate an eating or drinking establishment, you may not sell or offer for sale any beverage subject to this order at prices higher than the applicable ceiling prices listed in the appendices hereof. You may, of course, charge lower prices at any time.

(b) If you sell any beverage subject to this order which is not specifically listed herein, and if you believe that the maximum price specified herein for such beverage is not appropriate to such beverage, you may make application to the Birmingham District Office of the Office of Price Administration requesting that such beverage be specifically included in the appendices hereof.' With or without such application, the Birmingham District Office of the Office of Price Administration may, at any time, and from time to time, add new or unlisted beverages, brands, types or sizes together with maximum prices for same to the lists set forth in the appendices hereof.

(c) You may not add any taxes to your ceiling prices set forth in the appendices hereof except those specifically provided therein, as all other taxes have been taken into consideration in establishing the ceiling prices for each group of sellers, with the following exception:

[1] Filed as part of the original document.

All new or additional taxes imposed on the sale of malt and cereal beverages by any ordinance or statute subsequent to June 1, 1945, and separately stated, collected and paid by the retail seller may be rounded to the nearest cent and passed on to the ultimate consumer.

SEC. 5. How to figure your ceiling prices. Your ceiling prices and group classification are determined by subparagraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of section 4 of this order, if your establishment is located in any one of the following counties: Baldwin, Barbour, Bullock, Covington, Dallas, Escambia, Greene, Henry, Houston, Lee, Lowndes, Mobile, Montgomery, Perry, Pike and Russell. If your eating and drinking establishment is located in any other county of Alabama, other than Jefferson County, your ceiling prices and group classification are determined by subparagraph (c) of section 4 of this order.

(a) This order divides eating and drinking establishments into three different groups and gives each group a different ceiling price. The group to which you belong depends on your legal ceiling prices in effect during the base period of April 4–10, 1943. You must figure the group to which you belong on the basis of your correct legal ceiling prices for that period.

(b) The group to which you belong depends on your legal ceiling prices for the beverages subject to this order in effect during the base period of April 4–10, 1943. If your legal ceiling prices for various brands and types of beverages subject to this order vary so that your ceiling prices on some brands or types seem to place you in one particular group and ceiling prices on others seem to classify you into a different group, you must classify yourself into the particular group representative of the prices at which the greater number of your sales were made. For the purpose of determining your classification, as herein provided, no consideration may be given to sales of beverages listed in appendices other than Appendix A hereof. You must figure the group to which you belong as follows:

(1) Group 1–B. Your establishment belongs to Group 1–B if, during the base period of April 4–10, 1943, your legally established ceiling prices for beverages subject to this order were the same as, or more than the prices listed in Appendix A hereof for Group 1–B establishments.

(2) Group 2–B. Your establishment belongs to Group 2–B if, during the base period of April 4–10, 1943, your legally established ceiling prices for beverages subject to this order were the same as, or more than, the prices listed in Appendix A[1] hereof for Group 2–B establishments, but were less than those provided in Appendix A for Group 1–B establishments.

(3) Group 3–B. Your establishment belongs to Group 3–B if, during the base period of April 4–10, 1943, your legally established ceiling prices for beverages subject to this order were less than the prices listed in Appendix A hereof for Group 2–B establishments. All establishments not in operation during the base period of April 4–10, 1943, and all establishments which began operating after the effective date of this order also belong to Group 3–B.

(c) If your eating or drinking establishment was not in operation during the base period of April 4–10, 1943, but was in operation prior to the effective date of this order, and, if the nearest similar eating or drinking establishment of the same type is one which is properly classified in Group 1–B or 2–B, you may, but not later than the first day of October 1944, file an application with the Birmingham District Office of the Office of Price Administration, requesting that your establishment be reclassified into the same group to which its nearest similar eating or drinking establishment of the same type belongs. Until your application is acted upon, and unless your establishment is reclassified, it must retain the classification of a Group 3–B seller, and must observe the ceiling prices as provided for that group in the appendices hereof. All such applications for reclassification must contain the following information:

(1) Name and address of the establishment and of its owner or owners.

(2) A description of the establishment showing its type (such as night club, hotel, restaurant, tavern) and the date it began operation.

(3) The selling prices by brand name of all beverages sold since the beginning of its operation.

(4) The names of the three nearest eating and drinking establishments of the same type, and their group number as determined under this order.

(5) Any other information pertinent to such application or which may be requested by the Office of Price Administration.

(d) If your eating and drinking establishment begins operation after the effective date of this order, you are classified as a Group 3 seller and may not sell or offer for sale beverages subject to this order at prices higher than those set forth for Group 3–B sellers in the appendices hereof. However, if your nearest eating and drinking establishment of the same type is one which is properly classified as a Group 1–B or Group 2–B seller, you may, within and not later than 30 days from the time you begin operating, file an application with the Birmingham District Office, requesting that your establishment be reclassified into the same group in which its nearest eating and drinking establishment of the same type belongs. Until your application is acted upon and unless your establishment is reclassified, it must retain the classification of Group 3–B and must observe the ceiling prices as provided for that group in the appendices hereof. All such applications for reclassification must contain the same information required by paragraph (c) of this section.

(e) If your establishment is located in a county of Alabama where the sale of malt and cereal beverages was not contrary to the laws of Alabama during the week of April 4–10, 1943, or any date prior to that time, or that your establishment is a successor or transferee of an establishment in existence prior to April 4–10, 1943: And provided, That the establishment is not located in any one of the counties specifically enumerated hereinabove, your establishment is automatically placed into Group 3–B; and your maximum prices for malt and cereal beverages cannot exceed the maximum prices established in the appendices hereinafter listed for said group. However, if you can furnish written evidence that demonstrates to the satisfaction of the District Director of the Birmingham District Office that the establishment did sell malt and cereal beverages at prices in excess of Group 3–B prices, prior to April 4–10, 1943, the District Director shall by order authorize said establishment to be reclassified as a Group 2–B or Group 1–B establishment, as such written evidence warrants.

All new sellers beginning business after March 19, 1946, in those counties where it is provided that malt and cereal beverages can be sold: And provided, Such counties are not specifically listed hereinabove, shall be classified as Group 3–B establishments. Such establishments shall be entitled to reclassification on the basis of the provisions of section 4, subparagraph (d).

(f) After you have figured your proper group number under this section and have filed the required statement with your War Price and Rationing Board as provided in section 5, you may not change your group classification except as otherwise provided by this order.

SEC. 6. Filing with War Price and Rationing Board. (a) When you have figured your proper group under section 4 above, you must, on or before August 10, 1944, file with your War Price and Rationing Board a signed statement with the name and address of your establishment, its type (such as night club, hotel, restaurant, tavern) and the group to which it belongs. Thereupon the War Price and Rationing Board will send you a card bearing your group number. If you begin operating your establishment after the effective date of this order, you must likewise file said signed statement in this manner as soon as you begin operating.

(b) If you are now in operation and have not filed the signed statement showing the group number to which you belong as provided in paragraph (a) above, you must do so immediately. If you have failed to file said signed statement as herein required, you are hereby classified as a Group 3–B seller and you may not sell or offer for sale any beverage subject to this order at prices higher than the applicable ceiling prices listed for Group 3–B sellers in the appendices hereof. Failure to file said signed statement as herein provided is a violation of this order and also subjects you to the other penalties herein provided.

SEC. 7. Modification of prices. After you have determined your group and have put into effect the ceiling prices provided in this order for that group, the Office of Price Administration District Director for the District in which your establishment is located may direct you to charge lower ceiling prices.

(a) If, on the basis on your April 4–10, 1943, legal ceiling prices or ceiling prices prior to that date, this order, properly applied, requires you to be placed into a group with lower ceiling prices,

[1] Filed as part of the original document.

(b) If, as a result of speculative, unwarranted, or abnormal increases, contrary to the purpose of the Emergency Price Control Act, as amended, your legal ceiling prices on April 4–10, 1943, or prior to that date, were excessive in relation to the legal ceiling prices of other comparable establishments in the District.

SEC. 8. Exempt Sales. The following sales are exempt from the operation of this order. However, unless they are otherwise exempt from price control, they shall remain subject to the appropriate maximum price regulation or order:

(a) Sales by persons on board common carriers (when operated as such) including railroad dining cars, club cars, bar cars, and buffet cars, or sales otherwise governed by Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation 1 (Dining Car Regulation).

(b) Sales by public and private hospitals insofar as they serve to patients.

(c) Sales by eating cooperatives formed by members of the Armed Forces (as for example, officers' mess) operated as a non-profit cooperative (where no part of the net earnings inures to the benefit of any individual) which sells food items or meals on a cost basis (or as near thereto as reasonable accounting methods will permit), and substantially all sales of which are made to members of the Armed Forces who are members of the cooperative.

(d) Sales where the beverages subject to this order are included in, and sold as part of, a meal and where the price of such beverage is included in the price of the meal. (Such sales remain under Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation 2.)

(e) Sales by the War Department or the Department of Navy of the United States through such Departments' sales stores, including commissaries, ships' stores ashore, and by stores operated as army canteens, post exchanges, or ships' activities.

(f) Bona fide private clubs insofar as such clubs sell only to members or bona fide guests of members. Whenever such clubs sell to persons other than members or bona fide guests of members, such clubs shall be considered for all sales an eating or drinking establishment and subject to this order. No club shall be considered to be exempt as a private club, within the meaning of this subparagraph, unless such club is a non-profit organization and is recognized as such by the Bureau of Internal Revenue and unless its members pay dues (more than merely nominal in amount), are elected to membership by a governing board, membership committee or other body, and unless it is otherwise operated as a private club.

No club organized after the effective date of this order shall be exempt unless and until it has filed a request for exemption with the District Office of the Office of Price Administration of the area in which it is located, furnishing such information as may be required, and has received a communication from such office authorizing exemption as a private club.

SEC. 9. Evasion. If you are an operator of an eating or drinking establishment you must not evade the ceiling prices established by this order by any type of scheme or device; among other things (this is not an attempt to list all evasive practices) you must not:

(a) Institute any cover, minimum, bread and butter, service, corkage, entertainment, checkroom, parking or other special charges which you did not have in effect on any corresponding day during the seven-day period from April 4–10, 1943, or

(b) Increase any cover, minimum, bread and butter, service, corkage, entertainment, checkroom, parking or other special charges which you did not have in effect on any corresponding day during the seven-day period from April 4–10, 1943, or

(c) Require as a condition of sale of a beverage the purchase of other items or meals, except that during the hours from 11:30 a. m. to 1:30 p. m. and the hours from 6.00 p. m. to 8:00 p. m., any eating or drinking establishment which derives not less than 70% of its gross revenue from the sales of prepared food items (not including beverage items) sold for consumption on the premises may refuse to sell beverages subject to this Order for consumption on the premises during those hours to persons who do not also purchase food items.

SEC. 10. Records and menus. If you are an operator of an eating or drinking establishment subject to this order you must observe the requirements of General Order 50, as well as Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation No. 2, either as revised and amended or as may be revised and amended, with reference to the filing and keeping of menus and the preservation and keeping of customary and future records. Among other provisions of General Order 50, are the following:

(a) Preserve all existing records relating to prices, cost and sales of food items, meals and beverages;

(b) Continue to prepare and maintain such records as have been ordinarily kept;

(c) Keep for examination by the Office of Price Administration two copies of each menu used by the establishment each day, or a daily record in duplicate of the prices charged for food items, beverages and meals. If the establishment has customarily used menus, it must continue to do so.

SEC. 11. Posting of Prices. (a) If you own or operate an eating or drinking establishment offering malt beverages subject to this order you must comply with the provisions of Order No. 2, issued under Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation 2 on March 10, 1945, and effective the same date, either as heretofore or hereafter revised and amended, which order provides in part that you must on or before April 16, 1945, show on a poster to be supplied by the Office of Price Administration, your lawful ceiling prices for all beer and other malt beverages which you offer for consumption on your premises.

(b) If you begin operating your establishment after April 16, 1945, you must obtain the price poster applicable to your establishment from your local War Price and Rationing Board and post same immediately.

(c) No establishment which fails to comply with the posting requirements of Order No. 2 issued under Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation No. 2 on March 10, 1945, and effective the same date, either as heretofore or hereafter revised and amended, may sell any beverage subject to this order at higher prices than the prices provided for Group 3–B sellers as set forth in the appendices hereof during such time as such establishment is not in compliance with said order.

SEC. 12. Posting of group number. (a) If you operate an eating or drinking establishment selling at retail beverages subject to this order you must post, and keep posted, in the premises a card or cards clearly visible to all purchasers showing the group number of your establishment as classified under this order. The card must read "OPA 1–B", "OPA 2–B", or "OPA 3–B", whichever is applicable. You may use the card or cards furnished you for this purpose by the War Price and Rationing Board.

(b) No establishment which fails to comply with the posting requirements of this section may sell any beverage subject to this order at a higher price than provided for Group 3 sellers in the appendices hereof during such time as such establishment is not in compliance with this section.

SEC. 13. Receipts and sales slips. Regardless of whether or not receipts have customarily been issued, upon request by any customer at the time of payment a receipt containing a full description of the beverage sold and the price of same must be issued. Such receipts must show the date of issue and bear the signature of the person issuing same. If you have customarily issued receipts or sales slips, you may not now discontinue the practice.

SEC. 14. Operation of several places. If you own or operate more than one place selling beverages subject to this order, you must do everything required by this regulation for each place separately.

SEC. 15. Enforcement. If you violate any provision of this regulation you are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages and proceedings for suspensions of licenses, provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. 16. Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1 licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this order. If you are a seller subject to this order your license may be suspended for violation of the license or of the order. If your license is suspended you may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which your license has been suspended.

SEC. 17. Relation to other maximum price regulations. This order supersedes the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 259 and the General Maximum Price Regulation insofar as such provisions were applicable to sales at retail by eating and drinking establishments of beverages subject to this order. [Pittsburgh Adopting Order 43 Under Basic [Order 1 Under Gen. Order 68, Amdt. 1]

BUILDING AND CONSTRUCTION MATERIALS IN PITTSBURGH, PA., DISTRICT

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of Region II by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended, by General Order 68 as amended, and by Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, which authority has been duly delegated by such Regional Administrator to the District Director, Pittsburgh District Office, It is hereby ordered:

1. Adopting Order No. 43 under Basic Order No. 1 as amended, under General Order No. 68, as amended, is hereby amended by striking out Schedule A annexed to said order and inserting in place thereof Revised Schedule A hereto annexed,[1] and made a part of this amendment and of said adopting order.

2. Adopting Order No. 43 under Basic Order No. 1 as amended, under General Order No. 68 as amended, is further amended by striking out section 7 of said order and inserting in place thereof the following:

Sec. 7. Records and sales slips. (a) The provisions of section (e) of Basic Order No. 1 as amended covering sales slips and records are adopted in and applicable to this order as though specifically set forth herein; and also on any sale of $25 or more each seller, regardless of previous custom, must keep records showing at least the following:

(1) Name and address of buyer.
(2) Date of transaction.
(3) Place of delivery.
(4) Complete description of each item sold and price charged.

(b) Maximum prices for insufficiently described items. Where the seller's records or sales slip upon a sale of any commodity covered by this order in the area covered by this order, do not contain a sufficiently complete description to identify the exact nature, type, size or quantity of the commodity, and thus determine the maximum price fixed by Revised Schedule A of this order, the maximum price applicable to such sale shall be the lowest maximum price which can be computed under Revised Schedule A of this order in accordance with the incomplete description.

3. Adopting Order No. 43 under Basic Order No. 1 as amended, under General Order 68 as amended, is further amended by adding a new section 3 (a) as follows:

Sec. 3 Adjustment to reflect increase in supplier's price—(a) Applicability. This section is applicable only where the amendment or order which grants your supplier an increase in his maximum price provides that all resellers (including those subject to area orders under General Order 68) may increase their maximum prices for the commodity in question.

(b) Maximum price. You may increase the price listed in this order by the amount permitted for resellers by an industry-wide or area-wide amendment or order increasing your supplier's maximum price. You can only do this, however, if the effective date of the action increasing your supplier's maximum price is later than the date stated on the price list contained in this order. Thus, if your supplier's maximum price for a product is increased and at some later date the price listed in this order is increased for this product, the amendment to this order will supersede the increase originally granted you by the amendment or order increasing your supplier's maximum price.

4. Except as hereby amended, adopting Order No. 43 under Basic Order No. 1 as amended, under General Order No. 68, as amended, shall remain the same and all provisions thereof remain in full force and effect.

This amendment shall become effective immediately.

District Director.

Except to the extent that they are inconsistent with the provisions of this order all other provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulations, or of any other applicable regulation or order shall remain applicable to sales covered by this order.

SEC. 6. Posting of maximum prices. Every seller making sales covered by this order shall post a copy of the list of maximum prices fixed by this order in each place of business within the area covered by this order.

SEC. 7. Records and sales slips—(a) Required information. The provisions of section (e) of Basic Order No. 1 as amended, covering sales slips and records are adopted in and applicable to this order, as if specifically set forth herein, and also on any sale of $25 or more, each seller, regardless of previous custom, must keep records showing at least the following:

(1) Name and address of buyer.
(2) Date of transaction.
(3) Place of delivery.
(4) Complete description of each item sold and price charged.

(b) Maximum prices for insufficiently described items. Where the seller's records or sales slip upon a sale of any commodity covered by this order in the area covered by this order, do not contain a sufficiently complete description to identify the exact nature, type, size, or quantity of the commodity, and thus determine the maximum price fixed by Schedule A of this order the maximum price applicable to such sale shall be the lowest maximum price which can be computed under Schedule A of this order in accordance with the incomplete description.

[Pittsburgh Adopting Order 38 under Basic Order 1, under Gen. Order 68, Amdt.1]

BUILDING AND CONSTRUCTION MATERIALS IN PITTSBURGH, PA., DISTRICT

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of Region II by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended, by General Order 68 as amended, and by Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, which authority has been duly delegated by such Regional Administrator to the District Director, Pittsburgh District Office, It is hereby ordered:

1. Adopting Order No. 38 under Basic Order No. 1 as amended, under General Order No. 68, as amended, is hereby amended by striking out Schedule A annexed to said order and inserting in place thereof Revised Schedule A hereto annexed [1] and made a part of this amendment and of said adopting order.

2. Adopting Order No. 38 under Basic Order No. 1 as amended, under General Order No. 68, as amended, is further amended by striking out section 7 of said order and inserting in place thereof the following:

SEC. 7. Records and sales slips. (a) The provisions of section (e) of Basic Order No. 1 as amended covering sales slips and records are adopted in and applicable to this order as though specifically set forth herein; and also on any sale of $25 or more each seller, regardless of previous custom, must keep records showing at least the following:

(1) Name and address of buyer.
(2) Date of transaction.
(3) Place of delivery.
(4) Complete description of each item sold and price charged.

(b) Maximum prices for insufficiently described items. Where the seller's records or sales slip upon a sale of any commodity covered by this order in the area covered by this order, do not contain a sufficiently complete description to identify the exact nature, type, size or quantity of the commodity, and thus determine the maximum price fixed by Revised Schedule A of this order, the maximum price applicable to such sale shall be the lowest maximum price which can be computed under Revised Schedule A of this order in accordance with the incomplete description."

3. Adopting Order No. 38 under Basic Order No. 1 as amended, under General Order No. 68, as amended, is further amended by adding a new section 3 (a) as follows:

[1] Filed as part of the original document.

SEC. 3. Adjustment to reflect increase in suppliers price.

(a) Applicability. This section is applicable only where the amendment or order which grants your supplier an increase in his maximum price provides that all resellers (including those subject to area orders issued under General Order 68) may increase their maximum prices for the commodity in question.

(b) Maximum price. You may increase the price listed in this order by the amount permitted for resellers by an industry-wide or area-wide amendment or order increasing your supplier's maximum price. You can only do this, however, if the effective date of the action increasing your supplier's maximum price is later than the date stated on the price list contained in this order. Thus, if your supplier's maximum price for a product is increased and at some later date the price listed in this order is increased for this product, the amendment to this order will supersede the increase originally granted you by the amendment or order increasing your supplier's maximum price.

4. Except as hereby amended, Adopting Order No. 38 under Basic Order No. 1 as amended, under General Order 68 as amended, shall remain the same and all provisions thereof remain in full force and effect.

This amendment shall become effective immediately.

Issued this 24th day of August 1946.

WM. K. HARRISON,
District Director.

§ 550.011 National Airport Plan. The act authorizes and directs the Administrator to prepare, and revise annually, a National Airport Plan for the development of public airports in the United States, including the Territory of Alaska, the Territory of Hawaii, and Puerto Rico (Act-Section 3) and provides that no airport development shall be undertaken under the Federal-aid Airport Program unless included in the then current revision of such Plan (Act-Section 9 (a)). The Administrator, in formulating and revising such Plan, will take into account the needs of both air commerce and private flying, and, to the extent feasible, consult with and give consideration to the views and recommendations of, among others, the States, the Territories, Puerto Rico, and their political subdivisions. The National Airport Plan of 1947 will be announced by the Administrator on or about December 1, 1946. Thereafter, such Plan will be revised on or about November 1 of each year, beginning with November 1, 1947. § 550.012111 Use of apportioned funds. All sums of money apportioned to a State will thereupon become available to pay the United States share of the allowable project costs of approved projects, and will remain so available until June 30, 1953, unless sooner expended. Such sums so apportioned to a State will be available only to pay the United States share of the allowable project costs of approved projects which are sponsored by that State or an eligible public agency thereof and, in addition, are located in (1) that State, (2) an adjoining State, (3) a national park, national recreation area, national monument or national forest which lies wholly within the boundaries of that State or of an adjoining State or (4) that part of a national park, national recreation area, national monument or national forest which lies wholly within the boundaries of that State or of an adjoining State. Where a project has two or more sponsors all of which are not public agencies of the same State, the United States share of the allowable costs of the project will be charged against the moneys apportioned to the States concerned in proportion to the amounts contributed by these States and their public agencies as the sponsors' share of the costs of the project.

§ 550.012112 Notice to States and other public agencies concerning apportionments. Promptly upon making an apportionent of funds among the States as provided in section 6 (a), the Administrator will send to the Governor of each State and to the executive heads of the District of Columbia and of each public agency which has made a written request for such information the following:

(a) A copy of the Federal Airport Act.

(b) A copy of the current Rules and Regulations under the Act.

(c) Information as to the appropriate District and Regional Offices for handling project requests, project applications and similar matters so far as the particular State or other public agency is concerned.

(d) Information as to the amount which has been apportioned for each State under the current apportionment of funds among the States.

(e) Information as to the amount remaining unallocated to specific projects out of any prior apportionment of funds for the particular State.

(f) Notification that the sums apportioned to the States will not be withdrawn before June 30, 1953, but will continue to be available until that time.

§ 550.01212 The discretionary fund—(a) Use of the discretionary fund. The discretionary fund will remain available until June 30, 1953, to pay the United States share of the allowable project costs of approved projects in the several states as the Administrator may deem to be most appropriate for carrying out the National Airport Plan without regard to the state in which such projects may be located. In making allocations from this fund for approved projects, the Administrator will consider the following:

(1) The existing airport facilities in the several states and the need for or lack of development of airport facilities in the several states;

(2) The tentative program formulated annually for the use of all regularly apportioned funds in the several states;

(3) The availability of regularly apportioned funds for approved projects sponsored by public agencies within the state involved;

Provided, No such allocation will be made from the discretionary fund until all regularly apportioned funds for approved projects in the specific state have been exhausted.

(b) Use of the discretionary fund for projects in the several States. That part of the discretionary fund made available by the Administrator to any approved project in a state will be used in the same manner and subject to the same requirements and conditions as are prescribed for the use of apportioned funds.

(c) Use of the discretionary fund for projects sponsored by Federal agencies. The discretionary fund is the only source from which grants will be made for projects sponsored by the United States or an agency thereof and located in national parks, national recreation areas, national monuments or national forests. The discretionary fund is not available to pay any part of the sponsor's share of the allowable costs of such projects. The sponsor's share of such allowable project costs may be paid only out of appropriations specifically authorized for the purpose of paying such share or moneys contributed to the sponsor for this purpose. The act expressly authorizes the receipt and use by the sponsor of moneys for such purpose.

§ 550.0122 Distribution of funds appropriated for projects in Territories and Puerto Rico. Within thirty days after each appropriation is made by Congress under section 5 (c) for projects in the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii and in Puerto Rico, the total amount so appropriated will be divided by the Administrator into separate funds as follows:

(a) Planning, research and administrative expense fund. The amount of each such appropriation specified in the appropriation act as available for necessary planning and research and for administrative expenses incident to the administration of the Act with respect to projects in the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii and in Puerto Rico will first be set apart for such purposes by the Administrator and will be deducted from the total amount of such appropriation before any division of such funds is made among the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii and in Puerto Rico.

(b) Grant fund. The remainder of such appropriation, after such deduction, will be available for grants for projects in the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii and in Puerto Rico (Act—Section 5 (c)), fifty per centum thereof for projects in the Territory of Alaska, twenty-five per centum for projects in the Territory of Hawaii, and twenty-five per centum for projects in Puerto Rico. All sums of money so available for grants for projects in the Territory of Alaska, in the Territory of Hawaii or in Puerto Rico and set apart for such purpose, will remain available until June 30, 1953, unless sooner expended. Such sums of money will be available only to pay the United States share of the allowable project costs of such approved projects therein as the Administrator may deem most appropriate for carrying out the National Airport Plan.

§ 550.0123 Notice to Territories and Puerto Rico of division of funds. Promptly after making a division of funds among Puerto Rico and the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii as provided in section 5 (c) of the act, the Administrator will send to the Governors of the Territories of Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico, and to the executive head of each public agency thereof which has made a request for such information, the following:

(a) A copy of the Federal Airport Act.

(b) A copy of the current Rules and Regulations under the Act.

(c) Information as to the appropriate Regional Offices for handling project requests, project applications and similar matters as far as the particular Territory or insular possession or public agency thereof is concerned.

(d) Information as to the amount which has been made available to each of such Territories and to Puerto Rico under the current appropriations.

(e) Information as to the amount remaining unallocated to specific projects out of any prior division of funds among such Territories and Puerto Rico.

(f) Notification that the funds appropriated for projects in the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii and in Puerto Rico will not be withdrawn before June 30, 1953, but will continue to be available until that time.

§ 550.02 Eligible projects. A project shall be eligible for inclusion in a program, and for approval by the Administrator, only if it is determined by the Administrator that such project meets all of the applicable requirements of this section and of § 550.03.

§ 550.020 Types of airport development. A project shall include only such types of airport development as are eligible for inclusion in a project as provided in this section.

§ 550.0200 Construction work. The following types of construction work shall be eligible for inclusion in a project:

§ 550.031 Time. The project cost must have been incurred for airport development accomplished within the scope of the project described in and in accordance with the provision of the Grant Agreement, and subsequent to the date of execution of such Grant Agreement, except that planning costs as described in § 550.0353 (a) and land acquisition costs as described in § 550.0350 shall be allowable though incurred prior to the execution of such Grant Agreement: Provided, That no project cost shall be allowable if it was incurred prior to May 13, 1946, the date of approval of the act. For the purpose of this section, a cost shall be deemed to have been incurred if the sponsor or applicant, paid or legally obligated itself to pay any sum of money for or in connection with the accomplishment of the airport development in conformity with the approved plans and specifications and in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Grant Agreement.

§ 550.032 Necessity. The project cost must be a necessary cost, i. e., relating directly to, and necessarily required in the accomplishment of, the project described in the Grant Agreement, and a cost which would not have been incurred except in the accomplishment of such project.

§ 550.033 Reasonableness. The project cost must be reasonable in amount. If the Administrator determines that a project cost exceeds the amount reasonably required to accomplish the purpose for which the cost was incurred, the Administrator will approve as an allowable project cost only such portion of said project cost as he determines to be fair and reasonable.

§ 550.034 Costs not allowable as project costs. Costs of the types hereinafter enumerated, although incurred by the sponsor or applicant in connection with the accomplishment of an approved project, will not be included in the allowable project costs for the purpose of computing the amount of the grant, namely:

(a) Any cost of obtaining title to or the use of lands or any interest in air space under section 16 of the act;

(b) Any cost of rehabilitation or repair for which funds have been appropriated by the Congress under section 17 of the act;

(c) The value (replacement cost, new, minus depreciation) of hangars or living quarters for personnel where the project includes the purchase of an existing private airport;

(d) The payment of wages or salaries to persons employed in violation of section 15 (b) or section 15 (c) of the act;

(e) The costs of materials and supplies owned by the sponsor or applicant or furnished from a source of supply owned by the sponsor or applicant and used by it in construction work on a force account project, where such costs are not supported by vendors' invoices or other documentary evidence;

(f) The purchase price of machinery, tools or equipment purchased by the sponsor or applicant for use in prosecuting a force account project;

(g) The costs of general area, urban or state planning of airports, as distinguished from the specific project as approved; and

(h) Payments of interest made or obligations for interest incurred by the sponsor or applicant.

§ 550.035 Classification of project costs. For purposes of determining which costs are allowable, the term project costs shall include the types of costs described and classified in this section.

§ 550.0350 Land acquisition costs. If the approved project covered by the Grant Agreement includes land acquisition, the allowable project costs in connection with such acquisition may include the cost of items such as the following:

(a) Land, easements and interests in land. The purchase price of such land acquisition as may be reasonably required for and in connection with an airport development.

(b) Incidental expenses connected with land. Incidental costs in accomplishing such acquisition, including fees, expenses, cost of appraisal, surveys, negotiations, abstracts, title examinations, title guarantees, title insurance, condemnation proceedings (including the fees and expenses of expert witnesses), suits to clear title, advertising, revenue stamps, recording fees and necessary travel expenses in connection with the foregoing.

§ 550.0351 Construction costs; contract. If the approved project covered by the Grant Agreement includes construction which is accomplished by contract, the allowable project costs in connection with such construction may include such items as the following:

(a) Construction contract obligations. Obligations running to a contractor for materials furnished or work performed under a construction contract and in compliance with its terms.

(b) Sponsor's incidental construction costs. The cost of performance by the sponsor or applicant of any obligations properly imposed or assumed in the performance of such work, including insurance premiums.

§ 550.0352 Construction costs; force account (see also § 550.112). If any construction under an approved project is accomplished by force account, the allowable project costs in connection with such construction may include items such as the following:

(a) Wages. The wages of laborers, mechanics and others employed for work on the project.

(b) Materials and supplies. Materials and supplies purchased for and incorporated into the project, including materials and supplies furnished by the sponsor or applicant from a source of supply owned by it or on hand, Provided, That approval is first obtained from the Administrator for the use of such materials and supplies, including quality, location, and the unit price thereof.

(c) Rental charges. The rental of all machinery, tools, and equipment required and employed in the performance of the work, including machinery, tools and equipment owned or purchased for the project by the sponsor or applicant; Provided, however, That the rental charge for machinery, tools or equipment owned or purchased for the project by the sponsor or applicant shall not exceed two-thirds of the prevailing local rate for the rental of such machinery, tools and equipment, And provided further, That the use thereof has been specifically approved by the Administrator.

(d) Insurance premiums. All insurance premiums and other costs necessary for insurance protection of the project.

§ 550.0353 Engineering costs. If the approved project covered by the Grant Agreement requires engineering services, the allowable project costs in connection with such services may include items such as the following:

(a) Tests, data, applications, plans and specifications. The expenses of formulating and planning a specific project (as distinguished from expenses of general area, urban or state planning, which are not allowable as project costs), including all costs involved in the making of field surveys and special studies and tests, such as borings and tensility tests, the collection and assembling of data, and the preparation of plans and specifications, charts, sketches, maps, tables, project requests and project applications, and including the fees, salaries and other charges for the services of engineers, survey men, architects and others who render necessary personal services to the sponsor or applicant in connection with such work.

(b) Supervision and inspection. The costs of supervision and inspection of construction work under a project, including the fees, salaries and other charges for the services of engineers, survey men, architects, inspectors and others who render necessary personal services to the sponsor or applicant in connection with such work.

§ 550.0354 Administrative and other incidental costs. Administrative and other incidental costs in the accomplishment of an approved project covered by the Grant Agreement are allowable project costs and may include items such as the following:

(a) Preparation of documents. All expenses incurred in connection with the preparation of contract documents, advertising for and acceptance of bids, and the awarding and execution of contracts.

(b) Necessary fees and salaries. The costs of legal proceedings and fees, salaries, and other compensation for the services of accountants, attorneys, auditors, clerks, stenographers, and others who are necessarily employed in connection with the project. The compensation of regular and continuing employees of the sponsor or applicant who perform work on the project within the scope of their regular employment is not an allowable project cost. Work on or in connection with the project outside of the scope of such employment and for which the sponsor or applicant would normally pay additional compensation is an allowable project cost in an amount not to exceed such additional compensation.

(c) Necessary incidental expenses. Travel expenses, expenses for telegrams and telephone calls, and other necessary incidental expenses of agents and employees of the sponsor or applicant in connection with the project.

§ 550.04 United States share of project costs.

§ 550.040 Class 3 or smaller airport projects. The United States share of the project costs (other than costs of land acquisition) of an approved project for the development of a class 3 or smaller airport shall be a percentage of the total allowable project costs of the project (other than costs of land acquisition). Such percentage shall depend upon the State, Territory, or possession in which the airport or airport site is located. The United States share shall be 50 per centum for an approved project in any State, the Territory of Hawaii, and Puerto Rico, except that this share, in the case of any State containing unappropriated and unreserved public lands and nontaxable Indian lands (individual and tribal) exceeding 5 per centum of the total area of all lands therein, shall be increased by whichever is the smaller of the following percentages thereof: (a) 25 per centum, or (b) a percentage equal to one-half the percentage that the area of all such lands in such State is of its total area. The United States share of allowable project costs of projects in the Territory of Alaska shall be 75 per centum. The following table states the percentages for the various States, Territories, and possessions:

§ 550.041 Class 4 or larger airport projects. The United States share of the project costs (other than costs of land acquisition) of an approved project for the development of a Class 4 or larger airport shall be a percentage of the total allowable project costs of the project (other than costs of land acquisition). Insofar as such allowable project costs, when added to the total allowable project costs incurred in connection with other approved projects, if any, for the development of the same airport (other than costs of land acquisition), are less than $2,000,000 the United States percentage share of such allowable project costs of the project shall be the percentage which would apply if the project were one for the development of a Class 3 or smaller airport, as prescribed in Section 550.040. For each additional $1,000,000 or portion thereof over and above such $2,000,000 figure and up to $11,000,000, the percentage used in determining the United States share of such portion of the allowable project costs of the project (other than costs of land acquisition) shall be 5 per centum less; for that portion of allowable project costs of the project above $11,000,000 the percentage used in determining the United States share of such portion shall be the same as the percentage used with respect to allowable project costs between $10,000,000 and $11,000,000. This formula for determining the United States share of allowable project costs for approved Class 4 or larger airport projects is set out in tabular form in Appendix B. For example, if the total allowable project costs (other than costs of land acquisition) of a Class 4 or larger airport project located in Missouri are $3,000,000 and the allowable project costs (other than costs of land acquisition) which have already been incurred for the development of that airport under another project total $1,500,000, the United States share of the allowable project costs (other than costs of land acquisition) of the new project is 50 per centum of the first $500,000 (or $250,000), plus 45 per centum of $1,000,000 (or $450,000) plus 40 per centum of $1,000,000 (or $400,000) plus 35 per centum of $500,000 (or $175,000), making a total of $1,275,000. As a further example, if the total allowable project costs (other than costs of land acquisition) of a Class 4 or larger airport project located in Utah are $4,500,000, and the allowable project costs (other than costs of land acquisition) which have already been incurred under another project total $1,500,000, the United States share of the allowable project costs (other than costs of land acquisition) of the new project is 62.16 per centum of the first $500,000 (or $310,800) plus 57.16 per centum of $1,000,000 (or $571,600) plus 52.16 per centum of $1,000,000 (or $521,600) plus 47.16 per centum of $1,000,000 (or $471,600) plus 42.16 per centum of $1,000,000 (or $421,600), making a total of $2,297,200.

§ 550.042 Land acquisition costs. The United States share of the project costs of an approved project which represent the costs of land acquisition shall be 25 per centum of the allowable costs of such acquisition regardless of the size of the airport to be developed.

§ 550.0500 Project requests. An applicant shall be eligible to submit a Project Request for Federal aid when, acting individually or jointly, such applicant is:

(a) The United States Government or an agency thereof, and the project is located in the Territory of Alaska, the Territory of Hawaii, Puerto Rico, a national park, or national recreation area, a national monument or a national forest; or

(b) A State or agency thereof; or

(c) The Territory of Alaska, the Territory of Hawaii or agency thereof; or

(d) Puerto Rico or agency thereof; or

(e) A municipality or other political subdivision; or

(f) A tax-supported organization;

Provided, however, That when the law of any State prohibits a municipality or other public agency from the submission of a Project Application or from receiving grants of Federal funds for airport development or requires approval by the State prior to submission of a Project Application, such municipality or other public agency shall not be eligible to submit a Project Request unless such submission is by, through, or with the approval of the State or appropriate agency thereof and is in accordance with applicable State law. In those cases when the applicant is acting as an agent on behalf of a sponsor, satisfactory evidence of the authority to act in such capacity shall be submitted to the District Airport Engineer; a formal statement from the sponsor to this effect will be satisfactory evidence.

§ 550.0501 Project applications. An applicant shall be eligible to submit a Project Application if and when such applicant, acting individually or jointly, has submitted a Project Request for Federal aid and the Administrator has made a tentative allocation of funds for airport development included within the scope of the Project Request. If the applicant is the sponsor, it must meet the conditions for sponsor's eligibility stated in § 550.051. If it is acting as a duly authorized agent of a sponsor, either by reason of law or agreement of the parties, the contract of agency shall be submitted to the District Airport Engineer. The Administrator will examine such contract of agency as to its scope and the relationship of the parties and may require that the applicant meet such of the conditions for sponsor eligibility, and such other conditions, as he may deem reasonable and necessary.

§ 550.0510 Public agency. The sponsor shall be:

(a) The United States Government or an agency thereof, if the project is located in the Territory of Alaska, the Territory of Hawaii, Puerto Rico, a national park, or national recreation area, a national monument or a national forest; or

(b) A State or agency thereof; or

(c) The Territory of Alaska, the Territory of Hawaii or agency thereof; or

(d) Puerto Rico or agency thereof; or

(e) A municipality or other political subdivision; or

(f) A tax-supported organization.

§ 550.0511. Powers. The sponsor shall satisfy the Administrator that it has the legal power and authority, of itself or through an agent, to submit a Project Application and to receive a grant of Federal funds under the act; to engage in the airport development as contemplated in the project and in the act; to acquire, own or control land needed for the project and the operation of the airport; to establish, maintain and operate an airport; to raise necessary funds to meet the sponsor's share of project costs and to finance the operation and maintenance of the airport; to execute all necessary covenants and agreements and to assume the obligations of sponsorship as required by the regulations in this part.

§ 550.0512 Financial ability. The sponsor shall satisfy the Administrator that it has sufficient funds available or is able to obtain sufficient funds to defray all estimated project costs which will not be borne by the United States under the act and that it has financial ability to engage in the airport development as proposed, to operate and maintain the airport and to carry out all project sponsorship obligations prescribed by and under the authority of the act and in the regulations in this part.

§ 550.0513 Outstanding litigation. There shall be no pending or threatening litigation or other legal proceeding and no misrepresentation of any relevant fact which might interfere with the conduct or completion of the project or with public operation, maintenance or use of the airport.

§ 550.0514 Outstanding obligations. The sponsor shall not be in default on any obligation with the Government relative to the development, operation and maintenance of an airport.

§ 550.05150 Property interests required. The sponsor shall have or be in a position to acquire the fee simple title to all lands which in the judgment of the Regional Administrator are necessary for the development of the airport to the class proposed in the current revision of the National Airport Plan, and to all lands to be improved under the project and all easements or other property interests which in the judgment of the Regional Administrator are necessary for the project; except that instead of fee simple title, the sponsor may hold a long-term lease from another public agency for a nominal consideration or for a substantial consideration paid in full and in advance for the term of the lease.

The sponsor shall have or be in a position to acquire such easements or other property interests as in the judgment of the Regional Administrator may be required for the prevention, abatement or mitigation of airport hazards; or to permit the flight of aircraft over nearby property, or for drainage, utilities, egress and ingress and such other rights and interests as may be necessary for the operation of the project.

§ 550.05151 Encumbrances permitted. The title to the landing area and building area shall be free from all liens, leases, reservations, easements and other encumbrances except those that in the judgment of the Regional Administrator will not interfere with the development and operation of the project or airport. In any event, no such encumbrances will be regarded as acceptable which fail to meet the minimum requirements of the following paragraphs:

(a) Use agreements. Any agreement granting the right to use the airport must contain provisions reserving to the sponsor the right, during time of war or national emergency, to lease the landing area or any part thereof to the United States Government for military or naval use, and suspending the provisions of the agreement during such period, insofar as they are inconsistent with the provisions of the lease to the Government. Any such agreement must be consistent with the regulations in this part and by its terms be subordinate to the provisions of any existing or future agreement between the sponsor and the United States, relative to the operation or maintenance of the airport, the execution of which has been or may be required as a condition precedent to the expenditure or grant of Federal funds for the development of the airport. It must also contain a statement that nothing contained in it shall be construed to grant or authorize the granting of an exclusive right within the meaning of section 303 of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended.

(b) Airport operation agreements. Any agreement granting the right to operate the airport, in addition to the provisions described in paragraph (a) of this section, must contain provisions obligating the operator to operate the airport for the use and benefit of the public; to make available all airport facilities and services to the public without unjust discrimination, and to refrain from imposing or levying excessive, discriminatory, or otherwise unreasonable charges or fees for any use of the airport or its facilities or for any airport service.

(c) Leases. Any agreement which actually leases any part of the landing area of an airport to be developed under a project must contain, in addition to all the provisions described in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, provisions reserving to the sponsor the right to further develop or improve the landing area of the airport as it sees fit, regardless of the desires or views of the lessee, and without interference or hindrance. It must also contain provisions reserving to the lessor the right (but not necessarily imposing on the lessor the obligation) to maintain and keep in repair the landing area of the airport and all publicly owned facilities of the airport, together with the right to direct and control all activities of the lessee in this regard. It must also reserve to the lessor the right to take any action it considers necessary to protect the serial approaches of the airport against obstruction, together with the right to prevent the lessee from erecting or permitting to be erected, any building or other structure on the airport which, in the opinion of the lessor, would limit the usefulness of the airport or constitute a hazard to aircraft.

(d) Mineral or timber rights. Any outstanding oil, gas, mineral, or timber right must be so limited that their holder has no right to carry on any activity which would constitute an airport hazard or interfere with the operation of the project or the use of the airport.

(e) Rights of way. Any outstanding rights of way, such as easements for pipe lines, pole lines, or roads must be so limited that their holder has no right to use the land in a manner which would constitute an airport hazard or interfere with the operation of the project or the use of the airport.

§ 550.06 Applicant and sponsor requirements.

§ 550.060 Applicant requirements. An eligible applicant shall meet the requirements of this section.

§ 550.0600 In those cases where the applicant is the sponsor, it shall meet the sponsor requirements stated in § 550.061.

§ 550.0601 If the applicant is acting as an agent of the sponsor, it shall meet such sponsor requirements, and such other requirements, as may be deemed reasonable and proper by the Administrator after determination of the scope of the agency contract and relationship of the parties, and after consideration of the facts and circumstances of the particular project.

§ 550.061 Sponsor requirements. An eligible sponsor shall meet the requirements of this section.

550.0610 Funds. The sponsor, at the time of the submission of the Project Application, shall have sufficient funds on hand, or shall submit evidence satisfactory to the Administrator that sufficient funds of the sponsor are, or will be available, to pay all estimated costs of the project which are not to be borne by the United States. The availability of such funds shall be evidenced by a certificate from an approved depository stating that a specific amount of money is on deposit with such depository to the credit of the sponsor, in the fund specified in § 550.131, sufficient to meet all estimated costs of the project which are not to be borne by the United States; or to the extent such funds have not been deposited, the sponsor shall furnish assurances satisfactory to the Administrator that proceeds from some specific non-Federal, public or private fund or from the sale of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness, guarantee the availability of such funds as needed.

§ 550.06110 General. As soon as possible after execution of the Grant Agreement and in any case prior to the date of commencement of any construction work under the project, the Sponsor shall acquire all necessary land, rights in air space, and property interests therein required by § 550.0515, which it does not already possess whether or not such property interests are to be acquired under the project; except that the required property interests may be acquired within a reasonable time after construction starts if the property interests not yet acquired relate to land which is not necessary for any construction work included in the project and is not to be used for airport purposes upon completion of such work. If there are any lands, rights in air space or other property interests required by § 550.0515 which the Sponsor does not possess at the time it executes the Sponsor's Assurance Agreement, such agreement shall contain an express covenant to acquire such property interests within a time specified therein which shall be subject to the approval of the Regional Administrator.

§ 550.06111 Appraisers and appraisals. Where land, improvements, easements, roadways, rights in air space or any other property interests are to be acquired or extinguished by the sponsor as part of a project, the sponsor shall, prior to such acquisition or extinguishment and for the information and guidance of the Administrator, obtain and submit to the District Airport Engineer two independent appraisals thereof.

The selection of the appraisers by the sponsor shall be subject to the approval of the District Airport Engineer. The appraisers should have a background of experience in this field, should be familiar with values and trends in the neighborhood of the site, should have an established reputation in the community for ability and integrity, should be able to qualify as expert witnesses and, preferably, should have had previous experience as witnesses in litigation involving real property valuations. The appraisers shall certify that they have no personal interest, present or prospective, in the property and interests appraised.

Where such property interests were acquired or extinguished by the sponsor, subsequent to May 13, 1946, and prior to submission of the project application, and were appraised for the sponsor at or before the time of such acquisition, or extinguishment, the District Airport Engineer may in his discretion accept such appraisals. If such appraisals are not accepted, or in case such property interests were not appraised for the sponsor at such time, such property interests shall be appraised in accordance with this section with a view to determining their value as of the time of acquisition or extinguishment.

§550.06112 Negotiators. In negotiating for the purchase of any lands, rights in air space or other property interests included in a project, the sponsor may elect to use its own employees as negotiators or to employ others. If the latter are used, the negotiators shall be established real estate brokers with a reputation for integrity and ability in sales negotiation. The appraisers are not to be used as negotiators. The selection of the negotiators, by the sponsor, is subject to the approval of the District Airport Engineer. The negotiators shall certify that they have no personal interest, present or prospective, in the property interest to be acquired.

§ 550.06113 Surveys. A qualified licensed surveyor shall be employed to prepare a property line map showing each parcel of land and each property interest acquired or to be acquired as a part of a project. Leases, easements, rights in air space and other interest in land are to be included in the said map. The map shall be made to a sufficient scale to show all pertinent information. The location and boundaries of the approach, turning and transition zones and the applicable height limits shall be superimposed on this property map. CAA Office of Airports, Drawing No. 672, Airport Approach Standards, dated September 1, 1946 shall be used in preparing such map.

§ 550.06114 Evidence of title. Evidence of title in satisfactory form shall be submitted with respect to all land acquisition included in a project. Such evidence of title may be of either the following types unless neither of such types of title evidence is reasonably available to the sponsor in which event, the Regional Administrator will determine what evidence of title will be acceptable:

(a) A title certificate prepared by title or abstract company or by public agency pursuant to applicable land registration or Torrens System Legislation; or agency thereof and is in accordance with applicable State law. In those cases act and that it has financial ability to engage in the airport development as tive to the operation or maintenance of the airport, the execution of which has other requirements, as may be deemed appraisers should have a background of experience in this field, should be famil-

(b) A title insurance policy insuring the sponsor's title to the lands included in the project in an amount approved by the District Airport Engineer.

in the project in an amount approved by the District Airport Engineer.

Duplicate copies of each title certificate, title insurance policy, or other evidence of title shall be furnished the District Airport Engineer at the time the project application is submitted, where the land acquisition was accomplished prior thereto and otherwise at the time application is made for payment of the United States share of the cost of such land acquisition.

§ 550.06115 Final Land Acquisition Report. Upon completion of all land acquisition included in the project, a summary report of such acquisition shall be submitted on Form ACA 1646 (Appendix FF) to the District Airport Engineer. The report shall show, for each parcel, the parcel number, the interest acquired by the sponsor, names of immediately preceding owner or owners, appraised values, assessed value, the price paid or award made in condemnation, date of closing and exact surveyed area.

§ 550.0612 Further development. Whenever a project is approved, which upon completion will not result in the establishment of a useful and useable airport facility, written assurance satisfactory to the Administrator must be given by the sponsor that it will refund to the United States a sum equal to all grant payments made for that project, in the event that such a useful and useable airport facility is not completed under the Act or otherwise within five years following date of completion of the project.

§ 550.0613 Special conditions. Such additional requirements and conditions may be imposed by the Administrator as may be reasonably necessary in the circumstances surrounding the individual project.

§ 550.0614 Other requirements. In addition to the requirements of § 550.061, the sponsor of an approved project shall meet the requirements of § 550.08 and such other requirements of the regulations in this part as are not to be met solely by an agent of the sponsor acting as the applicant, according to a contract of agency satisfactory to the Regional Administrator.

§ 550.07 Submission of project requests; programming; tentative allocation of funds.

§ 550.070 Project requests. An eligible applicant under § 550.05 desiring to obtain Federal aid for the development of an eligible project, under § 550.02, shall, as the first step, submit to the District Airport Engineer of the District wherein the sponsor is located a Project Request for Federal aid on Form ACA 1623 (Appendix G), in quadruplicate. Co-sponsors of an airport not located in the same District shall submit the Project Request to the District Airport Engineer wherein the project is to be located. Such Project Request will be considered as a preliminary notice of intent in order to permit the District Airport Engineer to evaluate the project in the preparation of a tentative annual program and will serve as the basis and justification for the Administrators' consideration for inclusion of the project in the annual program. Upon receipt of a Project Request the District Airport Engineer will acknowledge its receipt and to the extent necessary will arrange for consultation with the sponsor or applicant concerning the project and for inspection of proposed sites.

§ 550.071 Project programming. The filing of a Project Request will in all instances be necessary before any proposed project will be considered for inclusion in a Program. However the filing of such request does not necessarily imply that the proposed project will be included in the Program, nor will it in any way obligate the sponsor or applicant to perform any work or expend any funds in connection therewith.

§ 550.072 Tentative allocation of funds. If a project is selected by the Administrator for inclusion in a program, the Administrator will make a tentative allocation of funds for the project and will transmit a notice of such allocation to the applicant or sponsor, as the case may be, through the District Airport Engineer. Such notices will be transmitted on Form ACA 1641. (Appendix AA.)

§ 550.073 Withdrawal of tentative allocation. A tentative allocation will be withdrawn only upon failure of the applicant or sponsor to submit a Project Application satisfactory to the Administrator as required by § 550.090 or to comply with the regulations in this part or the act in some other material respect.

§ 550.08 Sponsor's Assurance Agreement. As soon as possible after the Administrator has made a tentative allocation for a project, the sponsor shall execute a Sponsor's Assurance Agreement and submit such agreement in quadruplicate to the Administrator through the District Airport Engineer. Such agreement shall be executed only if and when the sponsor has the legal power and authority and financial ability to assume the obligations and make the warranties set forth therein. The Sponsor's Assurance Agreement shall be adopted as a resolution by the governing body of the sponsor and shall be recorded in the public land records of the country or recording jurisdiction where the lands described therein are located. The place and date of recording and the volumne and page wherein the agreement is recorded, shall be noted on the conformed copies of the agreement submitted to the Administrator. The plans and specifications shall be prepared in such manner as to assure the completion of the project in accordance with the provisions of the regulations in this part, and with all the applicable laws, ordinances and regulations, except to the extent that valid waivers are obtained from the appropriate authorities. All necessary approvals and permits of state, local, planning, zoning, building and other boards or bodies or the duly authorized officers thereof, shall be obtained before the construction contracts are awarded.

§ 550.091 Approval. The Administrator will not approve the Project Application unless he is satisfied that the applicable requirements of the regulations in this part have been met; that the project, when completed, will contribute to the accomplishment of the purposes of the act; and that the sponsor will carry the project through to final completion in accordance with the requirements of the act and the regulations in this part.

§ 550.10 Grant Agreement. The offer of the Government to pay a portion of the allowable project costs and the sponsor's, or where applicable, the applicant's acceptance thereof shall constitute the Grant Agreement.

(c) Sponsor or applicant will begin work on the project within a reasonable time after the execution of the Grant Agreement.

§ 550.102 Insufficiency of grant offer. If at any time prior to the acceptance of an offer the sponsor or applicant determines that the amount offered is insufficient to cover the United States share of the allowable project costs and desires to secure a larger offer, the offer should be returned through the District Airport Engineer not later than the date established pursuant to § 550.101, accompanied by a complete justification in support of a request for a larger offer.

If at any time prior to the acceptance of an offer the Administrator determines that the offer is insufficient to meet the United States share of the allowable project costs, he may in his discretion withdraw the offer, or submit a revised offer, and if desirable, request a revision of the plans, specifications, the Project Application, and the Sponsor's Assurance Agreement. If it appears that the project cannot be completed at a reasonable cost and within the estimates, or within the limits of the revised offer, he may in his discretion withdraw the tentative allocation of funds for the project and allocate such funds elsewhere.

§ 550.103 Acceptance. If the amount of the United States share as stated in the offer, and all other terms thereof, are satisfactory it shall be accepted and executed in quadruplicate within the time prescribed in § 550.101 (b) by an official of the sponsor or applicant duly designated to take such action by a resolution of the sponsor's governing body, which shall set forth at length the terms of the offer. § 550.1331 Partial grant payments. In the absence of an agreement otherwise, application for partial grant payments will be made when the progress of the project has reached the twenty, forty, seventy, and eighty-five per cent stages of completion. However, the Administrator and the sponsor or applicant may enter into an agreement coincidental with or subsequent to the execution of the Grant Agreement establishing other stages of completion for payment of the United States share; Provided, That only one application for partial grant payment may be made by a sponsor in any one calendar month. Form ACA 1625 (Appendix J) will be used in making applications for partial grant payments. Such partial grant payments, in their aggregate amount, shall not exceed a percentage of the estimated cost of the airport development previously accomplished, as indicated by the latest approved cost estimate, such percentage to be no more than that percentage of the allowable project costs of such development established by the Grant Agreement as the United States share of such costs and in no event shall exceed the amount stated in the Grant Agreement as the maximum obligation of the United States. As an example, if under the Grant Agreement the United States share is 50 percent of the allowable project costs, partial grant payments up to 40% of the grant offer (or 20% of the project costs) may not be made prior to completion of at least 40% of the development to be undertaken in the project.

§ 550.1332 Progress audit. The District Airport Engineer, at any time during the construction of a project, may cause a progress audit to be made. The sponsor or applicant, likewise, may request at any time during the construction of a project that a progress audit be made by the District Airport Engineer. However, if the United States share of the project costs exceeds $250,000 a progress audit will be made at either the seventy or eighty-five per cent stage of completion. Form ACA 1626 (Appendix K) will be used in reporting the progress made.

§ 550.1333 Final grant payments. At such time as the project has been wholly completed and the sponsor or applicant has accepted all work on the project by taking the requisite action as required by local laws or regulations and in compliance with the terms of the grant agreement, the sponsor or applicant shall file an application for final grant payment on Form ACA 1625 (Appendix J). The Administrator shall make the final grant payment only when he has determined that the following conditions have been met:

(a) A final inspection of all work at the project site has been conducted not more than fifteen days prior to the date of application for final grant payment by representatives of the sponsor, the District Airport Engineer, the Regional Administrator, and the contractors;

(b) A final audit of the work done under the project has been completed;

(c) The sponsor or applicant has furnished the Administrator five (5) copies of the final Periodic Cost Estimate and the Final Physical Progress Sketch.

(d) A certificate has been signed and verified by an officer(s) of the sponsor or applicant designated by resolution on Form ACA 164 (Appendix Z) stating that the development of the project has been completed in accordance with the Rules and Regulations, the construction contract and the plans and specifications, and that all liabilities of the sponsor or applicant, actual and contingent, of the sponsor or applicant incurred for, or in connection with, the development of the project, except as specifically set forth in this certificate, have been discharged through payment or other means, and that those liabilities not yet discharged will be discharged upon receipt by the sponsor or applicant of the final grant payment.

§ 550.1334 Amount of final grant payment. Based upon the final inspection, audit, and documents required by § 550.1333, the Administrator will determine the total amount of the allowable project costs of the project pursuant to § 550.03 and pay the sponsor or applicant the United States share of such amount less the total amount of all prior payments. Provided, however, That the aggregate of all payments made shall not exceed the amount stated in the grant agreement as the maximum obligation of the United States.

§ 550.1400 Who may file. Any public agency, person, association, firm, or corporation, having a substantial interest in the disposition of any Project Application, may file a memorandum in support of or in opposition to the Project Application. The Administrator may by such memorandum be informed of data or conditions not otherwise available to him or be given advice and suggestions as to the disposition of a Project Application.

§ 550.1401 Time and place of filing and notice thereof. A memorandum shall be filed in duplicate with the District Airport Engineer of the District in which the proposed project is located not later than twenty days subsequent to publication by the sponsor or applicant of a notice that the Project Application has been submitted. This notice shall be published by the sponsor or applicant, within three days after the date of submitting a Project Application, in a publication of general circulation in the city or county in which the proposed project is located, stating:

(a) That the Project Application has been submitted;

(b) The date of submission.;

(c) A general description of the work proposed;

(d) The location of the airport and of land or interests therein to be required, in sufficient detail to permit ready identification in the community;

(e) That any public agency, person, firm, or corporation having a substantial interest in the disposition of such Project Application may file a memorandum in support of or in opposition to the Project Application with the Administrator through the District Airport Engineer (setting forth the correct address of the District Airport Engineer), and may request a public hearing with respect to the location of the airport.

(f) That, to insure proper consideration prior to disposition of the Project Application, such memorandum must be filed in duplicate not later than twenty days subsequent to the date of publication of the notice.

The sponsor or applicant shall furnish, as soon as possible, a copy of the published notice to the District Airport Engineer.

§ 550.1402 Consideration of memoranda. If a memorandum in duplicate is received by the District Airport Engineer within the specified time, a copy will be made a part of the record of the Project Application, the disposition of which it supports or opposes; the other copy will be furnished to the sponsor or applicant by the District Airport Engineer. No Project Application will be disposed of until all memoranda filed within the specified period have been considered.

§ 550.1403 Memoranda requesting public hearing with respect to location of an airport. The party filing a memorandum in support of or in opposition to a Project Application may request a public hearing with respect to the location of the airport, the development of which is proposed. If, in the opinion of the Administrator, the party filing the memorandum has a substantial interest in the matter, a public hearing will be held in accordance with § 550.141.

§ 550.1410 Time, place, and notice. If a request for a public hearing is made and approved as set forth in § 550.1403, the time and place of the hearing will be set by the Administrator. The time will be set so that it will least delay consideration of a Project Application but will afford reasonable time for all parties concerned to prepare for the hearing. The place of hearing will be at a place convenient to the sponsor or applicant. The Administrator will give notice of time and place by mail to the party filing the memorandum, to the sponsor or applicant, and to such other persons as the Administrator deems necessary.

§ 550.1411 Procedure. A representative of the Administrator will conduct the hearing on behalf of the Administrator in such manner as he deems adequate to afford a fair exploration of the question involved. All parties may appear in person or by counsel. The burden of substantiating allegations contained in the memorandum shall be on the party filing it. All parties will be given an opportunity to be heard and permitted to produce witnesses and to introduce evidence. The Administrator's representative shall decide the time to be consumed, the type of testimony to be heard, and other matters with respect to the conduct of the hearing.

§ 550.1412 Record. A hearing will be recorded in such form and manner as may be determined by the representative of the Administrator and shall become a part of the record of the Project Application.

§ 550.1413 Notice of decision. The decision of the Administrator's representative will be communicated to the parties concerned at the conclusion of the hearing or by mail thereafter.

§ 550.15 Review of planning decisions.

§ 550.150 Definitions. (a) "Planning decision" means, for the purposes of this section, any formal approval or disapproval in whole or in part of a plan for location and development of airports prepared by any public agency, whether acting individually or jointly, or any formal approval or disapproval with respect to the class, size, location, or type of facilities of any specific airport, but it does not mean any formal approval or disapproval with respect to planning, formulating, or accomplishing a project under the regulations in this part.

(b) "Person" means any individual corporation, partnership, firm, or association owning or operating an airport, whether public or private, or engaged in air transport operations, whether scheduled or non-scheduled, or engaged in the business of servicing aircraft, or engaged in a business in which use of aircraft is indispensable, such as aerial photography and crop dusting; and any public agency.

§ 550.151 Request that Regional Administrator review planning decision.

§ 550.1510 Who may file. Any person whose rights or interests have been or might be adversely affected in a substantial manner by a planning decision of the Regional Administrator or any of his subordinates, may file a request that the Regional Administrator review such decision.

§ 550.1511 Time limitation. In order that proper consideration may be given to a request for review, it must be filed within 20 days following the making of the decision complained of.

§ 550.1512 Content of request. A request for review of a planning decision shall include, but not necessarily be limited to, the following:

(a) Identification of the planning decision of which review is requested;

(b) Description of the nature and extent of the interest of the person filing the request;

(c) Statement of the manner in which that interest has been or might be adversely affected;

(d) A prima facie showing that the adverse effect upon the rights or interests of the person requesting review has been or might be substantial;

(e) The decision which the person filing the request believes would be proper under the circumstances.

§ 550.1513 Review by the Regional Administrator. If it is determined by the Regional Administrator that the rights or interests of the person filing the request have been or might be adversely affected in a substantial manner by the planning decision, he will consider the record and such additional information as has been furnished by the person filing the request. He may, if in his judgment it appears advisable, conduct an investigation or may hold a public hearing. In the event the Regional Administrator considers it advisable to hold a public hearing, he will decide the time and place thereof; will give notice to the person filing the request and such other persons as he deems necessary; will conduct the hearing in such manner as he deems adequate to afford a fair opportunity for presentation of information relevant and pertinent to the questions involved; and will arrange for a record of the hearing in such manner and form as he considers adequate.

§ 550.1514 Decision following the review. The Regional Administrator, so far as it is within his authority to do so, may sustain, modify, or reverse the planning decision complained of. He will notify the person filing the request as to his action.

§ 550.152 Request that the Administrator review planning decision.

§ 550.1520 Who may file. If the Regional Administrator has sustained in whole or in part a planning decision, reviewed by him, the person who filed the request for such review may file with the Regional Administrator a request that the record of the planning decision and review thereof be forwarded to the Administrator for review.

§ 550.1521 Time limitation. In order that proper consideration may be given to such a request, it must be filed with the Regional Administrator within 20 days after the Regional Administrator has sustained the planning decision complained of.

§ 550.1522 Review by Administrator. The Administrator will consider the questions involved on the basis of the record. No public hearing will be granted.

§ 550.1523 Decision following the review. The Administrator may sustain, modify, or reverse the planning decision as the circumstances warrant, but in no case will he be bound by his decision upon such review if he subsequently concludes on the basis of further information that such decision should be changed.

APPENDIX BB

SPONSOR'S ASSURANCE AGREEMENT WITH THE UNITED STATES RELATIVE TO OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE OF THE ------ AIRPORT

Whereas, the Federal Airport Act, Public Law 377, 79th Congress (hereinafter referred to as the "Act") directed the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics of the United States Department of Commerce (hereinafter referred to as the "Administrator") to prepare and revise annually a national plan for the development of public airports adequate to anticipate and meet the needs of civil aeronautics, and authorized the expenditure of Federal funds for airport development included in this National Plan, and

Whereas, the Administrator in furtherance of the purposes of the Act and to carry out the objectives thereof has designated in the current revision of the National Airport Plan a project for airport development at (location and other identification as stated in the National Airport Plan) and has included such project or part thereof in the development program for the year 194--, and

(Following clause to apply to Class IV and larger airports only)

Whereas, authority to undertake the project during the fiscal year (194--) has been granted by the Congress as provided in section 8 of the Act, and

Whereas, the (public agency) (hereinafter referred to as the "sponsor") in accordance with the Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Administrator pursuant to the Act (hereinafter referred to as the "Rules and Regulations"), has submitted a Project Request for Federal aid for development of the ------ airport (hereinafter referred to as the "Airport") and has received from the Administrator a notice of tentative allocation of Federal funds for a project, and

Whereas, the sponsor is desirous of securing the Administrator's approval of the project and a grant of funds for an airport or airport development; and

Whereas, as a condition precedent to approval of the project and a grant of Federal funds, the Administrator requires that the sponsor enter into an agreement with the United States (hereinafter referred to as the "Government"), in the manner and form hereof;

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the (governing body) of the (public agency):

SECTION 1. That for and in consideration of the Government's agreement to pay the United States share of the allowable project costs of the project, the sponsor, for itself, its' successors, or assigns does hereby covenant and agree with the Government as follows:

(a) The sponsor agrees, insofar as legally possible, that it will maintain a master plan of its airport, including building areas, approach areas, and landing areas indicating present and future proposed development commensurate with the airport and with current approval of the Administrator; and that in establishing additional improvements, the sponsor will conform to such master plan or approved changes thereto. (If the project is in an urban area, the following clause will be added to this covenant, "and that it will maintain an urban plan of airports for the area under its jurisdiction, such plan having been approved by the Administrator; and that it will prevent improvement or development of any airport which would not conform to such plan or approved changes thereto.")

(b) The sponsor agrees that, continuously during the term of this agreement, the airport will be operated as such and for no other purpose and will at all times be operated for the use and benefit of the public, on fair and reasonable terms and without unjust discrimination.

(c) The sponsor covenants and agrees that no landing fee or other direct or indirect charge for the privilege of non-commercial use of the landing area of the airport for landing and taking-off of aircraft will be imposed. Commercial use of the landing area of the airport will be regarded as including any aircraft operation of any person whose use of the airport is for activities in which an aeronautical service is rendered to others for gain or profit, and the aircraft operations of all other persons shall be regarded as non-commercial. A businessman using an airplane for personal transportation shall not be considered a commercial user.

(d) The sponsor covenants and agrees that it will not exercise, or authorize, or grant any exclusive right within the meaning of Section 303 of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938. The sponsor further convenants and agrees that it will not exercise or authorize, or grant any exclusive right to use the airport for air carrier operations, for rental of aircraft to the public, for conducting charter flights, for operation of a flying school, for selling aircraft, aircraft parts and equipment or for repairing aircraft and engines, or for carrying on other airport service or fixed base operations, whether or not such exclusive rights are within the purview of Section 303 of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938.

(e) The sponsor covenants and agrees that it will permit all qualified operators, on reasonable terms and without unjust discrimination, to use the landing area of the airport for any aeronautical business or operation. The sponsor further covenants and agrees that it will not grant the right to any one airport service operator to use or control any sponsor owned area, buildings, facility or other improvements on the airport, except when provision is made that such operator shall make available to other operators on equal and reasonable terms, such of the space or facilities as are not reasonably needed for his operations or the sponsor has retained the right to make arrangements with other operators for the use of such space or facilities at the airport.

(f) The sponsor covenants and agrees that it will not grant to any one airport service operator an exclusive right to sell aviation gasoline and oil; and further covenants and agrees that it will not grant an exclusive right to any gasoline company which would limit gasoline and oil sold at the airport solely to its products unless such exclusive right is granted on a competitive basis, it is for a term of not more than 3 years, the contract granting the exclusive right requires the gasoline company to make available its products to all users of the airport on reasonable terms and without unjust discrimination, and the granting of such exclusive right has been approved, in writing, by the Regional Administrator.

(g) Any dispute of fact arising with respect to the reasonableness of terms, rates, charges, exclusive use, or discrimination between the sponsor and airport service operators or between the sponsor and any other agency, individual or corporation, public or private, shall be submitted to the appropriate Regional Administrator of the Civil Aeronautics Administration through the District Airport Engineer, for consideration and determination. The decision of the Regional Administrator shall be final as to all parties concerned and shall be complied with by the sponsor.

(h) The sponsor agrees that it will continuously during the term of this agreement maintain in good and serviceable condition and repair, with due regard to climatic and flood conditions, the entire landing area of the airport and all buildings and other improvements, facilities and equipment which have been or may be installed with Federal aid including all improvements made under the project, other than facilities or equipment owned by the Government, and further covenants and agrees that essential facilities, including night lighting systems, when installed, shall be operated in such a manner as to assure their availability to all authorized users of the airport.

(i) The sponsor covenants and agrees that it will replace and repair all buildings, structures and facilities developed under the project when such are destroyed or damaged, replacing or restoring them to a condition comparable to that preceding the destruction or damage; and that it will carry in full force, during the life of this agreement, insurance on all buildings, structures and facilities. It is further agreed that such replacement or restoration required under this section will be accomplished without delay, and shall not await, prejudice or preclude the filing of a claim under Section 17 of the Act when the damage is by any Federal agency.

(j) The sponsor covenants and agrees that when the land or improvements thereon, acquired or developed under the project, are sold, condemned, or otherwise disposed of, wholly or in part, the Government will be reimbursed in proportion to its original investment in the property so disposed of, but not exceeding its original share in the portions so disposed of, except that if the proceeds are used by the sponsor for airport purposes or if the transfer is made pursuant to this agreement to another public agency or agencies for operation as an airport, there shall be no reimbursement to the Government.

(k) The sponsor covenants and agrees that insofar as is within its powers and reasonably possible it will prevent the use of any land either within or outside the boundaries of the airport, including the construction, erection, alteration or growth of any structure or other object thereon, which would be a hazard to the landing, taking-off and maneuvering of aircraft at the airport, or otherwise limit its usefulness as an airport. The sponsor further covenants and agrees, with respect to land outside the boundaries of the airport, to remove or cause to be removed any growth, structure or other object thereon, which would be a hazard to the landing, taking-off or maneuvering of aircraft at the airport or otherwise limit its usefulness as an airport, or when such is not feasible, to mark or light such growth, structure or other object. The sponsor agrees that the airport approach standards to be followed in this connection shall be those established by the Administrator in Office of Airports Drawing No. 672 dated September 1, 1946. The sponsor further covenants and agrees that, insofar as legally possible, it will adopt and enforce zoning ordinances and regulations to safeguard aircraft flight operations within the airport hazard areas as defined in the above mentioned drawing, prohibiting the creation, establishment, erection and construction of hazards to air navigation; and agrees, insofar as reasonably possible, to acquire such easements or other interests in lands and air space as may be necessary to perform the covenants of this paragraph.

(l) The sponsor covenants and agrees that all facilities of the airport developed with Federal aid and all those used for the landing and taking-off of aircraft, other than buildings, will be available to the United States for use by military and naval aircraft in common with other aircraft at all times without charge, except that, if the use by such military and naval aircraft shall be more than twenty-five per cent of all civil and military and naval use as determined by the number of operations and weight of aircraft, a reasonable share, to be mutually agreed upon by the sponsor and the Government and proportional to such use, of the cost of operating and maintaining the airport and facilities so used, may be charged.

(m) The sponsor agrees that, if requested to do so by the War Department or Navy Department, at any time during a national emergency declared by the President, it will lease the landing area of the airport to the Government for military or naval use, at a rental of $1 per annum for such period as the Government may designate: Provided, That the lease shall contain an express stipulation that its term shall not exceed the duration of the national emergency and six months thereafter, unless an extension thereof is approved by the Administrator. Such lease shall also contain a covenant on the part of the Government to permit use of the leased premises by commercial, private, and other non-military aircraft to the extent possible without interfering with military operations, and to bear all of the expenses of maintaining and keeping in good repair the leased premises and all improvements and facilities thereon, other than that proportion of the cost of such maintenance, arising from non-military use.

(n) The sponsor agrees that, in the event the Government determines to acquire any or all of the lands or improvements included within the project and it becomes necessary, for any reason, that the Government institute condemnation proceedings to effect such acquisition, the compensation to be claimed by the sponsor therefrom in said condemnation proceedings, shall not reflect the amount of Federal funds expended under the project in the acquisition and development of the beforementioned lands or improvements, less depreciation, and it specifically agrees that this agreement may be used in any such condemnation proceedings as a stipulation so reducing the compensation to be awarded.

(o) The sponsor covenants and agrees that it will furnish to any civil agency of the Government, without charge (except for light, heat, janitor service, and similar facilities and services at the reasonable cost thereof), such space in airport buildings as may be reasonably adequate for use in connection with any airport air traffic control activities, or weather reporting activities, and communications activities related to airport air traffic control, which are necessary to the safe and efficient operation of the airport and which such agency may deem it necessary to establish and maintain at the airport.

(p) The sponsor covenants and agrees to currently maintain a system of airport accounts and records in connection with the operation and maintenance of the airport, sufficient to provide the Administrator with such annual or special airport financial and operation reports as he may reasonably request. The sponsor covenants and agrees that the airport and all airport accounts and records will be available for inspection at any time, upon reasonable request, to the Regional Superintendent of Airports or his representatives.

(q) In order to protect the rights and interests of the Government under this agreement, the sponsor agrees that it will not enter into any transaction or amend or revise any of the covenants or representations contained in this agreement, which would operate to deprive it of any of the rights and powers necessary to perform any or all of the covenants made herein, unless by such transaction the obligation to perform all such covenants is assumed by another public agency eligible under the Rules and Regulations to asume such obligations, and having the ower, authority and finahcial resources to carry out all such obligations. If the management and operation of the airport is relinquished wholly or in part, the sponsor agrees that it will reserve sufficient powers and authority to insure that the airport will be operated and maintained in accordance with the Act and these Rules and Regulations. The sponsor further agrees that it will not execute any deed, lease, operation or management agreement, or other instrument, or adopt any law, ordinance, or regulation affecting the airport or any portion or facility thereof or interest therein, unless thirty days written notice of its intention so to do has been given to the Administrator, or unless the Administrator has waived in writing the right to such notice. A copy of the proposed instrument, law, ordinance, or regulation in question shall be attached to said notice, which shall state the date upon which the same is to be executed, adopted or enacted. All leases, operation or management agreements, or other instruments affecting the airport or any portion or facility thereof shall contain a provision that such instrument shall be subordinate and subject to the provisions of this agreement.

(r) The sponsor agrees that the provisions of all previous agreements between the Government and the sponsor relative to the operation and maintenance of the airport shall remain in full force and effect except insofar as inconsistent with the agreement, in which event the provisions of this agreement shall prevail.

SEC. 2. That in order to satisfy the Administrator that the sponsor is qualified to sponsor the project under the requirements established by the Act and the Rules and Regulations, and to induce the Government to enter into the Grant Agreement with the inspection of the project, the sponsor does hereby warrant and represent to the Government as follows:

(a) That the sponsor holds fee simple title to all lands necessary for development of the airport to the class proposed in the current revision of the National Airport Plan and to all lands to be improved under the project and holds all easements or other interests necessary for the project, all as shown on the outline survey attached hereto as Exhibit "A", and more particularly described as follows:

That the lands held in fee simple are described as follows:

Parcel 1 (recorded in Vol ——, Pg —— of deed records) which Sponsor owns, free and clear of all liens, easements, leases and other encumbrances except

(Repeating the above as to each parcel held in fee except to list in sequence descriptions of those parcels where the encumbrances that follow are the same.)

That the lands in and over which the Sponsor has acquired easements and rights in air space are described as follows:

Parcel 1 with respect to which the Sponsor holds on easement (Prohibiting the presence or erection of any building, structure or other obstacle above the glide angle plane or such other brief description as is generally appropriate) as more fully described in said easement recorded in Vol ——, Pg —— of County deed records, which easement is the first and dominant interest upon the title to said lands except as follows:

That the lands in, upon and under which the Sponsor has acquired surface or subsurface easements and rights are described as follows:

(n) The sponsor agrees that, in the event the Government determines to acquire any or all of the lands or improvements included within the project and it becomes necessary, for any reason, that the Government institute condemnation proceedings to effect such acquisition, the compensation to be claimed by the sponsor therefrom in said condemnation proceedings, shall not reflect the amount of Federal funds expended under the project in the acquisition and development of the beforementioned lands or improvements, less depreciation, and it specifically agrees that this agreement may be used in any such condemnation proceedings as a stipulation so reducing the compensation to be awarded.

(o) The sponsor covenants and agrees that it will furnish to any civil agency of the Government, without charge (except for light, heat, janitor service, and similar facilities and services at the reasonable cost thereof), such space in airport buildings as may be reasonably adequate for use in connection with any airport air traffic control activities, or weather reporting activities, and communications activities related to airport air traffic control, which are necessary to the safe and efficient operation of the airport and which such agency may deem it necessary to establish and maintain at the airport.

D. pipeline to be designated as Line AM–111, to extend from Station 2135.99 on Applicant's Line A, approximately 1 mile southeast of Garland City, Arkansas, in an easterly direction to the Spirit Lake oil field, centering about Section 14, Township 16 South, Range 25 West, Lafayette County, Arkansas, including metering and regulating facilities.

The application states that the facilities proposed to be constructed are intended primarily for the rendering of natural gas service to drilling rigs and pumping units in the development and operation of the Spirit Lake oil field. Applicant states that it has received numerous inquiries concerning gas service from drilling companies in that field.

The application further states that gas requirements for drilling rig boilers to be attached to the facilities proposed for construction will be approximately 25,000 to 50,000 cubic feet per hour at pressures of from 25 to 50 pounds per square inch; that pumping unit requirements will not exceed 400 cubic feet per hour; that while uncertainty exists as to the number of drilling rigs to be served at one time from these facilities, such number will probably be not more than four; and that pressure existing in Applicant's Line A at the point of connection proposed for the proposed Line AM–111 varies, with seasonal demands, between 175 and 250 pounds per square inch. It is submitted that under these conditions, the proposed facilities are adequate for the rendering of the service described.

Applicant estimates that the total over-all capital cost of the proposed construction will be $12,458.00.

Any interested State Commission is requested to notify the Federal Power Commission whether the application should be considered under the cooperative provisions of Part 67 of the provisional rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act, as amended, and, if so, to advise the Federal Power Commission as to the nature of its interest in the matter and whether it desires a conference, the creation of a board, or a joint or concurrent hearing, together with the reasons for such request.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to the application of the Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company should file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., not later than fifteen days from the date of the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's provisional rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act, as amended.

[Docket No. G–771]

NATURAL GAS PIPELINE CO. OF AMERICA AND TEXOMA NATURAL GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

SEPTEMBER 4, 1946.

Notice is hereby given that on August 26, 1946, an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission by Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America ("Natural") and Texoma Natural Gas Company ("Texoma"), each a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at Chicago, Ill., for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, to authorize Applicants jointly, but each in respect to the facilities proposed to be constructed by it, to construct and operate certain facilities, hereinafter more particularly described, which, if constructed, will extend and enlarge Applicants' existing integrated natural gas transportation system. Such existing transportation system, operated under common management, includes a 24-inch main pipeline extending from the Panhandle field in Texas in a general northeasterly direction across portions of Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa and Illinois to a point near Joliet, Illinois; segments or "loops" of pipelines, 26 inches in diameter paralleling the aforementioned 24-inch pipeline; and a 20-inch branch pipeline extending from Geneseo, Illinois, northeasterly to a point near the Wisconsin state line.

Natural delivers natural gas for distribution in numerous communities in Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin, Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas.

On May 10, 1946, in Docket No. G–651, this Commission issued a certificate of public convenience and necessity to Texoma and Natural authorizing said companies to construct and operate certain additional transportation facilities, including additional compressor engines at Texoma's compressor station No. 22 in the Panhandle Field, and certain 26-inch pipeline loops parallel to the present 24-inch pipeline where no 26-inch loops now exist; and authorizing Natural to make proposed sales of natural gas for resale in certain communities in Illinois and Iowa not then served by it. Texoma and Natural have not as yet constructed such additional facilities or commenced making such additional sales.

The facilities which Applicants, in Docket No. G–771, seek authorization to construct and operate are described as follows:

1. As to Texoma:

(a) The addition of nine 1,250 hp. engines and appurtenant facilities to its compressor station No. 22.

(b) The construction in the State of Texas of approximately 11 miles of 26-inch loop line.

No additional gathering lines are presently to be constructed as part of or in relation to additional facilities proposed.

2. As to Natural:

(a) The construction of a 6,250 hp. compressor station in the vicinity of Guymon, Oklahoma.

(b) The addition of a total of thirty-nine 1,250 hp. compressor units to existing main line stations in Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, and Illinois.

(c) The construction of 31 miles of 26-inch pipeline from the proposed Guymon Compressor Station to the present main line system at Compressor Station No. 2.

(d) The construction of a total of approximately 35 miles of 26-inch loop line along the route of the present 24-inch pipeline.

(e) The construction of approximately 54 miles of 24-inch pipeline loop between Compressor Station No. 10 and Joliet, Illinois.

(f) The construction of necessary telephone, dehydration plant and other appurtenant facilities.

The application recites that the present capacity of the system, approximately 268,000 Mcf. per day, will be increased by the construction of the facilities authorized in Docket No. G–651 by 81,000 Mcf. per day to a total of 349,000 Mcf. per day; and will be increased by the construction of the facilities proposed in Docket No. G–771 by 135,000 Mcf. per day to a total of 484,000 Mcf. per day.

Natural proposes to deliver additional natural gas for distribution in communities now served by it and in the communities which it was authorized to serve by the certificate of public convenience and necessity issued in Docket No. G–651.

Applicants do not propose at the present time to serve new main line industrial customers from the additional capacity to be afforded by the construction of the new facilities.

The application recites that there is an increased public demand and need for natural gas in the aforesaid communities, to the extent that Natural's present facilities and those for which a certificate has been issued in Docket No. G–651 are and will be insufficient to supply its market requirements, and that the distributing companies to which Natural was authorized to sell natural gas by the certificate issued in Docket No. G–651, have revised and increased their estimates of the quantities of natural gas that will be required by them; and that the granting of the certificate sought in Docket No. G–771 is necessary in order for Natural to supply the increased requirements.

It appears from the application that the estimated total over-all capital cost of the facilities for which a certificate is sought in Docket No. G–771 is approximately $23,554,136. Natural proposes to lend to Texoma all capital necessary for the construction to be undertaken by Texoma. Natural proposes to finance the cost of such loan to Texoma, and all capital cost of the extension of its own system proposed in Docket No. G–771, in part by the issuance of bonds secured by Texoma's obligation to it and by a first mortgage on all of Natural's physical property and pipeline system, and in part by the issuance of unsecured bank notes.

Applicants plan to start construction of the facilities proposed in Docket No. G–771 in April 1947 and to complete the project by January 1, 1950.

Any interested State commission is requested to notify the Federal Power Commission whether the application should be considered under the cooperative provisions of Part 67 of the provisional rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act, as amended, and, if so, to advise the Federal Power Commission as to the nature of its interest in the matter and whether it desires a conference, the creation of a board, or a joint or concurrent hearing, together with the reasons for such request.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with refrence to the application of Natural and Texoma should file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., not later than fifteen (15) days from date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's provisional rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act.

CHICAGO DISTRICT PIPELINE CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

SEPTEMBER 4, 1946.

Notice is hereby given that on August 26, 1946, an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission by Chicago District Pipeline Company ("Applicant"), an Illinois corporation with its principal place of business at Joliet, Ill., for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, to authorize the construction and operation of certain facilities hereinafter described.

Applicant is engaged in the purchase, transmission and sale of natural gas for resale to The Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company, Public Service Company of Northern Illinois, Western United Gas and Electric Company, and Northern Indiana Public Service Company, which are gas distributing utilities supplying the Chicago metropolitan area, including the northern Indiana area adjacent to the Illinois-Indiana State line. The natural gas which Applicant obtains is produced in Texas, being purchased by it from Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America at a point in Rutland Township, La Salle County, near Wedron, Ill., and at a point in Joliet Township, Will County, near Joliet, Ill.

Applicant's present transmission system consists of two transmission pipelines extending from a point near the City of Joliet to Chicago, Illinois. One of such pipelines, known as the Calumet line, consists of approximately 41 miles of 24-inch pipe and extends easterly from said point near Joliet through the City of Chicago Heights, Illinois, thence northerly to a point of connection with a gas main of The People Gas Light and Coke Company. Applicant's other Pipeline, known as the Crawford line, consists of approximately 34 miles of 24-inch and 20-inch pipe and extends northeasterly from said point near Joliet, following generally the north bank of the drainage canal of the Sanitary District of Chicago to a connection with a gas main of The Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company at the western city limits of Chicago. Applicant's transmission system also has connections with the gas distribution systems of Public Service Company of Northern Illinois, Western United Gas and Electric Company, and Northern Indiana Public Service Company.

On May 10, 1946, in Docket No. G–664, this Commission issued a certificate of public convenience and necessity to Applicant authorizing it, inter alia, to construct and operate two sections of 24-inch loop line, aggregating approximately 23 miles, along its Crawford line. Applicant has not as yet completed the construction of such facilities.

The facilites which Applicant in Docket No. G–772, seeks authorization to construct and operate are described as follows:

A section of 24-inch pipeline, approximately 11 miles in length, completing the looping of the Crawford line.

The application recites that the capacity of the Crawford line will be 220,000 Mcf. per day upon completion of the additional facilities authorized in Docket No. G–664, and after the completion of the facilities for which authorization is now sought will be 315,000 Mcf. per day.

Applicant proposes to deliver additional gas to The Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company, Public Service Company of Northern Illinois, Western United Gas and Electric Company and Northern Indiana Public Service Company for distribution in and near the communities now served by said companies and any other communities as may hereafter be served by them.

Applicant does not propose to serve any main line industrial customers.

The application recites that the proposed increase in the capacity of the Crawford line is intended (1) to permit transmission through that line of additional natural gas which Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America proposes to make available to Applicant at Joliet, (2) to insure continuity of deliveries through the Crawford line, and (3) to permit transmission through the line of a portion of the gas now transported through the Calumet line in the event the operation of the latter line should be interrupted or the requirements of Applicant's customers make a change necessary in the quantities of gas delivered through the respective lines. The application further recites that the growth of the communities served by certain of said gas distributing utilities and increased utilization of gas as a fuel have increased public demand therefor, to the extent that Applicant's present facilities as augmented by those authorized in Docket No. G-664 will be insufficient to supply the prospective natural gas requirements of said distributing utilities by the time the facilities for which a certificate of public convenience and necessity is now requested can be installed.

It appears from the application that the estimated total over-all capital cost of the extension of Applicant's facilities for which a certificate is sought in Docket No. G-772 is approximately $750,000. Applicant proposes to borrow all of the funds required in connection with such proposed construction from the Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company, its parent, on Applicant's unsecured note or notes to be due in 20 years from date, the notes to provide for repayment by Applicant, at any time, at its discretion, of portions of the total sum involved in amounts of $25,000 or multiples thereof.

Applicant proposes to start construction as soon as practicable after receipt of a certificate and complete the construction not later than the fall of 1948.

Any interested State commission is requested to notify the Federal Power Commission whether the application should be considered under the cooperative provisions of Part 67 of the provisional rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act, as amended, and, if so, to advise the Federal Power Commission as to the nature of its interest in the matter and whether it desires a conference, the creation of a board, or a joint or concurrent hearing, together with the reasons for such request.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to the application of Chicago District Pipeline Company should file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., not later than fifteen (15) days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's provisional rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act.

hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described above, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in an appropriate account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This order shall not be deemed to constitute an admission by the Alien Property Custodian of the lawfulness of, or acquiescence in, or licensing of, any set-offs, charges or deductions, nor shall it be deemed to limit the power of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof in whole or in part, nor shall it be deemed to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined to take any one or all of such actions.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on August 21, 1946.

Washington, Tuesday, September 10, 1946

The President

PROCLAMATION 2701

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF WASHINGTON'S FAREWELL ADDRESS

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS September 19, 1946 marks the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of President Washington's Farewell Address to the American people, in which the Father of our Country, in announcing his intention to retire from political office, gave his fellow countrymen the benefit of his wisdom and laid down a set of political principles which for a century and a half have profoundly affected the course of our history, it is fitting and proper at this time to pay our humble and grateful respects to the deep insight, the spirit of responsible citizenship, and the oustanding devotion to duty which characterized this pronouncement and the entire career of our first President.

In this message, issued to the country at a time when our young and struggling Republic was torn by internal strife and threatened by external dangers, President Washington saw clearly the need for our country to gain time "to settle and mature its recent institutions and to progress without interruption to that degree of strength and consistency which is necessary to give it . . . the command of its own fortunes."

Pointing to the dangers that lay ahead, he boldly charted a course for our country, based on principles of "national union", "independence and liberty", exemption from the "broils and wars" of other countries, "religion and morality", "pride of patriotism", "institutions for the general diffusion of knowledge", and the observance of "good faith and justice toward all nations".

Guided largely by these principles and favored by nature and the indomitable spirit of freedom and the will of a sturdy and pioneering people, our young Republic has grown to maturity, has gained that "command of its own fortunes" which has freed it from the state of relative dependency in which President Washington found it, and has taken its place in the councils of nations with new responsibilities which a century and a half ago could not have been foreseen.

It is appropriate for us at this time to draw fresh inspiration and renewed faith from the advice and admonitions of the Father of our Country and to apply his wisdom to our times and to the new environment in which we live.

Above all, we should keep fresh in our memory his call to national unity and responsible citizenship, based on principles of morality, and good faith and justice to all nations; for these remain the imperishable foundations of our Republic.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARRY S. TRUMAN, President of the United States of America, on the occasion of the sesquicentennial of President Washington's Farewell Address, do hereby call upon the officials of the Government to display the flag of the United States on all Government buildings on September 19, 1946, and I invite the people of the United States, on or near that date, to observe the event with appropriate ceremonies in schools, colleges, and civic organizations, re-dedicating ourselves to the spirit of loyal service to the Republic which our first President so nobly embodied.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 6th day of September in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-six, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and seventy-first.

[SEAL]

HARRY S. TRUMAN

By the President:

W. L. CLAYTON,
Acting Secretary of State.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Subtitle A—Office of the Secretary of Agriculture

FILING OF PRICE DECONTROL PETITIONS

The regulations governing the filing of petitions for the decontrol of agricultural commodities issued by the Secretary of Agriculture on August 23, 1946 (11 F. R. 9419) are hereby amended by adding a new § 7.19 as follows:

§ 7.19 Delegations. The authority to consider and pass upon petitions for the decontrol of agricultural commodities and to hold hearings thereon, conferred upon the Secretary by section 1 (A) (g) of the act, is hereby delegated as follows:

(a) The Director of Price is authorized (1) to issue the notice provided for in § 7.17 acknowledging receipt of the petition or request; (2) to dismiss any petition filed with him which he determines does not conform to the requirements of these regulations, as provided in § 7.7; (3) to determine whether any request for further consideration and a hearing complies with the provisions of these regulations as set forth in § 7.9; and (4) to fix a time and place for a hearing in accordance with § 7.10.

(b) The Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, or in his absence the Acting Administrator, is authorized to deny any petition filed under these regulations which does not meet the standards for decontrol established by the act and by these regulations, and to inform the petitioner why in his judgment the standards for decontrol have not been satisfied. If the Administrator is of the opinion that the petition should be granted in whole or in part he shall submit the petition, together with his recommendation, to the Secretary for final action.

(c) The Solicitor of the Department or his designee, the Director of Price or his designee, and the Director of the Branch of the Production and Marketing Administration having responsibility for the commodity involved or his designee, are hereby authorized to conduct the hearing on the petition as provided in § 7.12. If the hearing relates to an agricultural commodity or commodities in which more than one Branch of the Production and Marketing Administration is interested, the Director of Price is authorized to designate the Branch which shall assist in the conduct of the hearing. The Solicitor or his designee shall act as presiding officer at the hearing. Immediately following the hearing, the officers of the Department conducting such hearing shall prepare recommendations on the petition and submit them, together with the transcript of the hearing, to the Secretary for final action.

[SEAL] CHARLES F. BRANNAN,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

ADJUSTMENT IN MAXIMUM PRICE FOR RICE

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and particularly by section 1A (e) (2) (A) of said act, as added by the Price Control Extension Act of 1946, I hereby determine that continuation of the maximum prices applicable to rough and finished rice on June 30, 1946, would impede the necessary production of said commodity and that an adjustment in such prices is necessary to obtain the necessary production. I therefore, recommend to the Price Administrator that the maximum price for rough rice be increased $1.00 per barrel and that the maximum price for finished rice be adjusted to reflect this increase of $1.00 per barrel in the cost of rough rice.

The new crop of rice is in process of being harvested. The increase herein recommended is necessary to encourage increased production and orderly distribution of finished rice by assuring the procurement of sufficient rough rice from which to produce the quantities of finished rice necessary to meet commitments on a current basis.

Issued this 6th day of September 1946.

[SEAL] CHARLES F. BRANNAN,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

ADJUSTMENT IN MAXIMUM PRICES FOR DRY EDIBLE BEANS

The document setting forth recommended adjusted maximum prices for edible beans issued by the Acting Secretary of Agriculture on August 30, 1946 (11 F. R. 9667) is hereby amended to substitute as the recommended adjusted maximum price for red kidney beans "$10.75" in lieu of "10.50."

Issued this 6th day of September 1946.

[SEAL] CHARLES F. BRANNAN,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

PART 8—COMPENSATORY WAGE ADJUSTMENT SUBSIDY FOR SLAUGHTERERS

Pursuant to the authority vested in me under Directive 104 entitled "Compensatory Wage Adjustment Subsidy For Slaughterers," issued by the Office of Economic Stabilization on April 8, 1946 (11 F. R. 3950), as amended on August 28, 1946 (11 F. R. 9572), the regulations entitled "Compensatory Wage Adjustment Subsidy For Slaughterers," issued April 22, 1946 (11 F. R. 4521), as amended on April 25, 1946 (11 F. R. 4775), are hereby further amended as follows:

1. By deleting the date "May 25, 1946" appearing in § 8.5 and substituting in lieu thereof the date "September 30, 1946;" and

2. By deleting the phrase "who, prior to May 10, 1946," appearing in § 8.2 (d) and substituting in lieu thereof the phrase "who, on or before June 30, 1946,".

Issued and effective this 6th day of September 1946.

[SEAL] CHARLES F. BRANNAN,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

TITLE 8—ALIENS AND NATIONALITY

PART 503—GENERAL ORDERS

RESTRICTION ON RETRANSFER OF SHARES OF STOCK VESTED AND SOLD BY ALIEN PROPERTY CUSTODIAN

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, including without limitation sections 5 (b) and 12 thereof, Executive Orders No. 9095, as amended, and No. 9142, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, determining:

That in many instances shares of stock in domestic corporations which had been vested by the Alien Property Custodian as enemy owned or controlled at the time of the First World War, and were subsequently sold by him were, at the time of the Second World War, found to have come under enemy ownership or control as a result of mesne sales or transfers; and

That such ownership and control were detrimental to the national defense and tended to impede the war effort of the United States; and

That in the case of corporations closely related to the defense economy of the United States the public interest requires that others than American Nationals be prevented, subsequent to the vesting and sale by the Alien Property Custodian to American Nationals of shares of stock in said corporations, from acquiring ownership or control thereof; and

That it is necessary in the public interest that the Alien Property Custodian, upon sale of vested stock in such corporations to American Nationals, place certain restrictions upon the resale thereof or the transfer of any interest therein, in order to preclude subsequent acquisition of ownership or control thereof by others than American Nationals;

§ 503.9 Regulation restricting the retransfer of shares of stock vested and sold by the Alien Property Custodian. (a) The Alien Property Custodian will designate from time to time by Order issued pursuant to this regulation certain corporations subject to his supervision, jurisdiction and control, which are of importance in fields closely related to the defense economy of the United States. Corporations so designated are hereinafter referred to as "key corporations."

(b) The term "vested stock" as used in this regulation shall be deemed to mean shares of stock in key corporations vested by the Alien Property Custodian and hereafter sold by the Alien Property Custodian and shall also include any shares issued in exchange for vested stock or issued by way of stock dividend thereon or split-up thereof or shares acquired pursuant to any rights or warrants accruing to the holders of vested stock notwithstanding any recapitalization, consolidation, merger or reclassification.

(c) Only American Nationals shall be qualified to become owners or holders, directly or indirectly, by mesne conveyance or otherwise, of any interest in vested stock.

"American National" shall mean: (1) The United States, any state or territory thereof, as well as any political subdivision, agency or instrumentality of the United States or any such state or territory, (2) any individual who is a citizen of and resident in the United States, (3) any partnership organized and having its principal place of business in the United States or a territory thereof, 75% of the members of which are citizens of and resident in the United States who own at least a 75% interest in the partnership, and (4) any corporation, association or other organization organized under the laws of the United States or any state or territory thereof and having its principal place of business therein, 75% of the voting stock of which is owned or held for the benefit of American Nationals, and which corporation, association or other such organization is not controlled by persons other than American Nationals: Provided, however, That individuals, partnerships, corporations, associations or organizations which have been determined by the Alien Property Custodian to be acting for or on behalf of a national of Germany or Japan, and persons who, by order of the Alien Property Custodian issued pursuant hereto, are determined not to be qualified to own or hold vested stock, shall not be deemed American Nationals for purposes of this regulation, irrespective of whether they would otherwise qualify under subparagraphs (1), (2), (3) or (4) hereof: And provided further, That any individual, partnership, corporation, association or organization acting, holding, or purporting to act or hold, directly or indirectly, for or on behalf of or for the benefit of any country, individual, partnership, corporation, association, or orgahization which is not an American National shall not be deemed an American National for purposes of this regulation.

(d) No right, title or interest in vested stock may be transferred to or acquired by, or held for the benefit of, or held by, any person not an American National. Any such transfer, acquisition, or holding of any such right, title or interest is prohibited and shall be null and void. No right, title or interest in any such stock shall pass by such transfer or acquisition: Provided, That any person not an American National to whom any such right, title or interest devolves or is transferred by will, descent or operation of law shall have the right to receive, hold and sell the same as the owner thereof for a period not exceeding two years from such devolution or transfer; Provided further, That any American National holding any such right, title or interest, who ceases to be an American National, shall have the right to hold and sell vested stock for a period not exceeding two years from the date on which he ceases to be an American National.

(e) In order to insure that all purchasers of vested stock shall have notice of the restrictions hereby imposed upon such vested stock, every key corporation, whenever it is so directed by the Alien Property Custodian, shall stamp or print a legend, containing a statement of or reference to the prohibitions and restrictions imposed by and pursuant to this regulation in such form as shall be approved or prescribed by the Alien Property Custodian on all certificates hereafter issued representing shares of vested stock. Any key corporation, whenever it is so directed by the Alien Property Custodian, shall amend its charter or certificate or articles of incorporation to include therein, in such form as shall be approved or prescribed by the Alien Property Custodian, a prohibition or restriction against the issuance or transfer of vested stock or any interest therein except to American Nationals. Except as authorized by the Alien Property Custodian, a key corporation shall not at any time hereafter amend its charter or certificate or articles of incorporation so as to delete therefrom any such prohibition or restriction upon the issuance or transfer of such vested stock or interest therein.

(f) Except as authorized in this paragraph or as otherwise authorized by the Alien Property Custodian, a key corporation, its transfer agents and registrars, shall not issue or transfer, or recognize, record or register the issuance or transfer, or ownership, of vested stock in violation of this regulation or of the prohibition or restriction incorporated in its charter or certificate or articles of incorporation pursuant to paragraph (e) of this section. A key corporation, its transfer agents and registrars are hereby authorized to issue or transfer, and recognize, record and register the issuance or transfer, or ownership, of vested stock in the name of any person who certifies, in a manner authorized or approved by the Alien Property Custodian, that such person is an American national: Provided, That such key corporation, transfer agent or registrar, as the case may be, does not have knowledge that such person is not an American national; but no rights in derogation of paragraph (d) of this section shall be created thereby. No corporate action shall be invalid on the ground of any invalidity, by reason of the provisions of paragraph (d), of any vote, consent or exercise of a right accepted by the corporation in respect of vested stock registered in good faith in the name of any such person in reliance on certificates supplied in accordance with this paragraph. No key corporation, transfer agent or registrar shall be held liable for or in respect to anything done or omitted in good faith in reliance on the provisions of this paragraph, or any order issued by the Alien Property Custodian pursuant to this regulation.

(g) Each key corporation shall, at least once in each calendar year, and at such other times as may be requested by the Alien Property Custodian, furnish to the Alien Property Custodian a list of the names and addresses of the holders of record of its outstanding vested stock. Whenever requested by the Alien Property Custodian, each holder of record of vested stock shall furnish to the Alien Property Custodian the name and address of the beneficial owner or owners of the stock so held of record by such person.

(h) The provisions of this section and of orders issued pursuant thereto shall continue in effect until rescinded or superseded, notwithstanding the end of the present emergency or the termination of supervision of the corporation affected.

CONSOLIDATED FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANK BONDS

The rules and regulations for the Federal Home Loan Bank System are hereby amended by inserting immediately after § 4.2 the following new section:

§ 4.3 Consolidated bonds—(a) Issuance of consolidated bonds. The Administration will determine and authorize the issuance of all consolidated Federal Home Loan Bank bonds, dates of issue, maturities, rates of interest, terms and conditions thereof, and the manner in which such bonds shall be issued, subject to the provisions of section 303 of the Government Corporation Control Act so far as applicable. The Administration shall not issue consolidated bonds in excess of twelve times the total paid-in capital stock and reserves under section 16 of the Federal Home Loan Bank Act, as amended, of all the Federal Home Loan Banks. The Federal Home Loan Banks shall at all times maintain assets of the following types, free from any lien or pledge, in a total amount at least equal to the amount of consolidated bonds outstanding: (1) cash; (2) obligations of or fully guaranteed by the United States; (3) secured advances; and (4) mortgages as to which one or more Federal Home Loan Banks have any guaranty or insurance, or commitment therefor, by the United States or any agency thereof.

(b) Form of consolidated bonds. Consolidated bonds shall be issued in series and all consolidated bonds of the same series shall be of like date, tenor, and effect except as to denominations, which shall be in such amounts as may be determined by the Governor or by such person or persons as may be designated by the Governor. The form of each consolidated bond shall be prescribed by the Administration. The Administration may, in its discretion, from time to time, issue interim certificates temporarily in lieu of definitive consolidated bonds. Consolidated bonds issued with maturities of one year or less may be designated consolidated notes.

(c) Transactions in consolidated bonds (transfers, exchanges, redemptions, etc.). The general regulations of the Treasury Department now or hereafter in force governing transactions in United States securities are hereby adopted, so far as applicable and as necessarily modified to relate to consolidated Federal Home Loan Bank bonds, as the regulations of the Administration for similar transactions in consolidated Federal Home Loan Bank bonds.

(d) Lost, stolen, destroyed, mutilated, or defaced bonds. The statutes of the United States, now or hereafter in force, and the regulations of the Treasury Department, now or hereafter in force, governing relief on account of the loss, theft, destruction, mutilation, or defacement of United States securities, so far as applicable and as necessarily modified to relate to consolidated Federal Home Loan Bank bonds, are hereby adopted as the regulations of the Administration for the issuance of substitute consolidated Federal Home Loan Bank bonds or the payment of lost, stolen, destroyed, mutilated, or defaced consolidated Federal Home Loan Bank bonds.

(e) Administrative provisions. The Secretary of the Treasury, or the Acting Secretary of the Treasury, is hereby authorized and empowered, as the agent of the Administration and the Federal Home Loan Banks, to administer the regulations of the Federal Home Loan Bank Administration adopted by the two paragraphs next hereinabove, and to delegate such authority at his discretion to other officers, employees, and agents of the United States Treasury Department. Any such regulations may be waived on behalf of the Administration and the Federal Home Loan Banks by the Secretary of the Treasury or the Acting Secretary of the Treasury or by any officer of the United States Treasury Department authorized to waive similar regulations with respect to United States securities, but only in any particular case in which a similar regulation with respect to United States securities would be waived. The terms "securities" and "bonds" as used in this section shall, unless the context otherwise requires, include and apply to coupons and interim certificates.

(f) Reservation of right to revoke or amend; limitations thereon. The right to revoke or amend this section, or to prescribe and issue supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations, is hereby reserved: Provided, however, That no revocation or relaxation of any of the restrictions or requirements contained in or imposed by the last two sentences of the first paragraph of this section shall be effected unless there are no consolidated Federal Home Loan Bank bonds then outstanding or unless there shall have been deposited with the Treasurer of the United States, for the payment of the principal and interest to date of maturity (or to date designated for redemption in the case of consolidated bonds which are callable and have been called for redemption) of all consolidated Federal Home Loan Bank bonds the holders of which have not consented to such revocation or relaxation, funds sufficient to pay in full said principal and interest to date of maturity or to such date designated for redemption.

(Sec. 11 (c), 47 Stat. 733, as amended by sec. 503, 48 Stat. 1261, sec. 17, 47 Stat. 736; 12 U. S. C. 1431 (c), 1437; E. O. 9070, 7 F. R. 1529)

PART 301—INSURANCE OF ACCOUNTS

PROCEDURE FOR ADOPTION OF RULES, REGULATIONS OR AMENDMENTS

Effective immediately §§ 301.22 and 301.23 of the rules and regulations for Insurance of Accounts, except paragraph (a) of § 301.22, are hereby rescinded.

Effective September 11, 1946, the following new paragraphs are hereby added to §§ 301.22 and 301.23 of the rules and regulations for Insurance of Accounts.

§ 301.22 Amendments. • • •

(b) Rules, regulations and amendments without notice. Any proposed rule, regulation or amendment may be adopted by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation without compliance with the requirements of paragraphs (c), (d), (e) and (f) of this section, which involves any matter relating to said Corporation management or personnel or to public property, loans, grants, benefits, or contracts, or which is deemed to apply to interpretative rules, general statements of policy, rules of said Corporation organization, procedure, or practice, or unless all persons subject to any such proposed rule, regulation or amendment are named and either personally or otherwise have actual notice thereof in accordance with law, or in any situation in which said Corporation for good cause finds (and incorporates the findings and a brief statement of the reasons therefor in the rules, regulations or amendments issued) that notice and public procedure thereon are impracticable, unnecessary or contrary to the public interest.

(c) Notice of proposed rules, regulations or amendments not within paragraph (b). Excepting any proposed rule, regulation or amendment adopted pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section, no such proposal (except any substantive rule granting or recognizing exemption or relieving restriction) will be adopted by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation until at least thirty days have elapsed after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER of general notice of the same, including (1) a statement of the time, place, and nature of public rule making proceedings, (2) reference to the authority under which the rule, regulation or amendment is proposed, and (3) either the terms or substance of such proposal or a description of the subjects and issues involved. Notice of such proposal shall also be mailed to each member of the Federal Savings and Loan Advisory Council. A copy of such proposed rule, regulation or amendment shall be filed with the editor of the Federal Home Loan Bank Review for publication in the next available issue of such Review.

(d) Participation of interested persons in a proposed rule, regulation or amendment. At any time within thirty days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER of general notice of a proposed rule, regulation or amendment as prescribed in paragraph (c) of this section, interested persons may participate in the making of such a proposed rule, regulation or amendment through the submission of written data, views, or arguments thereon delivered within the prescribed time to the Secretary to the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, 101 Indiana Avenue NW., Washington, D. C. Interested persons may also petition for the issuance, amendment, or repeal of a rule, regulation or amendment and deliver any such petition to the Secretary to said Corporation at the address given herein.

(e) Hearings on rules, regulations or amendments. After receipt of written requests therefor to the Secretary to the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation of at least seven members of the Federal Savings and Loan Advisory Council, or of at least fifty insured institutions (accompanied by certified resolutions of the boards of directors thereof), said Corporation will fix a time and place for a hearing on a proposed rule, regulation or amendment or upon an existing rule, regulation or amendment to which petitioners object. The Secretary to said Corporation will give written notice of the time and place of such hearing to the members of the Federal Savings and Loan Advisory Council, and to each of the insured institutions requesting such hearing. If such a request for such hearing has been received before thirty days have elapsed from the date general notice of a proposed rule, regulation or amendment was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the Corporation will not take final action upon such proposal prior to such hearing. The filing of a request for a hearing upon an existing rule, regulation or amendment to which petitioners object shall not suspend the operation of such rule, regulation or amendment. Any interested person, institution or association may appear in person at such hearing before said Corporation or may be represented at such hearing by any of its directors, officers, employees, agents or attorneys-at-law; and may offer evidence and examine witnesses.

(f) Recommendations and representations at hearings by persons other than those requesting hearing. No hearing upon a proposed rule, regulation or amendment, or existing rule, regulation or amendment to which the petitioners object will be confined to persons requesting such hearing; but each such hearing will be open to representatives of any insured institution. Recommendations of other institutions that may be affected, or from an organized trade association, may be filed with the Secretary to said Corporation either prior to or during any hearing, and such institutions or associations may appear in person at such hearing before said Corporation or may be represented at such hearing by any of its directors, officers, employees, agents, or attorneys-at-law; and be entitled to be heard.

§ 301.23 Publication of rules and regulations for insurance of accounts. There shall be published in the Federal Home Loan Bank Review, in the issue immediately following the filing for publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (pursuant to the Federal Register Act, 49 Stat. 500; 44 U. S. C., Sup. 301–314, as now or hereafter amended, and regulations prescribed by the Administrative Committee of the Federal Register, and approved by the President, under said act, the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946) all rules and regulations issued by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation pursuant to the authority contained in Title IV of the National Housing Act, as now or hereafter amended, and the General Manager of the Corporation shall cause a copy of each such rule or regulation to be distributed to each insured institution. He shall have available additional copies for distribution upon request therefor.

These amendments are deemed to be of a procedural character within the meaning of § 301.22 (c) of the rules and regulations for Insurance of Accounts.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATIONS OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

RESTRICTED PRIORITIES ASSISTANCE FOR NON-MILITARY PURPOSES

§ 944.49 Priorities Regulation 28—(a) Background and purpose of this regulation. With the exception of certain areas of critical shortages, such as the housing and apparel fields, the increased supply of many materials resulting from reduction in military procurement is generally adequate to meet demands. It is the declared policy of the Civilian Production Administration to remove priority controls as quickly as possible. In view of this situation and policy, the issuance of preference ratings by the CPA will be restricted to a minimum. Outside the areas of critical shortages mentioned above, limited priorities assistance may be given for non-military purposes only in specific instances where the need is clearly demonstrated as necessary to assist reconversion or insure the continued fulfillment of essential civilian or export needs. This regulation describes the conditions under which CC ratings will be assigned in such cases, except for textile fabrics or yarns for use in the United States which are covered by Priorities Regulation 28A.

Paragraph (b) below lists other regulations and orders which explain the assignment and use of preference ratings for purposes not covered by this regulation. Paragraph (c) states how applications should be filed under this regulation for use in this country. Paragraph (d) gives the general rules governing the assignment of such ratings, and paragraphs (e) through (h) cover the special situations where these ratings may be granted. Paragraph (i) explains how CC ratings are granted for export.

(b) Other procedures for assigning ratings. Priorities Regulation 1 explains in general the rating system, including the sequence of ratings and the purposes for which AAA and MM ratings are assigned. In addition, Priorities Regulation 28A, and certain orders in the M–317 and M–328 series, explain the assignment of CC ratings for certain textiles and related items, and Priorities Regulation 33 explains the assignment of HH ratings for housing.

(c) How to apply for a CC rating. Applications for a CC rating under this regulation for uses in the United States, its territories and possessions, should be made on Form CPA–541A addressed to the Civilian Production Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: PR–28. Applications for textile yarns and fabrics covered by Priorities Regulation 28A should be made in accordance with that regulation, and applications for other textiles and related items for certain end uses should be made as explained in orders in the M–317 and M–328 series.

(d) When the Civilian Production Administration will assign a CC rating under this regulation. (1) When effective assistance of other kinds is not practicable (CPA may locate sources able to ship without ratings), CC ratings may be granted for specific items and quantities of materials in the limited classes of cases described in paragraphs (e) through (h) below, upon determination in each instance that all the following conditions are met:

(i) The use of substitute and less scarce materials is not practicable;

(ii) Reasonable efforts have been made to get the required item without a rating; and

(iii) A rating is required to obtain the item by the latest date and in the minimum quantity practicable after taking into consideration material in inventory and material available without a rating.

(2) In the case of production materials and operating supplies, the CPA will not generally assign ratings for more than a 60-day supply of the item in question. This 60-day limitation does not preclude later applications.

(3) Preference ratings will not be assigned for the procurement of items which will be resold without change in form.

(4) The CPA will not grant a CC rating under this regulation where it would preempt an undue proportion of the limited amounts of material available. If the material is in such short supply that it is generally hard to obtain the CPA may provide other procedures rather than a rating under this regulation.

(5) CC ratings will be denied where it appears that the item for which the rating is requested is available under different terms of sale or from a supplier other than the applicant's customary one.

(6) In certain cases, the assignment of CC ratings is governed by or forbidden by other orders of CPA. Thus, no CC ratings will be assigned for items on List A of Priorities Regulation 3. CC ratings will be assigned for deliveries of iron or steel after September 30, 1946, under the provisions of this regulation. CC ratings will not be assigned for deliveries of iron or steel before September 30, however the Civilian Production Administration may in a few circumstances authorize the placing of "certified orders" for steel, iron castings, or merchant pig iron as explained in Directions 12 and 13 to Order M–21.

(7) Where it appears that a CC rating assigned under this regulation will have an undue impact on a single source of supply, the Civilian Production Administration may limit the amount of materials or equipment that may be ordered with the rating from a single source or ordered for delivery during one period of time.

(e) Critical products. (1) The CPA may assign a CC rating as explained in Schedule I to this regulation to get material which is needed to sustain or increase production of an item or service listed on that Schedule which the CPA has determined to be in such tight supply that it is a serious threat to the economy.

(2) The Civilian Production Administration may assign CC ratings for the fourth quarter requirements for iron castings and steel of certain products listed on Direction 18 to this regulation on a single application as explained in that direction.

(f) Production materials, capital equipment and MRO. Under the conditions stated in paragraph (d), the CPA may grant a CC rating to get production materials, capital equipment or maintenance, repair and operating supplies (MRO) in the following cases:

(1) The CPA may assign a CC rating to get a "bottleneck" item where a great majority of the materials or of the equipment needed is on hand or is obtainable without priorities assistance and it is demonstrated that failure to receive it in the quantity and on the date requested will prevent an entire plant from beginning, resuming or maintaining operations at the minimum economic rate. The "minimum economic rate" of operation means the rate of operation at which the plant as a whole must operate to avoid operating at a financial loss, without regard to any particular product if the plant makes more than one. If a plant is currently operating at less than capacity without incurring a financial loss, the minimum economic rate of operation will not be considered a higher rate than the current one, even though some of the plant's regular products are not currently being produced.

(2) Special consideration, not limited to bottleneck items, will be given to the needs of small business and to the business needs of World War II Veterans up to the minimum economic rate of operation. For this purpose "small business" generally means a business in which not more than 250 persons are actively employed. A veteran who wants to get farm machinery or equipment listed in War Food Order 135 of the Department of Agriculture for use on a farm should apply under that order for a veterans' preference certificate. No farmer should apply under this regulation for such farm machinery or equipment unless he qualifies under paragraph (h) (4) below.

(3) CC ratings, however, will not be ordinarily assigned under this paragraph (f) for specialized machinery or equipment designed and made solely for the production of a critical product listed in Schedule I to this regulation. CC ratings for such machinery and equipment will be assigned only under the criteria stated in paragraph (h) below, as it is considered that such specialized machinery or equipment will be used to better advantage for maximum production of critical products if it is sold through normal channels of distribution to the greatest extent possible.

(g) Construction. Under the conditions stated in paragraph (d), the CPA may assign CC ratings in the following cases:

(1) A bottleneck item which is needed to complete non-housing construction, and which is to be physically incorporated in the structure. CC ratings will not be assigned under this paragraph (g) (1) for any materials listed on Schedule A to Priorities Regulation 33.

(2) An item of material not listed on Schedule A to Priorities Regulation 33 which will be physically incorporated in a dwelling and is needed to make the dwelling habitable.

(3) An item of production material, capital equipment, MRO, or material for construction needed by a producer of industrially made houses, sections or panels. Capital equipment will be rated for expansion of facilities only in special cases where the National Housing Agency recommends increased production under the Veterans' Emergency Housing Program. An industrially made house, section or panel is either produced in a factory or, in the case of concrete, precast either in a factory, or on the site. CC ratings will be assigned only to producers approved by the National Housing Agency to participate in the Veterans' Emergency Housing Program. The Standards which the National Housing Agency applies in such approvals may be obtained at the Office of the Housing Administrator, Washington 25, D. C.

(4) An item of specialized equipment (except for site-preparation equipment) needed for the erection of industrially made houses or which will be continually used for erection of conventional dwelling units under the Veterans' Emergency Housing Program, or an item of MRO needed for such equipment.

(5) An item of production material, capital equipment, MRO, or material for construction needed by a producer of a new type material who has entered into an individual agreement with the Housing Expediter for financial aid (such as premium payments or a guaranteed market under the Veterans' Emergency Housing Act, or other financial assistance) for the production of such materials and who needs the item to carry out the agreement.

NOTE: Subparagraph (6) formerly subparagraph (5), redesignated Sept. 6, 1946.

(6) A person applying for a CC rating to get construction materials or equipment must show on his application Form CPA-541A that approval for the project has been granted on Form CPA-4386 or CPA-4423, or that the construction is exempt under Veterans Housing Program Order No. 1.

(h) Additional assistance in special cases. Paragraphs (e) through (g) state the provisions under which CC ratings will be given in most situations with the special restrictions and considerations applicable to those situations. In addition, under the conditions in paragraph (d) but without regard to special conditions in paragraphs (e) through (g), the CPA may grant a CC rating under this regulation to get material in the following cases:

(1) The item is needed to prevent a delay in the completion on time of military procurement, production or construction; or

(2) The item is needed for incorporation into a product to be delivered on a CC or HH rating, and the item is not on hand or available on order; or

(3) The item is needed for use by the applicant to eliminate serious hazard to the life, health or safety of a large number of people, or to maintain or establish essential public or other community service; or

(4) The item is essential to replace one which has been destroyed by flood, fire, tornado or other act of God, and the item (i) is to be used on a farm, or (ii) is essential to the continued operation of a plant, facility or service at the minimum economic rate; or

(5) The item is essential to the continued operation of a plant, facility or service at the minimum economic rate and is shown to fall in one of the following cases:

(i) It is needed in an emergency to replace equipment which has actually broken down and cannot be repaired; or

(ii) It is needed to replace equipment which is subject to recurring mechanical breakdowns and is out of service so frequently as to impede operations; or

(iii) It is needed to replace equipment which has been condemned as unsafe or illegal by public authority or insurance underwriters and which cannot be repaired and must be replaced under requirements of law or insurance contracts; or

(6) The item is needed as a repair part to prevent imminent breakdown of machinery or equipment; or

(7) Failure to obtain delivery of the item would result in exceptional community hardship or in unreasonable and exceptional hardship not suffered generally by others in the same industry or activity.

(8) The item is needed for emergency requirements for veterans educational facilities.

(9) The item is required to complete construction or equipment of a plant required for industrial food manufacturing, processing, packaging preservation and storage (except soft drinks, alcoholic beverages and chewing gum). CC ratings will ordinarily be granted for this purpose only where vital for famine relief, or processing or storage of this year's crops. Restaurants, hotels, retail stores and farms are not included in this category.

(i) CC Ratings for export—(1) General. In the case of materials for export (other than certain textiles and related items referred to in paragraph (i) (2) below), applications from Canada should be filed with the Priorities Officer of Canada, and will be handled on the same basis as United States applications. In the case of other exports, upon demonstration that a rating is required, a CC rating may be assigned for procurement in this country of materials for export to prevent serious injury to the minimum essential civilian economies of friendly foreign nations; or to aid in the restoration, development and maintenance of foreign sources of supplies vitally needed in this country; or for other reasons of public policy. Applications for such ratings should be made to the Office of International Trade, Department of Commerce on the forms prescribed by that agency.

(2) Certain textiles and related items. For exports, including shipments to Canada, of cotton broad woven fabrics for which set-asides are provided in the distribution schedules of Order M-317A, seine twine, fish netting, and cotton yarn, CC ratings may be granted, on specific applications only, to the extent of the export programs fixed by the CPA. Applications for such ratings should be made to the Office of International Trade, Department of Commerce, on the forms prescribed by that Agency; except that for shipments to Canada, applications should be filed with the Cotton Administrator of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board and will be acted on by the CPA.

PART 3294—IRON AND STEEL PRODUCTION

[Gen. Preference Order M-21, Direction 13, as Amended Sept. 6, 1946]

Direction 13 to Order M-21 is amended to read as follows:

(a) What this direction does. The continued shortage of merchant pig iron, particularly in certain areas, threatens production of railroad brake shoes and certain items critically short for the Veterans' Emergency Housing Program. It is necessary to maintain production of these items at a high level, and at the same time insure that, as far as possible, this essential demand for merchant pig iron is spread as evenly as possible among furnaces and areas, so that individual foundries are not unfairly affected. This direction no longer provides for assistance in obtaining iron castings. CC ratings may be assigned for iron castings under Priorities Regulation 28, and special help may be given to certain products under Direction 18. This direction provides for the continued allocation of merchant pig iron during the fourth quarter. This direction is necessary and appropriate in the public interest, to promote the national defense, and to effectuate the purposes of the Veterans' Emergency Housing Act of 1946.

(b) What foundries may apply. Foundries which make products on Schedule A of this direction, (including those which make components of Schedule A products and are wholly owned and operated by manufacturers of Schedule A products) may apply under this direction for authority to place a "certified order" for merchant pig iron needed to make Schedule A products.

(c) When to file. Applications should be filed on or before the 15th day of September on Form CPA-4504. The authorization will be returned by the 25th day of September, and may authorize purchases for October. Applications for November should be filed on or before October 5th, and for December by November 5th. Authorizations will be returned by the 20th.

(d) How to place a certified order.

(1) A purchase order for merchant pig iron may be certified by furnishing a certification in substantially the following form to the producer, signed as provided in Priorities Regulation 7:

> I certify, subject to the penalties of section 35A of the United States Criminal Code, that I am authorized to place this order for merchant pig iron under Direction 13 to Order M-21, Serial No. ____.

(2) Canadian purchasers of merchant pig iron. In the case of a Canadian purchaser of merchant pig iron who has been authorized pursuant to application on Form CPA-4504, a purchase order may be certified by furnishing a certification in substantially the following form:

> The undersigned purchaser certifies, subject to the penalties of Section 15 of the Canadian Wartime Industries Control Regulations, to the seller, to the Canadian Priorities Officer, and to the Civilian Production Administration, that he is authorized to place this order for merchant iron under the provisions of General Instruction Letter No. 67 and Direction 13 to Order M-21.

(e) Limitation on use of merchant pig iron obtained on certified orders. Each foundry must put into production in each month for which it receives authorization not less than the amount of merchant pig iron authorized for that month on Form CPA-4504 to make products on Schedule A.

(f) Periods for which certified orders may be placed. Orders may be certified for delivery only in the months specifically authorized on Form CPA-4504.

(g) Refusal of certified orders for merchant pig iron. A producer need not accept a certification for merchant pig iron if it is received after the 25th day of the month preceding the month in which delivery is requested, except October orders must be accepted until September 29th.

(h) Certified orders must be treated as rated orders. Certified orders must be scheduled for production in preference to all other orders except for orders covered by specific written directives issued by the Civilian Production Administration. Any purchase order certified under this direction must be treated as a rated order under Priorities Regulation 1 and accepted, scheduled, and delivered accordingly. The rules of Priorities Regulation 1 will apply, except to the extent that this direction is inconsistent with them.

(i) Equitable distribution to consumers. Producers and foundries must distribute remaining amounts of merchant pig iron and iron castings in a fair and equitable manner after filling certified and rated orders.

(j) Reports. Producers and foundries must furnish such reports as may be required by the Civilian Production Administration from time to time, subject to approval by the Budget Bureau pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(k) Other assistance to obtain merchant pig iron—(1) General. Preference ratings will not be assigned to the deliveries of merchant pig iron, but instead authorizations to place certified orders, or directives may be granted, as the case requires.

(2) Authorizations to place certified orders other than as provided in paragraph (b). Ordinarily, CPA may grant authorizations to place certified orders for merchant pig iron required for products other than those on Schedule A under the conditions provided in Priorities Regulation 28. However, in certain areas, for certain types of merchant pig iron, and in the case of certain furnaces, the supply available may be insufficient to guarantee most foundries a minimum economic rate. In such case, the Civilian Production Administration will grant authorizations only under the conditions described in paragraph (h) of Priorities Regulation 28.

(3) How to file. Applications under paragraph (k) (2) should be filed on Form CPA-4504 together with Form CPA-541A (with blocks 7A, 7B, 9, 12, 13, 14, and 16 only filled out). Applications should be filed and will be acted on by the Civilian Production Administration only at the times provided by paragraph (c).

In the performance of the foregoing duties such Counsel shall be responsible to the General Counsel for the Department of the Navy.

(i) When a determination of excessive profits has been made by the Chairman of the Navy Price Adjustment Board, whether embodied in an order or an agreement, the Chief of the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts is hereby charged with the responsibility for the elimination of the excessive profits so determined (to the extent that the Secretary of the Navy is charged with the duty of eliminating such excessive profits). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Chief of the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts is particularly authorized and directed:

(a) To receive and collect all payments, reports, financial data and other items, as provided in any such agreement or order, and to transmit all payments received by him to the Treasurer of the United States to be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts;

(b) When necessary, in order to eliminate any such excessive profits (i) to effect the withholding from amounts otherwise due to a contractor or subcontractor of any amount of such excessive profits of such contractor or subcontractor, or (ii) to direct a contractor to withhold for the account of the United States, from amounts otherwise due to a subcontractor, any amount of such excessive profits of such subcontractor determined under the provisions of the Renegotiation Act of 1942; or (iii) to direct a contractor or subcontractor to withhold for the account of the United States, from amounts otherwise due to a subcontractor, any amount of such excessive profits of such subcontractor determined under the provisions of the Renegotiation Act of 1943.

(c) To keep appropriate records with respect to the performance of the terms and provisions of all renegotiation agreements and with respect to the discharge of liability of contractors and subcontractors under orders determining excessive profits made or entered pursuant hereto; and

(d) To advise the Secretary of the Navy as to any unremedied defaults under any such renegotiation agreements or orders and to recommend appropriate action with respect thereto.

In order that the Chief of the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts may expeditiously discharge such responsibility, the Chairman of the Board shall cause to be transmitted to the Chief of the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts a conformed copy of each renegotiation agreement and each order determining excessive profits made or entered pursuant hereto promptly after the same shall have become effective.

The powers, functions, duties, authority and discretion herein vested in the Chief of the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts may be delegated by him in whole or in part to such divisions and officers in the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts as he shall deem necessary or desirable.

(j) With respect to proceedings under the Renegotiation Act of 1942 (Ref. e), the Directive of the Secretary of the Navy dated 23 March 1944 (PM:370:FWRP:ap) (NPD 14201–14212) shall remain in effect until 11 September 1946, and shall thereafter be deemed revoked. As to proceedings under the Renegotiation Act of 1943, it is revoked immediately. All actions taken under[1] its authority are hereby ratified, approved, and confirmed. The Chairman shall have custody of the records of cases under the Renegotiation Act of 1942, and shall have authority with respect to such cases to take any action necessary in view of their having been disposed of by agreement or order, including, without limitation, the power to reopen such cases in the event of a showing of fraud or malfeasance or a willful misrepresentation of a material fact. TITLE 36—PARKS AND FORESTS

Chapter II—Forest Service

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the Act of June 4, 1897 (30 Stat. 35, 16 U. S. C., 551), and the Act of February 1, 1905 (33 Stat. 628, 16 U. S. C. 472), I, Charles F. Brannan, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby amend Regulations T–6, T–10, and T–12 of the rules and regulations governing the occupancy, use, protection, and administration of the National Forests, which constitute §§ 261.7, 261.12, and 261.13, Chapter II, Title 36, Code of Federal Regulations, as follows:

Section 261.7 is amended by substituting the word "livestock" for "stock" wherever the latter appears in paragraphs (b), (c), (d), and (f).

Section 261.12 is amended so that the first sentence reads as follows: "The Forest Supervisor, when authorized by the Regional Forester, may settle any trespass involving a claim of not more than $1,000 and may authorize the District Ranger to settle any innocent trespass involving a claim of not more than $100."

Section 261.13 is amended to read as follows:

§ 261.13 Impounding of livestock. Livestock trespassing on national-forest land, or on other land under Forest Service control, which is not removed therefrom within the prescribed period after giving or publishing a warning notice as provided in this regulation may be impounded by a Forest officer. Whenever such Forest officer has definite knowledge of the kind of livestock that is in trespass and knows the name and address of the owner such impoundment may be effected at any time 15 days after the date that written notice of the trespass is mailed or delivered to such owner unless in the meantime the trespass has been abated. In the event that local Forest officers do not have complete knowledge of the kind of livestock in tresspass, or if the name and address of the owner thereof are unknown, impoundment may be effected at any time 15 days after the date a notice requiring removal of trespassing livestock is first published in a local newspaper and posted at the county court house. No sale of impounded livestock shall be made until at least five days have elapsed after the date of impoundment. The owner may redeem the livestock within the five-day period by submitting proof of ownership and paying all expenses incurred by the United States in advertising, gathering, impounding, and feeding or pasturing it. If the livestock is not redeemed on or before the date fixed for its sale, it shall be sold at public sale to the highest bidder. If no bid is received the livestock may, in the discretion of the responsible Forest officer, be sold at private sale or be condemned and destroyed or otherwise disposed of. When livestock is sold pursuant to this regulation the Forest officer making the sale shall furnish the purchaser a bill of sale or other written instrument evidencing the sale.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed, in the City of Washington, this 6th day of September 1946.

[SEAL] CHARLES F. BRANNAN,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans' Administration

PROCUREMENT OF AUTOMOBILES AND OTHER CONVEYANCES FOR DISABLED VETERANS

APPLICATION

(a) Purpose. The purpose of this instruction is to establish the procedures by which the Veterans' Administration will provide automobiles or other conveyances for certain disabled veterans of World War II in compliance with Public Law 663, 79th Congress, approved August 8, 1946.

(b) Statutory authority. Public Law 663, 79th Congress, reads as follows:

Automobiles and other conveyances for disabled veterans. To enable the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs to provide an automobile or other conveyance at a cost per vehicle or conveyance of not to exceed $1,600, including equipment with such special attachments and devices as the Administrator may deem necessary, for each veteran of World War II who is entitled to compensation for the loss, or loss of use, of one or both legs at or above the ankle under the laws administered by the Veterans' Administration, $30,000,000: Provided, That no part of the money appropriated by this paragraph shall be used for the repair, maintenance, or replacement of any such automobile or other conveyance and no veteran shall be given an automobile or other conveyance under the provisions of this paragraph until it is established to the satisfaction of the Administrator that such veteran will be able to operate such automobile or other conveyance in a manner consistent with his own safety and the safety of others and will be licensed to operate such automobile or other conveyance by the State of his residence or other proper licensing authority: Provided further, That under such regulations as the Administrator may prescribe the furnishing of such automobile or other conveyance shall be accomplished by the Administrator paying the total purchase price to the seller from whom the veteran is purchasing under sales agreement between the seller and the veteran.

(c) Processing of application for automobile or other conveyance. (1) Applications to be processed completely by regional offices.

(i) Applications for the following conveyances will be processed by the regional office in accordance with the procedure established by this instruction:

(a) Automobiles, new or used.
(b) Station wagons, new or used.
(c) Jeep without trailer, new or used.
(d) Trucks, new or used.
(e) Tractors, new or used.

(2) Applications to be referred to the central office by regional offices for action.

(i) Except for the five types of vehicles listed in (c) (1) (i) above, all applications will be forwarded direct to the assistant administrator for claims, central office, who will approve or disapprove the choice of conveyance and return the application to the regional office.

(3) All applications by retired officer, Veterans' Administration employees, and foreign residents will be processed in the central office including conveyances listed in (c) (1) (i) through execution of Section III, VA Form 4502.

(d) Information to veteran. It is of utmost importance that all applications for the procurement of automobiles or other conveyances be handled expeditiously by all organizational elements of the Veterans' Administration. It is also important that each veteran who makes an inquiry relative to the provisions of Public Law 663 or who files an application for procurement of an automobile or other conveyance be given every possible consideration, advice and assistance by Veterans' Administration contact representatives or other Veterans' Administration personnel in the processing of the application and other records pursuant to Public Law 663 and the provisions of this instruction.

Deputy Administrators will take such steps as may be necessary to insure that this program is effectively administered within each branch area.

(e) Total cost—$1,600. (1) The total sales price of the delivered conveyance, including the following, will not exceed $1,600:

(i) Cost of conveyance within Office of Price Administration ceilings.

(ii) Cost of special attachments and devices, if any, deemed necessary by the State or other proper licensing agency or a Veterans' Administration contact representative in States of South Dakota, Wyoming, or Louisiana, to operate the vehicle in a manner consistent with his own safety and the safety of others.

(iii) Any tax which is reflected in total sales price. (A payment, such as for State or municipal license plates, will not be included in the total sales price.)

(iv) Equipment such as radio, heater, etc., should the veteran desire such equipment.

(2) New or used conveyances costing more than $1,600. In no case will the Veterans' Administration assume responsibility for payment of $1,600 as part of the sales price. The total sales price must not exceed $1,600.

(3) Special attachments and devices. Such special attachments and devices as are deemed necessary to the safe and lawful operation of the conveyance will be listed in Sections IVa or IVb, Application Form, and must be installed in the conveyance prior to delivery.

(4) Payment for new or used car to be made to seller only. Under the provisions of Public Law 663, the eligible applicant will not be reimbursed for a conveyance, new or used, which he has already obtained. Payment will be made to the seller only in all cases, regardless of whether arrangement for purchase was made prior or subsequent to the enactment of Public Law 663.

(f) Policy on license. (1) Public Law 663 specifically states that "no veteran shall be given an automobile or other conveyance under the provisions of this paragraph until it is established to the satisfaction of the Administrator that such veteran will be able to operate such automobile or other conveyance in a manner consistent with his own safety and the safety of others and will be licensed to operate such automobile or other conveyance in the State of his residence or other licensing authority."

(2) In States which have operator's license laws. (i) The Veterans' Administration will assume the responsibility of furnishing State, local, or other proper licensing agencies information regarding the applicant's disability. This information will be entered in Section III, application form, by the regional office adjudication division of claims division, veterans' claims service, central office except in such cases as it is deemed advisable to submit the information, which clearly is of a confidential nature, under separate cover to the above agencies. It is the veteran's responsibility to obtain an operator's license if he does not have one, and to present this license, together with his application, VA Form 4502, to a local or other proper licensing agency for execution of Section IVa, "Certificate".

(3) States which do not have operator's license laws. In the States of South Dakota, Wyoming and Louisiana a local Veterans Administration contact representative will determine whether in his opinion the veteran is able to operate the conveyance safely with the aid of special attachments and devices. For the purpose of such determination he may consult with and secure the opinion of the chief medical officer, adjudication officer, chief, vocational rehabilitation and education officers or any other staff officer. The adjudication division in such cases will furnish the Veterans Administration contact representative, under separate cover, a statement of any information of a confidential nature as to the veteran's physical or mental status, it deems necessary. Section IVb of VA Form 4502 will be executed by a local Veterans Administration contact representative rather than Section IVa in these cases.

It is to be understood that under the language of the Act the administrative determination that the veteran will be able to operate such automobile or other conveyance does not impose any liability on the employee making the determination or the Federal Government.

PROCESSING APPLICATION BY REGIONAL OFFICE

(g) Administrative Division. (1) Upon receipt of VA Form 4502 in duplicate the administrative division will make a notation on the master index card that VA Form 4502 has been received. Both copies of VA Form 4502 will then be attached to applicant's case folder and the complete file forwarded to the adjudication division except that for retired officers, Veterans Administration employees and foreign residents, this application will be transmitted to the veterans claims service, central office.

(2) If the veteran has no claim number, a claim number will be assigned and a "C" folder established.

(h) Adjudication Division. (1) The adjudication division for a claim handled by the regional office and claims division, veterans claims service, central office for an application referred to Washington, D. C., will examine the application, determine that the applicant is a veteran of World War II who is entitled to compensation for the loss, or loss of use, of one or both legs in such service, at or above the ankle under the laws administered by the Veterans Administration. Following an affirmative determination, Sections II and III of VA Form 4502 will be completed, the original of VA Form 4502 will be returned to the veteran by letter and the duplicate forwarded to the finance division by memorandum. (For cases handled in the central office, VA Form 4502 will be sent to finance division, regional office nearest address given by veteran in Section I. However, in the case of foreign residents, VA Form 4502 will be sent to the director, payees accounts service, central office.)

(2) Suspension or rejection—(i) Rejection. In the event that the chief, claims division, veterans claims service, central office or the adjudication officer, adjudication division, regional office, finds that he cannot execute Section II of VA Form 4502, he will prepare for signature and forward to the director, veterans claims service or the manager of the regional office, a letter to the veteran listing the reasons for disapproval of the application and advising him of his right to appeal.

(ii) Suspension. In the event that consideration of the claim will be delayed, such as obtaining information from the Service Departments, the veteran will be notified of the reasons for delay.

(3) Application for conveyance other than automobile, station wagon, truck, jeep, or tractor. The adjudication division will forward all applications for conveyances other than for those listed above to the assistant administrator for claims, central office, for approval or disapproval of the choice of conveyance. After such determination has been made, VA Form 4502 will be returned to the proper office. Upon receiving the decision of the assistant administrator for claims, the application will then be processed by the regional office in the same manner as all other applications.

(i) Medical Division. Should the adjudication division deem it necessary to secure medical advice in adjudicating the claim, the medical division will be called upon to furnish such advice.

(j) Finance Division—(1) Obligation. Upon receipt of the duplicate copy of VA Form 4502, the finance division will take the necessary steps to obligate the sum of $1,600 for the veteran's conveyance and place Form 4502 in a temporary file.

(2) Suspense file. The duplicate copy of VA Form 4502 will be maintained in a suspense file until the voucher has been processed for payment.

(3) Sales agreement. Upon receipt from the seller the finance officer will make a thorough examination of the sales agreement which is forwarded from the seller in an original and three copies, ascertain that it meets the provisions specified in the "Instructions to the Seller," page 3, VA Form 4502. The original will be sent to the veteran, two copies will be returned to the dealer, and one copy will be filed with VA Form 4502. Should the sales agreement be returned marked "disapproved" it will be accompanied by a letter setting forth the reasons for disapproval and what corrective steps, if any, may be taken by the veteran or the seller.

(4) Receipt and invoice. VA Form 4502 contains instructions which require that the veteran and the seller complete Section V, "Receipt," upon the delivery of the conveyance and also instructions to the dealer to execute an invoice in duplicate and submit both copies to the Finance Office. The veteran will also execute a "Receipt," identical to the one in Section V of VA Form 4502, on both copies of the seller's invoice. As soon as the original of VA Form 4502 with Section V completed, the completed invoice in duplicate, and a copy of the sales agreement are received, the finance officer will withdraw the copy of the sales agreement from the temporary file and, after satisfying himself by comparison that VA Form 4502, the sales agreement, and the invoices are in order, he will note this fact on both copies of VA Form 4502. The duplicate copy of VA Form 4502 will then be returned to the administrative division where it will be placed in the "C" file. The regional office finance officer will attach the invoice to VA Form 1009 (Public Voucher for Purchases and Services Other than Personal Benefits to Veterans) and process the voucher thus supported for payment from the appropriation 3670139, Automobiles and other Conveyances for Disabled Veterans, VA, 1947, by the appropriate disbursing officer, in accordance with prescribed procedure. Finance will transcribe on the duplicate VA Form 4502 the information appearing in Section IVa and IVb and V and attach original of VA Form 4502 to memorandum copy of the voucher.

(k) Budget allowance. The budget officer will make an initial allotment of funds from the appropriation "Automobiles and other conveyances for disabled veterans, VA 1947" to each field station having regional office activities to cover the cost of conveyances purchased under these instructions. Monthly report of obligations will be shown on the reverse of Form 6620.

PART 20—GUARDIANSHIP AND LEGAL ADMINISTRATION

ACTION UPON RECEIPT OF ACCOUNT

§ 20.5326 Action upon receipt of account. As soon as the account is received in the office of the chief attorney, it will be duly recorded on the diary card as having been received, and the diary card will be filed as the tickler for the succeeding year. The accounting itself will be attached to the correspondence file and given to the examiner of accounts, who will review the account. If the account is proper in every respect, the same may be stamped, as above stated. While accounts are examined and briefed by examiners, they will be passed upon finally only by the chief attorney or an assistant attorney.

(a) In cases falling under the provisions of Public Law 662, 79th Congress, the chief attorney will determine whether the account shows that the veteran's estate derived from any source equals or exceeds $1,500 and if so, will immediately notify the adjudicating agency of such fact; and in those cases in which the award has been discontinued under the provisions of § 35.06 (f) (2), as amended, or Public Law 662, 79th Congress, the chief attorney will determine whether the account shows that such estate has been reduced to $500, and if so, will immediately notify the adjudicating agency of such fact. The value of the assets of the insane veteran's estate derived from any source will be determined in accordance with the following principles:

(1) Real estate, the assessed value for tax purposes, except where the State law provides it shall be assessed at a specified percentage of its market value, in which event the market value will be ascertained and used. For example, the State law provides real estate shall be assessed for the purpose of taxation of 75 percent of market value, the market value for the purpose of this legislation will be one and one-third times the assessed value. Of course, if the State law provides real estate shall be assessed at its market value then the assessed value will be used. If real estate is encumbered, or the veteran is a co-owner, his equity or proportionate interest only should be used in determining the value of his estate. Where the application of this principle would result in hardship such as the forced sale of an unfair valuation of the real estate, particularly nonincome-producing real estate, the facts will be reported to the chief attorney, branch office, for consideration.

(2) United States savings bonds, war bonds, adjusted service bonds, and other appreciation bonds, the current value including accrued interest will be used.

(3) Bonds and stocks, the current price listed on recognized stock exchange will be the value to be used.

(4) The following will not be included as assets:

(i) Adjusted service certificate.

(ii) Insurance policy having cash surrender or loan value.

(iii) Personal property such as furniture and household equipment, working tools, livestock, and jewelry.

NOTE: Cash in the estate will be considered notwithstanding it was derived from any of above excluded items.

2. Paragraph (k) is hereby amended to read as follows:

(k) (1) As used in this section, the term "educational or training institutions" shall include all public or private elementary, secondary, and other schools furnishing education for adults, business schools and colleges, scientific and technical institutions, colleges, vocational schools, junior colleges, teachers colleges, normal schools, professional schools, universities, and other educational institutions, and shall also include business or other establishments providing apprentice of other training on the job, including those under the supervision of an approved college or university or any State department of education, or any State apprenticeship agency or State board of vocational education, or any State apprenticeship council or the Federal Apprentice Training Service established in accordance with Public Law Numbered 308, Seventy-fifth Congress, or any agency in the executive branch of the Federal Government authorized under other laws to supervise such training.

(2) As used in this section the term "other training on the job" shall include courses offered by establishments approved by the appropriate agency of the State or the Administrator whenever such courses of training on the job are furnished in accordance with the following provisions:

(i) Any establishment desiring to undertake an on-the-job training program will be required to submit to the appropriate State approving agency a written application setting forth the course of training for each job for which a veteran is to be trained. The written application covering the training program will include the following:

(a) Title and description of the specific job objective for which the veteran is to be trained.

(b) Length of the training period.

(ii) The appropriate approving agency of the State or the Administrator may approve the application of the establishment when such establishment is found upon investigation to have met or made provision for meeting the following criteria:

(a) The training content of the program is adequate to qualify the veteran for appointment to the job for which he is to be trained.

(b) There is reasonable certainty that the job for which the veteran is to be trained will be available to him at the end of the training period.

(c) The job is one in which progression and appointment to the next higher classification are based upon skills learned through organized training on the job and not on such factors as length of service and normal turn-over.

(d) The wages to be paid the veteran for each successive period of training are not less than those customarily paid in the establishment and the community to a learner in the same job and who is not a veteran and are in conformity with State and Federal laws and applicable bargaining agreements.

(e) The job customarily requires a period of training of not less than three months and not more than two years of full-time training.

(f) The length of the training period is no longer than customarily required by the establishment and other establishments in the community to provide the trainee with the required skills, arrange for the acquiring of job knowledge, technical information, and other facts which the trainee will need to learn in order to become competent on the job for which he is being trained.

(g) Provision is made for related instruction for the individual veteran who may need it.

(h) There is in the establishment adequate space, equipment, instructional material, and instructor personnel to provide satisfactory training on the job.

(i) Adequate records are kept to show the progress made by the veteran toward his job objective and a periodic report showing the conduct and progress made in the course of training on the job will be provided for the Veterans' Administration.

(j) Appropriate credit is given the veteran for previous job experience, whether in the military service or elsewhere, his beginning wage adjusted to the level to which such credit advances him and his training period shortened accordingly. No course of training will be considered bona fide if given to a veteran who is already qualified by training and experience for the job objective.

(k) A copy of the training program as approved by the State agency is provided to the veteran and to the Veterans' Administration by the employer.

(l) Upon completion of the training the veteran is given a certificate by the employer indicating the length and type of training provided and that the veteran has completed the course of training on the job satisfactorily.

(iii) The Veterans' Administration is not authorized to award the benefits under this part, if it is found by the Administrator that the course of apprentice training or other training on the job fails to meet the requirements of this paragraph.

CLAUSE G. Port of Redelivery. Port of delivery, unless otherwise agreed.

CLAUSE H. Special Provisions.

PART II

CLAUSE 1. Condition of vessels on delivery. The Vessel on her delivery shall be in Class A-1 American Bureau of Shipping or equivalent, with all required certificates, including but not limited to marine inspection certificates of the Coast Guard, Treasury Department, and so far as due diligence can make her so, tight, staunch, strong and well and sufficiently tackled, appareled, furnished and equipped, and in every respect seaworthy and in good running condition and repair, with clean swept holds and in all respects fit for service.

CLAUSE 2. Surveys. (a) The Vessels shall be jointly surveyed before delivery (unless fully surveyed under an immediately preceding WSA Form 203 charter Warshipdemiseout entered into between the parties) and before redelivery under this Agreement to determine and state the condition of the Vessels. Such surveys shall include drydocking to determine and state the condition of the underwater parts, unless, at owner's option, the drydocking in connection with delivery is postponed, in which event the cost and time of any damage to underwater parts found either upon redelivery or during the period of the Vessel's use under this Agreement shall be for Owner's account unless such damage is established, from the basis of all evidence, to have occurred during the period of the Vessel's use under this Agreement or under any immediately preceding Warshipdemiseout Form 203 charter entered into between the parties. The cost and time of such delivery survey shall be for the account of the Owner, and similarly the cost and time of such redelivery survey shall be for the account of the Charterer.

(b) Subject to the foregoing provisions as to underwater parts in the event drydocking is postponed, and except as to items noted on the delivery survey report as defective, the delivery of the Vessel by the Owner and the acceptance thereof by the Charterer shall constitute full performance by the Owner of all the Owner's obligations under Clause 1, and thereafter the Charterer shall not be entitled to make or assert any claim against the Owner on account of any agreements, representations or warranties, expressed or implied, with respect to the condition of the Vessel: Provided, however, That the Owner shall nevertheless be responsible for the cost and time of repairs or renewals occasioned by latent defects in the Vessel, its machinery or appurtenances or defects due to locked in stresses in the Vessel existing at the time of delivery, not recoverable under the terms and conditions of the American Hull form of policy (American Institute of Marine Underwriters 7/1/41) containing no deductible average clause. For the purposes of this clause and of the Charter the delivery survey held for the immediately preceding Warshipdemiseout form shall be deemed to be the delivery survey under this Charter.

CLAUSE 3. Determination of class. For the purpose of this Agreement a Vessel shall be deemed to be in class, whether or not any requirements or recommendations of the Classification Society are outstanding at the time of delivery or redelivery, as the case may be, unless the time limit for the accomplishment of any such requirements or recommendations, including any extension or period of grace allowed, shall have expired.

CLAUSE 4. Inventory. A complete inventory of the Vessel's entire outfit, equipment, furniture, furnishings, appliances, spare and replacement parts and of all unbroached consumable stores, slop chest and fuel on board shall be jointly taken at the time of delivery, and mutually agreed upon as to items, by representatives of the Charterer and the Owner, and a similar inventory shall be taken and mutually agreed upon at the time of redelivery. The parties may agree, however, to accept any suitable prior inventory which may have been taken before the delivery of the Vessel under this Agreement, either on the occasion of the redelivery of the Vessel from a general agency agreement with the Owner, or otherwise.

CLAUSE 5. Consumable stores and fuel. The Charterer shall accept and pay for all unbroached consumable stores and fuel on board at the time of delivery (unless the vessel was under WARSHIPDEMISEOUT 203 form of charter entered into between the parties) and the Owner shall accept and pay for all unbroached consumable stores (with the exception of perishable stores, broached or unbroached, and slop chests, in the event the Vessel is redelivered at a port regularly serviced by the Charterer or at the port of redelivery provided for in Clause G of Part I hereof) and fuel on board (but not in excess of vessel's normal requirements in accordance with good operating practice), at the time of redelivery at the market prices current at the ports and times of delivery and of redelivery, respectively. "Consummable stores" within the meaning of this agreement shall mean all consumable and subsistence stores, and returnable containers (but not expendable equipment, scrap and junk) listed in the United States Maritime Commission Voyage Stores Reports, Forms 7915A, 7916A, 7918A, and 7919A (Revised Forms 1939), and slop chests.

CLAUSE 6. Use of equipment. The Charterer shall have the use of all outfit, equipment, furniture, furnishings, appliances, spare and replacement parts on board the Vessel at the time of delivery under this Agreement or any immediately preceding WARSHIPDEMISEOUT 203 form of charter between the parties, without extra cost and the same shall be returned to the Owner on redelivery in the same good order and condition as when received, ordinary wear and tear excepted. Any such items damaged or so worn in service as to be unfit for use (unless through ordinary wear and tear) or lost or destroyed shall be replaced or made good by the Charterer in kind at or before redelivery, or at Owner's option, the Charterer shall pay for said items at the current market prices at the port and time of redelivery. Any overages accepted by the Owner shall be paid for at the current market prices at the port and time of redelivery.

CLAUSE 7. Maintenance. The Charterer, except as otherwise provided in Clause 2 (a) and 2 (b), shall maintain the Vessels, their machinery, boilers, appurtenances, and spare parts during the period of the Vessel's use under this Agreement in good state of repair and in efficient operating condition and in accordance with good commercial maintenance practices and shall keep the Vessels with full unexpired classification and other required certificates at all times, including, without limitation, unexpired marine inspection certificates of the Coast Guard, Treasury Department.

Should any dispute arise between the Owner and the Charterer with respect to responsibility for repairs, renewals, or replacements, or as to the condition of the Vessel at the time of redelivery, either the Charterer or the Owner may, without prejudice to its contentions, make and pay for such repairs, renewals, or replacements, or any part thereof before or after tender of redelivery, and may recover the cost thereof from the party for whose account it may be under the terms of this Agreement. In the event that the Charterer's liability for such repairs, renewals, or replacements is established, the Charterer shall pay hire for all time lost thereby and also reimburse the Owner for vessel expenses during the period of time necessary for such repairs, renewals or replacements.

CLAUSE 8. Drydocking. The Charterer shall drydock the Vessels and clean and paint their underwater parts, when necessary, but not less than once in about every nine (9) months from date of delivery. For the purpose of this clause the date of delivery shall be deemed to be the date of delivery under any immediately preceding WSA Form 203 charter (Warshipdemiseout) entered into between the parties, if the vessel was under such charter to the Charterer. The Charterer shall give the Owner reasonable notice of the time and place of drydocking and if practicable fifteen (15) days in advance thereof and afford the Owner an opportunity to inspect the Vessels while drydocked. The Charterer shall also promptly notify the Owner sufficiently in advance to enable its representative to be present at repairs or surveys of the Vessels, and shall furnish the Owners with copies of reports made pursuant to such surveys.

CLAUSE 9. Inspections. The Owner shall have the right at any time, without notice, to inspect or survey the Vessels at its own expense, to ascertain their condition and to satisfy itself that the Vessels are being properly repaired and maintained in accordance with good commercial maintenance practices. The Charterer shall make all such repairs, at its own expense, as such inspection or survey may show to be required in compliance with the Charterer's obligations under this Agreement. The Charterer shall also permit the Owner to inspect the Vessel's logs whenever requested, and shall furnish the Owner upon request with full information regarding any casualties or other accidents or damage to the Vessels.

CLAUSE 10. Charterer to man, etc. During the period of this Agreement the Charterer shall, at its own expense, and by its own procurement, man, victual, navigate, operate, supply, fuel and, except as otherwise expressly provided in Clause 2 (a) and 2 (b) of this Agreement, repair the Vessels and pay all charges and expenses of every kind and nature whatsoever incident to the use and operation of the Vessels under this Agreement. The Owner reserves the right to require the removal of the Master or the Chief Engineer if it shall have reason to be dissatisfied with their conduct or if it considers their employment to be prejudicial to the interests of the United States. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this clause and Clause 25 of this Agreement the Charterer and not the Owner shall have exclusive possession, control and command of the Vessels during the entire period of use under this Agreement.

CLAUSE 11. Structural changes. The Charterer shall make no structural changes in the Vessel and shall make no changes in the machinery, boilers, appurtenances or spare parts thereof without in each instance first securing the written approval of the Owner.

CLAUSE 12. Basic charter hire. The Charterer shall pay to the Owner the basic charter hire at the monthly rate provided for in Part I here from the day and hour of delivery of the Vessels until and including the day and hour of redelivery to the Owner pursuant to the terms of this Agreement; or if any Vessel shall be lost, hire shall continue until the time of her loss, if known, or if the time of loss be uncertain then up to and including the time last heard from. Payment of such basic charter hire shall be made to the Owner at Washington, D. C., on delivery of the Vessel for the remainder of the calendar month in which delivery is made, and thereafter monthly in advance on the first day of each month.

CLAUSE 13. Additional charter hire. If at the end of the calendar year 1946, or any subsequent calendar year or at the termination of this Agreement, the cumulative net voyage profit (after the payment of the basic charter hire hereinabove specified and payment of the Charterer's fair and reasonable overhead expenses applicable to operation of the Vessels) shall exceed 10 per centum per annum on the Charterer's capital necessarily employed in the business of the Vessels (all as hereinafter defined), the Charterer shall pay over to the Owner at Washington, D. C., within 30 days after the end of such year or other period, as additional charter hire for such year or other period, an amount equal to the percentages of such cumulative net voyage profit in excess of 10 per centum per annum on such capital computed in accordance with the following table (but such cumulative net profit so accounted for shall not be included in any calculation of cumulative net profit in any subsequent year or period):

Cumulative net voyage profit (in excess of 10% per annum on capital necessarily employed) not in excess of $100. per day, 50%.

Cumulative net voyage profit (in excess of 10% per annum on capital necessarily employed) in excess of $100. per day but not in excess of $300. per day, 75% on such excess over $100. per day.

Cumulative net voyage profit (in excess of 10% per annum on capital necessarily employed) in excess of $300. per day, 90% on such excess over $300. per day.

The Charterer agrees to make preliminary payments to the Owner on account of such additional charter hire and on account of any additional charter hire accrued under any War Shipping Administration Form 203 (Warshipdemiseout) charter (prior to the times of payment provided for above or in such Warshipdemiseout charters) at such times and in such manner and amounts as may be required by the Owner: Provided, however, That such payment of additional charter hire shall be deemed to be preliminary and subject to adjustment either at the time of the rendition of preliminary statements or upon the completion of each final audit by the Owner, at which times such payments will be made to the Owner as such preliminary statements or final audit may show to be due, or such overpayments refunded to the Charterer as may be required.

CLAUSE 14. Termination. Either the Owner or the Charterer may terminate the period of use of any of the vessels by giving written notice to the other party at least fifteen (15) days prior to the termination of any voyage hereunder, in which event the vessel shall be redelivered at the port of redelivery provided for in Clause G of Part I hereof upon termination of the voyage during which such notice is given.

CLAUSE 15. Redelivery of vessel. The Vessels shall be redelivered to the Owner (unless lost) pursuant to the terms of this Agreement in the same or as good order, condition and class as that in which they were delivered, unless the lack of good order, condition and class is due solely to ordinary wear and tear. At the redelivery survey provided for in Clause 2, surveyors representing both the Charterer and the Owner, or a surveyor satisfactory to both sides, shall be present, who shall determine and state the repairs or work necessary to place the Vessel on the date of redelivery in the condition and class required in this paragraph, which findings shall include all repairs or work (as distinguished from postponed annual or periodical surveys) required by outstanding classification or marine inspection requirements of the Coast Guard, Treasury Department, in effect as of date of delivery to place her in such condition. The Charterer, before redelivery, shall make all such repairs and do all such work so found to be necessary at its expense and time, or at Owner's option, the Charterer shall on Owner's request discharge such obligation by payment to the Owner of an amount sufficient to place the Vessel in such condition and class and to provide for the foregoing work and repairs at the prices current at the time of redelivery, which amount shall also include compensation at the rate of basic hire payable under this Agreement for the time reasonably required under then existing conditions to complete such work or repairs and compensation for other expenses (including insurance) incident to such work or repairs or which would have been borne by the Charterer if the repairs had been effected prior to redelivery. The Charterer shall not be required to make any repairs or to satisfy any classification or marine inspection requirements of the Coast Guard, Treasury Department, which were for Owner's account under Clause 2 of this Agreement but if such repairs were made or such requirements were satisfied after delivery under this Agreement and paid for by the Owner, they shall be considered as having been made at the time of delivery for the purpose of determining the Charterer's obligations under this Clause 15. In the case of any vessel which was under an immediately preceding WARSHIPDEMISEOUT 203 form of charter entered into by the War Shipping Administration and the Charterer the date of delivery referred to in this clause shall be deemed to be the date of delivery under such prior charter.

CLAUSE 16. Insurance. The Charterer shall at all times during the period of the Vessel's use under this Agreement carry and maintain on the Vessel insurance covering all marine and war risk hull and marine and war risk protection and indemnity insurances and such crew insurance as is required by applicable decisions of the Maritime War Emergency Board in such amount and in such form and with such insurance companies, underwriters or funds as the Owner may require and approve. All insurance required under the terms of this Agreement to be carried by the Charterer shall be placed and kept with responsible insurers satisfactory to the Owner, and shall include the United States of America as an assured, without right of subrogation against the United States insofar as its interest in said Vessel is concerned and without liability by the United States for assessments under any mutual form of policy. The hull and disbursement insurance on the Vessel shall be in an amount no less than the valuation set forth in Part I. The marine P & I insurance shall be in the amount of not less than $175 per gross ton, or the valuation figure set forth in Part I, whichever is higher, but not exceeding $2,000,000. The war risk P & I insurance shall be in an amount of not less than $60 per gross ton.

All losses under the policies of insurance carried on the Vessel shall be made payable to the Owner for distribution by it to itself and the Charterer as their interests may appear: Provided, however, That in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary P & I insurance claims in amounts not exceeding $10,000 may be payable directly to the Charterer. Charterer shall at Charterer's expense keep the vessels entered in the Marine Index Bureau Inc. The originals of all cover notes or binders and policies shall be delivered promptly to the Owner for its custody and approval.

In the event that any of the insurance hereinafter provided for, by reason of any act, omission, or negligence of the Charterer, shall not be kept in full force and effect, or for any reason (including but without limitation the existence of any deductible average, franchise provision, or other exclusion contained therein but excluding insolvency of the underwriters) does not cover in full all losses, damages, claims or demands, the Charterer shall indemnify and hold harmless the owner against all such losses, claims and demands.

No tender of abandonment as a constructive total loss shall be made without the prior approval of the owner: Provided, however, That in the event the owner refuses to approve such tender or fails to act thereon within 15 days after receipt of Charterer's request, then charter hire shall cease as of the date of such refusal or at the expiration of such 15 day period, as the case may be, and any resulting diminution in the recovery from the underwriters attributable to the neglect or refusal to approve such tender of abandonment shall be borne by the owner, in the event it is determined that abandonment was proper under all the circumstances.

CLAUSE 17. Bills of lading or voyage charters. All bills of lading or voyage charters issued under this Agreement shall contain directly or by reference substantially the following clauses:

(i) Clause paramount:

"This bill of lading shall have effect subject to the provisions of the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act of United States, approved April 16, 1936, which shall be deemed to be incorporated herein, and nothing herein contained shall be deemed a surrender by the Carrier of any of its rights or immunities or an increase of any of its responsibilities or liabilities under said Act. If any term of this bill of lading be repughant to said Act to any extent, such term shall be void to that extent but no further."

(ii) Both-to-blame collision clause:

"If the ship comes into collision with another ship as a result of the negligence of the other ship and any act, neglect or default of the master, mariner, pilot or the servants of the carrier in the navigation or in the management of the ship, the owners of the goods carried hereunder will indemnify the carrier against all loss or liability to the other or noncarrying ship or her owners in so far as such loss or liability represents loss of or damage to, or any claim whatsoever, of the owners of said goods, paid or payable by the other or noncarrying ship or her owners to the owners of said goods and set-off, recouped or recovered by the other or noncarrying ship or her owners as part of their claim against the carrying ship or carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators or those in charge of any ship or ships or objects other than, or in addition to, the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect of a collision or contact."

(iii) General average clause:

"General average shall be adjusted, stated, and settled, according to Rules 1 to 15, inclusive, 17 to 22, inclusive, and Rule F of York-Antwerp Rules, 1924, at such port or place in the United States as may be selected by the carrier, and as to matters not provided for by these Rules, according to the laws and usages at the port of New York. In such adjustment, disbursements in foreign currencies shall be exchanged into United States money at the rate prevailing on the dates made and allowances for damage to cargo claimed in foreign currency shall be converted at the rate prevailing on the last day of discharge at the port or place of final discharge of such damaged cargo from the ship. Average agreement or bond and such additional security, as may be required by the carrier, must be furnished before delivery of the goods. Such cash deposit as the carrier or his agents may deem sufficient as additional security for the contribution of the goods and for any salvage and special charges thereon, shall, if required, be made by the goods, shippers, consignees, or owners of the goods to the carrier before delivery. Such deposit shall, at the option of the carrier, be payable in United States money, and be remitted to the adjuster. When so remitted the deposit shall be held in a special account at the place of adjustment in the name of the adjuster pending settlement of the general average and refunds or credit balances, if any, shall be paid in United States money."

(iv) Amended "Jason" clause:

"In the event of accident, danger, damage, or disaster before or after commencement of the voyage resulting from any cause whatsoever, whether due to negligence or not, for which or for the consequence of which the carrier is not responsible by statute, contract, or otherwise, the goods, shippers, consignees, or owners of the goods shall contribute with the carrier in general average to the payment of any sacrifices, losses or expenses of a general average nature that may be made or incurred, and shall pay salvage and special charges incurred in respect of the goods. If a salving ship is owned or operated by the carrier, salvage shall be paid for as fully as if the salving ship or ships belong to strangers."

(v) Liberties clauses:

"In any situation whatsoever and wheresoever occurring and whether existing or anticipated before commencement of or during the voyage, which in the judgment of the carrier or master is likely to give rise to risk of capture, seizure, detention, damages, delay or disadvantage to or loss of the ship or any part of her cargo, or to make it unsafe, imprudent, or unlawful for any reason to commence or proceed on or continue the voyage or to enter or discharge the goods at the port of discharge, or to give rise to delay or difficulty in arriving, discharging at or leaving the port of discharge or the usual place of discharge in such port, the carrier may before loading or before the commencement of the voyage, require the shipper or other person entitled thereto to take delivery of the goods at port of shipment and upon their failure to do so, may warehouse the goods at the risk and expense of the goods; or the carrier or master, whether or not proceeding toward or entering or attempting to enter the port of discharge or reaching or attempting to reach the usual place of discharge therein or attempting to discharge the goods there, may discharge the goods into depot, lazaretto, craft or other place; or the ship may proceed or return, directly or indirectly, to or stop at any such port or place whatsoever as the master or the carrier may consider safe or advisable under the circumstances, and discharge the goods, or any part thereof, at any such port or place; or the carrier or the master may retain the cargo on board until the return trip or until such time as the carrier or the master thinks advisable and discharge the goods at any place whatsoever as herein provided; or the carrier or the master may discharge and forward the goods by any means at the risk and expense of the goods. The Carrier or the master is not required to give notice of discharge of the goods or the forwarding thereof as herein provided. When the goods are discharged from the ship, as herein provided, they shall be at their own risk and expense; such discharge shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. For any service rendered to the goods as herein provided the carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation.

"The carrier, master and ship shall have liberty to comply with any orders or directions as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by the government of any nation or department thereof or any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of such government or of any department thereof, or by any committee or person having, under the terms of the war risk insurance on the ship, the right to give such orders or directions. Delivery or other disposition of the goods in accordance with such orders or directions shall be a fulfillment of the contract voyage. The ship may carry contraband, explosives, munitions, warlike steres, hazardous cargo, and may sail armed or unarmed and with or without convoy.

"In addition to all other liberties herein the carrier shall have the right to withhold delivery of, reship to, deposit or discharge the goods at any place whatsoever, surrender or dispose of the goods in accordance with any direction, condition or agreement imposed upon or exacted from the carrier by any government or department thereof or any person purporting to act with the authority of either of them. In any of the above circumstances the goods shall be solely at their risk and expense and all expenses and charges so incurred shall be payable by the owner or consignee thereof and shall be a lien on the goods."

CLAUSE 18. General and particular average. Average adjusters shall be appointed by the Charterer from a list of adjusters satisfactory to the Owner, who shall attend to the settlement and collection of both general and particular average losses subject to customary charges. The Charterer agrees to assist the adjuster in preparing the average statement and to take all other possible measures to protect the interests of the Vessel and the Owner.

CLAUSE 19. Salvage. Earned salvage shall be pro rated 25% to the Owner and 75% to the Charterer, after deducting Owner's and Charterer's expenses, Master's and Crew's shares, and legal and other expenses incident to the salvage: Provided, however, That hire of the vessels shall not be considered an item of the Charterer's expense hereunder. Salvage earned by the Charterer shall be considered gross income as defined in Clause 23. Settlement of claims for salvage shall be subject to the approval of both Owner and Charterer: Provided, That the amount of awards for the salving of vessels of which the United States or any department or agency thereof is the Owner or Owner pro hac vice, or for their cargoes and freights on such vessels, shall be determined by the Owner.

CLAUSE 20. Libels. Neither the Charterer nor the Masters of the Vessels nor any other person shall have the right, power, or authority to create, incur, or permit to be placed upon the Vessels any liens whatsoever other than for crew's wages or salvage. The Charterer agrees to carry a properly certified copy of this Agreement with the ship's papers on board the Vessels, and agrees to exhibit the same to any person having business with the Vessels, and agrees also to exhibit the same to any representative of the Owner on demand.

The Charterer agrees to notify any person furnishing repairs, supplies, towage, or other necessaries to the Vessels that neither the Charterer nor the Masters have any right to create, incur, or permit to be imposed upon the Vessels any liens whatsoever, except for crew's wages and salvage. Such notice as far as may be practicable shall be in writing. The Charterer further agrees to fasten in the Vessels in a conspicuous place, and to maintain during the charter period, a notice reading as follows:

"This Vessel is the property of the United States of America. It is under charter to and, by the terms of the charter neither the Charterer nor the Master has any right, power, or authority to create, incur, or permit to be imposed upon the vessel any lien whatsoever, except for crew's wages and salvage."

The Owner shall indemnify, hold harmless and defend the Charterer against any liens, claims or liabilities of whatsoever nature upon the Vessels at the time of their delivery under this Agreement: Provided however, If a vessel immediately preceding delivery of the Vessel was under charter to the Charterer under WARSHIPDEMISEOUT Form 203 the time of its delivery under this Agreement for the purpose of this clause shall be deemed to be the time of its delivery under such WARSHIP-DEMISEOUT form. The Charterer shall indemnify and hold harmless the Owner against any liens of whatsoever nature upon the Vessels and against any claims against the Owner arising out of the operation of the Vessels by the Charterer, or out of any act or neglect of the Charterer, in relation to the Vessels, or the operation thereof, except insofar as such liens or claims arise out of any matter covered by the insurance procured and in force, as provided herein. If a libel should be filed against any Vessel or if any Vessel is otherwise levied against or taken in custody by virtue of legal proceedings in any court because of any liens or claims arising out of the operation of the Vessel by the Charterer, the Charterer shall at its own expense within fifteen (15) days thereof cause the Vessel to be released and the lien to be discharged.

CLAUSE 21. Bond. The Charterer, at or before delivery of the first Vessel or Vessels under this Agreement, will furnish the owner with a bond with sufficient surety, in an amount of not less than $25,000 per Vessel for all Vessels chartered hereunder, such bond to be approved by the Owner, both as to form and sufficiency of the sureties, and to be conditioned upon the true and faithful performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements of the Charterer contained in this Agreement, including, but not limited to, the Charterer's obligation to pay charter hire and damages and to indemnify against liens. The Charterer may, in lieu of furnishing such bond, pledge United States Government securities in the face value of the required amount under an agreement satisfactory in form and substance to the Owner.

CLAUSE 22. No transfer or assignment. The Charterer shall not, without the Owner's written or telegraphic consent, sell, transfer, or assign this Agreement or any interest therein, or time charter or sub-charter any Vessels, or make any arrangements whereby the maintenance, management, or operation of the Vessels is to be performed by any other person.

CLAUSE 23. Definitions. The terms "net voyage profit", "fair and reasonable overhead expenses", and "capital necessarily employed" as used herein with respect to the operations of the Vessel and services incident thereto are hereby defined, for the purpose of this Agreement only, as follows:

(a) "Net voyage profit" shall be determined by deducting from gross income, as hereinafter defined, such direct vessel operating expenses, terminal and other auxiliary operating expenses, overhead expenses, interest expense, amortization of deferred charges, depreciation on property utilized in the operation of the vessels, and all other charges which are customarily made in accordance with sound accounting practice in determining net profits before provision for federal income taxes, all as the Owner may deem fair and reasonable; Provided, That in instances where the Charterer engages in other activities in addition to the operation of the Vessels covered by this Agreement, such charges, other than those directly and exclusively allocable to the operation of the Vessels shall be prorated between these activities on such basis as the Owner may determine to be fair and reasonable.

"Gross income" shall include such items as revenue earned from the carriage of cargo, passengers, and mail, terminal and other auxiliary operations, and miscellaneous profits and losses, such as those arising from pooling agreements, advance and prepaid beyond items, bar and slop chest, and such other transactions as the Owner may determine are properly included. "Gross Income" shall include also interest earned, dividends received, and other non-operating income, as well as all accruals to the Charterer as an operating-differential subsidy. If the Charterer engages in any other activities in addition to the operation of the Vessels, the revenues and miscellaneous income, other than those exclusively applicable to the operation of the Vessels, shall be prorated between these activities, on such basis as the Owner may determine to be fair and reasonable.

Income consisting of capital gains and expenses consisting of capital losses shall in no event be included in the computation of "Net Voyage Profit", as above defined.

Income from and expenses attributable to assets, other than the Vessels, excluded in the computation of "Capital Necessarily Employed", as hereinafter defined, shall not be included in the computation of "Net Voyage Profit", as above defined.

(b) "Fair and reasonable overhead expenses" shall include those expenses actually and necessarily incurred in the conduct of the business of operating the Vessels, such as salaries of officers; wages of employees; legal and accounting fees and expenses; rent, heat, light, and power; communication expenses; office supplies, stationery, and printing; membership dues and subscriptions; entertaining and solicitation; traveling expenses; insurance and bond premiums; postage; maintenance of office equipment; and miscellaneous administrative and general expenses, all as the Owner may determine to be fair and reasonable and properly included: Provided, That there shall be deducted from the total of such expenses (1) the amount by which wages, salary, and allowance of compensation in any form for personal services received by any director, officer or employee (which term shall be construed in the broadest sense to include, but not to be limited to, managing trustees or other administrative agents) from the charterer and its affiliates, subsidiaries, and associates, directly or indirectly, shall in any instance exceed the amount of $25,000 per annum, prorated to the period of the agreement, and (2) agency fees, commissions, brokerage, and such other miscellaneous earnings as the Owner may determine to be properly deductible.

"Fair and Reasonable Overhead Expenses" shall include also freight, passenger, and other expenses incident to advertising the Vessels and the lines served by them; taxes, other than federal income taxes; and management and operating commissions, but only if and in the cases where the express written consent of the Owner has been given the Charterer to employ any other person or concern as the managing or operating agent of the Charterer; all as the Owner may determine to be fair and reasonable and properly included.

If the Charterer engages in other activities in addition to the operation of the Vessels, the "Fair and Reasonable Overhead Expenses" other than those directly and exclusively allocable to the operation of the Vessels shall be prorated between such activities on such basis as the Owner may determine to be fair and reasonable.

(c) "Capital Necessarily Employed" shall be determined upon the basis of the net worth reported by the Charterer in its balance sheet as of the close of the month preceding the date of delivery of the first Vessel under this Agreement, adjusted as hereinafter provided. For the purpose of this determination, net worth, as stated in the balance sheet of the Charterer, shall be deemed to include capital stock, surplus and such subdivisions thereof as capital surplus, earned surplus, and accounts of like nature. Net worth, as thus stated, shall be adjusted in such manner as the Owner may determine to be fair and reasonable, including the elimination of appreciation, adequate statement of the liabilities, and such other adjustments as are consistent with sound accounting principles. In the computation of "Capital Necessarily Employed", good will, intangibles not actually purchased and paid for, and stock held in treasury shall be excluded.

Property and other assets utilized in the operation of the Vessels shall be valued at cost, including betterments and reconditioning costs, to the present owner or to any former owner at any time affiliated or associated directly or indirectly with the present owner, whichever is the lower, less depreciation: Provided, That the cost of acquisition of assets required in exchange for capital shares or other securities of the Charterer from other than holding, subsidiary, affiliated, or associated companies, shall not be in excess of the fair value of such propery at the date of acquisition.

Additional capital, in the form of cash or tangible property paid in during the charter period, shall be included in the computation of "Capital Necessarily Employed" from the date paid in. Conversely, any withdrawals of capital shall be deducted from the date withdrawn: Provided, however, That no capital shall be withdrawn and no share capital shall be converted into debt without the prior written approval of the Owner. Earnings and capital gains (or losses) for any accounting period subsequent to the last day of the month preceding the month during which delivery of the first Vessel is made hereunder to the Charterer by the Owner, shall not be included in the computation of the "Capital Necessarily Employed" for the year or other accounting period in which realized (or sustained). Dividends paid out of earnings that have not been included in "Capital Employed" shall not be deducted from "Capital Employed".

If the Charterer engages in other activities in addition to the operation of the Vessels, the Owner shall determine the proper allocation of capital as between such activities. The amount so allocated to the operation of the Vessels shall be deemed to be the "Capital Necessarily Employed."

CLAUSE 24. Events of Default. The following shall constitute events of default under this Agreement.

(a) The failure of the Charterer to pay the charter hire on any Vessel as and when the same shall be due under the terms of this Agreement.

(b) The failure of the Charterer to operate any Vessel as required by Clause D of Part I or the operation of any Vessel on some other route without the prior written approval of the Owner.

(c) Any material misrepresentation by the Charterer in connection with this Agreement whether before or after execution hereof and whether made in an application, report or otherwise, or any willful failure by the Charterer to disclose information necessary to cause any material representation by it not to be misleading.

(d) The occurrence of any event causing the Charterer to be ineligible for charter of the Owner's Vessels.

(e) A voluntary sale by the Charterer of this Agreement or any interest therein, or any assignment, transfer, agreement or arrangement whereby the maintenance, management or operation of the above described service, route, or Vessel shall pass out of the direct control of the Charterer without the consent of the Owner.

(f) The filing of a petition in bankruptcy by the Charterer, or the entry of an order, upon petition against the Charterer, adjudicating the Charterer a bankrupt, or the making of a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or the Charterer losing its charter by forfeiture or otherwise, or the appointment of a receiver or receivers of any kind whatsoever, whether appointed or not in Admiralty Bankruptcy, Common Law or Equity proceedings, and whether temporary or permanent, for the property of the Charterer, or the filing of a petition by the Charterer for reorganization under the Bankruptcy Act, or the filing of such a petition by creditors and the same approved by the Court, or the approval of the court of a reorganization of the Charterer under said Act, whether proposed by a creditor, a stockholder or any other person whomsoever.

(g) Any breach by the Charterer of its obligations under this Agreement or any agreement executed in connection therewith (including but not limited to any operating differential subsidy agreement with respect to the Vessels), or any ship mortgage given to or construction agreement made with the United States.

(h) Failure by the Charterer to comply with any applicable provisions of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, or of any law relating to the operation of the Vessel.

CLAUSE 25. Termination upon Default. (a) The Owner may terminate this Agreement in whole or in part without notice to the Charterer in case any event of default specified in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), or (f) of the preceding Clause 24 shall occur or if any other default specified in paragraphs (g) or (h), of said clause shall occur and shall continue for a period of 30 days after notice thereof has been mailed or telegraphed by the Owner to the Charterer.

(b) Upon termination, the Owner may, at its option, retake the Vessels or any of them wherever the same may be found, whether upon the high seas or in any port, harbor, or other place, without prior demand and without legal process and for that purpose may enter upon any dock, pier, or other premises where the Vessels may be and may take possession thereof, or may require the Charterer to redeliver such vessels in accordance with terms of this Agreement immediately upon the receipt of a notice demanding such redelivery.

(c) The rights conferred upon the Owner by this clause are cumulative and in addition to any rights which it may have at law or in equity or by virtue of the terms of this Agreement.

CLAUSE 26. Prior Bareboat Charter. If immediately prior to delivery under this Agreement the Vessel shall have been under charter to the Charterer under the War Shipping Administration WARSHIP-DEMISEOUT Form 203, the term of this Agreement shall as to this vessel commence coincidentally with the redelivery of such vessel under the prior form of charter and there shall not be an interval between the two.

CLAUSE 27. Cancellation or Modification by Mutual Consent: Waivers. This Agreement may be terminated, modified, or amended at any time by mutual consent.

CLAUSE 28. Accounting, Reports and Supervision. (a) The Charterer and, to the extent required by the Owner, every affiliate, domestic agent, subsidiary, or holding company connected with, or directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by, the Charterer

(1) shall keep its books, records and accounts relating to the management, operation, conduct of the business of and maintenance of the vessels covered by this Agreement in accordance with the "Uniform System of Accounts for Operating-Differential Subsidy Contractors" prescribed by the United States Maritime Commission in its General Order No. 22 and under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Owner: Provided, however, That if the Charterer is subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission, the Owner shall not require the duplication of books, records, and accounts required to be kept in some other form by that Commission; and

(2) shall file, upon notice from the Owner, balance sheets, profit and loss statements, and such other statements of financial operations, special reports, memoranda of any facts and transactions, which in the opinion of the Owner affect the financial results in, the performance of, or transactions or operations under, this Agreement.

(b) The Owner is hereby authorized to examine and audit the books, records, and accounts of all persons referred to above in this Clause whenever it may deem it necessary or desirable, including an analysis of the surplus and all supporting accounts. The Charterer agrees to allow any and all auditors, inspectors, attorneys, and other employees, designated by the Owner, full, free and complete access at all reasonable times, to the Vessels when in port or undergoing repairs and to all books, records, papers, memoranda or other documents of the Charterer wherever located or of any holding company, subsidiary company or affiliated company of the Charterer pertaining to any activities relating in any way to the Vessel, and further agrees to permit the making of photostatic or other copies of any such books, records, papers, memoranda or other documents and to furnish without charge adequate office space and other facilities reasonably required by such auditors, attorneys, or inspectors in the performance of their duties. The Charterer further agrees to establish and maintain from time to time such checks upon or systems of control of expenditures or revenues in connection with the operation of the Vessels as the Owner may request.

CLAUSE 29. Termination of Business. Upon termination of this Agreement, the Charterer shall turn over to the Owner, at such time and at such place as the Owner may direct, the Vessel and all property of whatsoever nature which the Owner may heretofore have delivered to the Charterer or to which the Owner is entitled under the terms of this Agreement, and the Charterer shall at its own expense make to the Owner such accounting as the Owner may require of all matters arising out of the operation of the Vessels and this Agreement, and shall adjust, settle, and liquidate such accounts: Provided, however, That the Owner may collect directly all freight moneys or other debts remaining unpaid and apply any moneys collected on any unpaid balance due from the Charterer to the Owner. All expenses of such collection shall be for the account of the Charterer.

CLAUSE 30. Financial Limitation. (a) The Charterer agrees that (i) no capital shall be withdrawn, (ii) no share capital shall be converted into debt (iii) no dividend shall be paid, and (iv) no salary at a rate in excess of $25,000.00 per annum shall be paid if, after such withdrawal, conversion, or payment, the amount of its working capital or the amount of its net worth thereby would be reduced below the minima prescribed in Part I hereof.

(b) Mergers, etc.; Business not Related to Shipping. The Charterer agrees that during the charter period it will not, without the prior written approval of the Owner, (1) effect any merger, consolidation or substantial acquisition or disposition of assets not in the ordinary course of business, or (2) directly or indirectly embark upon any new enterprise or business activity not directly connected with the business of shipping.

(c) Service by Affiliates, etc. Agreements or arrangements with any interested person or related company to render any service or to furnish any stores, supplies, equipment, materials, repairs, or facilities in connection with the operation of the vessels hereunder shall be submitted to the owner for approval as to employment. In the calculation of the cumulative net voyage profit for the purposes of determining the amount of additional charter hire payable to the owner, pursuant to clause 13 hereof, sums paid or payable to an interested person or related company in connection with the operation of the vessels hereunder during the period with respect to which such calculation is made shall be taken into account only if such agreements or arrangements have been approved by the owner, and then only in such amount as the owner shall deem to be fair and reasonable: Provided, however, That any approvals heretofore given by the War Shipping Administration with respect to the rendering of any services or the performance by any interested person or related company of any such functions under any agency agreements shall, subject to compliance with the terms thereof, be deemed to be approvals under this clause unless and until expressly revoked or modified by the owner. The term "interested person" shall mean any person, firm, or corporation in which the charterer, or any related company of the charterer, or any officer or director of the charterer or any employee of the charterer who is charged with executive or supervisory duties, or any member of the immediate family of any such officer, director or employee, or any officer or director of any related company of the charterer or any member of the immediate family of an officer or director of any related company of the charterer, owns any substantial pecuniary interest directly or indirectly. The term "related company," used to indicate a relationship with the charterer for the purposes of this clause only, shall include any person or concern that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, the charterer. The term "control" (including the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with") as used herein means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of the charterer (or related company), whether through ownership of voting securities, by contract, or otherwise.

CLAUSE 31. Efficient Operation. The Charterer agrees to conduct its business and its operations with respect to the Vessel in an economical and efficient manner.

CLAUSE 32. Officials not to Benefit nor to be Employed. No member of or delegate to Congress, nor Resident Commissioner, shall be admitted to any share or part of this Agreement or to any benefit that may arise therefrom, except as provided in Section 116 of the Act approved March 4, 1909 (35 Stat. 1109).

CLAUSE 33. Warranty as to Brokerage. The Charterer warrants that it has not employed any person to solicit or secure this Agreement upon any agreement for a commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fee. Breach of this warranty shall give the Owner the right to annul this Agreement or, in its discretion, to deduct from any sums payable under this Agreement the amount of such commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fees. This warranty shall not apply to commissions payable by the Charterer upon agreements or sales secured or made through bona fide established commercial or selling agencies maintained by the Charterer for the purpose of securing business.

CLAUSE 34. Notices. Unless otherwise provided in this Agreement or mutually agreed upon, all payments, notices and communications from the Owner to the Charterer, pursuant to the terms of or in connection with this Agreement, shall be made or addressed to the Charterer at the address provided in Part I, and all payments, notices and communications from the Charterer to the Owner, pursuant to the terms of or in connection with this Agreement, shall be made or addressed to the Owner at its offices in Washington, District of Columbia.

2. A new paragraph (g) is inserted to read as follows:

(g) Adjustment to reflect increase in supplier's price—(1) Applicability. This section is applicable only where the amendment or order which grants your supplier an increase in his maximum price provides that all resellers (including those subject to area orders issued under General Order No. 68) may increase their maximum prices for the commodity in question.

WASHED SAND AND GRAVEL IN MILWAUKEE, WIS., DISTRICT

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to the provisions of General Order No. 68, it is ordered:

SECTION 1. What this order does. This order sets maximum prices for all sales made by any producer of commodities specified in any of the appendices attached hereto[1] within the area as set forth in the applicable appendix.

The body of this order contains the general provisions which are applicable to all the appendices which may now or hereafter be incorporated into and made a part of this order. The special provisions and specific prices applicable in particular areas are now set forth or hereafter will be set forth in the respective appendices. Insofar as any provision contained in any appendix may be inconsistent with any provision contained in the body of this order, the provision contained in the appendix shall be controlling in the area governed by that appendix. Where the applicable appendix does not contain a maximum price for a kind of sale of the commodities specified herein, the maximum price shall be determined by the appropriate provision of the applicable order or regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 2. Geographical applicability. This order applies to all sales covered by this order made by any producer of the commodities specified in any of the appendices in which the buyer receives physical delivery within the areas as set forth in the applicable appendix.

SEC. 3. Definitions—(a) Producer. A producer means any person who produces the commodities subject to this order and who sells them to an ultimate consumer or to any reseller or to any contractor.

(b) Contractor. Any person who sells material or equipment, and in connection therewith, assumes responsibility for its incorporation into a building, structure, or construction project at a fixed site, by charging a single price for the commodity installed, by guaranteeing performance and use, or by other objective evidence, shall be considered a contractor.

(c) Reseller. A reseller means any person who purchases the commodities subject to this order and who resells them.

(d) Items covered by this order. This order covers the commodities set forth in any of the appendices attached hereto.

(e) Except as otherwise provided herein or as the context may otherwise require, the definitions contained in Maximum Price Regulation No. 592 shall continue to apply to the terms used herein.

(f) Except as otherwise provided herein or as the context may otherwise require, all terms used in this order shall bear their ordinary and popular trade meaning.

SEC. 4. Maximum prices for washed sand and gravel. On and after the effective date of this order, regardless of any contract, agreement, or other obligation, no producer covered by this order shall sell, offer to sell, or deliver, and no person shall buy or receive in the course of trade or business, any of the items listed in any of the appendices attached hereto, at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in this order and any of the appendices attached hereto.

SEC. 5. Effect of order on General Order No. 68. Insofar as any provision of this order may be inconsistent with the provisions of General Order No. 68, the provisions contained in this order shall be controlling. Except as herein otherwise provided the provisions of General Order No. 68 shall remain in full force and effect.

SEC. 6. Relation to other regulations. Except to the extent that they are inconsistent with the provisions of this order, all other regulations applicable to the commodities subject to this order shall continue to apply to sales covered by this order.

SEC. 7. Discount and other price differentials. (a) All cash, quantity and other price differentials must be maintained as set forth in the appendix applicable to the particular area.

(b) No extra charge may be made for delivery within the area limits set forth in the applicable appendix.

SEC. 8. Exemptions. This order does not cover nor affect in any way the prices of rail shipments of washed sand and gravel.

SEC. 9. Posting. Every manufacturer making a sale covered by this order shall either post a copy of the maximum prices fixed by this order in a manner plainly visible to all purchasers, or make available to his purchasers a counter copy of this order.

SEC. 10. Invoicing and records. Every person making sales covered by this order must provide the purchaser, whether he requests it or not, with an invoice, sales slip, receipt, or other evidence of sale of which an exact and full copy shall be retained by the seller for the duration of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The invoice or other evidence of sale shall contain the following information with respect to the commodities subject to this order.

(1) Name and address of seller.
(2) Date of sale.
(3) Name and address of purchaser (necessary only on sales of items totaling $7.50 or more).
(4) Description of the item sold, including quantity, grade and any other matter insofar as any of these matters may affect the price, in full detail necessary to permit the exact calculation of the applicable maximum price.
(5) Charge, if any, for delivery beyond the free delivery zone (to be separately listed from the price of the item).
(6) The total price.

Each seller shall also keep such records of each sale as he customarily kept.

SEC. 11. Penalties. On and after the effective date of this order any establishment or person covered by this order who sells or offers to sell at a price higher than the ceiling price permitted by this order, or otherwise violates the provisions of this order, shall be subject to criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, license suspension proceedings, and suits for treble damages, as provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended. No person subject to this order may evade any of the provisions of this order by any stratagem, scheme, or device. No person subject to this order may, as a condition of selling the commodities covered by this order, require a customer to buy anything else. Any such evasion is punishable as a violation of this order.

SEC. 12. Revocation or amendment. This order may be revised, amended, revoked or modified at any time by the Office of Price Administration.

This order shall become effective this 5th day of August 1946.

[St. Louis Order 1 Under Rev. Sup. Service Reg. 50 to RMPR 165]

AUTOMOBILE PARKING SERVICES IN ST. LOUIS, MO., DISTRICT

Pursuant to the authority vested in the District Director of the St. Louis District office by § 1499.648 of Supplementary Service Regulation No. 50 to Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 165, and Order of Delegation No. 136 from the Regional Administrator of Region V, and for the reasons set forth in the opinion issued simultaneously herewith, it is ordered:

SECTION I. What this order does. This order requires each establishment which supplies automobile parking services and which is located within that part of Missouri lying east of the western boundaries of the counties of Schuyler, Adair, Macon, Chariton, Howard, Cooper, Morgan, Camden, Laclede, Wright, Douglas and Ozark, including the City of St. Louis and the County of St. Louis, to post their legal charges which they are authorized to make for supplying parking services in the manner and to the extent specifically set forth in this order.

SEC. II. Posting requirements. All persons who are subject to this order and who sell automobile parking services must post at each establishment or lot where such service is sold a placard or sign in the manner hereinafter specified containing the information required by this section.

A. Minimum specifications for construction, painting, and location of the sign or placard:

1. It shall contain letters not less than 1½ inches in height and not less than 1 inch in width, and numbers not less than 3 inches in height and not less than 2 inches in width.

2. It shall be so constructed, painted and located that it is plainly visible to and readable by persons driving automobiles into the lot or establishment.

3. If parking services are supplied during hours of darkness, it shall be so illuminated during those hours that it may be easily read by customers.

B. Information which must appear on the sign or placard:

1. It must bear the notation "our ceiling prices" and the name of the establishment.

2. It must list and describe the rates applicable to the establishment for each hour or combination of hours of parking services supplied during each 24-hour period.

For example, if an establishment's ceiling prices are 2 hours, 15 cents; 2 to 4 hours, 20 cents; and all day, 25 cents, it is a violation of this order for an establishment to fail to list and describe all three rates. This is true even though a seller does not solicit all-day parkers or less than all-day parkers. (Weekly and monthly rates need not be listed.)

3. The rates listed must not exceed the legal rates which each establishment is authorized to charge under provisions of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 165.

SEC. III. Enforcement. It shall be a violation of this order for any person subject to its terms to supply parking services without first complying with the posting provisions herein contained.

All persons violating this order are subject to penalties, both criminal and civil, prescribed by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. IV. This order may be changed, revoked, or amended at any time.

This order shall be effective as of the 17th day of June, 1946, issued at St. Louis, Missouri, the 31st day of May 1946.

WILLIAM H. BRYAN,
District Director.

6. The total price.

Each such seller shall also keep such records of each sale as he customarily kept.

No person subject to this order may evade any of the provisions of the order by any stratagem, scheme, or device. SECTION 1. What this order covers. This adopting order under Basic Order No. 1 as amended, under General Order No. 68 as amended, covers sales by all persons to ultimate users or to purchasers for resale on an installed basis, of certain building materials listed in Schedule A hereto annexed [1] and generally known as "Hard mason materials." Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than September 13, 1946, at 5:30 p. m., e. d. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request and the nature of his interest, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. All interested persons are referred to said joint application or declaration, which is on file in the office of the said Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized below:

Public Service proposes to sell $500,000 principal amount of Transport's 4% Series, First and Refunding Mortgage Bonds, due 1990, to the Trustee under Transport's mortgage, for a cash consideration of $500,000 plus accrued interest to the date of delivery. It is stated that the price of $500,000 represents cost to Public Service for such bonds. The Trustee proposes to purchase said bonds with $500,000 which, pursuant to the terms of the indenture securing the bonds, was the amount deposited with the Trustee on April 1, 1946 as and for a fund for the purchase and retirement of Transport's outstanding bonds. The Plan of Reorganization of Transport dated November 2, 1939 provides that Public Service will not tender to the Trustee any of the bonds of Transport held by it until at least five months after receipt of purchase fund money by the Trustee. According to the declarants, no tenders have been received from the public in response to a request for tenders caused to be published by the Trustee on April 3, 1946.

§ 108.3 Nonimmigrants; Forms 257a, 257b, and 257d; action at time of entry. (a) At the time an alien presenting Forms 257a, 257b, and 257d applies for admission to the United States for temporary stay, the alien shall surrender such forms to an immigrant inspector and, if the alien is admitted, the admitting inspector shall add on all three such forms in the spaces indicated the data as to the period and other facts of the admission. The inspector shall deliver Form 257a at once to the alien. The Form 257b, without transmittal letter, shall be forwarded at once to the Central Office for statistical and permanent record purposes. The Form 257d shall be retained at the port of entry and in the cases of aliens admitted directly to the continental United States from Canada or Mexico shall be filed as the record of entry in lieu of Form I-448. When an alien admitted on presentation of Forms 257a, 257b, and 257d is in possession of a passport as that term is defined in § 176.101 (e) of this chapter, the admitting immigrant inspector shall place an endorsement in such passport showing the date and place of admission, status and section of law under which admitted, date to which admitted, visa application number, and bond if exacted. In classes of cases where fixing a period of time of admission is prohibited by regulations, the term "duration of existing status" shall be used.

(b) If an alien presenting Forms 257a, 257b, and 257d is excluded from the United States, the Form 257a shall not be given to the alien. Data as to the exclusion shall be placed on the Forms 257b and 257d by the chairman of the board of special inquiry. The Form 257d shall be retained at the port as a record of the exclusion. The Forms 257a and 257b shall be sent together to the Central Office and shall accompany any record of the hearing before the board of special inquiry submitted to the Central Office in appellate or similar proceedings. Where the Forms 257a and 257b are submitted with such a record, they shall be returned to the port with the notification of the decision. Data as to the facts of the resulting final action at the port shall be placed on the Forms 257a, 257b, and 257d, and the Forms 257b and 257d shall be disposed of as prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section; the Form 257a shall also be disposed of as prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section in those cases where the alien is admitted under the decision but the Form 257a shall be sent with the Form 257b to the Central Office in cases where the alien is not admitted.

(c) The term "continental United States" as used in this section and part means the territory of the forty-eight States, the District of Columbia, and Alaska.

§ 108.4 Nonimmigrants; Forms 257a, 257b, and 257d; action at time of departure. (a) At the time of the departure from the United States of an alien who was admitted on presentation of Forms 257a, 257b, and 257d, the alien shall, with the exceptions provided in paragraph (b) of this section, surrender the Form 257a to an immigration officer or other designated person, who shall endorse it to show the facts of departure, after which the Form 257a shall be sent to the port where the entry occurred, if different from the port of departure. Regardless of whether the port of entry and the port of departure are the same or different, the facts of departure shall be posted to the Form 257d from the Form 257a, after which the latter shall be forwarded to the Central Office for statistical and permanent record purposes.

(b) An alien admitted to the United States on presentation of Forms 257a, 257b, and 257d shall not be required to surrender the Form 257a at the time of his departure from the United States in the following classes of cases:

(1) The Form 257a bears a nonimmigrant visa valid for more than one journey to the United States and the alien states his intention to enter the United States again within the period of the validity of such visa. The alien shall nevertheless report his departure to an immigrant inspector in accordance with the instructions on Form 257a. If departure occurs at the same port as that at which the entry occurred, the facts of departure shall be posted to the Form 257d and reported to the Central Office by form letter; if the entry occurred at another port, the departure shall be verified by form letter to such port and the facts of departure posted to the Form 257d there, after which the letter shall be forwarded to the Central Office.

(2) An alien child or alien children, accompanying on entry, are named on the Form 257a and all aliens covered by the form do not depart simultaneously. In such cases, Form 257a shall be surrendered by the alien last departing and endorsed only as to his departure, unless retention is permitted by this section. The earlier departures of the other aliens named on the form shall be posted to the Form 257d and reported to the Central Office, in the same way as is prescribed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(3) Any alien (including a resident of Canada or Mexico) who during his temporary stay in the United States proceeds to Canada or Mexico for a visit of not more than 30 days, after which he intends to reenter the United States for the remainder of the period of his original temporary admission.

(4) Other exceptional cases, where the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization has instructed immigration officers to waive or defer the surrender of Form 257a at the time of the holder's departure from the United States.

§ 108.5 Nonimmigrants; Forms I-94 and I-448. (a) Form I-94 shall be used at all ports in the following cases of temporary admission:

(1) Where the alien is required to present a passport and a nonimmigrant visa and meets such requirement by presenting a passport containing the required nonimmigrant visa but does not present Forms 257a, 257b, and 257d because he surrendered those three forms in connection with a previous temporary stay or because such forms were not in use when his nonimmigrant visa was issued.

(2) Where the alien is required to present a nonimmigrant visa and meets such requirement by presenting Form 257a bearing the nonimmigrant visa but does not present Forms 257b and 257d because he surrendered those two forms on a previous entry.

(3) When the alien is coming from some country other than Canada or Mexico, does not present a nonimmigrant visa and Forms 257a, 257b, and 257d, and is admitted temporarily under a waiver of the nonimmigrant visa requirement.

(b) At ports where aliens coming directly to the continental United States from Canada or Mexico are admitted, Form I-94 shall be used not only in cases listed in paragraph (a) of this section but also in cases of temporary admission where Forms 257a, 257b, and 257d are not presented and where—

(1) The alien is admitted for more than 29 days; or
(2) Head tax is collected; or
(3) Bond is exacted; or
(4) Verification of departure is desired; or
(5) The case comes within some other specific class in which immigrant inspectors are instructed to execute Form I-94; or
(6) The facts of the particular case are such that a record on Form I-94 is deemed desirable.

(c) The original Form I-94 shall be delivered to the alien at the time of admission. If the alien has previously complied with the Alien Registration Act, that fact should be noted on the Form I-94. In the cases of aliens admitted directly to the continental United States from Canada or Mexico, the duplicate Form I-94 shall be filed as a record of entry in lieu of Form I-448. The original Form I-94 shall be surrendered by the alien at the time of his departure in accordance with the directions on the form except that where the circumstances described in § 108.4 (b) (2) or (3) exist, the alien may retain the form, in which event the procedure prescribed in those two subparagraphs shall be followed. Surrendered Forms I-94 shall be returned to the port of entry, if different from the port of departure. If a departing alien also has a form 257a because he is within paragraph (a) (2) of this section, he shall surrender it simultaneously unless retention is permitted by this part. Where a departing alien surrenders both a Form I-94 and a Form 257a, the latter form shall be attached to the Form I-94. A triplicate copy of Form I-94 shall be made on plain or printed paper and forwarded to the Central Office in the following classes of cases:

(1) Where the form is issued to an alien whose journey to the United States originates in countries other than Canada or Mexico; and

(2) Where the form is issued to an alien admitted to the United States for more than 29 days.

Such furnishing to the Central Office of a triplicate copy of Form I-94 shall be noted by the issuing officer on the duplicate copy, and when satisfactory evidence of departure—normally the original Form I-94—is received at the port of entry, the facts of departure shall be posted to the duplicate copy of Form I-94 and such evidence of departure forwarded to the Central Office.

(d) At ports where aliens coming directly to the continental United States from Canada or Mexico are admitted, Form I-448 shall be prepared in the case of every alien who is an applicant for temporary admission, who does not present Form 257a, and who is held for hearing before a board of special inquiry. Such Form I-448 shall be filed at the port regardless of the disposition of the case.

§ 108.6 Immigrants; Forms 256a and I-151. (a) At the time an alien presenting Form 256a applies for admission to the United States for permanent residence, the alien shall surrender such form to an immigrant inspector and, if the alien is admitted, the admitting immigrant inspector shall add on such form in the space indicated the data as to the admission. If the admission occurs at a port where aliens are admitted directly to the continental United States from Canada or Mexico, a record shall be made at once on Form I-448. In all cases the Form 256a, without transmittal letter, shall be forwarded at once to the Central Office, where it shall be kept as a permanent record of the entry. On receipt in the Central Office of the Form 256a, it shall be assigned an alien number and there shall be prepared in the Central Office on Form I-151 an alien registration receipt card bearing the alien's photograph and a statement of such facts of admisison, registration, and personal description as are provided for on the Form I–151. The photograph in the sealed envelope attached to and accompanying the Form 256a shall be used on the Form I–151. Thereafter, the Form I–151 shall be mailed directly from the Central Office to the alien.

(b) If an alien presenting Form 256a is excluded from the United States, data as to the exclusion shall be placed on that form by the chairman of the board of special inquiry and forwarded to the Central Office. The form shall accompany any record of the hearing before a board of special inquiry submitted to the Central Office in appellate or similar proceedings. Where the Form 256a is submitted with such a record, it shall be returned to the port with the notification of the decision, and data as to the facts of the resulting final action at the port shall be placed on the Form 256a, after which it shall be returned to the Central Office.

CROSS REFERENCE: For handling of immigration visas not surrendered at time of entry, see 8 CFR 110.18 and 110.53.

§ 108.7 Immigrants; land border ports; Form I–448. At ports where aliens coming directly to the continental United States from Canada or Mexico are admitted, in cases where Form 256a is not presented, a record shall be made on Form I–448 where:

(a) The alien is held for hearing before a board of special inquiry; or

(b) Bond is exacted; or

(c) Head tax is collected; or

(d) There is no existing record of admission for permanent residence; or

(e) The alien is admitted on surrender of a permit to reenter the United States; or

(f) The case comes within some other specific class in which immigrant inspectors are instructed to execute Form I–448; or

(g) The facts of the particular case are such that a record on Form I–448 is deemed desirable.

§ 108.8 Immigrants; surrender of cards at time of departure. When an alien in possession of Form I–151 or any other form of alien registration receipt card, or in possession of an immigrant identification card, certificate of registry, or certificate of lawful entry—issued to him—departs permanently from the United States, he shall surrender such cards and certificates to an immigration officer at the time of departure and the cards and certificates shall be forwarded to the Central Office with Form I–407, processed in accordance with instructions issued by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization. When the holder of a resident alien's border crossing identification card—issued to him—departs permanently from the United States, he shall at the time of departure surrender such card to an immigration officer for cancellation and return to the office of issuance in accordance with the provisions of § 166.6 of this chapter.

PART 110—PRIMARY INSPECTION AND DETENTION

PART 114—INSPECTION OF CITIZENS AND ALIENS ENTERING FROM OR THROUGH CONTIGUOUS TERRITORY

1. Section 114.2 is amended by adding the following sentence: "Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, Form I–448 shall not be executed when its use is obviated by the presentation by the alien of Forms 257a, 257b, and 257d or by the preparation of Form I–94."

2. Sections 114.3, 114.4, and 114.5 are amended to read as follows:

§ 114.3 Preexamination; procedure when admissibility determined. If and when admissibility is determined, Form I–121, I–448, 257d, or I–94 shall be so endorsed by the appropriate immigration officer, attached to other pertinent immigration documents, and given to the applicant for presentation and surrender at the actual port of entry into the United States. If applicants of any class so preexamined depart for the United States by water from a place other than that at which the preexamination was conducted, the endorsed form shall be countersigned by the appropriate United States immigration officer at the Canadian port of embarkation. Upon the surrender at ports of entry of properly endorsed forms within 30 days from endorsement, the period of the validity of the endorsement, the rightful holders will be promptly admitted if their status has undergone no change since preexamination: Provided, however, That holders of visas must apply for admission at ports of entry within the period of validity of their visas, or it is established that such holders began a continuous journey to such ports of entry prior to the expiration of the visas. The actual port of entry into the United States shall be the "record" port of entry for all purposes, including head-tax transactions. Forms I–121 and I–448 shall be completed at such actual port of entry, as will be all other immigration documents. (Sec. 17, 43 Stat. 163; 8 U. S. C. 217)

§ 114.4 Procedure where preexamination board is nonexistent. Any alien not provided with a validly endorsed Form I–121, I–448, 257d, or I–94 who shall apply for admission at a point on the Canadian border where no board of special inquiry is located, if held for examination before such a board, shall be conveyed by the transportation company concerned to the nearest port of entry where a board of special inquiry is located; and, in the discretion of the appropriate United States immigration official, any alien not having been preexamined and not holding any of said forms, who shall apply for admission at a border point within one year after arriving at a Canadian seaport, shall be returned by the transportation company responsible, to the seaport of arrival for examination by United States immigration officials and (where proper) assessment of head tax in the manner required in the cases of aliens arriving at Canadian seaports and giving destinations in the United States, unless it shall appear that such alien was originally destined in good faith to Canada and has been actually residing in said country, or unless, upon examination, Canadian officials shall declare such alien eligible for residence in Canada and the transportation company involved shall arrange for his removal a reasonable distance from the boundary: Provided, That where the mental, physical, financial, or moral status of the alien is such that in the opinion of the proper official such person should be returned to the initial point of departure in Canada, the transportation company or other interest concerned shall, upon request, return such alien to such initial point of departure. (Sec. 17, 43 Stat. 163; 8 U. S. C. 217)

§ 114.5 Further examination at border port. All aliens seeking entry into the United States from Canada at the border ports without first having been preexamined and provided with endorsed Form I–121, I–448, 257d, or I–94, who may not appear to the examining immigrant inspector clearly and beyond a doubt entitled to enter the United States; and those aliens holding any of said forms whose further examination is deemed necessary or advisable; and aliens brought to the border who have arrived in Canada by steamship lines or vessels which have not conformed to the requirements of section 17 of the Immigration Act of 1924 (43 Stat. 163; 8 U. S. C. 217), and who have not had two years' residence in Canada, shall, at the discretion of the examining immigrant inspector, be removed from the railroad train or other vehicle of travel by the owner, agent, or person in charge of the transportation line concerned, and delivered to the immigration office or such other place of detention as may be designated by the said examining immigrant inspector, for further examination.

(Sec. 2 (a), 49 Stat. 1526; 15 U. S. C. sec. 13 (a)). [Modified cease and desist order, Standard Oil Company, Docket 4389, August 9, 1946]

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 9th day of August A. D. 1946.

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission as amended, answer of the respondent, testimony and other evidence in support of the allegations of said complaint as amended and in opposition thereto taken before a trial examiner of the Commission theretofore duly designated by it, report of the trial examiner upon the evidence and exceptions filed thereto, briefs in support of the complaint and in opposition thereto, and oral argument of counsel; and the Commission having made and entered its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that respondent has violated the provisions of subsection (a) of section 2 of an act of Congress entitled, "An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes," approved October 15, 1914 (Clayton Act), as amended by act approved June 19, 1936, (Robinson-Patman Act) issued its order to cease and desist on October 9, 1945. Thereafter, this matter came on for hearing before the Commission upon motion and supplemental motion by counsel for the Commission to modify said order to cease and desist issued on October 9, 1945, answers and briefs of respondent in opposition thereto, motion of respondent for rehearing and reconsideration of said order and motion of National Council of Independent Petroleum Associations for leave to intervene and to set aside said order to cease and desist and reopen the proceedings for further hearings and the taking of further testimony, and the Commission having considered said motions, answers, briefs, and oral argument of counsel and the record herein, and being of the opinion that a modified order to cease and desist should be issued to this cause, and having entered its order modifying said order to cease and desist to the extent set out in said supplemental motion of counsel for the Commission, issued this its modified order to cease and desist:

It is ordered, That the respondent, Standard Oil Company (Indiana), a corporation, and its officers, representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device in connection with the sale of gasoline in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the aforesaid Clayton Act, do forthwith cease and desist from discriminating, directly or indirectly, in the price of such gasoline of like grade and quality as among purchasers:

(1) By selling such gasoline to competing purchasers at different prices in the manner and under the circumstances stated in the findings as to the facts herein.

(2) By continuing or resuming the discriminations in price of such gasoline referred to and described in the Commission's findings as to the facts herein.

(3) By otherwise discriminating in price between purchasers of such gasoline in a manner and degree substantially similar to the manner and degree of the discriminations referred to and described in the Commission's findings as to the facts herein.

(4) By selling such gasoline to some retailers thereof at prices lower than the prices charged other retailers who in fact compete with them in the sale and distribution of such gasoline.

(5) By allowing a price to any dealer, jobber, or wholesaler on such gasoline sold by such dealer, jobber or wholesaler at retail lower than the price which respondent charges its retailer-customers who in fact compete in the sale and distribution of such gasoline with such dealers, jobbers or wholesalers in their retailing capacity.

(6) By selling such gasoline to any jobber or wholesaler at a price lower than the price which respondent charges its retailer-customers who in fact compete in the sale and distribution of such gasoline with the retailer-customers of such jobbers or wholesalers, where such jobber or wholesaler resells such gasoline to any of its said retailer-customers at less than respondent's posted tank-wagon price or directly or indirectly grants to any such retailer-customer any discounts, rebates, allowances, services or facilities having the net effect of a reduction in price to the retailer.

For the purpose of comparison the term "price" as used in this order includes discounts, rebates, allowances and other terms and conditions of sale.

The above specified requirements of this order are subject, however, to the following provisos:

(a) That none of the prohibitions of the order shall be taken as inhibiting any price differentials by respondent that were not found under the facts herein to have a tendency to injure, destroy or prevent competition with respondent's customers receiving the benefit of such differentials or with their customers.

(b) That none of the prohibitions of the order shall be taken as preventing any price differentials by respondent which make only due allowance for differences in respondent's cost of manufacture, sale, or delivery resulting from the differing methods or quantities in which such gasoline is to such purchasers sold or delivered.

(c) That none of the prohibitions of the order shall be taken as inhibiting a lower price to jobbers than to retailers where respondent thereby makes only due allowance for its differences in cost of manufacture, sale or delivery resulting from the differing methods or quantities in which such gasoline is to such purchasers sold or delivered.

(d) That none of the provisions of the order shall be taken as inhibiting any price differentials by respondent that reflect differences in the grades and qualities of such gasoline.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Bureau of Internal Revenue

Subchapter C—Miscellaneous Excise Taxes

[T. D. 5525]

PART 171—MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS RELATED TO LIQUOR

SUBPART M—REMISSION OR MITIGATION OF FORFEITURES

Section 3726, Internal Revenue Code (U. S. C., title 26, section 3726), authorizes the administrative remission or mitigation of forfeitures incurred under the internal-revenue laws, and adopts, for this purpose, the procedure established by Congress for the customs service by the Tariff Act of 1930. Section 3726 is as follows:

The provisions of law applicable to the remission or mitigation by the Secretary of forfeitures under the customs law shall apply to forfeitures incurred or alleged to have been incurred under the internal revenue laws.

The applicable provisions of the Tariff Act of 1930 are as follows:

SEC. 613 Disposition of proceeds. Any person claiming any vessel, vehicle, merchandise, or baggage, or any interest therein, which has been forfeited and sold under the provisions of this Act, may at any time within three months after the date of sale apply to the Secretary of the Treasury if the forfeiture and sale was under the customs laws, • • • for a remission of the forfeiture and restoration of the proceeds of such sale, or such part thereof as may be claimed by him. Upon the production of satisfactory proof that the applicant did not know of the seizure prior to the declaration or condemnation of forfeiture, and was in such circumstances as prevented him from knowing of the same, and that such forfeiture was incurred without any willful negligence or intention to defraud on the part of the applicant, the Secretary of the Treasury • • • may order the proceeds of the sale, or any part thereof, restored to the applicant, after deducting the cost of seizure and of sale, the duties, if any, accruing on the merchandise or baggage, and any sum due on a lien for freight, charges, or contributions in general average that may have been filed. If no application for such remission or restoration is made within three months after such sale, or if the application be denied by the Secretary of the Treasury • • •, the proceeds of sale shall be disposed of as follows:

(1) For the payment of all proper expenses of the proceedings of forfeiture and sale, including expenses of seizure, maintaining the custody of the property, advertising, and sale, and if condemned by a decree of a district court and a bond for such costs was not given, the costs as taxed by the court;

(2) For the satisfaction of liens for freight, charges, and contributions in general average, notice of which has been filed with the collector according to law;

(3) For the payment of the duties accruing on such merchandise or baggage, if the same is subject to duty; and

(4) The residue shall be deposited with the Treasurer of the United States as a customs • • • fine.

SEC. 618. Remission or mitigation of penalties. Whenever any person interested in any vessel, vehicle, merchandise, or baggage seized under the provisions of this Act, or who has incurred, or is alleged to have incurred, any fine or penalty thereunder, files with the Secretary of the Treasury if under the customs laws, • • • before the sale of such vessel, vehicle, merchandise, or baggage a petition for the remission or mitigation of such fine, penalty, or forfeiture, the Secretary of the Treasury, • • • if he finds that such fine, penalty, or forfeiture was incurred without willful negligence or without any intention on the part of the petitioner to defraud the revenue or to violate the law, or finds the existence of such mitigating circumstances as to justify the remission or mitigation of such fine, penalty, or forfeiture, may remit or mitigate the same upon such terms and conditions as he deems reasonable and just, or order discontinuance of any prosecution relating thereto. In order to enable him to ascertain the facts, the Secretary of the Treasury may issue a commission to any customs agent, collector, judge of the United States Customs Court, or United States commissioner, to take testimony upon such petition: • • •.

The purpose to be served by the provisions of section 3726 is, obviously, that of protecting the interests of innocent persons whose property or any interest therein is jeopardized by a seizure and proposed forfeiture under the internal-revenue laws. It applies to all internal-revenue statutes which provide for such forfeitures, but particularly to section 3321, Internal Revenue Code (U. S. C., title 26, section 3321).

The authority so granted is not, however, in all regards coextensive with the power conferred upon the Secretary of the Treasury by sections 613 and 618 of the tariff act. The requirements of subdivisions (1), (2), (3), and (4) of section 613 relate to the disposition of the proceeds of the sale of forfeited property and not to an application for the remission or mitigation of the forfeiture. Proceeds of the sale of property forfeited under the internal revenue laws should, therefore, be covered into the Treasury as provided by section 3971, Internal Revenue Code. Also by section 618 of the tariff act fines and penalties may be remitted or mitigated, while section 3726, Internal Revenue Code, applies only to forfeitures. Otherwise, the provisions of sections 613 and 618 are invoked for internal revenue violations.

Pursuant to the above sections of law, the following regulations are prescribed for the filing and adjudication of petitions under section 3726, Internal Revenue Code:

Sec.

171.130 Form of the petition.
171.131 Contents of the petition.
171.132 Time of filing petition.
171.133 Officers with whom filed.
171.134 Discontinuance of administrative proceedings.
171.135 Return of nonacceptable petition to petitioner for correction.
171.136 Investigation of acceptable petition, and report thereon.
171.137 Transmission of petition with reports and recommendation to Deputy Commissioner, Alcohol Tax Unit, Bureau of Internal Revenue.
171.138 Deputy Commissioner, Alcohol Tax Unit, to submit petition and record to Secretary of Treasury, with recommendations.
171.139 Types of final action on the petition by the Secretary of the Treasury.
171.140 Procedure when petition cognizable by Attorney General.
171.141 Procedure when petition cognizable by the Federal Court exclusively.

§ 171.130 Form of the petition. There is no set or standardized form provided or required by the Department for use in filing a petition for remission or mitigation under section 3726, Internal Revenue Code. However, it is preferable that the petition be typewritten on legal size paper; and it is necessary that the petition be executed under oath, prepared in triplicate and addressed to the Secretary of the Treasury, and that all copies of original documents submitted as exhibits in support of allegations of the petition be certified as true and accurate copies of originals. Each copy of the petition must contain a complete set of exhibits. The jurat to a petition must not be executed by an attorney enrolled to practice before the Treasury Department who appears as the attorney for the petitioner; and a petition signed and sworn to by an attorney enrolled to practice before the Treasury Department who appears as the attorney for the petitioner is not acceptable.

§ 171.131 Contents of the petition—(a) Description of property. The petition should give such a description of the property and such facts of the seizure as will enable the officers of the Alcohol Tax Unit readily to identify the property.

(b) Statement regarding administrative forfeiture or sale. If an executive proceeding for summary forfeiture is pending, the petition should state such fact; and if the property has been sold, the petition should also state the date and place of sale.

(c) Statement regarding knowledge of seizure. In the event the petition is filed for the restoration of the proceeds derived from sale of the property pursuant to summary forfeiture, it should also contain, or be supported by, satisfactory proof that the petitioner did not know of the seizure prior to the declaration or condemnation of forfeiture, and that he was in such circumstances as prevented him from knowing of the same.

(d) Statement regarding judicial forfeiture or sale. If a forfeiture proceeding is pending in court, or has resulted in a sale of the property pursuant to court order, the petition should state the style of the case, the court in which pending or in which the property was sold, the docket number, and the fact that the property has not yet been sold, or, if sold, the date and place of sale.

(e) Interest of petitioner. The petition should state in clear and concise terms the nature of the present, recognizable interest of the petitioner in the property to be forfeited, or which has been forfeited and sold, and the facts relied upon to show that the forfeiture was incurred without willful negligence or without any intention upon the part of the petitioner to defraud the revenue or to violate the law, or such other mitigating circumstances as, in the opinion of the petitioner, would justify the remission or mitigation of the forfeiture.

(f) Petitioner innocent party. If the petitioner is not the one who in person committed the act which caused the seizure, the petition should state how the property came into the possession of such other person, and the investigation, if any, made of such other person, through principal Federal, State, or local law enforcement officers, prior to parting with the property, to determine whether such other person had either a record or a reputation, or both, as a violator of the laws of the United States or of any State relating to intoxicating liquors, and the information obtained from said investigation.

(g) Documents supporting claim. The petition should also be accompanied by copies, certified by the petitioner under oath as correct, of contracts, bills of sale, chattel mortgages, reports of investigators, affidavits, liens for freight, charges, or contribution in general average, and any other papers or documents that would tend to support the claims made in the petition.

(h) Costs and expenses. The petitioner should undertake in the petition to pay all the costs and expenses incurred in seizing and storing the property, as well as the costs borne or to be borne by the United States, the taxes, if any, payable by the petitioner or imposed in respect of the property to which the petition relates, and any sum due on a lien for freight, charges, or contribution in general average that may have been filed, and, if the property has been sold, or is in the course of being sold, the expenses so incurred.

§ 171.132 Time of filing petition. A petition may be filed at any time prior to the sale or other disposition of the property involved pursuant to administrative forfeiture, in which event action on the petition will be had in the light of the requirements of section 618 of the Tariff Act of 1930, invoked by section 3726, Internal Revenue Code; but a petition in regard to property which has already been sold or otherwise disposed of pursuant to administrative forfeiture must be filed within three months from the date of sale and the claimant must otherwise meet the requirements of section 613 of the Tariff Act of 1930, invoked by section 3726, Internal Revenue Code. As to "sale," section 306, Title III, Liquor Law Repeal and Enforcement Act (U. S. C., Title 40, section 304 (k)), provides that acquisition for official use is equivalent to sale so far as remission or mitigation is concerned.

§ 171.133 Officers with whom filed. The petition should be filed, originally and in triplicate, with the district supervisor of the Alcohol Tax Unit, Bureau of Internal Revenue, for the district wherein the property was seized; or if petitioner prefers he may file the petition with the investigator in charge of the Alcohol Tax Unit for the State wherein seizure of the property involved was made. The officer with whom the petition is filed originally will immediately stamp the date of receipt on the margin or other appropriate blank space of the petition and of each exhibit thereto. The official date stamp will be used for that purpose. It is vital that the stamp impressions be legible.

§ 171.134 Discontinuance of administrative proceedings. If the petition covers property pending administrative disposition and is filed prior to the administrative sale of the property under section 3724, Internal Revenue Code, or prior to retention of the property for official use pursuant to Title III of the Liquor Law Repeal and Enforcement Act (U. S. C., title 40, section 304 (f) et seq.), any proceedings for forfeiture, sale, or other administrative disposition will be discontinued.

§ 171.135 Return of nonacceptable petition to petitioner for correction. If the petition is defective in some correctible respect, the district supervisor will return all copies of it by letter to the petitioner for proper corrections, amendments, et cetera, or for the submission of a new petition supplying the deficiencies of the one returned, within a reasonable time in either event.

§ 171.136 Investigation of acceptable petition, and report thereon. If the petition as originally filed is acceptable, or has been made so by correction et cetera, an investigation of the merits of the petition will be made and a report prepared thereon.

§ 171.137 Transmission of petition with reports and recommendation to Deputy Commissioner, Alcohol Tax Unit, Bureau of Internal Revenue. On conclusion of the investigation of the merits of the petition, the district supervisor will forward to the Deputy Commissioner, Alcohol Tax Unit, Bureau of Internal Revenue, the original copy of the petition, the original copy and one carbon copy of the report of investigation, a legible copy of the case report of the seizure, and a copy of Form 226–A, "Appraisement List." The transmittal letter will give a brief statement as to the seizure of the property, its present forfeiture status, its appraised value, and a summary of the facts and circumstances bearing upon the merits of the petition. The district supervisor will also state his conclusions and recommendations as to the action to be taken on the petition.

§ 171.138 Deputy Commissioner, Alcohol Tax Unit, to submit petition and record to Secretary of Treasury, with recommendation. The Deputy Commissioner, Alcohol Tax Unit, shall by transmittal memorandum of the law and facts, approved by the Chief Counsel of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, submit to the Secretary of the Treasury the petition and record, with recommendation.

§ 171.139 Types of final action on the petition by the Secretary of the Treasury. Final action on any petition filed pursuant to these regulations shall result either in denial or allowance of the petition by the Secretary of the Treasury. Petitions allowed by the Secretary fall generally into the following five classes on the basis of the terms and conditions of allowance:

(a) The property itself is returnable to the petitioner upon payment by him of all costs and storage; or

(b) The property is returnable to the petitioner provided he pays the difference between the recognized lien and the appraised value, plus all costs, and storage; otherwise the property is sold or acquired for official use by a governmental agency pursuant to forfeiture and the petitioner files claim with the Comptroller General of the United States for payment of his recognized lien in full, or pro tanto, out of the proceeds of sale if the property was sold, or in full out of the proper appropriation of the receiving agency if the property was acquired for official use, less all costs and storage in either event; or

(c) The property, if an automobile or truck, is returnable to the petitioner provided he pays the difference between the amount of his recognized lien and the present appraised value, plus all costs and storage, subject, however, to the right of the Alcohol Tax Unit to pay the petitioner the amount of his recognized lien, less all costs and storage, and to acquire the vehicle for official use; or

(d) The property itself is returnable to the petitioner upon payment by him of a specified sum in mitigation, proposed by him, accepted by the Department, and made a condition of allowance, or by the Department on its own initiative made a condition of allowance, in either event the petitioner to pay all costs and storage (plus the difference between the recognized lien and the appraised value when that condition is imposed); or

(e) The petitioner's lien is recognized in the amount as established, to be paid, less all cost and storage charges, in full, or pro tanto, out of the proceeds of sale if the property was sold, or in full out of the proper appropriation of the receiving agency if the property was acquired for official use, payment in either event to be through claim filed by the petitioner direct with the Comptroller General of the United States.

§ 171.140 Procedure when petition cognizable by Attorney General. If a petition is filed with the Treasury Department in respect of property (a) concerning which proper and timely claim and cost bond under section 3724, Internal Revenue Code, have already been filed and accepted, thus necessitating reference of the seizure to the United States Attorney for institution of judicial forfeiture proceedings or other disposition, or (b) which has been libelled but in respect of which decree of forfeiture has not as yet been entered by the court, or (c) which has otherwise been referred to the Department of Justice or the United States Attorney or is otherwise under their jurisdiction, the petition will be referred to the Attorney General or the proper United States Attorney, depending on whether the petition is received in Washington or in the offices of the district supervisor or investigator in charge of the Alcohol Tax Unit, as being a matter in which the function of decision is to be exercised by the Department of Justice under the provisions of the second paragraph of section 5 of Executive Order No. 6166 (see U. S. C., title 5, notes under section 124). In any one of these situations the Treasury Department (through the district supervisor) will undertake investigation of the merits of the petition when requested to do so by the Department of Justice or the United States Attorney.

§ 171.141 Procedure when petition cognizable by the Federal Court exclusively. If a petition is filed with the Treasury Department in respect of property which has already been forfeited judicially, the petition will be returned to the petitioner with explanation that under section 204 (a), Title II, Liquor Law Repeal and Enforcement Act (U. S. C., title 18, section 646) the Federal court has the exclusive jurisdiction to remit or mitigate the forfeiture. If such petition is thereafter filed with the court and the Department of Justice or the United States Attorney so requests, the Treasury Department will undertake (through the district supervisor) to investigate the merits of the petition.

These regulations shall take effect on September 10, 1946.

[SEAL] WM. T. SHERWOOD,
Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Approved: September 9, 1946.

PART 3293—CHEMICALS

ETHYL FLUID

The fulfilment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of lead and tetraethyl lead, both imported and domestic, for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate to the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3293.662 Limitation Order L-355—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Ethyl fluid" is a mixture of tetraethyl lead and other ingredients designed to raise the octane number of gasoline. It includes: (i) "Motor ethyl fluid" which is ethyl fluid containing organic chlorides and bromides designed for use in motor gasoline for land- and sea-going engines; and (ii) "Aviation ethyl fluid" which is ethyl fluid without organic chlorides designed for use in aviation gasoline.

(2) "Use" means to blend ethyl fluid with gasoline or any component of gasoline or to blend ethyl fluid or gasoline containing ethyl fluid with any other material that can be blended with gasoline.

(3) "Base period" means the three months of November, December, 1945 and January, 1946 or such other period heretofore or hereafter established for a particular user by the Civilian Production Administration on appeal.

(b) Restrictions on delivery. (1) No producer of ethyl fluid shall deliver to any person in any calendar month more than 24% of the aggregate quantity of motor ethyl fluid delivered to such person in the base period except that when a person certifies to a producer that he used more ethyl fluid than the quantity he received in the base period, the producer may deliver to such person in any month a quantity not in excess of the aggregate of 27% of the quantity certified to have been used in the base period in production of house brand gasoline and 22% of the quantity certified to have been used in the base period in production of premium gasoline.

(2) No producer of ethyl fluid may export outside the United States, its territories or possessions, in any calendar month, more motor ethyl fluid than 24% of the aggregate quantity exported in the base period except on special authorization by the Civilian Production Administration.

(3) No person shall accept delivery of motor ethyl fluid at any one blending point if his inventory of motor ethyl fluid at that point is or will by virtue of such delivery become more than he needs in the succeeding 30 days on the basis of his current or scheduled rate of operations. Persons normally receiving deliveries of motor ethyl fluid by tank car or tank truck shall not maintain any inventory except in scale tanks for blending motor ethyl fluid with gasoline.

(4) Nothing in this paragraph shall prevent the delivery and receipt of a minimum tank car, tank wagon or drum carload by any person whose inventory of motor ethyl fluid is less than 30-days' supply.

(c) Restrictions on use. (1) No person shall in any month beginning with June, 1946 use a greater quantity of motor ethyl fluid than the aggregate of 27% of the quantity used in the base period in production of house brand gasoline and 22% of the quantity used in the base period in production of premium gasoline. A person's consumption quota may be used in either house brand or premium gasoline without regard to percentage of use in the base period so long as gasoline of higher than 78½ octane is not produced.

(2) No person shall use aviation ethyl fluid in the production of motor gasoline or any component thereof, or use any gasoline component containing aviation ethyl fluid in the production of motor gasoline.

(3) No person shall use ethyl fluid or gasoline containing ethyl fluid to produce motor gasoline having higher octane than 78½ octane (not to reach 79 octane ASTM-D-357-45) at blending point for use in motor-propelled vehicles, trucks, tractors or boats except to fill military contracts on special authorization from the Civilian Production Administration or to produce aviation gasoline of 100 octane (A & N grade 100-130) or higher, except on special authorization from the Civilian Production Administration.

(d) Exceptions. Nothing in this order shall prevent the delivery, receipt and use for laboratory purposes of ethyl fluid in containers of one litre or less.

(e) Newcomer's quota. Any person who was not a user of ethyl fluid in November or December, 1945 or January, 1946 and who wishes to have a quota established for him to receive or use ethyl fluid in any calendar month, may apply by letter to the Civilian Production Administration, Chemicals Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: L-355.

(f) Carry-over. If a person uses less ethyl fluid than he is permitted to use in any calendar month, he may add this quantity to his consumption quota but not to his delivery quota, in the succeeding month.

(g) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected hereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the Civilian Production Administration, as amended from time to time.

(2) Appeals. Any appeals from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing with the Civilian Production Administration, Chemical Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: L-355, a letter in triplicate referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(3) Violations. A person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, willfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment.

(4) Communications to Civilian Production Administration. Communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Civilian Production Administration, Chemicals Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: L–355.

(5) [Deleted on Sept. 10, 1946.]

Issued this 10th day of September 1946.

D. Buyers' obligations.

LIST B—RESTRICTIONS ON SPECIAL SALES FOR EXPORT

Explanation and Scope

§ 944.34 Priorities Regulation 13—(a) What this regulation does. This regulation covers special sales, which, in general, are sales of materials or products by persons who acquired or made them for use and not for sale or resale. This is more fully explained in paragraph (b) (1). Special sales may be made freely, except for certain sales of surplus under CPA directions, materials or products on List A (Domestic) or List B (Export), and certain sales as scrap. This is the only CPA regulation on special sales, and a seller who wants to make a special sale need not look at any other CPA regulation or order unless this regulation says he must. However, all buyers must comply with applicable CPA orders on use, inventory, resale, etc., as explained in paragraph (j).

(b) Definitions. As used in this regulation:

(1) "Special sale" means a sale of a material or product by any person (including a Government agency) who acquired or made it for use and not for sale or resale. All sales by trustees in bankruptcy, receivers and other kinds of liquidators (in the course of liquidation as distinct from continued operation of a business) are special sales even though neither they nor their beneficiaries bought for use. All sales at public auction by general auctioneers are special sales regardless of the purpose for which the material or product was acquired. All sales of surplus materials or products by Government agencies are special sales. Transfers of materials acquired or made for use, from one plant or operating unit to another which is owned by the same person but which normally buys separately, are special sales.

(2) "Material or product" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly or product of any kind in finished, semi-finished or raw material form.

(3) A "used" material or product is one which has been put into actual use.

(4) "Persons buying for use" include, among others, a contractor who buys with intent to incorporate the material in a building or product for a third person.

(c) Sales not covered by this regulation. The following types of sales are not considered special sales and are not governed by this regulation, even though they may involve materials or products acquired or made for use:

(1) A sale of a material or product by a person regularly engaged in the business of selling it. He is governed, however, by all CPA orders and regulations which apply to his business and to the material or product he is selling.

(2) Sales of plant-generated scrap, meaning scrap which is generated in the course of manufacture or is the waste of industrial fabrication. Sales of other kinds of scrap are covered by paragraph (i).

(3) Sales of rationed products which are controlled by another Government Agency.

(4) Sales of foods for humans or animals, medicines, tobacco, oils and fats, petroleum and petroleum products including natural and liquefied petroleum gases.

(5) [Deleted Oct. 1, 1945.]

(6) A sale of an entire business which is transferred as a going concern to a new owner who continues to operate it in the same or substantially the same form.

(7) [Deleted Oct. 1, 1945.]

General Rules for All Special Sales

(d) Most special sales may be made freely; general rules. A seller may make a special sale of most materials or products freely to anyone without CPA authorization and without requiring the buyer to apply or extend a preference rating. The only exceptions are certain sales of surplus under CPA directions, special sales of materials or products on List A (domestic sales) and on List B (export), and certain sales as scrap, as explained in paragraphs (d) (4), (g), (h) and (i). In addition, all sellers are subject to the following general rules and conditions:

(1) If the seller knows that a person who wants to buy the material or product will use it for a prohibited purpose or would have more of it than he is permitted to have, the sale may not be made. The buyers' obligations are stated in paragraph (j).

(2) At special sales, preference ratings have no effect either by way of obliging a holder to sell or by way of determining as among several buyers who shall get the material or product. However, this does not excuse a seller from complying with the restrictions on List A or B applying to the items listed.

(3) Even if the buyer gives the seller a preference rating at a special sale, the seller cannot use this rating to replace the material or product he has sold. The effect of this rating stops when the seller receives it.

(4) If the sale relates to surplus Government-owned or Government-involved materials or products (including contractor inventories and sales by owning or disposal agencies), the seller may be subject to regulations of the War Assets Administration. The seller must also comply with any directions on specific materials or products which may be issued by the CPA as part of this regulation or otherwise.

(e) Use of material acquired with priorities assistance. This regulation does not change the general rule of § 944.11 of Priorities Regulation 1 that material acquired with priorities assistance must, if possible, be used for the purpose for which the assistance was given. Where such material cannot be used for this purpose, then this regulation applies if a special sale is made.

(f) Sales through an agent. Where a person sells through an agent, except at public auction sales, the sale is a special sale only if it would be a special sale if made directly by the principal. If it is a special sale, the restrictions of this regulation apply to the principal and also to his agent if the latter knows or has reason to know the facts. In cases of special sales made at public auctions, the restrictions of this regulation are applicable both to the auctioneer and to his principal.

Restricted Special Sales

(g) Materials or products on List A. A special sale of a material or product on List A attached to this regulation, other than a sale for export, may be made only under the conditions described in the list.

(h) Materials or products on List B (export). A special sale of a material or product on List B to a foreign purchaser or to a domestic purchaser who is buying for export or for resale to a foreign purchaser may be made only under the conditions described in the list. Used materials or used products, however, may be sold freely for export unless a notation on List B indicates a restriction on the sale in their used condition. Also, if an exporter, is unable to export material purchased for export, he may make a special sale of it in the domestic market under the rules of this regulation. Nothing in this regulation relieves any exporter from complying with all applicable regulations of the Office of International Trade, Department of Commerce, or other Government agencies who may have jurisdiction over exports.

(i) Sales as scrap of materials or products other than plant-generated scrap. (1) Any material or product (other than those listed below and plant-generated scrap) may be sold as scrap in a special sale if it is obsolete, unusable or not-readily-salable and will be used or consumed principally as scrap although some part of it may possibly be salvaged by the scrap buyer. A person may make such a special sale as scrap without stripping, disassembling or breaking up the material or product before sale. The sale may be made either to any consumer of scrap to be used only as scrap, or to any person regularly engaged in the collection, disassembling, sorting, and disposal of that kind of scrap material, primarily for remelt or other scrap use. Subsequent sales of any salvaged materials or products by such a scrap dealer are not covered by this regulation, but are subject to any CPA orders or regulations which apply to the distribution of the particular material or product. The above does not apply to the following:

Used tin cans sold as scrap are governed by Order M–325.

(2) If the buyer by contract, warranty or otherwise has stated that the particular material or product being sold as scrap will be used or disposed of as scrap, this regulation does not relieve the buyer from compliance with that condition.

(3) The sale at low prices, even as low as scrap prices, of prime or off-grade materials or products for use or resale "as is" does not constitute a sale as scrap and such sales may not be made under this paragraph. Instead such a sale is subject to all the other rules of this regulation which apply to special sales of the particular materials or products.

(4) This paragraph permits special sales as scrap only for use or resale within the United States, its territories or possessions.

Provisions Relating to Buyers

(j) Provisions relating to buyers—(1) Use and quantity restrictions still apply. The buyer at a special sale may not violate any CPA order or regulation controlling the amount of any material or product he may make or the use or disposition that he may make of it. He must also comply with any applicable order which limits the amount of any material or product he may buy (in terms of a specified quantity or quota as distinguished from a provision requiring CPA permission for all purchases. The latter type of provision does not apply when a special sale is made unless required by this regulation). All the prohibitions in CPA orders or regulations against the use of materials or products for particular purposes remain in effect, and even though a special sale may not be restricted by this regulation, the buyer may have to get permission to use under the applicable order.

(2) Inventories. (i) Persons buying for use may accept delivery of any item of a material or product bought on a special sale under this regulation if his total inventory of that item is or will by virtue of accepting such delivery be not in excess of his succeeding 90 days requirements. Directions issued pursuant to this regulation may impose more restrictive limitations on particular products. This permits a person to exceed other applicable inventory limits only if he acquires the excess under this regulation. However, if as a result of deliveries of materials or products accepted under this paragraph, his working inventory exceeds a practicable minimum or other applicable limits, he must promptly adjust his outstanding orders with his suppliers, and, if necessary, postpone or cancel them as described in paragraph (e) of Priorities Regulation 32. Paragraph (h) of Priorities Regulation 32 explains what receipts are permitted from suppliers after adjustment of orders. This paragraph does not permit a person to stockpile in anticipation of starting or resuming civilian production, except as permitted by Priorities Regulation 32. However, if any applicable CPA order or regulation permits a larger inventory than 90 days, this paragraph does not restrict receipts below the larger amount.

(ii) Persons buying for resale are subject to all applicable inventory restrictions. However, any material obtained under this regulation by such persons must be offered for sale promptly in accordance with applicable CPA orders and regulations.

(3) Persons buying for resale. If a person at a special sale buys a material or product for resale, he may not resell in violation of any CPA regulation or order which applies to persons engaged in the business of selling the particular material or product. Even if the buyer for resale has not previously sold the material or product as part of his regular business, he is subject to the same restrictions in reselling as a regular wholesaler, retailer or other distributor of it under all applicable CPA regulations and orders, unless the particular regulation or order specifically states otherwise. For example, if an order requires specific CPA permission before a regular distributor of a product can sell it, any person who buys it at a special sale for resale must do what the order says.

(4) Reports. If any order or regulation provides that a buyer of a material or product must make any report or furnish any information either to the Civilian Production Administration or to the seller, this regulation does not excuse him from these requirements.

(5) Obligations of persons giving certificates. Any person giving any of the certificates required by this regulation may obtain and use or dispose of the materials or products which he gets with his certificate only in accordance with its terms.

Miscellaneous Provisions

(k) Records. Any person making a sale under this regulation must keep sufficient records so that he can show that the sale was permitted under this regulation.

(l) Revisions of Lists A and B. Lists A and B attached to this regulation will be revised from time to time. A person wishing to sell a material or product under this regulation should be sure that he has the lists which are in effect at the time of the sale.

(m) Letters and questions. Any letters or questions about this regulation should be sent to the Civilian Production Administration in Washington 25, D. C., marked "Ref: P R. 13".

Issued this 10th day of September 1946.

CIVILIAN PRODUCTION ADMINISTRATION,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

LIST A—RESTRICTIONS ON SPECIAL SALES (DOMESTIC)

A. General rules. Special sales in the domestic market of materials or products in Column 1 of List A below are restricted to certain classes of buyers as indicated below in section B, and in accordance with any special rules for a particular material or product as shown on the list. The listings show in some instances the class or group of materials and do not always list all the trade names and related materials. Exceptions to the restrictions are indicated below in section C. Special sales of materials or products not listed may be made freely, but all special sales are subject to the general rules in paragraphs (d), (e) and (f) of the regulation.

B. Classes of buyers. Special sales of materials or products on this List A may be made to the following classes of buyers:

(1) To a producer of the same kind of material or product.

(2) To a reprocessor, unless a note in Column 4 of the list indicates to the contrary with respect to a particular material or product. A reprocessor means any person who remakes, repairs or reworks new, rejected or second-grade materials or products of the kind being sold.

(3) To a regular dealer, unless Column 3 or a note in Column 4 of the list indicates to the contrary with respect to a particular material or product. A dealer means any wholesaler or retailer regularly dealing in the materials or products of the kind being sold, and reselling them from stock or inventory to industrial users or to other persons. It also includes persons who recondition or rebuild equipment and machinery of the kind being sold for resale to industrial users. Such persons are not, however, relieved from compliance with any CPA orders or regulations which control the distribution of the material by them.

If this List A shows no restrictions on the special sale of a material or product to a regular dealer, the seller may sell it to any person for resale who gives him the following certification, provided the seller has no reason to believe that it is false.

The undersigned buyer certifies under Priorities Regulation 13 to the seller and to the CPA that he will in good faith offer for sale the material or product covered by this order in substantially the same time and manner as would a person regularly dealing in it, that he will render substantially the same type of service as would such a person, and that he will comply with all CPA regulations and orders applicable to such a person.

(Signature)

Any person giving such a certification must comply with all applicable CPA regulations and orders as he has certified he will. The standard certification provided in Priorities Regulation 7 may not be used in place of this certification.

(4) To persons buying for use subject to the restrictions indicated in Columns 2 and 4 of the list.

C. Exceptions from the restrictions on the list. Even if this List A shows a restriction on the special sale of a particular material or product, the sale may still be made if one or more of the following conditions apply:

lation:

ment of Commerce, or other gov-

(1) Special permission. If the list requires special authorization from the CPA in order for a sale of a particular material or product to be made, or if other conditions imposed by the list cannot be met, the seller may apply on Form CPA-1161 for special permission to sell unless the list states that some other form must be used. If Form CPA-1161 is applicable, and permission is given, it may be restricted to a specific buyer or class of buyers, or may permit the sale to any buyer for resale who gives the certification described in section B (3) above relating to dealers.

(2) Used materials or products. If the material or product is used, it may be sold freely to anyone unless a notation on List A indicates a restriction on its sale.

(3) Small quantity exemption. A special sale may be made freely if all the material or product of the same kind or type that the seller has at any one plant, operating unit or location did not cost him more than $100. In the case of any materials or products involved in a Government contract termination, this exemption applies if there is no more than $100 worth of the material or product in the termination inventory at any one location. Similarly, $100 worth (at cost) of any material or product may be sold at any single public auction, regardless of the amount of the material or product the seller has. Also, for the purpose of determining whether a particular lot of material or product is suitable for the prospective customer's use, a person may make a special sale of a sample lot, provided the amount involved (at cost to the seller) of any such sample does not exceed $20.

(4) Special orders. If the Civilian Production Administration by an order or in any other way has ruled that all persons engaged in a particular business may sell or exchange the materials or products between themselves, they may do so.

(5) Disposal of contract termination inventories. For the purpose of making a settlement of a Government contract, surplus materials or products on List A may be transferred freely from any subcontractor or prime contractor to a procuring agency or disposal agency of the Government, providing the procuring agency has so directed. However, if any material or product is later withdrawn from the contract settlement, its disposition is controlled by this List A.

(6) Sales to Government stockpiling agencies. A person may sell surplus materials or products on List A freely to one of the following Government Corporations or to anyone buying as agent for one of them: Commodity Credit Corporation or Reconstruction Finance Corporation (Office of Defense Supplies, Office of Metals Reserve, or Office of Rubber Reserve).

D. Buyers obligations. No matter who the buyer is or how the sale is made or authorized, the buyer is always subject to the conditions and other provisions stated in paragraph (j) of the regulation.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Priorities Reg. 34]

SALES OF CERTAIN CRITICAL MATERIAL BY RECONSTRUCTION FINANCE CORPORATION

§ 944.55 Priorities Regulation 34—(a) What this regulation does. There is a shortage in the supply of certain materials held by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and various government agencies, for defense, for private account and for export. This regulation states the rules under which the Reconstruction Finance Corporation may sell these critical materials, either from its own stock, or for and on behalf of the owning agencies. Where a special authorization to buy the materials is required from CPA, the regulation explains who may apply and how to do so. The regulation applies only to the materials listed in the attached Table A. This table includes, but is not limited to, certain strategic materials covered by War Assets Administration Regulation 17, as to which CPA has determined that there is a deficiency in the supply for the current requirements of industry.

(b) Restrictions on sales by RFC—(1) Materials requiring special authorization by CPA. In some cases Table A requires special authorization from the CPA in order for a sale of a particular material to be made by RFC. Column 3 of Table A shows the Civilian Production Administration division or branch responsible for the material, and a note in column 4 opposite these items explains how persons wishing to buy them from RFC may apply to the appropriate CPA division or branch, Washington 25, D. C., for authorization to do so. Applicants should indicate the purpose for which the material is required, their present inventory of the material requested, the number of days supply represented by their present inventory plus the amount requested based on their current or scheduled rate of operation, the efforts made to obtain the material from regular sources of supply, the efforts made to obtain and use a suitable substitute, and any other information pertinent to the application. In general authorizations will be granted only if the material is not available from regular sources of supply and no suitable substitute material is available.

(2) Materials for which no special authorization is required by CPA. If Table A indicates that no special authorization is required for a sale of a particular material, the RFC may sell it without further instructions from CPA. However, if a note in Column 4 opposite the item requires that the purchaser give a certificate with his purchase order, RFC may sell only to persons who give it in writing the certificate specified. The standard certification in Priorities Regulation 7 may not be used instead of these certificate.

(c) Restrictions on buyers—(1) Use and inventory restrictions. A person buying critical materials from RFC may not violate any CPA order or regulation controlling the amount of any material he may receive or the use or disposition he may make of it. Persons buying for resale are subject to all applicable inventory restrictions, and any material obtained under this regulation by such persons must be offered for sale promptly in accordance with applicable CPA orders and regulations.

(2) Obligation of person giving certificates. Any person giving one of the certificates required in Table A may obtain and use or dispose of the materials he gets with the certificate only in accordance with its terms.

(d) Special directives. In cases of extreme urgency CPA may issue directives to RFC directing the delivery of specified quantities of materials to a named buyer or class of buyers.

NOTE: The application and reporting provisions of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 10th day of September 1946.

Recording Secretary.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[2d Rev. MPR 270,[1] Amdt. 16]

DRY EDIBLE BEANS AND CERTAIN OTHER DRY FOOD COMMODITIES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 270 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 1. Commodities and types of sales covered and geographical applicability—(a) Commodities and sales covered. This regulation covers the kinds and varieties of dry edible beans and dry whole and split peas that are not specifically named herein. They will be referred to as "listed commodities." Those kinds and varieties that are not specifically named are not subject to this or any other Maximum Price Regulation. This regulation establishes maximum prices for all sales of the listed commodities except sales by wholesalers and retailers as those terms are defined in MPR's 421,[2] 422,[3] and 423,[4] respectively, export sales (see 2d Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation[5]), sales of dry peas by growers to processors and dealers, sales of seed peas and certain sales of seed beans.

(b) Geographical applicability. This regulation applies to the 48 States of the United States and the District of Columbia.

[5] 8 F. R. 4132.

2. Section 2a is deleted and a new section 2a is added, to read as follows:

SEC. 2a. Sales of unprocessed dry edible beans—(a) Purposes of this section. This section defines "unprocessed dry edible beans" and certain other terms used in connection with the provisions covering their sales. It sets forth the maximum prices for all sales of unprocessed dry edible beans and explains how those prices are to be determined and applied.

(b) Definitions. As used in this regulation, the term:

"Unprocessed dry edible beans" means dry edible beans that either (1) have not been "processed" as that term is defined in section 2, or (2) if processed, grade lower than U. S. No. 2 in the case of baby or standard lima beans or lower than U. S. No. 3 for all other varieties.

"Sound beans" means sound beans as that term is defined in "U. S. Standards for Beans," revised September 1, 1941, published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

"Official inspection" means inspection of the particular lot of beans by a person and in the manner authorized by the U. S. Department of Agriculture or by the state in which the beans were produced.

(c) Applicability of maximum prices. The maximum prices established by this section apply to the quantity of sound beans in the lot being priced. Except for beans produced in California and Idaho (See paragraph (e) below) and except for the sales described in the paragraph immediately following this paragraph, the quantity of sound beans in any particular lot of unprocessed dry edible beans must be determined by the buyer and seller in accordance with customary practices in the state where the beans were produced. In any case, the purchase price may not be paid or received until the quantity of sound beans in the lot has been determined in the appropriate manner specified in this section.

In all sales of unprocessed dry edible beans to canners, freezers, or other commercial processors (as distinguished from "processors" as defined in section 2) or to persons other than growers, processors or dealers, the quantity of sound beans in the lot must be determined by official inspection and a certificate thereof must be secured by the seller and furnished to the buyer.

Maximum prices f. o. b. processing plant or buyer's premises.

Variety	Maximum price per cwt. of sound beans
Pea and medium white beans (Navy)	$8.60
Marrow beans (not including red marrow)	9.85
Great Northern Beans	8.25
Large and small white beans (including flat small white)	8.60
White Kidney beans	10.95
Red Kidney beans	10.35
Cranberry Beans (other than Western)	8.60
Cranberry Beans (Western)	8.60
Small Red Beans	8.60
Pink Beans	8.60
Bayo Beans	7.30
Blackeye Beans (Cow Peas of the Blackeye variety)	7.85
Pinto Beans	8.10
Lima Beans (standard)	10.10
Baby Lima Beans	8.35
Yellow eye beans	8.85

If the seller does not deliver the beans being priced to the elevator or buyer's premises, he must deduct, from the maximum price otherwise applicable, an amount equal to the cost of transporting the particular beans from the point of delivery to the nearest elevator or processing plant. If the seller delivers the beans to a point beyond the buyer's premises or processing plant, he may include in his maximum price the cost of transportation as that term is defined in Section 5.

(e) Exceptions for unprocessed dry edible beans produced in Idaho & California. (1) The quantity of sound beans in the lot being sold must be determined by official inspection and a certificate thereof must be secured by the seller and furnished to the buyer. On resale of any lot of dry edible beans, whether processed or unprocessed, that were purchased as unprocessed dry edible beans, an official certificate of inspection and grade must be secured by the seller and furnished to the buyer.

(2) For all sales of unprocessed beans produced in California the maximum price, in each case, is, 10¢ per hundredweight less than the price established in paragraph (d) of this section.

3. Section 3a is added to read as follows:

SEC. 3a. Special provisions for sales of seed beans—(a) Purposes of this section. This section applies only to "selected seed beans" and "certified seed beans" as those terms are defined in paragraph (b) below. It lists the conditions under which sales of seed beans are exempt from the pricing provisions of this regulation. It is not the purpose of this regulation to control the sale or distribution of seed. However, no sale of seed beans is exempt unless the applicable definition in paragraph (b) and the conditions in paragraph (c) are fully satisfied. In all other cases the maximum price is the seller's maximum price otherwise established by this regulation for sales of the particular kind, variety and grade of beans being sold.

(b) Definitions:

"Selected seed beans" means dry edible beans that (1) have been especially selected as suitable for planting purposes, (2) are U. S. No. 1 grade or better, (3) comply fully with the requirements of any applicable state seed law and the Federal Seed Act of 1939, and percentage of germination, and (4) are in original containers of a minimum net weight of 100 pounds (or 90 lbs. in the case of blackeye beans).

"Certified seed beans" means beans that (1) have been certified as seed beans by either (i) the state in which they were produced, (ii) a federal-state agency of that state, (iii) an agency authorized by that state to certify seed or (iv) an association that is a member of or affiliated with the International Crop Improvement Association and (2) are in original containers of a minimum net weight of 100 pounds (or 90 lbs. in the case of blackeye beans), sealed, stamped or otherwise officially marked by the certifying agency. If the beans were produced in California they must be officially identified as "Calapproved" or certified by the California Crop Improvement Association and officially identified as "California Certified."

(c) Exempt Sales—(1) Certified seed beans. All sales of certified seed beans for planting purposes or for resale for planting are exempt from the pricing provisions of this regulation.

(2) Selected seed beans. Sales of selected seed beans are exempt from the pricing provisions of this regulation if the goods are delivered to a point within the planting area specified below for the particular variety being sold, for planting within that area or for resale for planting within that area. In any case where delivery is made to an area other than the planting area specified for the particular variety, the sale is exempt only if made to a grower within the state where the particular beans were produced, for planting within that state.

In all cases, the seller must secure from the buyer and retain with his other records of seed stock sales, a statement signed by the buyer, setting forth the names and addresses of the parties, the kind, variety and quantity of seed stock sold and purchased, the date and place of delivery, and a statement that the goods have been purchased for planting purposes.

If a grower resells selected seed beans that he has purchased, the sale is not exempt and the maximum price is a processor's maximum price for non-seed beans of the particular variety and grade.

The planting areas for the various kinds or varieties of seed beans are as follows:

Variety[1]	Planting Area
Pea beans	Western New York.[2]
Great Northern beans	Western Nebraska.
Red kidney beans	Western New York.[2]
Cranberry beans	Michigan, western New York.[2]
Pinto beans	Colorado, western Nebraska, New Mexico.

[1] Sales of selected seed beans of the varieties covered by this regulation but not mentioned in this table are exempt only if sold and delivered to growers within the state where produced, for planting within that state.

[2] Western New York, means the counties of Jefferson, Oswego, Oneida, Madison, Chenango, Broome and all counties in New York State west thereof.

4. Section 3 is amended in the following respects:

a. In paragraph (a) the title of Table I is amended by adding thereto the words "1945 crop."

b. The undesignated paragraph following Table I is deleted.

c. Table III is deleted and a new table III is added, to read as follows:

Maximum Price Regulation 580 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 10 (e) is added to read as follows:

(e) Applications by certain sellers who sell exclusively in sets (groups of articles) to which services have been added. If you have been from March 1, 1942 until the present time engaged exclusively in the business of assembling, packaging, and selling sets (groups of articles) to which you have added services the cost of which is more than 10% of the total of the net costs of the constituent articles of the assembled sets, you may apply to the Distribution Price Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C. for a pricing method for sale of your assembled sets. You must file two (2) copies of an application containing the following information and the Office of Price Administration may by order permit you to add to the total of your net costs the cost of the services you provide (packaging, monogramming, etc.) and a markup in line with the level of prices established by this regulation:

(1) Your name and address;

(2) Date when you entered business;

(3) Description of manner in which you conduct your business (indicating whether department store, leased department, specialty store or other; cash, installment or other terms; class of merchandise you handle);

(4) A list of all sets offered by you for sale on March 19, 1945, enumerating for each the articles included in each set, the cost of each article, the cost of services added by you on each set, and the selling price of each set on March 19, 1945.

(5) Substantiating evidence to show that you sold or offered the sets for sale (listed under (4)) in March 1945, such as advertisements, catalogs, or prospectuses.

2. Section 18 (d) is amended by adding the following sentence: "Sets or groupings of articles may also be sold at a unit price if the seller has qualified pursuant to section 10 (e)."

3. Section 24 (b) is amended by deleting the phrase "and if, before offering it for sale," and substituting therefor the phrase "and, except as provided in section 10 (e), if before offering it for sale," in the first sentence and by inserting the phrase "Except as provided in section 10 (e)," at the beginning of the second sentence.

4. In Appendix C the word "textile" is deleted from the title of paragraph (b).

5. In Appendix C the note immediately following the title of paragraph (b) is amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this paragraph, the State of California is divided into Zones as follows:

§ 8302.1 Definitions—(a) Terms defined in act. Terms not defined in paragraph (b) of this section which are defined in the Surplus Property Act of 1944 shall in this part have the meaning given to them in the Act.

(b) Other terms. (1) [Deleted Aug. 19, 1946.]

(2) "Standard administrative and maintenance property" means all property from time to time listed in stock catalogues issued by the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department. These catalogues normally include, among other items, office supplies, furniture and equipment, and maintenance operating supplies.

(3) "State and local governments" means any State, territory, or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, and any political subdivision or instrumentality thereof.

(4) "Own" business or professional or agricultural enterprise of a veteran means one of which more than fifty (50) per cent of the invested capital thereof is beneficially, and not merely nominally or formally, owned by a veteran or veterans, or one of which more than fifty (50) per cent of the net income thereof beneficially, and not merely nominally or formally, accrues to a veteran or veterans. A veteran may be deemed to have his "own business or professional or agricultural enterprise" for the purpose of acquiring particular tools or equipment when he is engaged by others as an employee or agent and is required by his employment to have his own tools or equipment.

(5) "Small business" when used herein means a veteran's own small business and may include any commercial or industrial enterprise or group of enterprises under common ownership or control, which does not at the date of purchase of surplus property hereunder have more than five hundred (500) employees, or any such enterprise which by reason of its relative size and position in its industry is certified by War Assets Administration to be a small business.

(6) "Veteran" means any person in the active military or naval service of the United States during the present war, or any person who served in the active military or naval service of the United States on or after September 16, 1940, and prior to the termination of the present war, and who has been discharged or released therefrom under honorable conditions. Veterans "released" from military or naval service shall include persons on terminal leave or final furlough and those whose status has been changed from "active" to "inactive".

§ 8302.2 Scope. This part shall apply only to disposals made by disposal agencies within the continental United States, its territories or possessions; Provided, That § 8302.10 shall apply only within the continental United States. This part shall not apply to any disposals of real property; nor to personal property appurtenant to, or severed from, or assigned for disposal in connection with, real property, and disposed of pursuant to Parts 8305 [1], 8310 [2], 8316 [3], or 8320 [4].

§ 8302.3 Applicability of regulations and directives of other agencies, and disposals which may be exempted from this part. (a) Transfers pursuant to the provisions of section 502 (b) of the Lanham Act, as amended, may be made without regard for any provisions of this part.

(b) Except for disposals under paragraph (a) of this section, disposals made hereunder shall be subject to applicable regulations and directives issued under the authority of the Veterans' Emergency Housing Act of 1946, or under the authority of any law referred to in section 34 (b) of the Surplus Property Act of 1944 including those issued by the War Production Board, the Civilian Production Administration, the Office of Price Administration, and the Secretary of Agriculture, and shall be exempted from the provisions of this part to the extent necessary to comply with the provisions of such regulations and directives.

(c) Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, disposal agencies may dispose of surplus property without regard for any provisions of this part:

(1) Until peace is concluded to supply the needs of the armed forces;

(2) When, upon a finding by the Secretary of Agriculture that farm production is impaired or threatened to be impaired, the Administrator shall, pursuant to the provisions of Part 8303, [5] direct the disposal of trucks, machinery, or equipment (including farm supplies) to farmers or farmers' cooperatives;

(3) When the property is of such nature or in such situation that its immediate disposal is necessary to prevent its deterioration, spoilage, or serious loss or damage;

(4) When, upon application to the War Assets Administrator by a disposal agency, the Administrator shall find that it is impracticable or uneconomical for the disposal agency to be required to dispose of designated property according to the provisions of this part;

(5) When the nature or condition of any surplus property sold is such that it is not usable or safe for use by the consumer in its existing form without processing, reprocessing, reconditioning, or repackaging;

(6) When the cost (estimated if not known) of all substantially similar items of such property in the possession of the disposal agency at any one location at any one time does not exceed $300; or when the cost (estimated if not known) of any group of identical items, normally constituting a single entry on War Assets Administration Form 1001 and in the possession of the disposal agency at any one location at any one time, does not exceed $100.

§ 8302.4 Set-asides for veterans. (a) Except as to the amounts of any property necessary for the temporary use of any disposal agency to carry out its responsibilities in disposing of surplus property under the Surplus Property Act of 1944, each disposal agency to which there is assigned for disposal any property of the types set forth in Exhibit A shall set aside all of such property in its possession for exclusive disposal to veterans for their own personal use, or to enable them to establish or maintain their own small business, professional, or agricultural enterprises. Such property shall be held for disposal to veterans holding certificates issued pursuant to § 8302.8 for a period of not less than fifteen (15) days after public notice of its availability for such disposal, or for such longer period as the Administrator may direct, and any balance remaining undisposed of thereafter may be made available for disposal in accordance with the other provisions of this part.

(b) In disposing of property to veterans under this section disposal agencies may establish the maximum and minimum quantities which may be acquired by any one veteran at any one time during a given period of time. When the supply of any type of surplus property offered at any time will be insufficient to fill the orders of the eligible veterans, equitable distribution among such veterans may be accomplished (1) in accordance with the date of a certification or registration, or (2) on such other basis as shall be approved upon special application to the Administrator; Provided, That in any method adopted there shall be equitable distribution between veterans desiring to acquire property for their own personal use and veterans desiring to acquire it for business, professional, or agricultural use. In giving public notice of availability of any property disposal agencies shall specify the method by which distribution of such property will be made among veterans.

§ 8302.5 Order of priorities. Except as to property disposed of under § 8302.4, disposal agencies shall, subject to the provisions of § 8302.6, observe the following order of priorities:

(a) Transfers to Government agencies for their own use shall be given priority over disposals to all others.

(b) Disposals to veterans holding certificates to acquire property to enable them to establish and maintain their own small business, professional, or agricultural enterprises shall be given priority over disposals to all others except as provided in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Purchases by Reconstruction Finance Corporation, as successor to Smaller War Plants Corporation, for resale under section 18 (e) of the Surplus Property Act of 1944 shall be given priority over disposals to all others except as provided in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

(d) Disposals to State and local governments for their own use shall be given priority over disposals to all others except as provided in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section.

§ 8302.6 Reservations for priority claimants. (a) In giving effect to the provisions of § 8302.5, disposal agencies shall observe the following requirements with respect to the periods of time during which property will be offered to priority claimants:

(1) Government agencies shall in no case be given a period in excess of twenty days after the date of public notice of availability of the property.

(2) Property offered to veterans may not be disposed of to others for a minimum period of fifteen (15) days after the date of public notice to veterans.

(b) Each disposal agency, based upon experience and demonstrated demand, may estimate the quantity of each item of surplus property which it is necessary to hold in reserve in order to provide an adequate supply thereof to satisfy the probable needs of priority claimants for such item. Such quantities shall be reviewed and adjusted periodically by the disposal agency in the light of the changing requirements of priority claimants and the areas in which such requirements exist. There need be no earmarking of specific property, but the quantities of surplus property so estimated shall be reserved for exclusive disposal to priority claimants subject to the periods specified in paragraph (a). Any property in excess of such reserved quantities may, notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a), be disposed of promptly to others.

(c) In order to assist the disposal agencies to reserve quantities of surplus property, pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (b), adequate to satisfy the needs of priority claimants including Reconstruction Finance Corporation as successor to Smaller War Plants Corporation for resale under Section 18 (e) of the Surplus Property Act of 1944, Reconstruction Finance Corporation may advise the disposal agencies from time to time of the quantities and kinds of surplus property which it needs or may need for such purposes to the end that any reservations established under paragraph (b) of this section may be adequate to supply such anticipated needs.

§ 8302.7 Information about available property—(a) Availability of records of surplus property; Government requirements officers. Disposal agencies shall establish procedures to insure that designated representatives or procurement officers of Government agencies and State and local governments shall have access to the information on the property records of the disposal agencies, and shall upon request from time to time inform such representatives or procurement officers about surplus property for which declarations have been received or are anticipated. Each disposal agency shall appoint in its central office and in each regional office thereof a Government requirements officer or officers, whose duties shall include (1) transmitting to Government agencies and State and local governments information concerning surplus property which is or may become available for disposal; (2) assisting in programming sales or offerings in such a manner as to afford Government agencies and State and local governments an opportunity to purchase any and all kinds of property they desire; (3) ascertaining the probable needs for all kinds of property of Government agencies and State and local governments within the region served by each regional office to the end that any reservations established under § 8302.6 (b) may be adequate to supply the probable needs of Government agencies and State and local governments within the region served by the office; (4) cooperating with such advisory committees as the Administrator may appoint; and (5) taking all other necessary or desirable steps to see that all requirements of this part are complied with. It shall be the responsibility of Government agencies, in order to avoid making purchases through commercial channels, continuously to consult the records of the disposal agencies and to determine whether their requirements for all items of property can be satisfied out of surplus property in the hands of the disposal agencies.

(b) Notice of offering. Disposal agencies shall give public notice of all offerings to priority claimants and to the extent feasible shall adopt other procedures which will allow priority claimants to receive notice of what surplus property is available or offered for sale within the area in which the offering is made. Government agencies and State and local governments shall have the right upon request to be put on mailing lists for notices in all cases where such lists are used to offer property for disposal, including mailing lists otherwise reserved to special classes of buyers, unless the disposal agency shall find that the giving of such notices to Government agencies and State and local governments shall for any particular type of property become impracticable, unduly expensive to the Government, or unreasonably burdensome on the facilities of the disposal agency. When paid advertising is used as the method of offering, no other notice need be given to priority claimants.

§ 8302.8 Issuance of certificates to veterans: (a) A veteran desiring to acquire property set aside under § 8302.4 or to exercise his priority under § 8302.5 shall apply to any certifying office of War Assets Administration and shall furnish the Administration with complete information regarding the property desired. War Assets Administration will satisfy itself through reference to the applicant's discharge papers or to other satisfactory evidence that the applicant is a veteran and that the property applied for is for his own personal use or to enable him to establish or maintain his own small business, professional, or agricultural enterprise and shall require of the applicant a supporting statement or affidavit. War Assets Administration will issue an appropriate certificate to such veteran stating that he is a veteran entitled to purchase the types and quantities of the property described therein.

(b) Whenever a disposal agency within the continental United States other than War Assets Administration receives an application from a veteran desiring to acquire property hereunder but not accompanied by a certificate, the application shall be referred to War Assets Administration for certification, together with full information regarding the availability of the property and the price, terms, and conditions of sale.

(c) In the territories and possessions where no office of War Assets Administration is established for the certification of veterans, they may act hereunder by dealing directly with the appropriate disposal agency, and in such case such disposal agency shall to the extent feasible perform the functions which would be performed by the War Assets Administration in the continental United States under this section.

(d) Each veteran shall present the certificate when acquiring property from a disposal agency, which shall rely upon the certificate that the holder is a veteran entitled to acquire the property described therein in accordance with the terms of the certificate. Veterans shall be entitled to acquire the quantity of property for which they are certified, subject to such equitable distribution among veterans as may be adopted by the disposal agency pursuant to the provisions of § 8302.4(b) or §8302.9(c), before such property may be made available to lower priority or non-priority claimants. Special effort shall be made to insure that property available to veterans may be inspected by them. Surplus property may be offered for sale to veterans on credit on terms and conditions established by the disposal agencies.

§ 8302.9 Transfers and disposals to priority claimants. (a) Subject to the provisions of § 8302.10 in the case of Government agencies, disposal agencies shall transfer or dispose of surplus property to a priority claimant in quantities not smaller than the smallest lot consistent with commercial practice and at the fair value of such property as provided in § 8302.11. Disposal agencies shall make such transfers of surplus property to a Government agency without reimbursement or transfer of funds whenever a transfer on such terms by the owning agency by which such property was declared surplus would be authorized by any law approved subsequent to June 21, 1944 to be made to the agency desiring such property. The agency desiring such property without reimbursement or transfer of funds shall pay all transportation charges but not the cost of packing and shall furnish when necessary a Government bill of lading bearing identification of the appropriation against which such transportation charges are to be charged.

(b) Except in the case of transfers to Reconstruction Finance Corporation as successor to Smaller War Plants Corporation for resale under section 18 (e) of the Surplus Property Act of 1944, and disposals to veterans of property to be resold with or without processing or fabrication in the regular course of business, transfers or disposals to priority claimants shall be for their own use only and not for transfer or disposition by them to others, and disposal agencies may require priority claimants so to certify. Title to property being acquired by priority pursuant to the provisions of this part shall not be transferred or consigned by the disposal agency to any person other than the acquiring priority claimant, except in the case of purchases by Reconstruction Finance Corporation under section 18 (e) of the Surplus Property Act. In acquiring property by priority under the provisions of this part, veterans may take title only in their own names or in the names of their own business or professional or agricultural enterprises as defined in § 8302.1 (b) (4), and payment shall be made by such veterans or such enterprises. The priorities granted pursuant to the provisions of this part may not be assigned or transferred to others. The provisions of this paragraph (b) shall not apply to the exercise of any authority under the Veterans Emergency Housing Act of 1946,[4] or under the Second War Powers Act of 1942[5] directing disposals to a specified class of purchasers or to specifically named purchasers.

(c) Disposal agencies shall adopt procedures designed to distribute surplus property equitably among claimants entitled to the same priority and shall fill orders in the sequence in which they were received, or on such other equitable basis as the disposal agency may determine in any case where it has reason to believe that the quantity of any type of property available at any time will be insufficient to supply the needs of all claimants in a given priority class. In such event disposal agencies may establish the maximum quantity which may be acquired by any one priority claimant within the same class at any one time.

(d) Priority claimants may place orders with a disposal agency at any time, and such orders shall be filled from any available surplus property, subject to the provisions of §§ 8302.4, 8302.5, and 8302.6. If no property is available or likely to become available, the disposal agency shall notify the claimant and upon the dispatching of such notification the order shall lapse. Unless the advertising otherwise states, property already advertised for public competitive bids or for sale at auction or for immediate purchase at a fixed time and property specifically selected by a prospective purchaser shall not be considered available. No property shall be offered for disposal to non-priority claimants unless it has first been offered to priority claimants or necessary provision has been made for reservations for priority claimants in accordance with § 8302.6.

§ 8302.10 Transfers of surplus standard administrative and maintenance property to the Treasury Department and acquisition of such property by Government agencies. (a) In order to facilitate the transfer of surplus property from one Government agency to other Government agencies for their own use and not for transfer or disposition to others outside the Government, the Treasury Department as the central procurement agency of the Government may acquire from the disposal agencies such quantities of surplus standard administrative and maintenance property as it needs to satisfy the requirements for such property of all Government agencies within the continental United States, other than the War Department, Navy Department, and Veterans Administration, and other than each disposal agency for the types of property for which it is designated as such under Part 8301.[6] Government agencies shall cooperate with the Treasury Department in compiling estimates and shall provide the Treasury Department with such information concerning their requirements as it may need in order to promote the fullest utilization of surplus property.

(b) Disposal agencies shall transfer surplus standard administrative and maintenance property to the Treasury Department in accordance with the provisions of § 8302.9 and at a fair value which reflects the estimated expenses to be incurred by the Treasury Department in making distribution to Government agencies, and the Treasury Department shall promptly upon such transfer take possession and assume responsibility for the care, handling, and disposition of such property.

(c) It shall be the responsibility of all such Government agencies, in order to avoid making purchases of such property through commercial channels when such property is available from surplus, continuously to consult the stock catalogues issued by the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department.

(d) Except in cases where transfers may be made without reimbursement or transfer of funds, no Government agency other than the War Department, Navy Department, and Veterans' Administration, and other than each disposal agency for the types of property for which it is designated as such under Part 8301, shall within the continental United States acquire by direct transfer from a disposal agency any type of surplus standard administrative or maintenance property which is offered for disposal by the Treasury Department and immediately available for acquisition by such Government agency; Provided, That if none of a desired type of property is immediately available for acquisition by a Government agency, such agency may purchase such desired property directly from the disposal agency; and Provided, further, That Reconstruction Finance Corporation, as successor to Smaller War Plants Corporation, shall be entitled to acquire any such property from a disposal agency for resale under section 18 (e) of the Surplus Property Act of 1944.

§ 8302.11 Fair value. Disposal agencies shall fix the fair value at which property shall be acquired by priority claimants. Such fair value shall not be greater than the lowest price which is offered to any trade level at the time of acquisition by the priority claimant.

§ 8302.12 Acquisitions by priority claimants without exercising priority. In addition to acquiring property under §§ 8302.5 and 8302.6, Government agencies, except as to standard administrative and maintenance property desired for their own use, and State and local governments shall be entitled to submit offers whenever surplus property is otherwise offered for sale, without regard for the location of the property, but shall not be entitled to priority. Government agencies may under this section acquire any surplus property (including standard administrative and maintenance property) for transfer or disposition to others, including transfers or dispositions to the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration. Nothing in this part shall prevent veterans from acquiring any property directly from a disposal agency without exercising priority if they are included within the class of buyers to whom the disposal agency is offering such property. Such purchases made by a priority claimant without priority shall be governed by the prices, terms, and conditions of the offering made by the disposal agency and not pursuant to any other provisions of this part.

§ 8302.13 Records and reports. Owning and disposal agencies shall prepare and maintain such records as will show full compliance with the provisions of this part and with the applicable provisions of the act. Reports shall be prepared and filed with the War Assets Administrator in such manner as may be specified by orders issued under this part subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

§ 8302.14 Regulations by disposal agencies to be reported to the War Assets Administrator. Each disposal agency shall file with the War Assets Administrator copies of all regulations, orders, and instructions of general applicability which it may issue in furtherance of the provisions, or any of them, of this part.

This revision of this part shall become effective August 19, 1946.

Administrator.

If samples are available, they shall accompany the specifications calling for proposals, or a statement shall be made as to where samples may be seen. Bids received by the Purchasing Agent and bidders' samples, if furnished, shall be submitted to the Committee of Awards, or to the officer making the requisition, who shall examine them, recommend an award, mark the accepted samples, and return bids and samples to the Purchasing Agent for his action. If a purchase is made, the order shall be drawn in the manner prescribed in § 2.5. The approved bid shall be held by the Purchasing Agent to be attached to the contractor's invoice, and the accepted sample, if any, shall be forwarded to the board of inspection.

Unused United States Coupons which have not been presented for redemption abroad are returnable to the post office for redemption in stamps or other stamped paper at the rate of 8 cents each.

§ 3.19 Foreign. International Reply Coupons issued by foreign governments and received by correspondents in this country are redeemable at post offices at the rate of 5 cents each in postage stamps regardless of the selling price of the individual coupon or country of issue.

AMERICO-SPANISH REPLY COUPONS

§ 3.20 Purpose. Americo-Spanish Reply Coupons are furnished by the International Office of the Postal Union of the Americas and Spain, with headquarters at Montevideo, Uruguay. These coupons offer a more economical means of transmitting reply postage between the member countries than does the International Reply Coupon as the selling price and redemption rate more nearly conforms with the first class postage rate prevailing between the member countries. (Art. 8, Convention of Postal Union of the Americas and Spain, Panama, December 22, 1936.)

§ 3.21 Redemption. The Post Office Department does not sell Americo-Spanish Reply Coupons, but does redeem them from the public at the rate of 3 cents each in postage stamps.

INTERNAL REVENUE STAMPS

§ 3.22 Availability. The Commissioner of Internal Revenue furnishes the Postmaster General without prepayment documentary internal revenue stamps, which are kept on sale at all post offices of the first and second class and such offices of third and fourth class as are located in county seats. (53 Stat. 201; 26 U. S. C. 1817)

§ 3.23 Use. Postmasters and postal employees are not permitted in their official capacity to attempt to advise or instruct taxpayers or purchasers of internal revenue stamps on matters connected with the administration of internal revenue laws. The activities are confined solely to the sale of these stamps at post offices designated by law to conduct such sales. (Sec. 156, par. 3)

§ 3.24 Redemption. Internal revenue stamps are not redeemable by postmasters and applications of this character should be submitted to the nearest Collector of Internal Revenue by persons having purchased stamps in excess of their requirements. (Sec. 156, par. 4)

MIGRATORY-BIRD HUNTING STAMPS

§ 3.25 Availability. Migratory-bird hunting stamps are sold at all first and second class offices and at such post offices of the third and fourth class as have a demand therefor by reason of being located in areas habited by waterfowl. (Sec. 2, 48 Stat. 451, sec. 2, 49 Stat. 379; 16 U. S. C. 718b)

§ 3.26 Use. (a) No person over 16 years of age shall take any migratory waterfowl unless at the time of such taking he carries on his person an unexpired Federal migratory-bird hunting stamp validated by his signature written by himself in ink across the face of the stamp prior to this taking such birds; except that no such stamp shall be required for the taking of migratory waterfowl by Federal or State institutions or official agencies, or for propagation, or by the resident owner, tenant, or share cropper of the property or officially designated agencies of the Department of Agriculture for the killing, under such restrictions as the Secretary of Agriculture may by regulation prescribe, of such waterfowl when found injuring crops or other property.

(b) Such stamps are valid only for the fiscal year in which issued and ownership as well as attending privileges are not transferable. The administration of the laws relating to migratory-bird hunting stamps is under the Director of Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of Interior, Chicago, Illinois. (16 U. S. C. 718a, 718e) (Sec. 157, Par. 1, 2, and 3)

§ 3.27 Redemption. Migratory-bird hunting stamps are not redeemable by postmasters after such stamps have been sold at a post office. (Sec. 157, Par. 2)

In § 5.2 Domestic rates and conditions make the following changes:
Amend paragraph (b) by deleting "the Philippine Islands." (Sec. 502, Par. 2 as amended by P. M. G. Order 32544, August 26, 1946)

Amend § 5.5 Modification of postage rates by President, by deleting "June 30, 1935" and substituting "June 30, 1947;" also by deleting "July 1, 1935" and substituting "July 1, 1947" (Public Law 105, Act of June 30, 1945).

FIRST-CLASS MATTER; DESCRIPTION

In § 5.9 Provisions relating to private mailing cards (post cards) make the following changes:
Amend paragraph (a) (1) to read as follows:

(a) (1) A "post card" shall be an unfolded piece of cardboard not exceeding approximately $3^{9}/_{16}$ by $5^{9}/_{16}$ inches nor less than $2^{3}/_{4}$ by 4 inches. (Sec. 503 as amended by P. M. G. Order 14528, Aug. 11, 1940).

Amend paragraph (c) by numbering it (c) (1) and adding the following as paragraph (2):

(2) If the initial half be not detached when the reply half is mailed for return, the card is subject to the letter rates of postage if wholly or partly in writing or bearing the words "Post Card," "Private Mailing Card," or similar words. Double cards must be so prepared that the address on the reply portion is on the inside when the double card is mailed. When both the original address of the double card and the address on the reply half are exposed it causes confusion in the mails and such folded cards are not mailable unless inclosed in envelopes or wrappers. The reply half may be prepared in the form of a business reply card. Double cards used primarily to send statements of account or similar matter are not acceptable at the 1-cent post-card rate, but are subject to postage at the letter rates. (R. S. 161, 396, sec. 304, 309, 42 Stat. 24, 25; 5 U. S. C. 22)

RATES OF POSTAGE

In § 5.10 make the following changes:
Amend paragraphs (a) and (b) to read as follows:

(a) Until July 1, 1947, the rate of postage on all mail matter of the first class (except postal cards and private mailing or post cards, and except other first-class matter on which the rate of postage under existing law is 1 cent for each ounce or fraction thereof) shall be 1 cent for each ounce or fraction thereof in addition to the rate provided by existing law.

NOTE: The Act of February 25, 1944, made applicable, for the period between March 26, 1944, and the first day of the first month which begins at least 6 months after the termination of hostilities in the present war, to first-class matter mailed for local delivery or for delivery wholly within a county which is entirely within a corporate city and the population of which exceeds 1 million, the increase of 1 cent for each ounce or fraction thereof.

(b) Upon all matter of the first class postage shall be charged at the rate of (3) cents for each ounce or fraction thereof; and drop letters shall be mailed at the rate of (3) cents per ounce or fraction thereof where free delivery by carrier is not established.

Amend paragraphs (c) and (d) by deleting the figure (2) wherever is appears therein and substituting therefor (3). (Sec. 9, 20 Stat. 358, sec. 1, 23 Stat. 386, sec. 1100, 40 Stat. 327, sec. 1401, 40 Stat. 1150, sec. 1001, 47 Stat. 285, 48 Stat. 254, sec. 515, 48 Stat. 760, 49 Stat. 431, 50 Stat. 358, 53 Stat. 862, 55 Stat. 210, 57 Stat. 157; 39 U. S. C. 280 and Sup.) (Sec. 509, as amended by P. M. G. Orders 3722, June 19, 1933; 10576, July 1, 1937; 25378, July 17, 1944; 26836, Aug. 18, 1945)

In § 5.11 Business reply cards and letters in business reply envelopes make the following changes:

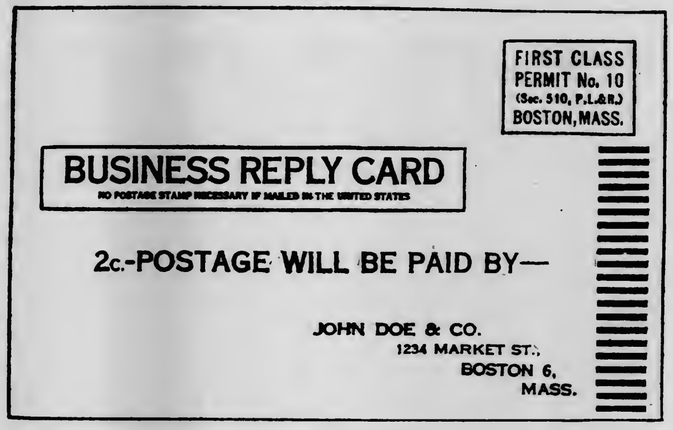
Amend paragraph (c) by deleting "Division of Classification" and substituting "Division of Letter and Miscellaneous Mail."

Add new paragraph (g) reading as follows:

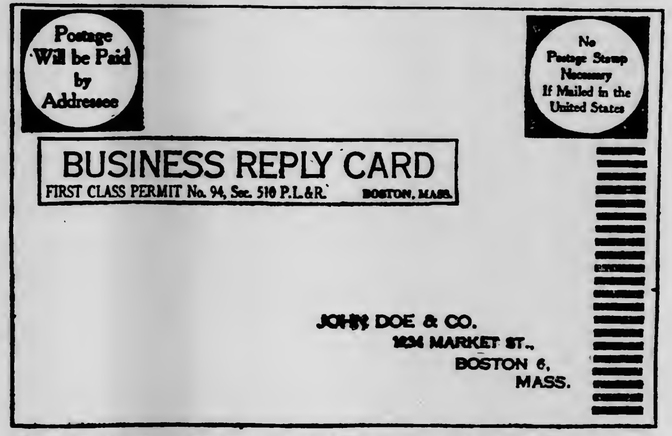
(g) (1) Business reply cards and envelopes may be distributed in any quantity and in any manner desired except for the purpose of locating delinquent debtors.

(2) The cards may be prepared either as reply portions of double post cards or folded cards or may be enclosed with other matter, as also may the envelopes.



(3) Business reply cards and envelopes will be accepted for return mailing at all post offices in the United States and its possessions, except the Canal Zone and the Philippine Islands. They should not be sent to any foreign countries, including Canada, Cuba, Mexico, and the Republic of Panama, as they cannot be returned from any foreign country without prepayment of postage.

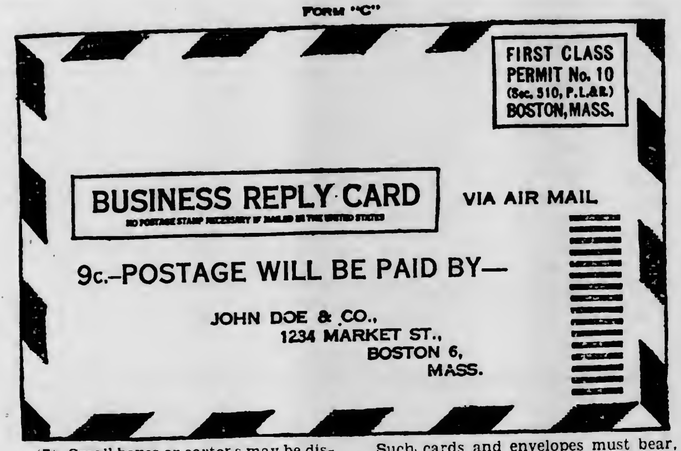
(4) Business reply cards must conform to the conditions prescribed for post cards or private mailing cards, and, therefore, may not be smaller than $2^{3}/_{4}$ inches by 4 inches (a size somewhat larger is preferable) nor larger than approximately $3^{9}/_{16}$ inches by $5^{9}/_{16}$ inches. They may be printed in two or more colors. The law authorizing the use of business reply cards and envelopes does not contemplate that they shall be attached to parcels of merchandise or other matter either for the purpose of carrying messages or merely as address tags or labels without prepayment of postage. They may be used to transmit communications only, as that term is commonly understood. Business reply cards or envelopes may not be used to return parcels of merchandise or other articles without prepayment of the required postage on both the cards (or envelopes) and the parcels.



(5) Business reply labels may be printed in newspapers, etc., to be cut out and affixed to plain envelopes, or to cards conforming to the foregoing conditions. The prescribed business reply indicia may also be printed on gummed labels for use in the same manner.

(6) The address side of such cards, envelopes, and labels shall be printed in one of the forms shown on the reverse side of this circular and include the name and complete address of the person or concern to whom they are to be returned, the permit number, the name of the post office issuing the permit, and the other prescribed indicia. When Form B is used the name of the permit holder may be inserted if desired after the words "Postage will be paid by." A space of at least $1^{1}/_{8}$ inches shall be left for postmarking at the top of the card or envelope. No extraneous matter may appear on the address side. However, when Form A is used, the word "From" together with blank lines for the insertion of the name and address of the sender, may be placed in the upper left corner of the address side, but such lines should not extend into the space within $3^{1}/_{2}$ inches from the right end which must be reserved for the postmark and indicia.

FORM "A"



FORM "B"

NOTE: In the case of envelopes the word "Card" in the inscription "Business Reply Card" should be changed to "Envelope." When labels are used the word "Card" should be changed to "Label."

FORM "C"

(7) Small boxes or cartons may be distributed by opticians, dental laboratories, and others to their customers for use in returning eyeglasses or spectacles, dentures, etc., for repair or replacement. The boxes and cartons in such cases will bear the inscription, "Business reply box" and "First-class mail," but otherwise will bear the same indicia as those prescribed for business reply cards and envelopes.

(8) Postmasters must see that the proper postage is collected on all business reply cards and envelopes before delivering them to the addressees. Such cards or letters must not be placed in direct packages or sacks made up for individuals or concerns.

(9) Permits to distribute business reply cards and envelopes are issued with the understanding that the permit holder guarantees to pay the postage on all that are returned.

(10) When large concerns having branches or dealers throughout the country desire to distribute business reply cards and envelopes from their main office to be returned to such dealers or branches, the distribution may be made under permits obtained at each of the offices to which the cards or envelopes are to be returned, or under one permit issued at the post office where the main office is located.

When the distribution is made under a permit issued at the post office where the main office of the person or concern is located, it shall be with the understanding that the person or concern distributing the cards or envelopes guarantees that the postage will be paid on all such cards or envelopes returned in the event any of the branches or agents refuse to accept delivery and pay the postage due thereon.

Postmasters shall promptly report to the Third Assistant Postmaster General, Division of Letter and Miscellaneous Mail, any refusal to pay the postage due by any person or concern to whom such business reply cards or envelopes are addressed, giving the permit number.

(11) Business reply cards and envelopes may be prepared for return via air mail, the regular air-mail rate plus 1 cent additional to be collected upon delivery.

Such cards and envelopes must bear, in addition to the prescribed indicia, the words "Via air mail," which should be printed in bold letters on the right portion of the address side above the name of the addressee and adjacent to the heavy short lines along the right edge of the address side. The form of business reply card or envelope (Form A) which includes the amount of postage to be collected, should be used and the proper amount at the air-mail rate plus 1 cent should be shown, as, for example:

9c.—POSTAGE WILL BE PAID BY—

In order that business reply cards and envelopes intended for return by air mail may be readily identified, the red and blue parallelograms forming a part of the distinctive design, which has been approved for air-mail envelopes, should be placed around the edges of cards and envelopes, as illustrated in Form C. Assurance cannot be given that business reply cards and envelopes will receive air-mail treatment unless they are of the distinctive air-mail design, thus enabling them to be readily identified.

(Sec. 510 as amended by P. M. G. Order 27238, Feb. 12, 1945)

Amend § 5.12 Mail carried by airplane to read as follows:

§ 5.12 Mail carried by airplane. (a) (1) The domestic rates of postage on matter carried by airplane, including transportation to and from the air-mail routes, are as follows:

	Per ounce (cents)
United States, from one post office to another on mainland, including Alaska, and also from one post office to another in Hawaiian Islands, from one post office to another in Puerto Rico, from one post office to another in Virgin Islands of the United States, and between the latter islands and Puerto Rico (but not between mainland of United States and any of these islands)	8

	Per half ounce (cents)
United States (mainland) to or from—
Canal Zone	10
Canton Island	25
Guam	35
Hawaii	15
Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands of the United States, Naval Operating Base, Guantanamo (Cuba)	8
Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands of the United States and the Naval Operating Base, Guantanamo (Cuba) to or from—
Canton Island	33
Guam	43
Hawaii	23
Naval Operating Base, Guantanamo (Cuba) to or from—
Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands of the United States	8
Hawaii to or from—
Canal Zone	25
Canton Island	10
Guam	20
Guam to or from—
Canton Island	30

(2) The foregoing air-mail rates include all transportation by air mail available in the United States; also in Hawaii. Official matter in penalty or franked envelopes may not be sent free by air mail, but is chargeable with postage at the air-mail rates, except in the case of urgent official communications of the Postal Service only, when their prompt dispatch is desirable.

(3) Air mail sent to, or by members of our armed forces outside the continental United States who receive their mail through an A. P. O. or Fleet Post Office in care of the postmaster of New York, N. Y., or San Francisco, Calif., or through an A. P. O. in care of the postmaster of Miami, Fla., New Orleans, La., or Seattle, Wash., and who are required to show such A. P. O. or Fleet Post Office address in their return card, is subject to postage at the rate of 6 cents a half ounce or fraction thereof. This rate also applies to air mail sent to or by civilian personnel authorized to receive mail through such Army and Navy Post Offices.

(b) (1) The postage on all air mail should be fully prepaid in order to expedite its handling, and postmasters shall make every effort to have patrons do so. Nevertheless, short-paid air mail shall, if it bears at least one full rate, according to destination as shown in the above table, be rated with the deficiency and dispatched as intended by the sender, the amount due to be collected upon delivery of the matter.

(2) Any mailable matter, except that liable to damage from freezing, may be sent by air mail at the above rates of postage, including sealed parcels not exceeding 70 pounds in weight and not exceeding 100 inches in length and girth combined. This includes harmless live animals, queen bees and cut flowers. Day-old chicks, day-old ducks, etc., and honey bees are prohibited. However, only letters in their usual and ordinary form weighing not in excess of 2 ounces (except official air mail) may be accepted for transmission by air mail to overseas A. P. O.'s and Navy post offices, except to an A. P. O. in care of the postmaster of New Orleans, La., or Seattle, Wash.

(3) Special air-mail stamps are issued for the payment of postage on air mail, but ordinary stamps may be used. Embossed stamped envelopes of various sizes for air-mail use are on sale at post offices. When 6-cent air-mail envelopes or stamps are used in cases where the air-mail rate of 8 cents is applicable, 2 cents additional should be affixed by means of postage stamps. The use of air-mail stamps on other than air mail is not permissible.

(4) Air mail should be conspicuously endorsed by the sender in the space immediately below the stamps, above the address "Via Air Mail." When it is desired that matter prepaid at the rate of 8 cents per ounce be carried by air mail only in the continental United States, or from one post office to another in the Hawaiian Islands, but transported across the Pacific Ocean by steamer, it should be endorsed "Via Air Mail except over the Pacific." All air-mail letters sent special delivery should be conspicuously endorsed "Special Delivery—Air Mail," the mere fact that the matter may bear air-mail and special-delivery stamps not being sufficient.

(c) (1) In order to obtain the fullest measure of service for the postage paid at the air-mail rate, air mail should be sent special delivery. Matter sent by airplane reaches the office of address sooner than if sent by train, but when it gets there after the last regular carrier trip of the day of its arrival, delivery is not made until the following business day, unless sent special delivery and the fee therefor paid in addition to the air-mail postage.

(2) The fees chargeable on air mail for special-delivery service are the same as those which apply when such mail is sent by other than air mail, as follows:

	First class (cents)	Second, third, or fourth class (cents)
Up to 2 pounds	13	17
Over 2 pounds up to 10 pounds	20	25
Over 10 pounds	25	35

(d) (1) It is desirable that envelopes (or cards) for air-mail use bear the distinctive designs described in the following paragraphs. Any person may have his envelopes (or cards) so prepared. Such envelopes must be white, except when it is necessary to use envelopes of extra strength, in which case envelopes of light tints of manila or kraft may be used.

(2) The outstanding feature of the preferred design is a border of alternating blue and red parallelograms with intervening white spaces, producing a distinguishing blue, white, and red border not exceeding $\frac{5}{32}$ of an inch in width extending around the edges of both the address side and the back of the envelope. The words "Via Air Mail" should appear boldly between the postage stamp and the address. The border of this envelope facilitates its identification as air mail even when in a package or distributing case with other mail, thus securing the prompt and special attention to which such letters are entitled.

(3) Another approved printed design consists of the blue, red, and white stripes. The stripes must not exceed approximately $\frac{1}{4}$ inch in width and should extend entirely across the length of the envelope. The blue stripe must be not less than $1\frac{1}{8}$ inches below the top of the envelope, in order that clear space may be left for the necessary postage stamps and postmark. The white space between the blue and red stripes should be approximately $\frac{1}{4}$ inch in width, so that the three stripes will not cover more than approximately $\frac{3}{4}$ of an inch in all. In such case the words "Via Air Mail" should be printed in the upper right portion of the envelope, preferably in the white space between the blue and red stripes.

(4) When ordinary envelopes are used to enclose air mail, the mailer may identify the matter for transmission by airplane by placing horizontally across the envelopes two blue lines approximately $\frac{1}{4}$ inch apart, the upper line to be not less than $1\frac{1}{8}$ inches below the top of the envelope. In such case the words "Via Air Mail" should be plainly and boldly written, hand-stamped, or printed in the upper right portion of the envelope, preferably between the two lines. Similar lines may also be placed vertically across the envelope not less than $3\frac{1}{2}$ inches from the right end. Such lines may also be placed on the backs of envelopes used for air mail.

(5) The lines above mentioned may be placed on the envelopes with an ordinary blue pencil or, if desired, printed thereon in blue ink. Care must be exercised to see that the lines are uniformly placed and that they do not cover the address or return card.

(6) Such envelopes of special design may be used for air mail only. Their use for mail which is not intended to be carried by airplane is not permissible.

(e) All air mail should bear the sender's return card, which should appear in the upper left corner of the address side.

(f) (1) Mail for dispatch by airplane will be accepted for registration upon payment of the prescribed registry fee in addition to the air-mail postage. Insured and c. o. d. parcels, including sealed parcels, may also be sent via air mail when the prescribed fees for such service are paid in addition to the air-mail postage. In some cases air mail for armed forces overseas will not be registered or insured.

(2) Special air-mail stamps may be used to pay the fees on all matter sent special delivery, insured, or c. o. d. via airplane.

(g) (1) Matter sent by air mail may be forwarded to the addressee by the same means when delivery of the matter will be expedited if carried by airplane, provided the air-mail rate to the new address is no higher than that originally applicable. No additional charge for postage will be made for such forwarding, regardless of the number of the air-mail routes over which the mail may be carried. For instance, an air-mail letter prepaid 8 cents originally sent from New York to Chicago may be forwarded by air mail to San Francisco without additional charge; but it could not be forwarded to Hawaii by trans-Pacific air mail without additional charge.

(2) Undeliverable air mail will not be returned to the sender via airplane, but will be returned in the regular mails. (Act of Feb. 25, 1944, 58 Stat. 69; 39 U. S. C. 463) [sec. 511, as amended by P. M. G. Order 28574, July 17, 1945]

Amend § 5.16 Soldiers', sailors' and marines' letters by addition of following paragraphs:

(c) Any first-class letter mail matter admissible to the mails as ordinary mail matter which is sent by a member of the military or naval forces of the United States (including the United States Coast Guard), while on active duty or in the active military or naval service of the United States, to any person in the United States, including the Territories and possessions thereof, shall be transmitted in the mails free of postage, subject to such rules and regulations as the Postmaster General shall prescribe. This provision shall cease to be in effect after December 31, 1947. (Act of March 27, 1942, 56 Stat. 181, 50 A. U. S. C. 1940 ed Supp. III 639. Public Law 190 approved October 6, 1945).

(d) Under the provisions of section 212 of Public Law 410, approved July 1, 1944, commissioned officers of the United States Public Health Service while (1) in active service in time of war, (2) in active service performed while detailed for duty in the Army, Navy, or Coast Guard, (3) in active service outside the continental limits of the United States, or in Alaska, in time of war, or (4) in active service performed while the Service is part of the military forces of the United States pursuant to Executive order of the President, shall be entitled to the free-mailing privilege as provided by law in the case of commissioned officers of the Army. First-class letter mail sent free of postage by commissioned officers of the United States Public Health Service is subject to the conditions applicable to letters sent by members of the military or naval forces of the United States (including the U. S. Coast Guard), set forth in paragraphs (c) and (e) of this section. (Act of July 1, 1944, 58 Stat. 689.)

(e) (1) Letters sent by members of the military or naval forces of the United States, to be mailed free of postage under the conditions set forth in paragraph (c) of this section, shall bear in the upper right corner the word "FREE" and in the upper left corner the name of the sender together with his rank or rating and the designation of the service to which he belongs, as, for example, Private John Doe, U. S. Army, or John Doe, Seaman 2 Cl., U. S. Navy, or Private John Doe, U. S. Marine Corps, or John Doe, Seaman 2 Cl., U. S. Coast Guard. Such letters shall be so accepted when deposited in the mails in the United States or its possessions or at any place outside the continental United States where the United States mail service is in operation addressed to any other place where this service is in operation, including army and navy bases, naval vessels, etc. Messages on post cards may be accepted under this provision but it shall not apply to packages or parcels or any matter other than messages in the form of ordinary letters or cards. This free mailing privilege does not apply to matter sent by air mail, nor to any matter sent to the members of the military or naval forces by persons who are not members thereof.

(2) Such free-mail privilege is applicable only to personal letter mail in its usual and generally accepted form, including messages on post cards, sent by the members of our armed forces. This provision is primarily for the purpose of making it easier for our men in the service to keep in touch with their families and friends. It does not apply to correspondence from their wives or other relatives, nor to any matter sent to members of the military or naval forces by persons who are not members of such forces.

It is required that the name of the sender, his rank or rating, the designation of the service to which he belongs, and the word "Free" be in the handwriting of the sender on the envelopes or cards in order to be accepted free of postage. This is necessary to prevent misuse and to confine the free mailing privilege to personal letters of members of the military or naval forces. The approved address of the member should, of course, be included in the return card.

(3) Among the items acceptable free of postage are the following:

Personal letters to relatives, friends, etc., including V-Mail.
Letters, including remittances, to associations, firms, or corporations.
Letters sent as special delivery, provided the fee for such service is prepaid.

Letters sent by retired or Reserve naval and Army officers who have been recalled to active duty, including those bearing the designation "U. S. N. Ret." or "U. S. N. R." in connection with the name and rank or rating of such officer on active duty.
Letters sent by members of the armed forces while in hospitals.
Letters from members of the armed forces who may be assigned to some special active duty.
Letters from nurses and chaplains who are members of the armed forces.

(4) The free mail privilege does not apply to the following:

Circular letters.
Newspaper clippings, and printed or mimeographed matter, unless enclosed with letters and forming only an incidental feature.

Matter sent for philatelic purposes.
Merchandise.

Cards and envelopes bearing advertisements or other inscriptions giving the names of the donors.

Letters, bills, and circulars pertaining to the private business or profession carried on by a member of the armed forces.
Envelopes or cards endorsed by a member of the armed forces for use by others, such as members of his family, etc.

Should question arise as to the application of this free mailing privilege in any instance, the facts should be reported to the Third Assistant Postmaster General, Division of Letter & Miscellaneous Mail for instructions..

All parcels of books mailed at the new rate should be indorsed by the mailers "Book" or "Books."

No special permit is necessary to mail books at the new rate. Books mailed at this rate are subject to the same rate when forwarded to the addressee or returned to the sender.

The 3-cent-a-pound book rate applies to books for delivery in the United States and its possessions but does not apply to books mailed to foreign countries.

The following are permissible inclosures with books mailed at the new rate:

A reply envelope, post card, a single order form, and a single sheet not larger than approximately the size of a page, relating exclusively to the book with which inclosed. An invoice showing the price, etc., of the book may also be inclosed, as provided in § 5.75.

Since the law provides that books mailed at the rate of 3 cents a pound may contain incidental announcements of books, such announcements, whether appearing in the books themselves or in the form of loose circular inclosures not weighing in excess of one and one-third ounces, will be permissible in addition to the inclosures described in the preceding paragraph, without affecting the postage chargeable at that rate, such postage, of course, to be computed on the full weight of each parcel. However, loose inclosures of this kind weighing in excess of one and one-third ounces and other circulars or printed matter such as folders, pamphlets, calendars, catalogs, etc., which would not otherwise be permissible, may be inclosed in parcels of books, provided a permit is obtained and postage on such inclosures is paid at the third-class rate of 1½ cents for each two ounces or fraction thereof in addition to the postage at 3 cents a pound on the books themselves. In authorizing these inclosures, it is contemplated that they shall be merely incidental, in no case exceeding eight ounces. The wrapper of the parcel in such case should bear a printed or hand stamped indorsement in the following form:

Each patron desiring to mail such inclosures with books should obtain a permit from his postmaster for this privilege, the permits being numbered consecutively, for which no fee shall be charged, unless it is desired to mail the matter under a nonmetered permit under § 6.4 of this chapter, and the patron has no such permit, in which event the regular $10 application fee will be necessary.

The foregoing instructions modify those heretofore published with respect to the acceptance of books at the pound rate.

Amend § 6.5 Precanceled Government stamped envelopes and postal cards by deleting "Division of Classification" and substituting therefor "Division of Letter and Miscellaneous Mail" wherever those words appear.

In § 6.6 Packages must admit of examination make the following changes:

Amend paragraph (g) by changing "Classification" to "Letter and Miscellaneous Mail."

Amend paragraph (i) to read as follows:

(i)(1) So-called "window" envelopes, having an opening or a transparent panel in the front, through which the address upon the inclosure is disclosed, may be accepted for mailing under conditions prescribed by the Third Assistant Postmaster General, Division of Letter and Miscellaneous Mail, if domestic ordinary mail is concerned, or by the Division of Registered Mails, if domestic registered mail is concerned. (See Official Postal Guide.)

(2) "Window" envelopes to be mailable, must be so prepared that the "window" or transparent panel in the front through which the address on the inclosure is disclosed will be parallel with the length of the envelope. The "window" shall not occupy any space within $1^{3}/_{8}$ inches from the top, nor $^{3}/_{8}$ of an inch from the bottom or ends of the envelope, and when covered shall be as transparent and free from glaze as possible.

(3) Such envelopes shall bear the return card of the sender, that is, the name and address of the sender, which shall be placed in the upper left corner of the address side, parallel with the length of the envelope. The return card of the sender, to be complete as to the address, must show not only his name and the name of the post office and State, but when the post office is one having letter-carrier service must also show a street address or number of post-office box rented by him. The mere name of a building will not suffice for a street address. Although it is preferred that the return card include the sender's name, the latter may be omitted from ordinary mail bearing the sender's post-office box number and post-office address, or, in case the sender is the sole occupant of a building, the street and number of such building, with postoffice and State, will suffice. Also where the sender is the sole occupant of a particular room, the designation of the room, with the street and number of the building, post office and State, may be used.

(4) No printing of advertising or of sentences or words of any kind within $^{3}/_{8}$ of an inch of the "window" of window envelopes used for mailing purposes is permissible, nor on any part of such envelopes where it will interfere with a distinct postmark, rating indorsements, forwarding address, etc., but a plain, narrow border not exceeding approximately $^{1}/_{32}$ of an inch in width around the window is permissible. When desired, such a border may also be placed around the outer edges of envelopes.

(5) The stationery used in "window" envelopes, or at least the portion upon which the exposed address appears, must be white, or, if colored, of a very light tint or shade. The use of dark-colored window envelopes or dark inclosures in such envelopes is not permissible. Nothing but the name and address of the addressee should appear on that part of the inclosure visible through the "window."

(6) The inclosures must be so prepared that they will not shift around in the envelopes, obscuring the address in whole or in part.

(7) The address must be written clearly and boldly, preferably in typewriting, or with ink of a dense black or other strongly contrasting color. Changes in address must not be made on the "window" but on the opaque portion of the envelopes.

(8) "Window" envelopes not conforming to the foregoing are unmailable.

In § 6.7 Inclosing higher class in lower class matter make the following change:

Amend paragraph (b) by changing "Classification" to "Letter and Miscellaneous Mail."

In § 6.9 Overcharges on mail matter make the following change:

Amend paragraph (b), to read as follows:

(b) All applications for refunds under the provisions of this section should be addressed to the Third Assistant Postmaster General, Division of Letter and Miscellaneous Mail, if they relate to refunds on domestic ordinary mail of the first, third, and fourth classes, and on transient second-class matter mailed by others than the publishers or news agents; or to the Third Assistant Postmaster General, Division of Newspaper and Periodical Mail, if they relate to refunds on second-class matter mailed by publishers or news agents; or to the Third Assistant Postmaster General, Division of Registered Mails, if they relate to refunds on domestic registered, insured, or c. o. d. mail; and to the Second Assistant Postmaster General, Division of International Postal Service, if they relate to refunds on international ordinary, registered, insured, or c. o. d. mail. Applications for refunds shall be accompanied with a full statement of the facts, and, when possible, the envelope or wrapper in which the matter was mailed. Postmasters shall not make refunds until instructed by the Department. [Sec. 584 as amended by P. M. G. Order 27238, February 12, 1945]

CROSS REFERENCE: For description of Form 3533, see § 55.2000 of this chapter.

In § 6.10 Directions for transmission, etc., part of address make the following change:

Amend paragraph (c) to read as follows:

(c) (1) Space shall be left on the address side of all mail sufficient for a legible address and for all directions permissible thereon, for postage stamps, for postmarking, rating, and any words necessary for forwarding or return. Watermarks which do not render the reading of the address difficult shall be permitted.

(2) Not less than 3½ inches of clear space should be left for such purposes at the right end of the address side of all envelopes, folders, or wrappers of mail matter, except in the case of large envelopes, etc., which have a clear rectangular space of not less than 5 inches by 3 inches for this purpose. Envelopes, window and ordinary, folders, cards, and wrappers should not be of such dark-colored stationery or bear on the address side so much printed matter in addition to the address as to contravene the foregoing provisions. It is preferable that all envelopes be made of white paper; when paper of any other color is used for envelopes, cards, folders, or wrappers, it should be of very light tints of yellow, pink, manila, or robin's-egg blue.

(3) Whenever practicable the use of envelopes, folders, cards, etc., which do not exceed approximately 4 inches by 9 inches in size or on which ample clear space (not less than 3½ inches) is left on the right portion of the address side for the address, postage stamps, etc., will serve to accomplish the desired object and result to the advantage of both the mailers and the Postal Service. In no case should cards or envelopes be smaller than $2^{3}/_{4}$ by 4 inches. A somewhat larger size is preferable.

Amend § 6.13 Poisons, explosives, liquids, medicines, motion picture films to read as follows:

§ 6.13 Poisons, explosives, liquids, medicines, motion picture films. (a) All kinds of poison, and all articles and compositions containing poison, and all poisonous animals, insects, and reptiles, and explosives of all kinds, and inflammable materials, and infernal machines, and mechanical, chemical, or other devices or compositions which may ignite or explode, and all disease germs or scabs, and all other natural or artificial articles, compositions, or material, of whatever kind, which may kill or in any wise hurt, harm, or injure another, or damage, deface, or otherwise injure the mails or other property, whether sealed as first-class matter or not, are hereby declared to be nonmailable matter and shall not be conveyed in the mails or delivered from any post office or station thereof, nor by any letter carrier; but the Postmaster General may permit the transmission in the mails, under such rules and regulations as he shall prescribe as to preparation and packing, of any articles hereinbefore described which are not outwardly or of their own force dangerous or injurious to life, health, or property: Provided, That the transmission in the mails of poisonous drugs and medicines may be limited by the Postmaster General to shipments of such articles from the manufacturer thereof or dealer therein to licensed physicians, surgeons, dentists, pharmacists, druggists, cosmetologists, barbers, and veterinarians, under such rules and regulations as he shall prescribe: Provided further, That all spiritous, vinous, malted, fermented, or other intoxicating liquors of any kind are hereby declared to be nonmailable and shall not be deposited in or carried through the mails. Whoever shall knowingly deposit or cause to be deposited for mailing or delivery, or shall knowingly cause to be delivered by mail, according to the direction thereon, or at any place at which it is directed to be delivered by the person to whom it is addressed, anything declared by this section to be nonmailable, unless in accordance with the rules and regulations hereby authorized to be prescribed by the Postmaster General, shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than two years, or both; and whoever shall knowingly deposit or cause to be deposited for mailing or delivery, or shall knowingly cause to be delivered by mail, according to the direction thereon or at any place to which it is directed to be delivered by the person to whom it is addressed, anything declared by this section to be nonmailable, whether transmitted in accordance with the rules and regulations authorized to be prescribed by the Postmaster General or not, with the design, intent, or purpose to kill or in any wise hurt, harm, or injure another, or damage, deface, or otherwise injure the mails or other property, shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned not more than twenty years, or both.

(b) (1) Spiritous, vinous, malted, fermented, or other intoxicating liquors of any kind, poisons of every kind, and articles, preparations, compounds, and mixtures which are poison (except as prescribed in the fourth paragraph hereof), and poisonous animals, insects, and reptiles, corrosive materials, fireworks, matches, (except as prescribed in subparagraph (9) of this paragraph, and explosives of every kind, and inflammable materials liable to cause fire by self-ignition through friction, through absorption of moisture, or through spontaneous chemical changes, and infernal machines, and mechanical, chemical, or other devices or compositions which may ignite or explode, and disease germs or scabs (except as prescribed in § 6.14), and other natural or artificial articles, compositions, or materials of whatever kind which may kill or in any wise hurt, harm, or injure a person or damage, deface, or otherwise injure the mail or other property, live animals, insects, birds or fowls (except as prescribed in § 6.19), fresh hides or pelts, or any articles exhaling bad odor, whether sealed as first-class matter or not, shall not be admitted to the mails.

(2) Beverages containing not more than 3.2 percent of alcohol by weight, when addressed for delivery within any State, Territory, or District of the United States, the laws of which do not prohibit the manufacture or sale therein of beverages containing an alcoholic content of not more than 3.2 percent by weight, do not come within the term "intoxicating" as used in this section.

(3) Beer, lager beer, ale, porter, wine, or other liquors, regardless of alcoholic content, may not be mailed to Indian wards anywhere or into any present Indian reservation or to those parts of opened Indian reservations which are still reserved for Government or tribal use or which are held in trust for individual Indians prior to their request for fee patents for such lands.

(4) Inflammable liquids and substances having a flash point between 80° and 20° F., such as paints, varnishes, automobile tire-repair outfits containing rubber cement, etc., that are not liable to cause fire by self-ignition through friction, through absorption of moisture, or through spontaneous chemical changes, and are not poisonous or explosive or unmailable for reasons other than their inflammability, shall be accepted for transmission in the domestic mails except the Air Mail Service when in quantities of not more than 4 ounces and when contained in tightly closed metal boxes or cans and packed in strong papier-mâché tubes or in boxes made of good quality double-faced corrugated pasteboard. The word "inflammable" and the proper name of the article shall be plainly marked on the outside of the package. Articles having a flash point below 20° F. are held to be explosive and shall not be accepted for mailing.

(5) Substances mentioned in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph when in larger quantities shall be accepted for transmission in the domestic mails except the Air Mail Service, when in tight and strong metal containers inclosed in tight and strong outside wooden or fiber board boxes or cases: Provided, That the maximum quantity of any inflammable liquid packed in one outside container shall not exceed 5 gallons and the containers shall not be entirely filled—not less than 2 per cent of their capacity to be left vacant. The proper name of the inflammable substance contained therein shall be plainly marked on the outside of the package and caution labels (red for liquid and yellow for solids) shall be attached thereto by the shipper. These caution labels shall be diamond shaped, each side 4 inches long, with the wording printed in black letters inside of a black-lined border measuring 3½ inches on each side. The wording on the red labels shall be:

Notice to postal employees. Caution. Do not drop. Keep away from fires, stoves, radiators, lighted matches, lanterns, and direct sunlight. Any leaking package shall be removed to a safe place. This is to certify that the contents of this package are properly described by name and are packed and marked and are in proper condition for transportation according to the regulations prescribed by the Post Office Department.

Shipper's name

The wording on the yellow labels shall be:

Notice to postal employees. Caution. Do not drop. Keep fire and lights away. Sweep up and remove carefully contents of broken packages. This is to certify that the contents of this package are properly described by name and are packed and marked and are in proper condition for transportation according to the regulations prescribed by the Post Office Department.

Shipper's name

All such parcels shall be handled outside of mail bags.

(6) Inflammable or combustible liquids which give off inflammable vapors at or below a temperature of 150° Fahrenheit; inflammable solids which are liable, under conditions incident to transportation, to cause fires through friction, through absorption of moisture, or through spontaneous chemical changes; oxidizing materials such as chlorates, permanganates, peroxides, or nitrates, that yield oxygen readily to stimulate the combustion of organic matter; poisonous articles or substances; are prohibited in the mails when necessary to transport such materials, articles, or substances by vessels carrying passengers.

(7) Substances mentioned in subparagraphs (4) and (5) of this paragraph shall be accepted for transmission in the domestic mails except the Air Mail Service, when in quantities not exceeding 1 gallon in any one outside container in inside containers of glass or earthenware cushioned with cells of air at least three-fourths of an inch deep formed by extended tips of each compartment or partition, or with excelsior or other effective cushioning material, or in fiberboard cans at least 0.120 of an inch thick with metal top and bottom, the top being of the friction type which must be fastened on with six equally spaced single indentations at least 0.050 of an inch deep, or six double indentations equally spaced, the indentations being 0.034 of an inch deep on each of the opposite sides of the friction ring. The interior of the fiberboard container must be so lined or treated as to prevent penetration by the material with which the can is filled. The fiberboard can requires no cushioning.

The inside containers, whether of glass, earthenware or fiberboard must then be enclosed in a wooden, solid fiberboard or double-faced corrugated fiberboard box testing at least 200 pounds per square inch, all seams to be sealed with kraft 2½-inch gummed paper tape. When the quantity in any one parcel exceeds 4 ounces the parcel must bear the proper red caution label and shall be handled outside of mail bags.

(8) Nitrate of soda and nitrate of potassium in packages not exceeding 25 pounds shall be accepted for transmission in the domestic mail when prepared as provided in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph of this section or when packed in strong cotton bags lined with two thicknesses of kraft paper, cemented together with asphaltum and cemented to the outside cotton bags. Care shall be taken to avoid any of the product getting on the outside of the parcels, and the package shall be capable of withstanding a drop of 4 feet without any escaping of contents. Each package shall bear the yellow caution label referred to in the preceding subparagraph.

(9) Safety matches (strike-only-on-box-or-book variety) shall be accepted for transmission in the domestic mails when packed in tightly closed metal containers, or in strong containers of other nonfragile material having a securely glued inside lining consisting of either aluminum foil 0.0004 inch thick, or long fiber asbestos paper 0.006 inch thick. The aluminum foil or asbestos lined containers must be completely filled with safety matches and the flaps reinforced with strong gummed paper tape.

Pull-and-light types of safety matches tested and approved by proper Government agency, shall be accepted for transmission in the domestic mails when packed in completely filled, tightly closed strong cardboard containers. A small number of cards of these matches may be accepted for mailing in a strong securely fastened mailing envelope.

No matches of any kind shall be accepted in the mails for transmission between continental United States and the overseas possessions and Territories of the United States, including Alaska, or for transmission between any such possession or Territory and any other such possession or Territory.

(10) Mercury in quantities not exceeding 15 pounds shall be accepted for transmission in the domestic mails when in a tightly closed container of glass or earthenware, securely cushioned in a double-faced corrugated fiberboard box. This box shall then be cushioned in a larger double-faced corrugated fiberboard box, tightly closed and securely fastened. Both fiberboard boxes must be of at least 175-pound test board. Mercury in small quantities such as contained in switches used to make and break an electric current may also be packed in approved mailing tubes when the glass tube of mercury is completely surrounded with at least one-half inch of soft cushioning material.

(c) Liquids not spirituous, vinous, malted, fermented, or otherwise intoxicating, and not liable to explosion or spontaneous combustion or ignition by shock or jar, and not inflammable, fruits or vegetable matter liable to decomposition, comb honey, soft soap, pastes or confections, ointments, salves, and articles of similar consistency, shall be admitted to the mails for transmission in the domestic mails when inclosed in packages in conformity with the conditions prescribed in §§ 6.15 and 6.16.

(d) (1) Medicines which are not outwardly or of their own force dangerous or injurious to life, health, or property, and not in themselves unmailable, shall be admitted to the mails for transmission in the domestic mails when inclosed in packages in conformity with the conditions prescribed in § 6.15: Provided, That the term "medicines" shall not be construed to mean poisons: Provided further, That the article mailed bears the label or superscription of the manufacturer thereof or dealer therein, or of the licensed physician, surgeon, dentist, pharmacist, druggist, or veterinarian preparing or prescribing the same.

(2) Insecticides, fungicides, and germicides not outwardly or of their own force dangerous or injurious to life, health, or property, and not in themselves unmailable (see secs. 569 and 598), shall be admitted to the mails for transmission in the domestic mails when securely packed for safe transmission: Provided, That the container of the article mailed is plainly labeled to show its contents, is also marked "Poisonous Composition", and bears the label or superscription of the manufacturer thereof.

Poisonous preparations, such as raticides, for the extermination of rodents and other destructive mammals are not included in the above classification and are not mailable.

(3) Poisonous drugs and medicines and anesthetic agents which are not outwardly or of their own force dangerous or injurious to life, health, or property, and not otherwise unmailable, when securely packed for safe transmission shall be admitted to the mails for transmission in the domestic mails when sent by the manufacturer thereof or dealer therein to licensed physicians, surgeons, dentists, pharmacists, druggists, cosmetologists, barbers, and veterinarians, when addressed as such: Provided, That the container of the article mailed is plainly labeled to show its contents, is marked "Poison," and bears the label or superscription of the manufacturer thereof.

(e) (1) Motion-picture films shall be packed in spark-proof metal boxes or cans, complying with specification No. 32 of the Interstate Commerce Commission regulations for the shipment of dangerous articles. The letters and figures in this symbol shall be at least one-half inch high, and the final letter may be either A, B, C, D, E, F, or G.

(2) Motion-picture films may also be packed in outside wooden boxes complying with Specification No. 15C of the Interstate Commerce Commission regulations for the transportation of dangerous articles, provided each reel is placed in a tightly closed inside metal container. Marking on boxes to indicate compliance with the specification is the stars being replaced by figures indicating the maximum gross weight for which the box is authorized. The letters and figures in this symbol shall be at least one-half inch high. Boxes marked I. C. C. —19 as previously authorized may be accepted if made prior to October 1, 1930.

(3) Short motion-picture films (not exceeding 25 feet in length) shall be accepted when placed in tightly closed metal cans and in outside containers of corrugated strawboard or other suitable material. Motion-picture films not exceeding 1,000 feet in length shall be accepted for mailing when placed in tightly closed metal cans lined with asbestos, in outside fiberboard or corrugated fiberboard containers, securely sealed, without the yellow caution label, to be dispatched inside of mail bags. Such films also shall be accepted for mailing when placed in tightly closed metal cans without lining, in outside fiberboard or corrugated fiberboard containers, securely sealed, with the yellow caution label, to be dispatched outside of mail bags.

(4) Motion-picture films referred to in subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3) of this paragraph may also be packed in one-piece fiberboard boxes complying with I. C. C. Specification 12B (paragraph 30 (b)) when each film is in a tightly closed metal film-reel can or strong cardboard or fiberboard box with cover held in place by adhesive tape or paper, containing not over 2,000 feet (approximately) of film; cans or boxes to be adequately braced in center of box by fiberboard, at least 175-pound test, extending full depth of box. Amend § 6.14 Diseased tissues, to read as follows:

§ 6.14 Diseased tissues. (a) (1) Specimens of diseased tissues, blood, serum, and cultures of pathogenic microorganisms may be admitted to the mail for transmission to United States, State, municipal, or other laboratories in possession of permits referred to in paragraph (b) of this section only when enclosed in mailing cases constructed in accordance with this regulation, provided that bacteriologic or unfixed pathologic specimens of plague and cholera shall not be admitted to the mails except when prepared as hereinafter specifically provided.

(2) Pathologic specimens of plague and cholera which have been immersed for at least 72 hours in four times their volume of 4 percent formaldehyde gas in water, or other fluid of equal or superior disinfecting power for a period sufficient to fix or harden the central portions of the specimen, may be admitted to the mails if packed in the same manner as herein prescribed for other unfixed pathologic tissues (paragraph (c) (1), (2) and (3) of this section).

(3) Cultures and infectious material of plague, cholera, anthrax, undulant fever and tularaemia may be admitted to the mails if enclosed in stout glass tubes sealed by fusion of the glass and packed in a larger stout glass container with a layer of absorbent cotton soaked in 4 percent formaldehyde surrounding the inner container. The outer glass container shall be closed with a rubber stopper or cork of good quality or by fusion of the glass. This double glass container shall then be packed in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (c) (2) and (3) of this section.

(b) No pacakage containing diseased tissue, blood, serum, or cultures of pathogenic microorganisms shall be delivered to any representative of any of the said laboratories until a permit shall have first been issued by the Postmaster General, certifying that said institution has been found to be entitled, in accordance with the requirements of this regulation, to receive such specimens.

(c) (1) Specimens of sputum, feces, pus, unfixed diseased tissue, or other infectious material fluid in nature or shipped with nondisinfecting fluid shall be placed in stout glass containers of suitable size (but not more than 3 inches in diameter) closed with a metal cover with a rubber, cork, or paraffined paper leakproof washer or with a cork or rubber stopper of good quality or by fusing the glass, provided that large fixed specimens of diseased tissue may be prepared for shipment outside of mail bags when packed in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(2) The aforesaid glass container shall then be placed in (i) a cylindrical sheet-metal box, with soldered joints, closed by a metal screw cover, or (ii) a paraffin impregnated heavy cardboard container with ends made of metal, or a suitable substitute for metal and/or cardboard. A sleeve type of closure may be employed provided that the overlap is at least one-third the length of the cylinder and in any case at least two inches. The closure shall be sealed with tape. Or, (iii) a one-piece bored wooden cylinder at least three-sixteenths of an inch thick in its thinnest part with a threaded screw top.

The screw top covers shall be provided with rubber or felt washers and shall be threaded with sufficient screw threads to require at least one and one-half full turns before they will come off.

The vial or test tube in the above containers shall be completely and evenly surrounded by absorbent cotton or other suitable absorbent in quantity sufficient to absorb the contents of the glass container, should it be broken.

(3) The sheet-metal box with its contents shall then be enclosed in a closely fitting wooden or papier-mâché box or tube, at least three-sixteenths of an inch thick in its thinnest part or in a sheet-metal box or tube of sufficient strength to resist rough handling and support the weight of the mails piled in bags. This tube shall be tightly closed with a screw-top cover with sufficient screw threads to require at least one and one-half full turns before it will come off.

(4) Cultures in solid media, blood, serum, spinal fluid, fixed and completely disinfected diseased tissue and infectious materials on swabs shall be transmitted in a stout glass container of suitable size (but not more than 3 inches in diameter) closed with a metal cover with a rubber, cork, or paraffined paper washer or with a stopper of rubber, paraffined cork, or cotton, the last sealed with paraffin or covered with a tightly fitting rubber cap. The tube shall then be packed in a single wooden or papier-mâché cylindrical box or tube, at least three-sixteenths of an inch thick in its thinnest part or in a sheet-metal box or tube, of sufficient strength to resist rough handling and support the weight of the mails piled in bags. The glass container in this box or tube shall be completely and evenly surrounded by absorbent cotton or other suitable absorbent packing material. Cultures in media that are fluid at the ordinary temperature (below 45° C. or 113° F.) may be mailed if packed in stout glass vials closed by fusing the glass and enclosed as in subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph.

(5) Specimens of blood dried on glass microscopic slides for the diagnosis of malaria or typhoid fever by the Widal test or of other conditions shall be sent in any strong mailing case which is not liable to breakage or loss of the specimen in transit.

(6) Large pathological specimens of fixed diseased tissue and shipments of large numbers of small specimens may be prepared for shipment outside of mail bags. Small specimens of sputum, blood, serum, spinal fluid, pus, feces, fixed or unfixed diseased tissue or other material fluid in nature or shipped with fluid, forming part of such a shipment shall be placed in stout glass containers as in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and individually evenly wrapped in absorbent cotton or other suitable absorbent material in sufficient quantity to absorb all the fluid in case of breakage. Large specimens of fixed diseased tissue shall be placed in securely sealed glass containers or in securely closed (hermetically sealed or screw-top or approved patent-top) metal containers with the necessary preservative fluid. The container shall be surrounded by sawdust or other suitable absorbent material to protect against breakage or leakage. Small and large specimens so prepared shall be shipped in a strong securely closed box marked "Fragile—Liquid. This Side Up," or with similar inscription, and be transported outside of mail bags.

(d) Upon the outside of every package of diseased tissue, blood, serum, or cultures of pathogenic microorganisms admitted to the mails shall be written or printed the words "Specimen for bacteriological examination. This package shall be pouched with letter mail." Except that large specimens or shipments prepared under paragraph (c) (6) of this section shall be marked "Specimen for bacteriologic examination." (R. S. 161, 396, Secs. 304, 309, 42 Stat. 24, 25; 5 U. S. C. 22, 369.)

Amend § 6.15 When articles liable to damage mail or injure employees may be accepted, to read as follows:

§ 6.15 When articles liable to damage mail or injure employees may be accepted. Admissible articles which, from their form or nature, might damage other mail matter or equipment or injure the person of any postal employee shall be accepted when packed in accordance with the following conditions:

(a) In case of articles liable to break, the inner bag, box, envelope, or wrapping shall be surrounded by sawdust, excelsior, cotton, or other similar substance.

(b) Admissible liquids and oils (§ 6.13) in packages not exceeding the limit of weight of fourth-class matter shall be accepted for mailing when intended for delivery at the office of mailing or on a rural route starting therefrom when inclosed in strong and securely closed containers, provided it is not necessary to transport them over steam or electric railways.

(c) Admissible liquids and oils, pastes, salves, or other articles easily liquefiable shall be accepted for mailing, regardless of distance, when they conform to the following conditions:

(1) When in strong glass bottles holding 4 ounces or less, the total quantity sent in one parcel shall not exceed 24 ounces, liquid measure. Each bottle shall be wrapped in absorbent material and then all placed in a box made of cardboard or other suitable material and packed in a container made of double-faced corrugated fiberboard or solid fiberboard or wood. The corners of the container shall fit tightly and be reinforced with tape, so as to prevent the escape of any liquid if the inside container should be broken, and the whole parcel shall be securely wrapped with strong paper and tied with twine. Such parcels shall be indorsed "Fragile—Liquid," and be dispatched inside of mail bags. Single bottles of liquid holding 4 ounces or less may also be packed as prescribed in subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph.

(2) When in glass bottles holding more than 4 and not more than 16 ounces, the bottle shall be very strong and shall be inclosed in a block or tube of metal, wood, papier-mâché or similar material, and there shall be provided between the bottle and the block or tube a cushion of cotton, felt, or other absorbent. The block or tube, if of wood or papier-mâché, shall be of sufficient strength to afford proper protection to contents, and withstand handling in the mails, and shall be rendered watertight by an application on the inside of paraffin or other suitable substance, and shall be closed by a screw-top cover with sufficient screw threads to require at least one and one-half complete turns before it will come off. The cover of the block or tube shall be provided with a washer so that no liquid could escape if the bottle should be broken. Such bottles may also be packed in strong and tight receptacles of wood, metal, or solid fiberboard or waterproof double-faced corrugated fiberboard if surrounded with bran, sawdust, or other absorbent material in sufficient quantity to absorb all the liquid if the bottle should be broken. Parcels prepared in this manner shall be indorsed "Fragile—Liquid" and be dispatched inside of mail bags.

(3) Mailable liquids, in quantities of more than 16 ounces, when in securely sealed glass bottles, shall be accepted for mailing when packed in strong boxes and surrounded with sawdust or other suitable substance to protect the contents from breakage. All such packages shall be marked "Fragile—Liquid. This Side Up," or with similar inscription, and be transported outside of mail bags.

(4) Mailable liquids in securely closed (hermetically sealed or screw top or approved patented top) metal containers, when in quantities of less than 1 gallon and inclosed in double-faced corrugated fiberboard or solid fiberboard or wooden boxes for shipment inside of mail bags, shall be accepted for mailing, but when in friction-top cans the tops shall be securely soldered on or so fastened by effective indentations at not less than six places, or the cans be surrounded with sawdust, bran, or other suitable absorbent material in sufficient quantity to absorb all the liquid if the top of the can should come off. Such parcels shall be marked "Fragile—Liquid."

(5) Mailable liquids in tightly closed metal containers in quantities of 1 gallon or more shall be accepted for mailing when suitably boxed or crated to be dispatched outside of mail bags and labeled "Fragile—Liquid. This Side Up," but when in extra strong metal containers, such as heavy milk cans, the boxing or crating may be omitted.

(6) Insecticides, fungicides, and germicides, when accepted for mailing, must be in inside containers of metal, glass or fiber cans or boxes and in outside containers of metal, wood, or fiberboard, tightly closed and securely fastened. When in liquid form, the inside container must not only be surrounded with sufficient absorbent material to absorb all the liquid should the container be broken but packed in cushioning material. (Excelsior is not considered an absorbent.) When in solid or powdered form, the inside container must be surrounded with cushioning material.

(d) Pastes, salves, etc., not easily liquefiable shall be accepted for mailing when inclosed in watertight containers and cushioned in a double-faced corrugated fiberboard or solid fiberboard or wooden box.

(e) Manufacturers or dealers intending to transmit articles in considerable quantities should submit to the postmaster at the mailing office for approval a specimen parcel showing the manner of packing.

(f) Sharp-pointed or sharp-edged instruments or tools shall be capped or incased so that they cannot cut through their covering. Blades shall be bound so that they will remain firmly attached to each other or within their handles or sockets. Plowshares, stove castings, pieces of machinery, etc., shall have all points, edges, and corners thoroughly protected with excelsior or similar material and be wrapped in burlap, cloth, or tough paper, or be properly boxed to prevent damage to mail or equipment, when intended for other than local delivery.

(g) Ink powders, flour, pepper, snuff, or other similar powders not explosive, or any similar pulverized dry substance not poisonous, shall be accepted when inclosed in the manner prescribed herein for liquids, or when inclosed in cases made of metal, wood, papier-mâché, or similar material, in such manner as to render impossible the escape of any of the contents.

(h) Candles, confectionery, yeast cakes, soap in hard cakes, etc., shall be inclosed in boxes and so wrapped as to prevent damage to other mail matter.

(i) Mailable hides and pelts which are thoroughly dried or cured (§§ 6.13, 6.18) shall be so wrapped as to prevent grease soaking through the package and damaging other mail matter.

(j) Unloaded guns may be sent in the mails, but the postmaster at mailing office shall carefully examine such packages and shall receive them only when sure they are harmless. Cartridges or loaded shells shall not be accepted for mailing. (See section 607 as to mailability of pistols, etc.)

(k) Fragile articles, such as millinery, toys, musical instruments, etc., and articles consisting wholly or in part of glass, or contained in glass, shall be securely packed and cushioned in strong double-faced corrugated fiberboard or solid fiberboard or wooden boxes and the parcel stamped or labeled "Fragile." Parcels so labeled shall be handled with the greatest possible care. Parcels which do not contain fragile articles shall not be marked "Fragile." (R. S. 161, 396, Secs. 304, 309, 42 Stat. 24, 25; 5 U. S. C. 22, 369)

Articles likely to spoil within the time reasonably required for transportation and delivery shall not be accepted for mailing.

(b) Butter, lard, and perishable articles, such as fish, fresh meats, dressed fowls, vegetables, fruits, berries, and articles of a similar nature, which decay quickly, shall be accepted for mailing to any office which in the ordinary course of mail they can reach without spoiling, when inclosed in crates, boxes, baskets, or other suitable containers, so constructed as properly to protect the contents and prevent the escape of anything therefrom. Such parcels shal be labeled "Perishable," and, if necessary for safe shipment, shall be transported outside of mail bags. Berries, fruits, and vegetables shall not be accepted for mailing unless they are in good dry shipping condition.

(c) Eggs shall be accepted for mailing when packed in crates, boxes, baskets, or other suitable containers, so constructed as properly to protect the contents. Such packages shal be transported outside of mail bags. All parcels containing eggs shall be plainly marked "Eggs." When necessary, they should be marked "This side up."

(d) Eggs for hatching shall be accepted for mailing, when each egg is wrapped separately and surrounded with excelsior, woodwool, or other suitable material and packed in a basket, preferably with a handle, or other suitable container, lined with paper, fiber board, or corrugated pasteboard. Such parcels shall be labeled "Eggs for hatching," "Keep from heat and cold," "Please handle with care," or other suitable words, and shall be handled outside of mail sacks. (R. S. 161, 396, secs. 304, 309, 42 Stat. 24, 25; 5 U. S. C. 22, 369)

§ 6.18 Dead wild animals or birds or portions thereof. (a) Postmasters shall not accept for mailing any parcel containing the dead bodies, or parts thereof, of any wild animals or birds, or the eggs of any such birds, which have been killed or taken or are offered for shipment contrary to any law of the United States or of any State, Territory, District of Columbia, or foreign country or State, Province, or other subdivision thereof: Provided, however, That the foregoing shall not be construed to prevent the acceptance for mailing of the dead bodies, or parts thereof, of any wild animals or birds, or the eggs of any wild birds, killed or taken during the season when the same may be lawfully killed or taken and the shipment of which is not prohibited by law in the State, Territory, District, or foreign country, in which the same are killed or taken or offered for shipment.

§ 6.19 Mailability of insects and various small animals—(a) Insects and dried reptiles. (1) Queen bees and their attendant bees, when accompanied with a copy of a certificate of the current year from a State or Government apiary inspector to the effect that the apiary from which said queen bees are shipped is free from disease or by a copy of a statement by the beekeeper made before a notary public or other officer having a seal that the honey used in making the candy used in the queen mailing cage has been diluted and boiled in a closed vessel may be sent in the mails when so put up as to render it practically impossible that the package shall be broken in transit, or the persons handling the same be injured, or the mail bags or their contents soiled.

(2) Honey bees in quantities may be sent in the mails under the same conditions as are prescribed for queen bees and their attendant bees when delivery can be made to the addressee within a period of 5 days. If the cages are wooden, the material of which they are constructed shall not be less than three-eighths of an inch thick and the saw cuts therein or space between slats shall not be over one-eighth of an inch wide; if wire screen is used for the sides of the cages the screen may be of one thickness. The food can shall be securely suspended in the cage with the top of the can wedged against the top of the cage. Cleats approximately 1 inch high shall be securely fastened on the bottom of the cages to prevent the escape therefrom of any sirup that the bees may fail to consume. Each cage shall be provided with a suitable handle and be marked on the top with the words "This Side Up." Such parcels shall be transported outside of mail bags.

(3) Other live nonpoisonous or disease conveying insects when addressed to the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, U. S. If the article has no value or is not valued in excess of $5, the notations, respectively, "No value" or "Not over $5" shall be entered on the receipt and office records. (2) In the case of a claim on account of damage, if the sender had been instructed prior to the date of mailing of the article relative to proper packing and indorsement and had failed to comply therewith and the evidence indicates that the damage was attributable to inadequate packing or lack of proper indorsement, or both.

(3) If the receipt issued at the time of mailing of an insured parcel, or equivalent evidence of insurance, is not submitted.

(4) For damage to fragile matter or spoiling of perishable matter sent as insured mail, if damage or spoiling resulted from the absence of the required "Fragile" or "Perishable" endorsement, unless the sender's receipt was endorsed by the accepting employee to indicate that the parcel contained matter of a fragile or perishable nature.

New § 17.1a to follow § 17.1; new § 17.24a to follow § 17.24; and new §§ 17.66a and 17.66b to follow § 17.66, are hereby added.

§ 17.1a Postal notes. (a) The Postmaster General may authorize postmasters at such offices as he shall designate, under such regulations as he shall prescribe, to issue and pay money orders not exceeding $10, to be known as postal notes at 5 cents each: Provided, however, That the Postmaster General is hereby authorized, in order to promote the service to the public, to increase or decrease the fees fixed by Congress for postal notes to an amount not less than 3 cents or more than 6 cents, whenever he shall find that such fees are too low to insure the receipts of revenues adequate to pay the cost of the postal-note system or materially higher than necessary to pay the cost thereof: And provided further, That he shall be required to report to the Congress revision of any fee at least sixty days prior to its effective date.

(b) Postal notes shall be valid for two calendar months from the date of their issue, but thereafter may be paid by the Postmaster General or refund may be made in case of loss, upon evidence satisfactory to him, under such regulations as he may prescribe. Postal notes shall not be negotiable or transferable through endorsement.

(c) Postal notes shall be furnished for sale at all first-class post offices and at such district post offices as the Third Assistant Postmaster General may designate. Their issue and payment shall be confined to the continental United States, excluding Alaska, Hawaii, and outlying possessions. They shall not be used in transacting domestic business with the foreign countries with which money-order service is conducted on the domestic basis.

(d) Postal note stamps in denominations not exceeding 90 cents shall be supplied for use in making up odd amounts not covered by the postal note, so that combinations of not more than two postal note stamps and a postal note will provide values from 1 cent to $10, the maximum for which a postal note may be issued. Postal note stamps shall be affixed to the postal note and canceled by issuing postmasters and shall be valid only when so affixed.

(e) Postal notes and postal note stamps affixed thereto shall be paid at any post office at their combined face value upon proper identification of payees if presented within 2 calendar months from the date of their issue. Thereafter, unpaid postal notes shall be sent by the remitter or payee with a request for refund to the Third Assistant Postmaster General, Division of Money Orders.

(f) No inquiry or claim concerning lost or destroyed postal notes shall be accepted until 2 calendar months after date of issue and then only upon presentation of the remitter's receipt and evidence of nonpayment.

(g) Postal notes and postal note stamps shall be furnished by the Third Assistant Postmaster General to direct and central-accounting postmasters as accountable stock, and shall be furnished by central-accounting postmasters to district postmasters on a fixed credit basis.

(h) Where available. Postal notes may be purchased at any first-class post office, station or branch, except Army and Navy post offices, and second-class post offices, within the continental limits of the United States, excluding Alaska, Hawaii and other outlying possessions.

(i) Amounts for which available. Postal notes may be purchased for any amount from 1¢ to $10. While the maximum amount of a postal note is fixed by law at $10, there is no limitation as to the number that may be purchased by a patron at one time.

(j) Fee. The fee for the purchase of a postal note of any denomination shall be 5¢.

(k) Application. There is no application required for the purchase of a postal note. The patron applies at a money order window for a note of a specified amount, tendering the value plus the fee of 5¢ for each note desired.

(l) Completion of particulars on postal note. The purchaser of a note shall write in the name and address of the payee on the face, as well as his own name and address on the back of the note.

(m) Spoiled postal notes. If a postal note is spoiled by the purchaser when writing in the name and address of the payee, it shall be presented at the window for repayment. If another note is desired, the fee therefor shall be paid by the patron.

(n) Adhesive postal note stamps. Adhesive postal note stamps are available only for the purpose of representing the cents value on postal notes and may not be obtained unless affixed to the paying office coupon of a postal note and canceled by the stamp of the issuing employee.

(o) Period of validity. The period of validity on a postal note is two calendar months from the date of issue. A calendar month is the corresponding date in the next month. If there is no corresponding date, the last day of validity will be the last day of the second month after the month of issue.

(p) Negotiability. Postal notes are not negotiable or transferable through endorsement and may be paid only to the purchaser or payee named therein at post offices, branches, stations, and banks.

(q) Claims for lost or destroyed postal notes. Claims for lost or destroyed postal notes may be submitted through any post office within the continental limits of the United States on Form 6596, Application for Duplicate Postal Note. No inquiry or claim will be accepted prior to the expiration of the period of validity, i. e. two calendar months from the date of issue, and in all cases such claims must be supported by the presentation of the purchaser's receipt and evidence, if possible, that the note has not been paid.

(r) Applications for duplicates of invalid postal notes. When a postal note becomes invalid the holder shall present it at a post office and file application for a duplicate on Form 6596. The original note shall be marked "Void, duplicate applied for — 19–", and returned to the patron.

(s) Mutilated postal notes. When a postal note becomes mutilated the patron shall present it at a post office and file application for duplicate on Form 6596. In such cases the original postal note, or the mutilated portions thereof, shall accompany the application for duplicate.

(t) Where payable. Postal notes shall be paid at any post office within the continental limits of the United States regardless of whether such post office is authorized to issue postal notes.

(u) Endorsements. The purchasers or payees shall sign postal notes in the space provided therefor on the face before they are paid, and payment may be made only upon proper indentification of the patron as required for the payment of money orders. (58 Stat. 508; 39 U. S. C., Sup., 738) [Sec. 1402 as amended by P. M. G. orders 26005, Sept. 19, 1944; 27031, Jan. 18, 1945]

In § 17.22 Payment at any office, make the following change:

Amend paragraph (b) to read as follows:

(b) An original domestic money order shall be paid at its full face value if presented at the office on which drawn or at the office of issue at any time within the period of its validity, which is 1 year from the last day of the month in which issued. For the first 30 days after issue any domestic money order issued in the continental United States (except Alaska) may be paid for its face value, less the fee prescribed by the law quoted above, at any office other than that of issue or that on which drawn, provided the office at which presented is located within the continental United States (except Alaska). (38 Stat. 280, 48 Stat. 973; 39 U. S. C. 727) [Sec. 1429, as amended by P. M. G. Order 23250, December 3, 1943]

§ 17.24a Alleged wrong payment of money order. (a) When a postmaster is notified of the wrong payment of a money order at his office, he shall promptly report the matter to the Third Assistant Postmaster General, Division of Money Orders and on form 6065 request a photostat of the paid order for examination by the complainant. If the paying office is of the first or second class, the postmaster shall give the date of payment and the "file number" or the sheet, column and running number of the account in which credit therefor was taken, so that the order may be located in the files of the General Accounting Office. If the paying office is of the third or fourth class, the date on which the paid order was forwarded to the central accounting office shall be given. If a photostat of a paid money order is needed for any other purpose the same procedure must be followed. [Section 1433.]

(b) Upon receipt of a photostat from the Department the postmaster shall exhibit it to the complainant, and if he states that the signature thereon is not genuine an affidavit is filed and the case forwarded to the Inspector in Charge of his district for investigation and settlement.

In § 17.28 Payment of money orders to persons or concerns conducting fraudulent schemes, lotteries, etc., forbidden, make the following changes:

Insert paragraph (a) before the first paragraph.

Delete citation "(R. S. 4041, sec. 3, 26 Stat. 466; 39 U. S. C. 732) [Sec. 1435]"

Insert paragraph (b) as follows:

(b) If an envelope containing a c. o. d. money order is returned to the office of issue indorsed "Fraudulent", "Refused—Out of business", or "Fictitious", the envelope together with the money order shall be transmitted immediately to the Third Assistant Postmaster General, Division of Money Orders. (R. S. 4041, sec. 3, 26 Stat. 466; 39 U. S. C. 732) [Sec. 1438, as amended by P. M. G. Order 22934, November 11, 1943].

In § 17.39 Duplicate of lost valid orders amend paragraph (b) by the addition of the following:

However, when there is conclusive evidence that a money order was lost before deposit in the mails consent of the payee need not be obtained as the order is assumed to be the property of the remitter. Further when the mutilated order accompanies the application consent is not necessary.

In § 17.40 Application for duplicate order at issuing office amend paragraph (b) by the addition of the following:

Exceptions:

(1) An application may also be accepted, certified and forwarded at once if the mutilated order accompanies it.

(2) A postmaster shall not certify or forward an application for a duplicate of a lost order which was originally bought by or drawn in favor of a member of the Armed Forces prior to the expiration of the seventy-fifth day following the date on which the original was issued, only providing the applicant or the party in whose favor the application is made shall execute a bond of indemnity on Form 6116 (See Money Order Service for Armed Forces).

Amend § 17.46 Offices upon which duplicates may be drawn by substituting the following:

§ 17.46 Offices upon which duplicates may be drawn. A duplicate money order shall be repaid only at the office of issue of the original or paid only at the office on which the original was drawn although the duplicate may be mailed to the owner at some other office. When the payee of a duplicate resides at a place distant from the office on which it is drawn, it may be paid by the issue of a new order for the same amount, less fee, on the money-order office nearest such payee's place of residence. He shall receipt the duplicate and send it to the postmaster at the office on which it is drawn, with request for payment thereof by the issue of a new order, naming the office on which the order shall be drawn. [See section 1453 Postal Laws and Regulations, Postmaster General, 1940]

Amend § 17.49 Invalid money orders by the addition of paragraph (e) as follows:

(e) Further the Post Office Department before issuing a warrant for the amount of an invalid money order to a legal representative, heir or assign of the remitter, payee or endorsee may require him or them to execute Standard Form 1055 and to furnish legal documentary evidence to establish a valid claim to the amount.

In § 17.55 Exchange offices make the following change:

Amend paragraph 1 in section (b) by deleting "Straits Settlements" and substituting "Malaya."

In § 17.59 Care necessary in writing advices make the following change: Amend paragraph (b) to read as follows:

(b) If the address furnished by the remitter is not written in English script or Roman letters which can be accurately transcribed, the remitter may write in his own language the payee's address on Form 6033, which shall then be attached to the advice and mailed with it to the exchange office. This Form 6083 is obligatory for all money orders payable in China, Jugoslavia, Lebanon, Palestine and Syria, and for those payable in or through Japan, when the remitter and payee are Asiatics.

§ 1766a Issue of money orders in payment for C. O. D. parcels from foreign countries. (a) Before delivering a C. O. D. parcel from one of the countries with which C. O. D. service is in effect, the clerk having charge of the assignment of such parcels for delivery shall complete an application on Form 6701 from which the international money order is later to be issued. The amount of the C. O. D. charges, plus the money order fee collected from the addressee shall be turned over to the money order section with Form 6701, and a receipt shall be given on Form 3815. An international money order shall be issued, the advice and coupon sent to the proper exchange office and the receipt attached to the record of delivery of the parcel to show that the charges have been remitted.

(b) Form 6701 completed from parcels which for any reason are not delivered shall not be destroyed or turned over to the money order section, but shall be retained by the clerk having charge of the assignment of C. O. D. parcels for delivery, to provide a record of the name and address of the sender and may also be used to show what was done with the undeliverable parcels.

(c) When a C. O. D. parcel from abroad is received at a post office not authorized to transact international money order business, the postmaster shall complete an application on Form 6001 and shall collect from the addressee the C. O. D. charges plus the domestic fee and the fee for an international money order of the amount of the charges. He shall issue a domestic money order in favor of the postmaster at the proper exchange office for the amount of the C. O. D. charges and the international money order fee, and mail it (the domestic money order) to him with an application on Form 6701 for the issue of an international money order. The postmaster at the exchange office shall issue an international money order to remit the charges to the shipper of the parcel in the foreign country. (To determine the proper international fee and exchange office, consult Schedule 2 and Table 3, respectively, in Part 1 of the Official Postal Guide, under the heading "The Postal Money Order System").

§ 17.66b Payment of international C. O. D. orders. (a) The rules which govern the payment of international money orders generally, apply to those issued in foreign countries to pay the C. O. D. charges on parcels mailed in the United States. Since such money orders may be drawn on any post office in this country, one may be drawn on an office which is not authorized to transact international money order business. In such event, when the advice reaches him the postmaster shall pay the order and claim credit for it in the same manner as for paid domestic orders.

(b) An international C. O. D. money order shall not be repaid to the remitter, except when the sender of the parcel authorizes such action and waives all claim to the C. O. D. charges or indemnity therefor. When it appears that any person or firm is using the international C. O. D service to further a scheme to defraud and postmasters are informed of that fact, they shall decline to pay international money orders drawn in favor of that person or firm and shall send the advices to the Third Assistant Postmaster General, Division of Money Orders.

Amend § 17.71 Missing advices of orders payable in United States to read as follows:

§ 17.11 Missing advices of orders payable in United States. When an order issued in any of the countries named in Tables 2 and 3, International List, is presented for payment and no advice has been received, the paying postmaster shall immediately apply on Form 6752 to the proper exchange office in this country for an advice. If the order was issued in any of the countries with which money-order business is transacted on the domestic basis, with the exception of Canada, Canal Zone, Cuba, Jamaica, Newfoundland and the Philippine Islands, the postmaster shall forward directly to the issuing office a request for a duplicate advice on Form 6006. (Sec. 1479)

NOTE: Canada, Canal Zone, Cuba, Jamaica, Newfoundland and the Philippine Islands do not forward an advice for each order issued, as coupons attached to the orders serve the purpose of advices formerly used.

In § 17.80 Repayment of international order drawn on domestic form make the following change:

18.20 Designation of banks as depositories for postal savings funds.

New § 18.20 is hereby added.

NOTE: For the text of sections listed in the above table and not appearing in this publication see 39 CFR, Part 18.

AUTHORITY §§ 18.1 to 18.20, inclusive (with exceptions noted in the text), issued under 36 Stat. 814, sec. 10, 37 Stat. 559, 38 Stat. 716, 39 Stat. 159; 39 U. S. C. 751, 752, 753, 754, 755, 756, 757, 758, 759, 760, 761, 762, 763, 764, 765, 766, 767, 768, 769.

Amend paragraph (b) to read as follows:

(b) The names of all post offices, branches, and stations where postal-savings accounts may be opened shall be indicated in the State list of the Official Postal Guide, and changes in postal-savings depositary offices shall appear in the supplements.

Amend footnote to read as follows:

The source of §§ 18.1 to 18.20, inclusive, (except for amendments noted in the text) is Postal Laws and Regulations, Postmaster General, 1940, and Regulations Governing the Deposit of Postal-Savings Funds in Banks and the Acceptance of Bonds as Security Therefor, Form PS 2.

In § 18.2 Accounts, make the following changes:

Amend paragraph (b) to read as follows:

(b) (1) Deposits shall be accepted only in the name of individuals, and no account shall be opened in the name of any corporation, association, society, firm, or partnership, or in the names of two or more persons jointly. No account shall be opened in the name of one person in trust for or on behalf of another person or persons.

(2) In all bankruptcy proceedings, the officers and agents in charge of the bankrupt funds are authorized to deposit the same without limit as to amount in the postal-savings depositories at the prescribed interest rate in all cases where local banks are unable or unwilling to give the required security. Such deposit or any portion thereof may be withdrawn as required in the bankruptcy proceedings.

When an officer or agent in charge of bankrupt funds applies at a depository post office to open a postal-savings account, the postmaster shall require evidence that (i) the funds involved are entitled to consideration under the above quoted amendment to the Bankruptcy Act, that (ii) the officer or agent has been duly appointed, and that (iii) local banks are unable or unwilling to give the required security. If satisfied, the postmaster shall accept the deposit in any amount of even dollars, issue certificates in the name and title of the officer or agent, together with the name of the bankrupt corporation, association, or individual, and deliver the certificates to such officer or agent, except that if the deposit is by commercial check or draft, delivery of the certificates shall be withheld until collection has been made. If the postmaster is in doubt as to the acceptability of the deposit, he shall refer all papers in the case to the Third Assistant Postmaster General, Division of Postal Savings, and await instructions.

When payment is demanded, the certificate shall be indorsed by the officer or agent (or his successor, whose appointment must be evidenced by a decree of court) and, in addition, may be countersigned by another individual in his representative court capacity if such be the requirement of the referee having jurisdiction over the funds in question. As the amount involved is invariably large, the postmaster shall request the officer or agent to give advance notice of contemplated withdrawals so that he will have time to requisition the necessary amount from the Third Assistant Postmaster General, Division of Postal Savings.

Amend paragraph (c) by adding the following note:

NOTE: The Postal Savings System was instituted for the purpose of encouraging thrift and to provide a safe depository for the accumulation of savings. Accounts persistently showing a rapid turnover of deposits or which are intended to serve as a safe place in which to leave funds for a few hours or which otherwise indicate an unreasonable use of postal-savings facilities are considered nuisance accounts. Postmasters are not required to open or accept further deposits in nuisance acounts.

Amend paragraph (f) to read as follows:

(f) The provisions of § 17.7 defining what may be accepted for the purchase of money orders shall be applicable to postal-savings deposits, subject to the provisions of §§ 18.9 and 18.10 of this chapter. The postmaster may accept Government paper not more than one full fiscal year old from responsible persons whose indorsement thereon the postmaster is willing to guarantee; and when such paper is accepted, the postmaster shall immediately issue the certificates and deliver them to the purchaser. Acceptance of a personal check, cashier's check, bank draft, or other commercial paper is at the risk of the postmaster; and when such paper is accepted, the purchaser shall be given a receipt on Form 929 or Form 929–S; but the certificates, which shall be issued immediately or at the earliest opportunity, shall be retained by the postmaster with a copy of the receipt until ample time shall have elapsed to insure receipt of notice should the check or draft fail to clear, after which the certificates shall be delivered to the depositor, either in person or by ordinary mail. No funds are available to pay collection charges on checks or drafts accepted as postal-savings deposits, and where charges cannot be avoided, they shall be paid in advance by the depositor. (Secs. 4, 6, 36 Stat. 815, sec. 1, 39 Stat. 159, secs. 12, 13, 40 Stat. 754, sec. 10, 37 Stat. 559, 47 Stat. 1482; 39 U. S. C. 754, 756, 768; 11 U. S. C. 101a) [Sec. 1603, as amended by P. M. G. Order 31435, May 9, 1946, and sec. 1630, 1940 ed.]

In § 18.3 Depositor's application on card, Form PS 600, make the following changes:

Amend paragraph (a) to read as follows:

(a) When a person applies to open an account, the postmaster or his representative shall question the applicant to obtain the necessary information and shall carefully fill out an application on depositor's card (Form PS 600).

Amend paragraph (b) by adding the following sentences:

At offices equipped to take finger impressions, such impressions should be taken of every person desiring to open an account unless the depositor persistently declines to comply, in which case that fact should be noted on Form PS 600. The entries on the depositors' cards shall be proved daily by adding the deposits made during the day as shown thereon and comparing the total with the total issues shown by the abstract of issues, Form PS 705. Form PS 705 or Abstract A in the daily summary for third- and fourth-class offices (Form PS 708–T/F), as the case may be, shall be used at all depositary offices to maintain a daily record of certificates issued.

Certificates showing discrepancies shall be returned to the Department. The postmaster shall record the reissue of the certificates on the depositor's card (Form PS 600) by writing "Reissued" in the "Remarks" column in line with the entry of issue and deliver the new certificates to the depositor.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, (i) each deposit in a postal-savings depository office shall be a savings deposit, and interest thereon shall be allowed and entered to the credit of the depositor once for each quarter beginning with the first day of the month following the date of such deposit, but no interest shall be allowed to any such depositor with respect to the whole or any part of the funds to his or her credit for any period of less than three months, (ii) no interest shall be paid on any such deposit at a rate in excess of that which may lawfully be paid on savings deposits under regulations prescribed by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System pursuant to section 371b of Title 12, for member banks of the Federal Reserve System located in or nearest to the place where such depository office is situated.

Amend paragraph (b) by adding two notes, reading as follows:

NOTE A: The maximum yearly interest rate payable on savings deposits by banks, trust companies, and savings banks in the State of Mississippi was reduced to 1 per cent effective January 1, 1945; and, accordingly, as required by the provisions of paragraph (a) (2) of this section, the yearly rate on postal-savings deposits in that State was reduced as of April 1, 1945, from 2 percent to 1 percent.

NOTE B: The maximum yearly interest rate payable on savings deposits by banks and trust companies and savings banks in the State of New Jersey was reduced to 1 per cent effective July 1, 1939; and, accordingly, as required by the provisions of paragraph (a) (2) of this section, the yearly rate on postal-savings deposits in that State was reduced as of the same date from 2 per cent to 1 per cent. However, the maximum yearly interest rate payable on savings deposits by banks, trust companies, and savings banks in this State was increased from 1 to 1½ percent effective July 1, 1946; and, accordingly, the yearly rate on postal-savings deposits in the State was increased as of the same date from 1 to 1½ percent.

Amend § 18.10 Postal-savings cards and stamps to read as follows:

§ 18.10 Postal-savings cards and stamps. (a) The authority of the Postmaster General to prepare and issue postal-savings cards and postal-savings stamps shall terminate on such date as stamps issued by the Secretary of the Treasury pursuant to the authority contained in section 22 (c) of the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended, are made available for sale to the public; and, as soon as practicable thereafter, the Board of Trustees of the Postal Savings System shall pay to the Secretary of the Treasury a sum equal to the redemption value of all postal-savings stamps outstanding, and after such payment has been made the obligation to redeem such stamps shall cease to be a liability of the Board of Trustees of the Postal Savings System but shall constitute a public debt obligation of the United States.

NOTE: Pursuant to section 5 of the Public Debt Act of 1942 (quoted above), and by agreement between the Postmaster General and the Secretary of the Treasury, the liability for outstanding postal-savings stamps of all series, including the so-called Defense Savings stamps and War Savings stamps, and the accountability for unsold savings-stamp stock charged to postmasters, were transferred to the Treasury Department as of the close of business September 30, 1942.

(b) Postal-savings stamps outstanding, and any series of savings stamps issued by the Treasury Department under the authority contained in section 22 (c) of the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended, are exchangeable for postal-savings certificates. When a card or album with postal-savings or United States savings stamps affixed is presented at any postal-savings depository, it shall be accepted as a deposit of equivalent value either in opening an account or in adding to an existing account. One certificate may be issued to cover a deposit made partly in cash and partly by means of savings stamps. The postmaster shall transfer savings stamps exchanged for postal-savings certificates to the savings-stamp account in exchange for the equivalent of savings-stamp funds. (Sec. 5, 56 Stat. 189, 39 U. S. C. 756a) [Sec. 1613, as amended by P. M. G. Order 27177, February 3, 1945]

(g) (1) In order to obtain funds to meet withdrawals of principal or interest in excess of his daily receipts, the postmaster shall borrow from the money order or postal account or from the postage stamp fixed credit, or shall check on the money-order credit with the Treasurer of the United States, if a credit has been granted. Memoranda (Form PS 622–A) to cover such temporary advances to the postal-savings account shall be placed with the money-order funds or postal funds or postage stamp fixed credit, as the case may be, and held until reimbursement shall have been made. The postmaster shall repay such advances from surplus postal-savings funds subsequently received, and, except at Washington, D. C., and central accounting offices, at the end of each month shall draw a postal-savings draft, Form PS 316, for any amount still due and forward it to the central accounting office as surplus money-order or postal funds, or in adjustment of the postage stamp fixed credit. The money order or postal account or postage stamp fixed credit shall always be completely reimbursed at the end of each month. The postmaster shall debit in the daily summary (Form PS 708, or, in lieu of the summary, Form PS 630–A and Form PS 430–C/A at the larger offices) the total amount of funds borrowed each day and shall credit in that record the total amount repaid, but shall not reflect such temporary advances and the repayments thereof on his reports to the department. If no money-order funds, including an authorized credit, postal funds, or postage stamp fixed credit are available, the postmaster shall draw a draft, Form PS 316, on his central accounting postmaster for cash or a check, as desired, or shall cash it at a local bank or business house, if accepted without charge for exchange. When an office is transferred, the outgoing postmaster shall draw a draft, Form PS 316, to complete the reimbursement of the money-order or postal account or postage stamp fixed credit for any amount advanced.

(2) The postmaster at Washington, D. C., or at a central accounting post office, shall use money order or postal funds, as provided in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, when sufficient postal-savings funds are not on hand to meet withdrawals by depositors. He shall obtain funds needed to reimburse the money order or postal account from the Third Assistant Postmaster General and shall requisition such funds in ample time to insure complete reimbursement of the money order or postal account at the end of each month, and in sufficient amount to meet the estimated needs of his office. Any excess over the amount immediately needed for reimbursing purposes shall be held as cash in the post office or shall be deposited, wholly or in part, in a temporary checking account as provided in section 120, Postal Laws and Regulations, Postmaster General, 1940. The postmaster at Washington, D. C., or at a central accounting office may hold as cash or deposit in such temporary checking account the current postal-savings receipts in reasonable anticipation of early needs. (Sec. 8, 36 Stat. 816, sec. 10, 37 Stat. 559, sec. 11 (c), 48 Stat. 182, sec. 341, 49 Stat. 721; 39 U. S. C. 758 and Sup.) [Sec. 1617, as amended by P. M. G. Orders 18664, September 12, 1942; 31513, May 16, 1946]

Amend paragraph (k) to read as follows:

(k) Certificates when paid, either in full or in part or when surrendered for payment of only the interest due, shall be stamped on the face with the special "Paid" date stamp furnished for the purpose. The stamp shall be maintained in good working order, and the imprint shall clearly show the month, day, and year of payment. If the date of payment is not legible, the certificate shall be stamped again on the back in such manner that the date can be read. The employee making the payment shall place his initials on the face of each certificate along the right margin. The transaction shall be recorded on the depositor's card (Form PS 600) by entering the date (day, month, and year) thereof, the total amount of the certificates surrendered, and the new balance on the next unused line. On the same form the date of the transaction and the respective amount of interest paid, if any, shall be entered in line with the serial number of each surrendered certificate. Depositors' cards on which withdrawals have been entered shall not be returned to the files until all accounts for the day are in balance. Paid postal-savings certificates shall not remain in the custody of the postal-savings window clerk; they shall be delivered daily to the postmaster or some designated official or clerk, who shall be responsible for the protection of the vouchers and who shall be charged with the duty of preparing the monthly reports.

Amend paragraph (l) to read as follows:

(l) At the close of each day's business or at such time during the day as may be convenient the postmaster shall enter the date of payment and serial numbers of the certificates paid under the proper denominations in Abstract B, which is bound in a book (Form PS 706) separate from other forms for first- and second-class offices, but which at third- and fourth-class offices is in the daily summary (Form PS 708–T/F), and enter the total amount of principal and total amount of interest paid in the daily summary (Form PS 708 at first- and second-class offices; Form PS 708–T F at third- and fourth-class offices; but, in lieu of the summary, Forms PS 630–A and PS 630–C/A at the larger offices). The entries on depositors' cards shall be proved by adding the withdrawals made during the day and comparing the total with the total withdrawals shown by Abstract B. At the close of the month Form PS 706–A (detailed instructions for the preparation of which appear thereon) and all paid certificates, properly arranged, shall be forwarded with the postmaster's monthly account current. Abstract B shall be retained and become a part of the permanent files of the post office.

Amend paragraph (m) to read as follows:

(m) Whenever all certificates issued to a depositor have been paid, the depositor's card (Form PS 600), bearing the record of the account, shall be marked "Account closed" and placed in a separate file with other closed accounts in numerical order. (See leaflet PS

100.) (Sec. 8, 36 Stat. 816, sec. 10, 37 Stat. 559, sec. 11 (c), 48 Stat. 182, sec. 341, 49 Stat. 721; 39 U. S. C. 758 and Sup.) [Sec. 1618, as amended by P. M. G. Order 26295, October 23, 1944]

In § 18.13 Withdrawal through a representative or by mail, make the following changes:

Amend paragraph (b) to read as follows:

(b) For the payment of a certificate to such a depositor, a blank order (Form PS 304) shall be furnished. When the order has been properly filled out and signed by the depositor, it shall be returned to the postmaster, together with the certificate or certificates properly indorsed by the depositor. The depositor shall give a receipt on the certificate in the following form: "Received the amount of this certificate and $____ (amount to be specified) interest due thereon." The amount of interest payable shall be inserted by the postmaster in the receipt form on each certificate before the representative receipts on Form PS 304 for the total payment. The postmaster shall then make payment to the representative. The payment of the certificates and interest shall be recorded as provided in § 18.12 (k) and (l), and the leaflet Form PS 100. The order on Form PS 304 shall be filed with the depositor's card (Form PS 600).

Amend the first sentence of paragraph (e) to read as follows:

(e) When a depositor desires to make a withdrawal by mail of all or any part of the amount of any of his certificates, the postmaster at any depositary office shall furnish him application blanks, Form PS 315, for requesting payment of all or part of the principal and any interest due on such certificates by money order, less the usual fee, or by check.

Amend paragraph (f) to read as follows:

(f) The depositor shall give a receipt on the certificate in the following form: "Received the amount of this certificate and $____ interest due thereon." If any interest is due, the amount shall be entered in the receipt form on the certificate by the postmaster at the paying office.

Amend paragraph (g) to read as follows:

(g) The postmaster at the office where the certificates were issued, if satisfied as to the applicant's identity, shall follow the directions of the depositor on Form PS 315 as to payment and shall forward the amount withdrawn and any new certificate issued in exchange to him at the stated address, making payment either by a money order, less the usual fee, or by a check on the postmaster's authorized money-order credit with the Treasurer of the United States and using Form PS 320 as the letter of transmittal. If payment by check has been requested and the paying postmaster has not been granted a credit with the Treasurer of the United States, he shall send to his central accounting postmaster, with a completed Form PS 320, any new certificates issued in exchange, and a postal-savings draft, Form PS 316, for all of the interest and as much of the principal as is to be paid and shall request the central accounting postmaster by means of Form PS 320–A to forward a check for the amount due direct to the depositor. If the depositor has requested that the mailing be registered, the minimum registry fee shall be deducted by the paying postmaster or the central accounting postmaster, whichever mails the withdrawal to the depositor. The payment of the certificates and interest shall be recorded as provided in § 18.12 (k) and (l), and the leaflet, Form PS 100. The application on Form PS 315 shall be filed with the depositor's card, Form PS 600.

Amend paragraph (h) to read as follows:

(h) When such a depositor desires to withdraw only the interest payable on any certificate or certificates, he shall be furnished with a blank application, Form PS 315–A. When the order has been properly filled out and signed, the depositor shall forward it with the certificate or certificates properly indorsed to the postmaster at the office where the account is held, as provided in paragraph 5 of this section. If the depositor's identity is satisfactorily established, the postmaster at the latter office shall proceed as provided in the leaflet, Form PS 100, and shall forward the amount of interest due to the depositor at the stated address by money order, less the usual fee, or by check on the postmaster's authorized credit with the Treasurer of the United States, together with the new certificates issued in lieu of those surrendered, using Form PS 320 as the letter of transmittal. If payment by check has been requested and the paying postmaster has not been granted an authorized credit with the Treasurer of the United States, the paying postmaster shall draw a postal-savings draft, Form PS 316, for the full amount of interest due and forward it to the central accounting postmaster with (1) the new certificates issued in exchange, (2) Form PS 320, and (3) a request on Form PS 320–A that he forward the check for the amount due direct to the depositor. If the depositor has requested that the payment be registered, the minimum registry fee shall be deducted by the paying postmaster or the central accounting postmaster, whichever mails the payment to the depositor. The order on Form PS 315–A shall be filed with the depositor's card, Form PS 600." (Sec. 8, 36 Stat. 816, sec. 10, 37 Stat. 559, sec. 11 (c), 48 Stat. 182, sec. 341, 49 Stat. 721; 39 U. S. C. 758 and Sup.) [Sec. 1619, as amended by P. M. G. Order 32341, Aug. 5, 1946]

In § 18.14, Death or legal disability of a depositor, make the following changes:

Amend the last sentence of paragraph (k) to read as follows: "Whenever funds are to be remitted by mail, a check drawn on the Treasurer of the United States for the amount or a money order for the amount less the usual fee will be used at the option of the payee."

In § 18.15, Postal-savings bonds, make the following changes:

Amend the citations in paragraph (c) to read as follows: "(sec. 10, 36 Stat. 817; 39 U. S. C. 760) [sec. 1621]"

In § 18.16, Adjudication of courts conclusive as to rights in postal savings funds, make the following changes:

Amend by the insertion of a note following paragraph (a) to read as follows:

NOTE: This law is held to provide for recognizing the judicial determination of cases involving the disputed ownership of postal-savings deposits, but since moneys accepted by the Government under the postal-savings act assume the nature of public funds they are not subject to ordinary proceedings of attachment, garnishment, or execution. (Buchanan v. Alexander, 4 Howard U. S. 10; 14 Am. & Eng. Ency. Law 814; Shinn, Attachment and Garnishment, sec. 565). In order to be recognized as affecting the title to postal-savings deposits, the judgment, order, or decree of the court must establish specifically the ownership of the postal-savings deposits in controversy.

§ 18.20 Designation of banks as depositories for postal-savings funds. Funds received at postal-savings depository offices in each city, town, village, or other locality, shall be deposited in solvent banks located therein whether organized under national or State laws, being subject to national or State supervision and examination, willing to receive such deposits under the terms of the Postal Savings Act and the regulations made by authority thereof; Provided, That as between two or more banks in the same community, preference shall be given member banks of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. The word "bank" as used in the law includes savings banks and trust companies doing a banking business. Any eligible bank desiring to qualify for deposits of postal-savings funds shall transmit to the Third Assistant Postmaster General, Division of Postal Savings, Washington 25, D. C., an application on the prescribed form (PS 226) which shall include a report of the bank's paid-in capital and unimpaired surplus exclusive of undivided profits as of the date of application, and such application and report shall be sworn to by the president or cashier and attested as correct by two members of the board of directors. Blank application forms and a copy of the regulations governing the deposit of postal-savings funds in banks and the acceptance of bonds as security therefor (Form PS 2) may be obtained from the Third Assistant Postmaster General, Division of Postal Savings. A branch bank that has a definite capital and surplus formally set aside from that of the parent bank is deemed to be a local bank within the meaning of the law and is entitled to receive deposits on the basis of the capital and surplus thus separately assigned to it. MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS TO REGULATIONS

By virtue of the authority vested in me by R. S. 4405, 4417, 4417a, 4418, 4426, 4429, 4433, 4438, 4438a, 4439, 4440, 4441, 4442, 4450, 4480, 4481, 4488, as amended, 49 Stat. 1384, 1544, 53 Stat. 1147, 55 Stat. 244 (46 U. S. C. 214, 224, 224a, 226, 228, 229, 239, 247, 367, 369, 375, 391, 391a, 392, 404, 407, 411, 471, 473, 474, 481, 526-526t; 50 U. S. C. 1275), and section 101 of Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1946 (11 F. R. 7875), the following amendments to the regulations are prescribed, effective upon the date of publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER:

Subchapter C—Motorboats, and Certain Vessels Propelled by Machinery Other Than by Steam More Than 65 Feet in Length

LICENSED OPERATORS

1. Section 25.8-3 (a) is amended by adding the following sentences:

§ 25.8-3 Professional qualifications and examination. (a) * * * Fingerprint records on Form NCG 2515 shall be submitted to the Commandant on each applicant at the same time application is made and shall be stamped "applicant for original license." The application of any person may be rejected by the District Commander or his authorized representative when derogatory information has been brought to his attention which indicates that the applicant's habits of life and character are such as to warrant the belief that he cannot be entrusted with the duties and responsibilities of the station for which he made application. If after such investigation the District Commander desires the Commandant's authorization, he shall submit the completed application (NAVCG–866) and the investigation report to Headquarters. In the event that an applicant is rejected he shall be advised that he may submit a request to the Commandant for a review of his case. No examination shall be given or temporary permit issued in the type case pending the Commandant's authorization. NAVCG 928A shall be used to notify an unsuccessful candidate of his failure to pass an examination or to qualify for a license.

2. Section 25.8–3 is amended by adding a new paragraph (c) reading as follows:

(c) An applicant for a motorboat operator's license shall not be disqualified by inability to read or write if he is qualified in all other respects and if he possesses extensive experience in the operation of small vessels. If the applicant has operated motorboats under the license issued under the Act of June 9, 1910, he shall be held to possess the required experience and must qualify in all other respects. Inability to read or write, however, shall be held to disqualify an applicant who is not experienced in operation of motorboats and who is not experienced in the operating of firefighting and lifesaving equipment, and is not thoroughly familiar with the applicable pilot rules.

3. Section 25.8–4 (a) is amended by adding the following sentences:

§ 25.8–4 Physical qualifications. (a) • • • Such an applicant may, however, be referred to a United States Public Health Service surgeon or other reputable physician. If, for any reason, the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, is not satisfied with any physical condition in determining the vision qualifications of such an applicant, then the same standards should be applied as those required for a renewal of license or a raise of grade.

4. Section 25.8–4 (b) is amended by designating material within present paragraph as subparagraph (1) and by adding two new subparagraphs reading as follows:

(2) For an original license the applicant must have, either with or without glasses, at least 20/20 vision in one eye and at least 20/40 in the other. Any applicant who wears glasses, however, must also be able to pass a test without glasses of at least 20 40 in one eye and at least 20/70 in the other. The color sense will be tested by means of the "Stillings" test, but any applicant who fails this test will be eligible if he passes the "Williams" lantern test, but if found color blind no license will be issued except in a case where the applicant shows he has operated motorboats for many years and has particular qualifications, which in the judgment of the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, qualifies him to operate a motorboat in daylight only and so restricts the license. For a renewal of a license the applicant shall pass the same test as for an original license except that nothing herein shall debar an applicant who has lost the sight of one eye if he is qualified in all other respects and the vision in his own eye passes the test required for the better eye of an applicant possessed of both eyes. If an applicant for a renewal of license is pronounced color blind, the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, may grant him a license limited to service during daylight only.

(3) The physical examination for an original license shall include the eyesight, hearing, and physical condition of the applicant. Where an applicant is not possessed of the vision, hearing and general physical condition considered necessary, the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, after consultation with the Public Health Service physician may make recommendations to the Commandant for an exception to these requirements, if, in their opinion, extenuating circumstances warrant special consideration. Any request for a decision by the Commandant must be accompanied by all pertinent correspondence, records and reports.

Subchapter D—Tank Vessels

PART 32—REQUIREMENTS FOR HULLS, MACHINERY, AND EQUIPMENT

BOILERS AND MACHINERY

1. Section 32.5–11 is amended to read as follows:

§ 32.5–11 Steering apparatus—T/ALL. (a) Extra steering apparatus consisting of relieving tackle, or of auxiliary power or hand steering gear attached to the rudder stock independent of the regular steering gear shall be provided.

(b) Where reasonable and practicable, the emergency steering wheel shall be located on the after weather deck, and an efficient means of communication shall be provided between the pilothouse, the emergency steering station, and the steering engine room.

(c) The following requirements relative to the arrangement of steering stations are applicable to new installations and replacements of existing installations on all classes of vessels:

(1) Steering wheels in or at steering stations shall be installed in a vertical position and arranged for steering by the helmsman when standing abaft the wheel and facing forward. The top of the steering wheel, the rudder blades, and the head of the ship shall move in the same direction.

(2) When a "trick" wheel is installed in the steering gear room and is used for warming up and testing the gear, and also for steering purposes, this wheel shall be arranged as follows:

(i) If the "trick" wheel is installed in a vertical position it shall meet all requirements outlined in subparagraph (1).

(3) Where "trick" wheel or other device is installed in the steering gear room for the sole purpose of warming up and testing the gear, it may be installed to best suit design and operating conditions of the gear. A plate shall be fitted on this wheel or device with indicating arrows showing the direction of movement to produce "right rudder" and "left rudder."

(4) When auxiliary steering gear is installed in lieu of relieving tackles, the steering wheel or device used for operating the gear shall meet all requirements outlined in paragraph (c) (1) of this section.

(5) At all steering stations, there shall be installed a suitable notice on the wheel or device, or in such other position as to be directly in the helmsman's line of vision, to indicate the direction in which the wheel or device must be turned for "right rudder" and for "left rudder."

(d) Where no regular rudder is fitted and steering action is obtained by a change of setting of the propeller unit, the requirements of paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this section will not generally be applicable, and special consideration will be given.

EQUIPMENT AND MISCELLANEOUS

1. Section 32.9–7 is amended to read as follows:

§ 32.9–7 Life lines and rails—TB/OCLB—(a) Lines. On all tank vessels where the distance is more than 150 feet between deck houses, a wire cable shall be stretched between the deck houses at all times when the vessel is loaded and being navigated, this cable to be not less than 5 feet from the deck; and there shall be attached at all times to the cable a traveler with a line of sufficient continuous length to insure its operation in order that communication between both ends of the vessel may be facilitated at all times: Provided, That in addition to the traveler with the endless whip, as many loose rings with lanyards attached may be placed on the cable as may be deemed necessary by the master in charge of the vessel: Provided further, That a fore and aft raised bridge shall be accepted in lieu of the wire cable and traveler.

(b) Effective for new construction rails on decks or bridges shall be in at least two courses including the top and shall be at least 36 inches high.

PART 36—LICENSED OFFICERS AND CERTIFICATED MEN

LICENSED OFFICERS

1. Section 36.1–1 (b) is amended by adding the following sentences:

§ 36.1–1 Original licenses—T/ALL • • •

(b) • • • Fingerprint records on Form NCG 2515 shall be submitted to the Commandant on each applicant at the same time application is made and shall be stamped "applicant for original license" or "applicant for original certificate of registry as staff officer" as appropriate. The application of any person may be rejected by the District Commander or his authorized representative when derogatory information has been brought to his attention which indicates that the applicant's habits of life and character are such as to warrant the belief that he cannot be entrusted with the duties and responsibilities of the station for which he made application. If after such investigation the District Commander desires the Commandant's authorization, he shall submit the completed application (NAVCG–866) and the investigation report to headquarters. In the event that an applicant is rejected he shall be advised that he may submit a request to the Commandant for a review of his case. No examination shall be given or temporary permit issued in the type case pending the Commandant's authorization. NAVCG 928A shall be used to notify an unsuccessful candidate of his failure to pass an examination or to qualify for a license.

2. Section 36.1–1 (d) is amended by adding the following sentences:

(d) • • • Applicants for original licenses are charged with the duty of establishing to the satisfaction of the Coast Guard that they possess all of the qualifications necessary, such as age, experience, character and citizenship, before they shall be entitled to be issued an original license. Until an applicant meets this mandatory requirement, he is not entitled to be licensed to serve as an officer on a vessel of the United States. No person who has been convicted by court-martial of desertion or treason in time of war, or has lost his nationality for any of the other reasons listed in 8 U. S. C. 801, is eligible for a license.

The fact that an applicant for an original license or raise in grade of license is on probation as a result of action under R. S. 4450, as amended, does not itself make such an applicant ineligible, provided he meets all the requirements for such original license or raise in grade. However, an original license or raise in grade of license issued under those circumstances will be subject to the same probationary conditions as were imposed against the seaman's certificates or licenses in proceedings under R. S. 4450, as amended. Any such applicant must file an application for license in the usual manner, and the offense for which he was placed on probation will be considered on the merits of the case in determining his fitness to hold the license applied for. Nothing in these instructions, however, shall be construed to permit an applicant to be examined for an original license or a raise in grade of license during any period when a suspension without probation or a revocation imposed pursuant to R. S. 4450, as amended, is effective against his license or certificate.

3. Section 36.1–2 (d) is amended by designating the material in the present paragraph as subparagraph (1) and by adding a new subparagraph (2) reading as follows:

(d) (1) • • •

(2) Conversion of gross tonnage to horsepower on engineer license applies only to original and raise of grade of licenses; therefore, candidates for such licenses who have qualified by experience on steam or motor vessels, which normally would have entitled them to licenses for vessels of any gross tons, may be issued the appropriate grade of engineer licenses of any horsepower. Engineer licenses presented for renewal on which gross tonnage is indicated shall continue to be issued on the gross tonnage basis; therefore, the conversion of gross tonnage to horsepower as outlined above shall not apply.

4. Section 36.1–3 (b) is amended by designating material within present paragraph as subparagraph (1) and by adding five new subparagraphs reading as follows:

(b) (1) • • •

(2) Epilepsy, insanity, senility, acute venereal disease or neurosyphilis, badly impaired hearing, or other defect that would render the applicant incompetent to perform the ordinary duties of an officer at sea are causes for certification as incompetent.

(3) For an original license as master, mate or pilot, the applicant must have, either with or without glasses, at least 20/20 vision in one eye and at least 20/40 in the other. The applicant who wears glasses, however, must also be able to pass a test without glasses of at least 20/40 in one eye and at least 20/70 in the other. The color sense will be tested by means of the "Stillings" test, but any applicants who fail this test will be eligible if they can pass the "Williams" lantern test.

(4) For each original license as an engineer officer, the applicant must have, either with or without glasses, at least 20/30 vision in one eye and at least 20/50 in the other. The applicant who wears glasses, however, must also be able to pass a test without glasses of at least 20/50 in one eye and at least 20/70 in the other. Any applicant for license as engineer shall not be subjected to examination as to ability to distinguish colors. Any applicant for original license who is possessed of monocular vision, and who has lost the sight of one eye since first obtaining his qualified member of the engine department certificate may be permitted to sit for a license if eligible in all other respects. Vision of at least 20/30 without glasses in the remaining eye shall be required in all such cases.

(5) Persons serving or intending to serve in the Merchant Service are recommended to take the earliest opportunity of ascertaining, through examination by an ophthalmic surgeon, whether their form vision, and color vision where required, is such as to qualify them for service in that profession throughout their sea career; the Public Health Service will give voluntary examinations to such persons requesting same, the color vision test will be by means of the "Stillings" test, or failing that, the "Williams" lantern test. A person failing the "Stillings" test and wishing to qualify by the lantern test shall, if the Public Health Station at which he is undergoing test is not equipped with a lantern, pay his own expenses to journey to one of the following stations: Baltimore, Md., Boston, Mass., Buffalo, N. Y., Chicago, Ill., Cleveland, Ohio, Detroit, Mich., Ellis Island, N. Y., Evansville, Ind., Galveston, Tex., Key West, Fla., Los Angeles, Calif., Louisville, Ky., Memphis, Tenn., Miami, Fla., Mobile, Ala., New Orleans, La., New York, N. Y., Norfolk, Va., Pittsburgh, Pa., Portland, Me., Portland, Oreg., Port Huron, Mich., Providence, R. I., Philadelphia, Pa., St. Louis, Mo., San Francisco, Calif., Savannah, Ga., Seattle, Wash., Staten Island, N. Y., Vineyard Haven, Mass., and Washington, D. C.

(6) Where an applicant is not possessed of the vision, hearing, and general physical condition considered necessary, the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, after consultation with the Public Health Service physician, may make recommendations to the Commandant for an exception to these requirements if, in their opinion, extenuating circumstances warrant special consideration. Any request for a decision by the Commandant must be accompanied by all pertinent correspondence, records and reports. In this connection recommendations from agencies of the Federal Government operating Government vessels as well as owners and operators of private vessels, made in behalf of their employees, will be given full consideration as a determining factor in arriving at a decision.

§ 36.1–4 Medical examination for renewal of license and raise of grade—T/ALL. • • •

(b) (1) The test for color vision shall be by means of the "Stillings" test, or failing that, by means of the "Williams" lantern test. A person failing the "Stillings" test and wishing to qualify by the lantern test shall, if the Public Health Station at which he is undergoing test is not equipped with a lantern, pay his own expenses to journey to such station as is equipped with same. (See § 36.1–3 (b) (5) of this chapter for list of stations.)

(2) Nothing herein contained shall debar an applicant who has lost the sight of one eye from securing a raise of grade or a renewal of his license, provided he is qualified in all other respects, and the vision in his one eye passes the test required for the better eye of an applicant possessed of both eyes.

6. Section 36.1–5 (b) is amended to read as follows:

§ 36.1–5 Professional examination and service—T/ALL. • • •

(b) In qualifying applicants for licenses, the following applies regarding acceptance of experience on various types of vessels:

(1) It is not required that an applicant must have obtained his experience on United States vessels. Experience on foreign vessels will be given due credit.

(2) No applicant for a license, who is a nautralized citizen, and who has obtained his experience on foreign vessels, shall be given a grade of license higher than that upon which he has actually served while acting under the authority of a foreign license.

(3) Experience in towed barges fitted with sails and rigging cannot be considered as sail vessel time.

(4) An applicant for original license as pilot may be given credit for experience on motor vessels of a class not subject to inspection by the Coast Guard and not required to carry a licensed master or a licensed pilot. In such cases the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, may use his discretion in deciding whether the qualifying experience of the applicant is adequate.

7. Section 36.1–5 (c) is amended by designating the present material therein subparagraph (1) and by adding two new subparagraphs reading as follows:

(2) Each applicant for an ocean or coastwise deck license, whether original or raise of grade, shall be required to pass practical tests in signalling, such tests to comply with the standards set forth herein. The examination in signalling will consist of an examination in the international flag code, Morse flashing, and semaphore. Candidates will be examined in Morse flashing and semaphore in groups where practicable. A candidate for license who fails in signalling, but passes in every other subject, will be considered to have failed the examination and shall be so reported; but he may at any time within the six months following his first attempt be re-examined in signalling only, and if he then passes he will be granted a license.

(3) Candidates shall be able to read a signal at sight, so far as to name the flags composing the hoist; know the use of the code pennant, numeral and substitute pennants, the meaning of all the single letter signals and the flags used to indicate the quarantine signals; be required to signal some word or words not included in the vocabulary of the code; and have a good knowledge of the distress signals. Candidates will be required to attain a speed of six words a minute in Morse flashing and eight words a minute in semaphore. The average length of a word is to be five letters. Candidates who wish to prove their higher proficiency may request to be tested at a minimum speed of ten words a minute in Morse flashing and twelve words a minute in semaphore. Such candidates, if successful, will have the results of their examination reported on their official files.

8. Section 36.1–5 is amended by adding a new paragraph (f), reading as follows:

(f) (1) Merchant Marine details abroad are authorized to conduct examinations for up-grading of seamen, but are not prepared to conduct the physical examination or the character investigation which is required in the case of original documents. Merchant Marine details will therefore not issue regular licenses, but temporary permits in lieu thereof. Merchant Marine details will instruct the recipient of each temporary permit to present it to the Officer In Charge, Marine Inspection, upon arrival in the first port in which a Marine Inspection office is located in order to exchange it for a permanent license.

(2) The temporary permit shall be accepted in a marine inspection office as proof that the bearer has complied with the rules and regulations governing the issuance of licenses, except as noted in the body of the temporary permit. The requirements noted in the exceptions will be complied with as in the case of other applicants.

(3) The written examinations are forwarded to the Commandant by Merchant Marine Details, and any marine inspection office at which an applicant with a temporary permit appears may request and obtain the examination in the case from the Commandant. Any marine inspection office which doubts the propriety of issuing a permanent license in lieu of a temporary permit which has been issued by a foreign Merchant Marine Detail shall inform the Commandant as to the circumstances.

Part 36 is amended by adding a new § 36.1–9a reading as follows:

9. 36.1–9a Pilot of tank vessels not over 150 gross tons—T/ALL. All propelled tank vessels, regardless of length or tonnage, shall be under the command of a person duly licensed, and since propelled vessels of less than 150 gross tons may be in command of a licensed pilot, the license of a candidate who successfully passes an examination for this purpose shall be indorsed as follows: "Pilot for tank vessels not over ------ gross tons on the waters of ------" (The maximum to be inserted is not to exceed 150 gross tons, and the waters covered as may be designated by the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection).

10. Section 36.1–10 (b) is amended by adding the following sentences:

§ 36.1–10 Extension of route and raise of grade licenses—T/ALL • • •.

(b) • • • Applicants for extensions of route and raises of grade of licenses are charged with the duty of establishing to the satisfaction of the Coast Guard that they possess all of the qualifications necessary, such as age, experience, character, and citizenship before they are entitled to an extension of route or raise of license. Every licensed officer who has not to date established beyond doubt that he is a citizen of the United States should promptly take all necessary steps to secure this evidence before requesting an extension of route or raise of grade of license.

11. Section 36.1–13 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Whenever an officer shall apply for renewal of his license for same grade, after 12 months after the date of its expiration, he shall be required to pass an examination for the same grade of license, of such length and scope as will, in the judgment of the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, be sufficient to adequately demonstrate the continued professional knowledge of the examinee. In the case of applicants for renewal of licenses which have expired beyond the period of one year, no professional examination will be required provided the license expired during the time of the holder's service with the armed forces or the merchant marine, and there was no reasonable opportunity for renewal. The renewed license shall receive the next higher number for number of issue of present grade and for number of issues of all grades.

12. Section 36.1–19a is amended by adding the following sentences:

§ 36.1–19a Sea service as member of armed forces of United States as qualifying experience • • •. An applicant may be permitted to omit the examination for intermediate grades of license if his experience is of such character as to qualify him for a higher, or the highest, grade of license. The regulations governing the licensing of merchant marine personnel which are in effect on the date an applicant presents himself for examination shall be applicable in all cases.

13. Section 36.1–13 (a) is amended by adding the following sentences:

§ 36.1–13 Renewal of license—T/ALL. (a) • • •. Applicants for renewals of licenses are charged with the duty of establishing to the satisfaction of the Coast Guard that they possess all of the qualifications necessary, such as age, experience, character and citizenship, before they shall be issued a renewal or license. Every licensed officer who has not to date established beyond doubt that he is a citizen of the United States should promptly take all necessary steps to secure this evidence before requesting a renewal of his license.

CERTIFICATED MEN

1. Section 36.2–3 (b) is amended by adding the following sentences:

§ 36.2–3 Certificated tankerman—TB/ALL. • • •.

(b) • • • The medical examination is the same as for an original license as engineer, except that the applicant will be given a color vision test required for a licensed deck officer, as set forth in § 36.1–3, as amended. If the applicant is in possession of an unexpired deck license, the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, may waive the requirement for a physical examination.

§ 56.20–2a Submerged melt welding process: qualification of. (a) The submerged melt welding process shall be approved by the Commandant before the process may be used by the manufacturer to fabricate boilers, pressure vessels, etc., subject to Coast Guard inspection.

(b) The manufacturer shall prepare test plates by the use of the submerged melt welding process in the presence of an inspector who shall stamp the plates with the official stamp of the Coast Guard.

(1) The test plates shall be of marine boiler plate complying with any of the grades given in § 51.2 of this chapter. The thickness of the test plate material shall be an average of that to be used in fabrication, but not less than ¾".

(2) One test specimen of the reduced section tensile, guided side bend, free face bend, free root bend and two macro etch specimens shall be machined from the test plates.

(3) The etching reagent shall be one part ammonium persulphate to nine parts of water by weight. The solution should be used at room temperature and applied by vigorously rubbing the surface to be etched with a piece of cotton saturated with the solution. The etching process should be continued until there is a clear definition of the weld structure. After etching, the specimens shall be rinsed in hot water and dried with alcohol and given a transparent protective coating to prevent oxidation.

(4) Specimens may be tested in the manufacturer's laboratory, a recognized testing laboratory, or at the National Bureau of Standards. If the tests are made at a laboratory other than the National Bureau of Standards, they shall be witnessed by an inspector. Specimens other than the etch specimens shall be tested in accordance with and meet the requirements of § 56.20–4 of this chapter. One re-test will be permitted for each of the original test specimens. (See § 62.2 of this chapter for a list of stations.) Nothing herein contained shall debar an applicant who has lost the sight of one eye from securing a raise of grade or a renewel of his license, provided he is qualified in all other respects, and provided that his vision in his one eye passes the test required for the better eye of an applicant possessed of both eyes.

5. Section 62.4 is amended by changing the second undesignated paragraph to read as follows:

§ 62.4 Professional examination. * * * In qualifying applicants for licenses, the following applies regarding acceptance of experience on various types of vessels:

(a) It is not required that an applicant must have obtained his experience on United States vessels. Experience on foreign vessels will be given due credit.

(b) No applicant for a license, who is a naturalized citizen, and who has obtained his experience on foreign vessels, shall be given a grade of license higher than that upon which he has actually served while acting under the authority of a foreign license.

(c) Experience in towed barges fitted with sails and rigging cannot be considered as sail vessel time.

(d) An applicant for original license as pilot may be given credit for experience on motor vessels of a class not subject to inspection by the Coast Guard and not required to carry a licensed master or a licensed pilot. In such cases the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, may use his discretion in deciding whether the qualifying experience of the applicant is adequate.

Merchant Marine Details abroad are authorized to conduct examinations for up-grading of seamen, but are not prepared to conduct the physical examination or the character investigation which is required in the case of original documents. Merchant Marine Details will therefore not issue regular licenses but temporary permits in lieu thereof. Merchant Marine Details will instruct the recipient of each temporary permit to present it to the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, upon arrival in the first port in the United States in which a marine inspection office is located in order to exchange it for a permanent license.

The temporary permit shall be accepted in a marine-inspection office as proof that the bearer has complied with the rules and regulations governing the issuance of licenses, except as noted in the body of the temporary permit. The requirements noted in the exceptions will be complied with as in the case of other applicants.

The written examinations are forwarded to the Commandant by Merchant Marine Details, and any marine inspection office at which an applicant with a temporary permit appears may request and obtain the examination in the case from the Commandant. Any marine inspection office which doubts the propriety of issuing a permanent license in lieu of a temporary permit which has been issued by a foreign Merchant Marine Detail shall inform the Commandant fully as to the circumstances.

6. Section 62.4 is amended by adding the following undesignated paragraphs:

Each applicant for an ocean or coastwise deck license, whether original or raise of grade, shall be required to pass practical tests in signalling, such tests to comply with the standards set forth herein. The examination in signalling will consist of an examination in the International flag code, Morse flashing, and semaphore. Candidates will be examined in Morse flashing and semaphore in groups where practicable. A candidate for license who fails in signalling, but passes in every other subject, will be considered to have failed the examination and shall be so reported; but he may at any time within the six months following his first attempt be reexamined in signalling only, and if he then passes he will be granted a license.

Candidates shall be able to read a signal at sight, so far as to name the flags composing the hoist; know the use of the code pennant, numeral and substitute pennants, the meaning of all the single letter signals and the flags used to indicate the quarantine signals; be required to signal some word or words not included in the vocabulary of the code; have a good knowledge of the distress signals, and candidates will be required to attain a speed of six words a minute in Morse flashing and eight words a minute in semaphore. The average length of a word is to be five letters. Candidates who wish to prove their higher proficiency may request to be tested at a minimum speed of ten words a minute in Morse flashing and twelve words a minute in semaphore. Such candidates, if successful, will have the results of their examination reported on their official files.

7. Section 62.9 is amended by changing the second undesignated paragraph to read as follows:

§ 62.9 Renewal of licenses. * * * Whenever an officer shall apply for renewal of his license for same grade, after 12 months after the date of its expiration, he shall be required to pass an examination for the same grade of license, of such length and scope as will, in the judgment of the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, be sufficient to adequately demonstrate the continued professional knowledge of the examinee. Except in the case of applicants for renewal of licenses which have expired beyond the period of one (1) year, no professional examination will be required provided the license expired during the time of the holder's service with the armed forces or the merchant marine, and there was no reasonable opportunity for renewal. The renewed license shall receive the next higher number of issue of present grade and for number of issues of all grades.

Applicants for renewals of licenses are charged with the duty of establishing to the satisfaction of the Coast Guard that they possess all of the qualifications necessary, such as age, experience, character and citizenship, before they shall be issued a renewal of license. Every licensed officer who has not to date established beyond doubt that he is a citizen of the United States should promptly take all necessary steps to secure this evidence before requesting a renewal of his license.

8. Section 62.10 is amended by adding a new sentence at the end of the first undesignated paragraph, reading as follows:

§ 62.10 Licenses; raises of grade. * * * The words "after passing examination" are not limited to examination for the grades (principal grades and classes) but apply to any case where the license is of a higher character within a grade, as from chief engineer of non-condensing steamers to chief engineer of condensing steamers, or where the route of a pilot's license is extended.

9. Section 62.10 is amended by adding the following new paragraphs immediately after the second undesignated paragraph:

Applicants for renewals of licenses or raises in grade of licenses are charged with the duty of establishing to the satisfaction of the Coast Guard that they possess all of the qualifications necessary, such as age, experience, character and citizenship, before they shall be entitled to be issued renewal of license or raise in grade of license.

All licensed officers who have not to date established beyond doubt that they are citizens of the United States should promptly take all necessary steps to secure this evidence before their licenses come up for renewal, or before they seek a raise in grade of license, in order to obviate any delay in the renewal of their licenses.

10. Section 62.15a is amended by adding the following sentences:

§ 62.15a Sea service as member of armed forces of United States as qualifying experience. * * *. An applicant may be permitted to omit the examination for intermediate grades of license if his experience is of such character as to qualify him for a higher, or the highest, grade of license. The regulations governing the licensing of merchant marine personnel which are in effect on the date an applicant presents himself for examination shall be applicable in all cases.

11. Part 62 is amended by the addition of a new § 62.27a, reading as follows:

§ 62.27a Routing instructions; strict compliance with. Due to existing mine field dangers, all licensed masters, officers and certificated seamen on United States vessels shall comply strictly with the routine instructions issued by competent naval authority. Failure to comply with such routing instructions shall be deemed misconduct within the meaning of R. S. 4450, as amended (46 USC 239). Nothing herein shall be construed as relieving the master of the responsibility for the safety of his vessel.

12. Section 62.49 is amended by adding the following paragraph:

§ 62.49 Qualifications required for license as engineer of steam vessels, and license forms required. * * *. Conversion of gross tonnage to horsepower on engineer license applies only to original and raise of grade of licenses; therefore, candidates for such licenses who have qualified by experience on steam or motor vessels, which normally would have entitled them to licenses for vessels of any gross tons, may be issued the appropriate grade of engineer license of any horsepower. Engineer licenses presented for renewal on which gross tonnage is indicated shall continue to be issued on the gross tonnage basis; therefore, the conversion of gross tonnage to horsepower as outlined above shall not apply.

13. Section 62.103 (a) is amended by adding the following sentences:

§ 62.103 (a) Licenses issued. * * *. Conversion of gross tonnage to horsepower on engineer license applies only to original and raise of grade of licenses; therefore, candidates for such licenses who have qualified by experience on steam or motor vessels, which normally would have entitled them to licenses for vessels of any gross tons, may be issued the appropriate grade of engineer licenses of any horsepower. Engineer licenses presented for renewal on which gross tonnage is indicated shall continue to be issued on the gross tonnage basis; therefore, the conversion of gross tonnage to horsepower as outlined above shall not apply.

LICENSED MASTERS, MATES, AND ENGINEERS

Section 62.110 (a) is amended by designating material within present paragraph as subparagraph (1) and by adding the following three new subparagraphs:

§ 62.110 Original licenses. (a) (1) * * *. (2) Applicants for original licenses are charged with the duty of establishing to the satisfaction of the Coast Guard that they possess all of the qualifications necessary, such as age, experience, character and citizenship, before they shall be entitled to be issued an original license. Until an applicant meets this mandatory requirement, he is not entitled to be licensed to serve as an officer on a vessel of the United States. No person who has been convicted by court-martial of desertion or treason in time of war, or has lost his nationality for any of the other reasons listed in 8 U. S. C. 801, is eligible for a license.

(3) The fact that an applicant for an original license or raise in grade of license is on probation as a result of action under R. S. 4450, as amended, does not itself make such an applicant ineligible, provided he meets all the requirements for such original license or raise in grade. However, an original license or raise in grade of license issued under these circumstances will be subject to the same probationary conditions as were imposed against the seaman's certificates or licenses in proceedings under R. S. 4450, as amended. Any such applicant must file an application for license in the usual manner, and the offense for which he was placed on probation will be considered on the merits of the case in determining his fitness to hold the license applied for. Nothing in the regulations in this part, however, shall be construed to permit an applicant to be examined for an original license or a raise in grade of license during any period when a suspension without probation or a revocation imposed pursuant to R. S. 4450, as amended, is effective against his license or certificate.

(4) Fingerprint records on Form NCG 2515 shall be submitted to the Commandant on each application at the same time application is made and shall be stamped "applicant for original license" or applicant for original certificate of registry as staff officer as appropriate. The application of any person may be rejected by the District Commander or his authorized representative when derogatory information has been brought to his attention which indicates that the applicant's habits of life and character are such as to warrant the belief that he cannot be entrusted with the duties and responsibilities of the station for which he made application. If after such investigation the District Commander desires the Commandant's authorization, he shall submit the completed application (NAVCG-806) and the investigation report to Headquarters. In the event that an applicant is rejected he shall be advised that he may submit a request to the Commandant for a review of his case. No examination shall be given or temporary permit issued in the type case pending the Commandant's authorization. NAVCG 928A shall be used to notify an unsuccessful candidate of his failure to pass an examination or to qualify for a license.

2. Section 62.110 is amended by adding a new paragraph (c) reading as follows:

(c) Applicants for renewal of licenses are charged with the duty of establishing to the satisfaction of the Coast Guard that they possess all of the qualifications necessary, such as age, experience, character and citizenship, before they shall be issued a renewal of license. Every licensed officer who has not to date established beyond doubt that he is a citizen of the United States should promptly take all necessary steps to secure this evidence before requesting a renewal of his license.

3. Section 62.111 (a) is amended by adding the following sentence and subparagraphs:

§ 62.111 Professional examination and service required, etc., for original license or raise of grade. (a) * * *. In qualifying applicants for licenses, the following applies regarding acceptance of experience on various types of vessels:

(1) It is not required that an applicant must have obtained his experience on United States vessels. Experience on foreign vessels will be given due credit.

(2) Experience in towed barges fitted with sails and rigging cannot be considered as sail vessel time.

4. Section 62.111 (c) is amended by designating the present material therein subparagraph (1) and by adding two new subparagraphs reading as follows:

(c) (1) * * *. (2) Each applicant for an ocean or coastwise deck license, whether original or raise of grade, shall be required to pass practical tests in signalling, such tests to comply with the standards set forth herein. The examination in signalling will consist of an examination in the International flag code, Morse flashing, and semaphore. Candidates will be examined in Morse flashing and semaphore in groups where practicable. A candidate for license who fails in signalling, but passes in every other subject, will be considered to have failed in the examination and shall be so reported; but he may at any time with the six months following his first attempt be re-examined in signalling only, and if he then passes he will be granted a license.

(3) Candidates shall be able to read a signal at sight, so far as to name the flags composing the hoist; know the use of the code pennant, numeral and substitute pennants, the meaning of all the single letter signals and the flags used to indicate the quarantine signals; be required to signal some word or words not included in the vocabulary of the code; have a good knowledge of the distress signals, and candidates will be required to attain a speed of six words a minute in Morse flashing and eight words a minute in semaphore. The average length of a word is to be five letters. Candidates who wish to prove their higher proficiency may request to be tested at a minimum speed of ten words a minute in Morse flashing and twelve words a minute in semaphore. Such candidates, if successful, will have the results of their examination reported on their official files.

4. Section 62.111a is amended by adding the following sentences:

§ 62.111a Sea service as member of armed forces of United States as qualifying experience. * * *. An applicant may be permitted to omit the examination for intermediate grades of license if his experience is of such character as to qualify him for a higher, or the highest, grade of license. The regulations governing the licensing of merchant marine personnel which are in effect on the date an applicant presents himself for examination shall be applicable in all cases.

5. Section 62.112 Medical examination for licenses is amended by deleting the second word "existing" in the first sentence.

6. Section 62.116 (a) is amended by designating material within present paragraph as subparagraph (1) and by adding a new paragraph reading as follows:

(a) (1) * * *

(2) The test for color vision shall be by means of the "Stillings" test, or failing that, by means of the "Williams" lantern test. A person failing the "Stillings" test and wishing to qualify by the lantern test shall, if the Public Health Station at which he is undergoing test is not equipped with a lantern, pay his own expenses to journey to such station as is equipped with same. (See § 62.2 for a list of stations.)

7. Section 62.116 (e) is amended to read as follows:

(e) Whenever an officer shall apply for renewal of his license for same grade, after 12 months after the date of its expiration, he shall be required to pass an examination for the same grade of license, of such length and scope as will, in the judgment of the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, be sufficient to adequately demonstrate the continued professional knowledge of the examinee. Except in the case of applicants for renewal of licenses which have expired beyond the period of one (1) year, no professional examination will be required provided the license expired during the time of the holder's service with the armed forces or the merchant marine, and there was no reasonable opportunity for renewal. The renewed license shall receive the next higher number for number of issue of present grade and for number of issues of all grades.

REGISTRATION OF STAFF OFFICERS

1. Section 62.204 (a) is amended by adding the following sentence:

§ 62.204 General. (a) * * *. The regulations relating to the issuance of original licenses shall apply equally to original certificates of registry as staff officers.

2. Section 62.204 (b) is amended by designating material within present paragraph as subparagraph (1) and by adding three new subparagraphs reading as follows:

§ 62.204 General. (b) (1) * * *.

(2) Applicants for certificates of registry are charged with the duty of establishing to the satisfaction of the Coast Guard that they possess all of the qualifications necessary, such as age, experience, character and citizenship, before they shall be entitled to be issued an original license. Until an applicant meets this mandatory requirement, he is not entitled to be licensed to serve as an officer on a vessel of the United States. No person who has been convicted by court-martial of desertion or treason in time of war, or has lost his nationality for any of the other reasons listed in 8 U. S. C. 801, is eligible for a license.

(3) The fact that an applicant is on probation as a result of action under R. S. 4450, as amended, does not itself make such an applicant ineligible, provided he meets all the requirements. A certificate of registry issued under these circumstances will be subject to the same probationary conditions as were imposed against the seaman's certificates or licenses in proceedings under R. S. 4450, as amended. Any such applicant must file an application for certificate in the usual manner, and the offense for which he was placed on probation will be considered on the merits of the case in determining his fitness to hold the certificate applied for. Nothing in the regulations in this part, however, shall be construed to permit an applicant to be examined during any period when a suspension without probation or a revocation imposed pursuant to R. S. 4450, as amended, is effective against his certificate.

(4) Fingerprint records on Form NGG 2515 shall be submitted to the Commandant on each applicant at the same time application is made and shall be stamped "applicant for original certificate of registry as staff officer". The application of any person may be rejected by the District Commander or his authorized representative when derogatory information has been brought to his attention which indicates that the applicant's habits of life and character are such as to warrant the belief that he cannot be entrusted with the duties and responsibilities of the station for which he made application. If after such investigation the District Commander desires the Commandant's authorization, he shall submit the completed application (NAVCG-866) and the investigation report to Headquarters. In the event that an applicant is rejected he shall be advised that he may submit a request to the Commandant for a review of his case. No examination shall be given or temporary permit issued in the type case pending the Commandant's authorization. NAVCG 928A shall be used to notify an unsuccessful candidate of his failure to pass an examination or to qualify for a license.

3. Section 62.204 (d) is amended by changing the colon to a comma and adding the following sentences at the end of the first undesignated paragraph:

(d) * * *, except, that applicants must produce documentary evidence from the War Shipping Administration or other prospective employer to the effect that the applicant is about to be employed in the capacity of junior assistant purser. No certificate of registry of this grade will be issued unless this condition is met.

4. Section 62.204 (h) is amended by designating the present material therein as subparagraph (1) and by adding three new subparagraphs reading as follows:

(h) (1) * * *.

(2) Merchant Marine details abroad are authorized to conduct examinations for up-grading of seamen, but are not prepared to conduct the physical examination or the character investigation which is required in the case of original documents. Merchant Marine Details will therefore not issue regular certificates, but temporary permits in lieu thereof. Merchant Marine Details will instruct the recipient of each temporary permit to present it to the Officer In Charge, Marine Inspection, upon arrival in the first port in which a Marine Inspection office is located in order to exchange it for a permanent certificate.

(3) The temporary permit shall be accepted in a Marine Inspection office as proof that the bearer has complied with the rules and regulations governing the issuance of certificates, except as noted in the body of the temporary permit. The requirements noted in the exceptions will be complied with as in the case of other applicants.

(4) The written examinations are forwarded to the Commandant by Merchant Marine details, and any Marine Inspection office at which an applicant with a temporary permit appears may request and obtain the examination in the case from the Commandant. Any Marine Inspection office which doubts the propriety of issuing a permanent certificate in lieu of a temporary permit which has been issued by a foreign Merchant Marine detail shall inform the Commandant as to the circumstances.

5. Section 62.205 is amended by adding the following sentences:

§ 62.205 Sea service as member of armed forces of United States as qualifying experience. * * *. An applicant may be permitted to omit the examination for intermediate grades of certificates of registry if his experience is of such character as to qualify him for a higher, or the highest, grade of certificate of registry. The regulations governing certificates of registry of merchant marine personnel which are in effect on the date an applicant presents himself for examination shall be applicable in all cases.

(b) The above instructions regarding the acceptability of service as a junior officer in qualifying an applicant for raise in grade of license applies to engineer officers as to deck officers.

(c) Service as members of the crew or as engineers of steam or motor vessels engaged on trial runs may be given full consideration toward qualifying for examination for an original or raise of grade of licenses for steam and motor engineers. The applicant is required to present documentary evidence substantiating his service, and it is recommended that an applicant desiring to include trial run service be furnished with a statement of such service by an official of the shipyard concerned. The statement should include the names of the vessels upon which employed, the horsepower of the vessels, the duty the

PART 138—RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR ISSUANCE OF CERTIFICATES AND CONTINUOUS DISCHARGE BOOKS

AMENDMENTS TO REGULATIONS

By virtue of the authority vested in me by R. S. 4405, 4417a, 4488, as amended, 49 Stat. 1930, 1936, 50 Stat. 49, 199, 54 Stat. 1200, 55 Stat. 244, 245 (46 U. S. C. 375, 391a, 481, 643, 672, 689; 50 U. S. C. 1275), and section 101 of Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1946 (11 F. R. 7875), the following amendments to the regulations are prescribed, effective upon the date of publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

1. Section 138.1 (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 138.1 General provisions. (a) (1) An applicant for a certificate of service, certificate of efficiency, certificate of identification, or continuous discharge book, shall make written application, in duplicate, on Form 719-b, furnished by the Coast Guard. The placing of fingerprints on the application shall be optional with the seaman. This application may be for as many certificates or ratings as the seaman believes he is qualified. In the case of a seaman applying for his first certificate, other than certificate of identification, the application shall include a request for either a continuous discharge book or a certificate of identification, at the option of the applicant.

(2) Every certificate of service, certificate of efficiency, or certificate of identification issued or reissued after November 1, 1945, shall be in the form of a merchant mariner's document, Form 2838. Any licensed officer or unlicensed seaman currently holding, in a valid status, any of the documents listed in paragraph (a)(1) of this section may, upon request and without examination, be issued a merchant mariner's document.

(3) A merchant mariner's document shall be a certificate of service authorizing the holder to serve in any rating endorsed thereon or in any lower rating in the same department or in any rating covered by a general endorsement thereon. If the holder of a merchant mariner's document is qualified to serve in more than one department, the capacities for which he is qualified in each department will be endorsed separately.

(4) A merchant mariner's document issued to a licensed officer will be indorsed for "any unlicensed rating in the (insert 'deck' or 'engine') department" and will be a certificate of service authorizing the holder to serve in any unlicensed capacity in such department without being required to present his license. If a licensed officer qualifies as lifeboat man, the further indorsement "Lifeboat man" will be placed on the merchant mariner's document.

(5) A merchant mariner's document issued to a staff officer will be indorsed as follows: "See Certificate of Registry." A certificate of registry as chief purser, purser, or senior assistant purser will authorize the holder to serve in any purser's rating lower than that specified thereon. The holder of a certificate of registry as chief purser, purser, senior assistant purser, or junior assistant purser may serve as a purser's clerk without obtaining an indorsement on his merchant mariner's document.

(6) A merchant mariner's document endorsed as Able Seaman or as Lifeboatman shall be a certificate of efficiency as Lifeboatman.

(7) Every merchant mariner's document shall be a certificate of identification unless the holder also holds a continuous discharge book. The holder of a certificate of identification in the form issued before November 1, 1945, shall surrender that certificate before he is issued a merchant mariner's document.

2. Section 138.1 (c) is amended by designating material within present paragraph as subparagraph (1) and by adding three new subparagraphs as follows:

(2) No documents shall be issued to an enemy alien. The term "enemy alien" shall include the following:

(i) All aliens of the age of 14 years or older who were or are citizens or subjects of Germany or Japan.

(ii) All aliens of the age of 14 years or older who at present are stateless but who at the time at which they became stateless were citizens or subjects of Germany or Japan.

(3) The term "enemy alien" shall not include the following:

(i) Former German or Japanese citizens or subjects who, before December 7, 1941, in the case of former Japanese citizens or subjects, and before December 8, 1941, in the case of former German citizens or subjects, became and are citizens or subjects of any nation other than Germany or Japan.

(ii) Austrians or Austrian-Hungarians (Austro-Hungarians) or Koreans who registered as such under the Alien Registration Act of 1940, Provided, That such persons have not at any time voluntarily become German or Japanese citizens or subjects.

(iii) All citizens or subjects of Italy, and all aliens who at present are stateless but who at the time at which they became stateless were citizens or subjects of Italy.

(iv) Aliens of enemy nationalities during their term of military service in the armed forces of the United States.

(4) Should any difficulties arise as to whether or not any person is an enemy alien, such case will be referred to the Commandant together with the date and place of birth and statements regarding the citizenship of the person whose status is in doubt.

3. Section 138.3 (d) (1) is amended by adding the following sentences:

§ 138.3 Able seamen. • • •

(d) General—(1) Physical conditions. • • • The medical examination is the same as for an original license as a deck officer for vessels navigating the same waters as set forth in §§ 62.2, 78.2 and 96.2 of this chapter, as amended. If the applicant is in possession of an unexpired deck license, the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, may waive the requirement for a physical examination.

(5) Certificate. • • • The holder of a merchant mariner's document indorsed for the rating of able seaman may serve in any of the following unlicensed ratings in the deck department without obtaining an additional indorsement: boatswain, quartermaster, lookout, ordinary seaman, deckhand, cadet, deck boy, carpenter, storekeeper, master-at-arms, fire patrolman, watchman, and winch driver. A merchant mariner's document indorsed as able seaman will also be considered a certificate of efficiency as lifeboatman without further indorsement. This type of document will describe clearly the type of able seaman certificate which it represents, e. g.: able seaman—any waters; able seaman—any waters, 12 months; able seaman—Great Lakes, 18 months; able seaman—on freight vessels 500 gross tons or less on bays or sounds, and on tugs, towboats, and barges on any waters. The holder of a document indorsed for the rating of able seaman may serve in any unqualified rating in the deck department without obtaining an additional indorsement.

5. Section 138.3a is amended by adding the following sentences:

§ 138.3a Wartime Regulations; able seamen. • • • A seaman who can produce documentary evidence of enough further service since obtaining a certificate or document as able seaman under wartime regulations to comply with the peacetime sea service requirements may be issued a merchant mariner's document on which the restrictive marking is omitted: Provided, That he shall surrender for cancellation the original certificate or document bearing the marking.

6. Section 138.5 (b) is amended by adding the following sentences:

§ 138.5 Qualified member of engine department. • • •

(b) • • • The medical examination for qualified member of the engine department is the same as for an original license as engineer, as set forth in §§ 62.2, 78.2 or 96.2 of this chapter, as amended, except that the exemption regarding monocular vision granted to engineers does not apply. If the applicant is in possession of an unexpired license, the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, may waive the requirement for a physical examination.

7. Section 138.5 (c) is amended by numbering the present material in paragraph (c) as subparagraph (1) and by adding two new subparagraphs reading as follows:

(2) The holder of a merchant mariner's document indorsed with one or more qualified member of the engine department ratings may serve in any unqualified rating in the engine department without obtaining an additional indorsement. This does not mean than an indorsement of one qualified member of the engine department rating authorizes the holder to serve in all qualified member of the engine department ratings. Each qualified member of the engine department rating for which a holder of a merchant mariner's document is qualified must be indorsed separately. When, however, the applicant qualifies for all ratings covered by a certificate as a qualified member of the engine department, the certification may read "QMED—any rating." The ratings are as follows:

Oiler.
Watertender.
Fireman.
Junior engineer.
Electrician.
Boilermaker.
Machinist.
Pumpman.

(3) Documents as "assistant electrician" in the engine department may be issued to applicants without examination and without requiring evidence of previous sea service. The rating of "assistant electrician" is a rating not above that of coal passer or wiper, but equal thereto.

8. Section 138.5a is amended by adding the following sentences:

§ 138.5a Wartime regulations; qualified members of the engine department. • • • A seaman who can produce documentary evidence of enough further service since obtaining a certificate or document as Qualified Member of Engine Department to comply with the peacetime sea service requirements may be issued a merchant mariner's document on which the restrictive marking is omitted: Provided, That he shall surrender for cancellation the original certificate or document bearing the marking.

9. Section 138.6 (c) is amended by numbering the present material in paragraph (c) as subparagraph (1) and by adding a new subparagraph (2) reading as follows:

(c) (1) • • •

(2) A merchant mariner's document indorsed for steward, cook or baker will authorize the holder to serve in any unskilled capacity in the steward's department. When the holder of a merchant mariner's document has qualified as a food handler, the indorsement of his rating will be followed by the further indorsement "(F. H.)."

10. Section 138.6 (e) is amended by numbering the present material in paragraph (e) as subparagraph (1) and by adding two new subparagraphs reading as follows:

(2) Students in technical schools who are enrolled in courses in marine management and ship operations who present a letter or other documentary evidence that they are so enrolled shall be issued a merchant mariner's document as "student observers—any department" and may be signed on ships as such. Students holding these documents or certificates will not take the place of any of the crew, or fill any of the regular ratings.

(3) No ratings other than cadet-midshipman and life-boatman shall be shown on a merchant mariner's document issued to a member of the U. S. Merchant Marine Cadet Corps. The merchant mariner's document shall also be stamped "Valid only while cadet-midshipman in the WSA training program." A merchant mariner's document thus prepared shall be surrendered upon the holder being certificated in any other rating or being issued a license and the rating of cadet-midshipman shall be omitted from any new merchant mariner's document issued.

§ 138.8 Rules for preparation and issuance of certificates of service and efficiency. • • •

(i) (1) Merchant Marine Details abroad are authorized to conduct examinations for up-grading of seamen, but are not prepared to conduct the physical examination or the character investigation which is required in the case of original documents. Merchant Marine Details will therefore not issue regular certificates, but temporary permits in lieu thereof. Merchant Marine Details will instruct the recipient of each temporary permit to present it to the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, upon arrival in the first port in the United States in which a Marine Inspection Office is located in order to exchange it for a permanent certificate.

(2) The temporary permit shall be accepted in a Marine Inspection Office as proof that the bearer has complied with the rules and regulations governing the issuance of certificates, except as noted in the body of the temporary permit. The requirements noted in the exceptions will be complied with as in the case of other applicants.

(3) The written examinations are forwarded to the Commandant by Merchant Marine Details, and any Marine Inspection Office at which an applicant with a temporary permit appears may request and obtain the examination in the case from the Commandant. Any Marine Inspection Office which doubts the propriety of issuing a permanent certificate in lieu of a temporary permit which has been issued by a foreign Merchant Marine Detail shall inform the Commandant fully as to the circumstances.

CIVILIAN PRODUCTION ADMINISTRATION.

WEISBERG-BAER CO.

CONSENT ORDER

The Weisberg-Baer Company, a New York corporation, with offices at 4-05 26th Avenue, Long Island City 2, New York, is a manufacturer of wood products. The Weisberg-Baer Company is charged by the Civilian Production Administration with violating paragraph (e) (2) of Direction 1 to Priorities Regulation 33, in that during the months of March, April, and May, 1946, it placed certified orders as millwork manufacturer for delivery of housing construction lumber and received on such certified orders during such months a quantity of such lumber, and did not use during such months a quantity of lumber equal to the same for the manufacture of millwork; and with violating paragraphs (c) (1) and (2) and (d) (1) and Table 1 of Priorities Regulation 32 in that during the months of March, April, and May, 1946, it placed orders for delivery of housing construction lumber on earlier dates and in larger amounts than it would have been permitted to receive under that regulation, and during such months it accepted delivery of housing construction lumber although its inventory of that material was and would be more than a practicable minimum working inventory reasonably necessary to meet its own deliveries and to supply its services and also more than it needed during the immediate period of 60 days, on the basis of its current and scheduled method and rate of operation.

The Weisberg-Baer Company admits the violations as charged of Direction 1 to Priorities Regulation 33 but not of Priorities Regulation 32, does not desire to contest the charges, and has consented to the issuance of this order.

Wherefore, upon the agreement and consent of The Weisberg-Baer Company, the Regional Compliance Manager, and the Regional Attorney, and upon the approval of the Compliance Commissioner, It is hereby ordered, That:

(a) The Weisberg-Baer Company, its successors and assigns, shall use during the next seventy-five (75) days for the manufacture of millwork the quantity of housing construction lumber received during the months of February, March, April, May, and June, 1946, on certified orders as millwork manufacturer, minus the quantity of such lumber used for the manufacture of millwork during the period from February 1, 1946 until August 19, 1946. This requirement shall be in addition to the requirements of Direction 1 to Priorities Regulation 33 as currently in force.

(b) The Weisberg-Baer Company, its successors and assigns, shall reserve the millwork so manufactured in accordance with subdivision (a) hereof, for delivery only on certified or rated orders.

(c) The Weisberg-Baer Company, its successors and assigns, shall not place any certified orders as millwork manufacturer for housing construction lumber or accept delivery of the same until such time as its inventory of such lumber will be no more than it shall need during the immediate period of 30 days on the basis of its current and scheduled method and rate of operation; and thereafter it will comply with the provisions of Priorities Regulation 32.

(d) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve The Weisberg-Baer Company, its successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any order or regulation of the Civilian Production Administration except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

Issued this 9th day of September 1946.
